On gentle paths
    the seed moved
currents of
    fine, summer breezes
    caught its downy umbrella
and lifted high
the hope
    of one small flower.

Quiet and calm as the
time before rain,
Your thoughts wandering
    my thoughts the same
Your eyes reflecting
    my eyes
            reflecting
soul to soul
            closeness
We lie
    in day's soft
moments      when night
            almost comes when
            sky becomes
            as gaudy as nature can be
Then soft I venture
    and soft your
reply

    your eyes reflecting
        my eye's
        reflection.
