HISTORY

Cemetery originally located along the Red River at the north end of Broadway Street, Fargo, N.D. In 1985, all graves were removed to the Springvale Cemetery, located north and west of Fargo.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Photocopy of handwritten and typed originals. The first list is a chronological record of burials in the county cemetery, beginning in 1903 and ending in 1934; a map of the cemetery is included. This list gives name, age, and occasionally, cause of death. Many of these burials were from the Cass County Poor Farm located in the same area. The other list begins with burials in 1947 and goes through 1984. It gives name, date of burial, age, and funeral home in charge of arrangements.
