It covers some topics; (1) the linguistic framework giving a brief overview of systemic grammar, including the linguistic system, context of situation and language functions, (2) class, considering formal units and their classes and (3) structure, covering the role of units as elements of structure. The materials are delivered through lecturing, discussion, and group work. Students' achievement is assessed on the basis of the participation in class activities, individual assignments, and the mid-and end-semester tests.

II. STANDARISASI KOMPETENSI MATA KULIAH

I will post all of the required readings for this course at this website, including: (i) handouts and assignments distributed in each class (by the end of the day of the class in which they were distributed), along with brief summaries of what we did in class that day (ii) supplementary readings and links to other recommended readings (iii) important announcements and schedule changes (iv) an updated syllabus.

Therefore, it is essential that you visit it early and continue to do so on a regular basis throughout the semester.

3. Workload and grade calculation:

10% Participation. Half of the participation grade is equivalent to attendance. At the beginning of every lecture and presentation, all students will sign their initials on the attendance sheet. The attendance sheet will be removed after the first 20 minutes of class. You may miss 3 lectures.

30% Homework. There will be a small homework assignment due almost every week. All homework must be word-processed; handwritten assignments will not be accepted or graded.

30% Midterm. Tests are in-class, short answer/true or false/multiple choice. There will be a detailed review session before the test so you'll know exactly what is coming. The dates for both the midterm and the final are fixed at the beginning of the semester. Please schedule your other obligations around these dates, because THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP TESTS. Make up exams will not be given except in the case of extraordinary circumstances.

30% Final. See "Midterm."

4. Attendance policy. I know that you are serious students but that you are also adults who budget time between coursework, jobs, personal/family commitments, and unforeseen circumstances. Because of this, you are not required to attend every class, and the workload and the attendance policy are designed accordingly. However, as in any course, you will do best if you come to class every time and on time.

5. Homework assignments description

- a. There will be seven assignments. However, five assignments will contribute to your grade. Therefore, you are expected to do all the assignments. The two lowest score will be dropped. Through these assignments you will gain the understanding of lexicogrammar. You are required to do the syntactic analysis of certain data.
- b. Homework is to be turned in on the due date at the beginning of lecture (=no later than the first 20 minutes of class). YOU MUST TURN IN YOUR HOMEWORK. Early submissions are welcome; LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
