

THE DALLAS PAVILION

THE 55th VENICE BIENNALE 2013

SITUATED in the GIARDINI opposite the AMERICAN PAVILION

THURSDAY 30 MAY – SATURDAY 1 JUNE, 11:00-14:00

The Dallas Pavilion explores the relation between the pervasive global image of the city and the art spaces that produce culture to consider how location is embedded in the thinking and creative output of Dallas artists, curators, educators, museum directors and critics. The Dallas Pavilion includes 23 galleries, museums, project spaces and other arts organizations situated across Dallas to produce a unique interpretation of the cultural life of the city.

PARTICIPANTS:

CADD Art Lab, CentralTrak, Conduit Gallery: The Project Room, The Dallas Cowboys Stadium, The Dallas Museum of Art (Fair Park), Dick Higgins Gallery, DFW Airport, Make Art with Purpose (MAP), The Tuesday Evening Lecture Series (Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth), NorthPark Shopping Center, RE gallery + studio, The Reading Room, Small Dog Studio, Tending (Blue), Terri Thornton's studio, Free Museum of Dallas (FMOD), Transmission Annual, Dallas VideoFest, West Dallas Community Centers, Barry Whistler Gallery, 301 Toronto Street, 337 Singleton Boulevard, 500X Gallery.

(US) Michael Corris mcorris@smu.edu (UK) Jaspar Joseph-Lester: jaspar.joseph-lester@rca.ac.uk