

ABSTRACT

Most of us must know about Feminism, but it is just a few people who really steadily understand and comprehend about the Feminism itself. Basically, this thesis will try to open up the information which is connected to the theory of Feminism that is based on the film "In the Time of The Butterflies", we will see one example of feminism movement which happened in the era of mid-nineteenth century.

This thesis will analyze about the struggle and efforts of an idealistic young woman in achieving her freedom, rights, and also desires. In order to achieve her wishes, she must against a murderous dictator. Fortunately, the death of this young woman, at last, brings a better change in the society and the system of the country. She is known as the heroic until now.

Hopefully, this thesis can help the reader in understanding and comprehending about the real meaning of feminism. Not only about the theory but also about the desires and struggles of women in the world who want to be equaled to men and to be treated fairly in the society.
