Abismos de pasion. (Director: Luis Buñuel) Cover title: Wuthering heights. (90 min.) : sd., b&w ; 1/2 in. Videocassette release of a 1953 motion picture. Buñuel portrays the essence of the book's romance of the middle class girl and the gypsy. His two Latin lovers Alejandro and Catalina throw themselves into their passion with a force that obliterates all convention in its drive for the object of its desire. Based on "Wuthering heights" by Emily Brontë. In Spanish with English subtitles.	HILL V-694
Acts of faith: Jewish civilization in Spain. (Director: Steve Edwards) Other title: Jewish civilization in Spain. 50 min. : sd., col. ; 1/2 in. Many Latinos in the American Southwest wear amulets and perform certain practices different from their fellow Latino Catholics--and are discovering only now, to their amazement, that they are descended from Jews who chose conversion rather than death at the time of the great expulsion from Spain in 1492. Looks at remnants of what was once the great Jewish civilization in Spain: the artifacts, which were Christianized or destroyed; and the people, many of whom continued to practice elements of the religion and folklore of Judaism and for most of whom the memory of Jewishness has been extinguished.	GREEN DS135.S7 A27 1995

Viridiana. (Director: Luis Buñuel) (90 min.) : sd., b&w ; 1/2 in. Originally produced as motion picture in Spain in 1961. Viridiana, about to take final religious vows, visits her uncle at his country estate. He drugs her and attempts rape, finds he cannot go through with it, and hangs himself, leaving the estate to Viridiana and his illegitimate son, Jorge. While Jorge pursues plans to modernize the estate, Viridiana attempts to convert it into a haven for derelicts. Left alone, the beggars take over the house for a feast which becomes an orgy; one of the beggars rapes Viridiana when she and Jorge return home. After the beggars are dispersed by police, Viridiana assumes more modern dress and joins in a card game with Jorge and his mistress. A powerful film widely considered to one of Buñuel's most	HILL F-1056 V-5386
