Never Torn

Veronica Shukin

We wrote our feelings on the water
They didn't stay
We didn't notice

They took our picture in the dark
It didn't look good
But, that's ok

He brought her love out through the doorway
She didn't follow
He didn't care

She lied again then told the truth
The words were lost
But still unbroken

We found the photos from the park
Never gone
Simply hiding

They buried anger in the garden
But nothing grew
As we expected

He left with the love she'd given him
In a pocket with a hole
Scattered by the wind

She spoke with wisdom much too late
The words were silent
But heard by Him

Now we know to keep our love
Safe within us
Never torn
