90 golfers to tee off in higher education tourney

KUALA LUMPUR: Ninety golfers from Higher Learning institutions will compete for honours in the Higher Education Ministry Secretary-general Trophy, to be held at the Rahman Putra Golf Club in Sungai Buloh, from May 8-11.

Universiti Utara Malaysia's (UUM)

National Golf Academy director Prof Madya Azmi Shaari said this year's participation had exceeded the 73 who played in last year's edition.

"This year's edition also offers an increased prize purse for winners as the prize money has been raised from RM16,000 to RM20,000 (products) while a flight ticket is also offered as a hole-in-one prize," he told reporters at Wisma OCM, here, yesterday.

The tourney will see golfers competing in four categories, namely men's individual, women's individual, men's team and women's team.

Among the most notable player in the tourney will be national back up squad golfer Muhammad Wafiyuddin Abdul Manaf, a leading amateur player who clinched the 2012 Tan Sri Muhyiddin Golf Challenge title (TSM Golf Challenge), which offered RM40,000 scholarship as the top prize. – Bernama
