RE: 1997 Committee Listings

Enclosed please find (at long last!) the lists of committees and task forces for 1997 for the Division on Women and Crime. This listing was compiled from the sign-up sheets you signed at our November meetings in Chicago, and supplemented with telephone and e-mail information from the ASC Participant's Directory.

Please check your listing and let me know immediately if the information listed for you is incorrect or incomplete. This same information is being submitted to the Division Newsletter and I would prefer to have correct information listed for everyone. If I do NOT hear from you by April 7th, I will assume that your listing is correct.

The listing includes my own phone and e-mail information, and you are especially encouraged to use my e-mail address to contact me with any updated or corrected information. If you do not have access to e-mail, please contact me by phone at home or at the University.

Later this spring I will be in touch with you all to see how your committees are coming along on their work, if I have not already contacted you. If I can be of any assistance in helping you to accomplish your goals this year, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

The best thing about the Division on Women and Crime has always been the people---both the long-timers and the new folks we bring into the organization. We are capable of accomplishing much by working together. Thank you for volunteering to do the work of the Division. I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Drs. All,

Barring a stroke of luck, Patty McCall and I will be Program Co-Chairs for the 1998 ASC meeting. One of our first responsibilities is to form the Program Committee.

Page 20 of the ASC Policy and Procedures Manual makes it clear that each division is authorized to name a member to the Program Committee. Please do so at your earliest convenience.

In addition, would you please think about specific scholars (please don't overlook young scholars) that you would recommend as section organizers. The section organizers will be both members of the Program Committee and responsible for organizing several paper sessions under the section title.

The actual sections have not yet been determined and, as you are aware, it is difficult to list 30-40 sections to cover 1,000 papers. With that in mind, while you are thinking about scholars for section chairs, please also think about general (broad) sections that could be listed in the call for papers.

Please understand that not all section chair recommendations or section topic recommendations can be followed. We will do our best to ensure that a broad range of topics is covered and that a diverse representation of the ASC membership is included on the program.

We hope that "your earliest convenience" is within the next two weeks. Please forward your recommendations to us with names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses if available. Thanks.

Hi! It will only be a couple of weeks now before many of us will be gathering in San Diego for the ASC meetings and the annual meetings of the Division on Women and Crime.

This is just a friendly reminder to all those of you who are officers, committee chairs or who are actively involved in committees that you have a few meetings to be aware of and to put on your calender of ASC events. Note: If you are NOT going to be at ASC in San Diego but have served as a committee chair, you still need to make sure either that someone from the committee will represent you there or that you send me a written report (can be E-mail) on your committee's activities by Monday the 16th which can be read into the minutes.

For those of you who WILL be at ASC, put these meetings onto your conference calendar:

1. Wednesday, Nov. 19, 3:00 Del Mar Room - Executive Board meeting (for all officers and committee chairs, though everyone is welcome to attend). We confirm the agenda for both business meetings and make sure all important issues will be properly raised and dealt with. We try to anticipate any issues or problems. Hopefully, will only last for an hour.

2. Social Hour - Wednesday evening, 6:30 - ? This is where we will hand out some awards and network! Make sure you made your reservation through Sarah Hall so we have a good headcount and order enough food for everyone!

3. Business Meeting I - Thursday Nov 20, 8:00 am! Continental breakfast goodies will be provided. This is the meeting where all the committees make their reports, ideas are tossed around and issues presented on which we might need to vote the next day. All committee chairs should either be present to make a report on the activities of the committees or have someone ready to do it for them or provide me with a written (E-mail is fine) report in advance.

4. Business Meeting II - Friday Nov. 21, 8:00am! More continental breakfast goodies and this is where we actually vote on committee recommendations, policy ideas, resolutions, etc. etc.

All four of these events are important to the ongoing welfare of the Division so I hope to see you all there or hear from you. Also be sure to pass this along to your colleagues who are not on my E-mail listing but who would like to have this information! Let me know if there is anything I have forgotten or need to add to the agenda for the meetings. Thanks---I am looking forward to seeing you all!

Chris,

i have to say that I haven't done anything or heard from anyone. I'm about to move (to Lehman College, CUNY, Department of Sociology and Social Work) and I'll send you my new email address as soon as I have it. This one should be good for a while, and I will put a forward on it.

Dear Chris:

How are you? I have been assigned a task, but have not yet 'done' anything.

I saw Nancy Grosselfinger in Amsterdam, and we spoke about how we might initiate an 'international' liaison. I will write a piece for the international division, and see where it goes. Otherwise, I can act as an overseas ambassador for the Women and Crime Division. Let me know if there is anything that I should be doing.

On another front, I have just been appointed as the Director of the Violence Research Programme (an ESRC 5 year funded research programme funded to a tune of 3.5 million pounds; ESRC is the equivalent to the NSF). This will take me away from teaching for 5 years. I will be working through this university. So I am very pleased.

Well, see you in San Diego. I made my reservations yesterday.

Cheers, betsy

[This is being sent to all those members of the Division on Women and Crime who signed up for a committee or task force assignment and gave me an email address. Feel free to pass it along to others as you see fit.]

Hi there, folks! Well, it is late July and for me, at least, the summer is rapidly coming to an end as summer classes wind down. But it is only a month until our Fall Term begins anew, however, and so I thought I should ask how all the various committees of the Division on Women and Crime are doing. I have been in touch with some of you over the past several months, as the work dictates, but have not actually talked to others of you since we met last November! Soon it will be November again and time for some of us to have various tasks completed!

So consider this a belated sort of mid-year check-up: How are you doing on your committee assignments? Need any help from me? Dealing with any problems I need to know about? Will you have your task completed by November? Or sooner, as is needed in some cases?

Of course, if you have completely forgotten what you signed up to do, just let me know and I will refresh your memory. I completely understand how that happens...We all have a lot of balls in the air!. I just don't want something important to the life and work of the Division to go unattended because of a communication failure.

So let me know how you are doing! Give me an update--and let me know what I need to do to help you reach your specific goals. Thanks. And enjoy what is left of the summer. I hope each of you got plenty of rest and recreation in there somewhere--or that you will do so before school starts again! Hope to hear from each of you soon! --Chris
