Editor's Note and Acknowledgements

I am very pleased to present the Proceedings of the 2006 Joint Conference of the Australian Psychological Society (APS) and the New Zealand Psychological Society (NZPsS), 26 – 30 September 2006.

Thank you to all contributors for submitting excellent papers, bridging the Tasman, and across the broad discipline of psychology.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the reviewers from the APS Division of Research and Teaching (DRAT), and from the membership of the NZPsS. All papers were subject to an independent blind, peer review process.

The Proceedings will be published in 2006 and be available at the Joint Conference of the APS and NZPsS in Auckland.

Special thanks to Jo Howard and Zena Roslan, who assisted in all aspects of this process, including providing advice for the authors on formatting and editing of their papers, and keeping us all to the tight deadlines necessary in an endeavour such as this.
