Behaviour Management

- ❑ Behaviour management is similar to behaviour modification.
 - ❑ It is less intensive version of behaviour therapy.
 - ❑ In behaviour modification the focus is on changing behaviour,
 - ❑ while in behaviour management the focus is on maintaining order.
 - ❑ Behaviour management skills are of particular importance to teachers in the educational system.
 - ❑ Behaviour management is all of the actions and conscious inactions to enhance the probability people, individually and in groups, choose behaviours which are personally fulfilling, productive, and socially acceptable.
