Charles DeWitt, Director
National Institute of Justice
633 Indiana Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20531

Dear Mr. DeWitt:

I would like to thank you again for the opportunity of participating in the focus group discussion of NIJ's 1991 Program Plan in June. Both in terms of topics for funded research identified and the selection of reviews for proposals, NIJ is making strides to be more diverse and inclusive of women's concerns.

Your interest in enhancing the Koba reviewer's pool by adding women and women of color has initiated this response. Enclosed is a list of names of active members of the ASC Division of Women and Crime. They have been identified by a committee appointed by the Division Chair as experienced professionals who would be valuable additions to your list of reviewers. The notation of women of color among the nominees listed is in response to a need for cultural diversity. It is our hope that you will ask Koba to request current resumes from these women for the consultants' pool so that they can be active participants in the NIJ review process. We hope that you will encourage your staff to consider utilizing the expertise of these individuals.

Sincerely,

Lynne Goodstein
Acting Chair
