Hi Chris,

It was much easier than I thought (all my tasks seem to have that insurmountable feel these days). I made all the changes you suggested except the last. I don't think it is necessary to describe the two meetings. All that is legally required is that we meet and call it THE ANNUAL MEETING. Even if it lasts 10 minutes. What we're doing is fine!

I'm not sure about the language for the 2/3 vote. What do you think?

B. An amendment will be approved when it receives a two-thirds approval [from those voting] by mail ballot submitted to members in good standing. The results will be reported to the Executive Board by the next Annual Meeting of the ASC.

Should I try to get this into the newsletter? How and when would you like this distributed?

(All changes are in italics, but I notice that this copied paragraph doesn't, so what you saw probably didn't contain italics. What gets distributed will, I hope.)

Susan

RE: 1997 Committee Listings

Enclosed please find (at long last!) the lists of committees and task forces for 1997 for the Division on Women and Crime. This listing was compiled from the sign-up sheets you signed at our November meetings in Chicago, and supplemented with telephone and e-mail information from the ASC Participant's Directory.

Please check your listing and let me know immediately if the information listed for you is incorrect or incomplete. This same information is being submitted to the Division Newsletter and I would prefer to have correct information listed for everyone. If I do NOT hear from you by April 7th, I will assume that your listing is correct.

The listing includes my own phone and e-mail information, and you are especially encouraged to use my e-mail address to contact me with any updated or corrected information. If you do not have access to e-mail, please contact me by phone at home or at the University.

Later this spring I will be in touch with you all to see how your committees are coming along on their work, if I have not already contacted you. If I can be of any assistance in helping you to accomplish your goals this year, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

The best thing about the Division on Women and Crime has always been the people---both the long-timers and the new folks we bring into the organization. We are capable of accomplishing much by working together. Thank you for volunteering to do the work of the Division. I look forward to hearing from you.

Hi everybody--I am writing to all of you so that you will have my correct email address--IT IS WRONG ON THE LIST THAT WE JUST ALL RECEIVED.

It is: slmiller@udel.edu

Also, there is a problem...

I did sign up to help with the Nominations Committee, but I do not know what our charge is, and what this committee is responsible for doing, the time line, etc. Brenda has tried to reach Carole with no luck so far, so have not yet done anything. I believe that Carole was chair of this committee last year, and hence has the "institutional memory."

However, I am NOT a member of the standing committee on the DWC Awards. I am listed on the sheet as the Chair of this committee. At the November board meeting, it was determined by our members that we should solicit nominations for the Divison New and Distinguished Scholar awards retroactively--since we did not award them yet for 1996. Helen Eigenberg and I volunteered to co-coordinate this effort. We have done this--you probably all received the solicitations for nominations several weeks ago, with a deadline of May 1. But, having served on the past 3 years on the larger committee (that does the Sutherland award, Fellows, etc etc), I stepped down to give other people a turn. So, I think that Helen's and my name are incorrectly placed on that committee.

So, I am sending this out to all on that committee and the Officers, so you will all be aware of these corrections.

Happy end-of-the-semester almost to all! HOPE THIS FINDS YOU WELL AND HAPPY!

Best,
Susan

p.s. I have not included Tammy Anderson on this email i have not ever been able to get through to her on the address listed.

Does
anyone know her correct address???

[This is being sent to all those members of the Division on Women and Crime who signed up for a committee or task force assignment and gave me an email address. Feel free to pass it along to others as you see fit.]:

Hi there, folks! Well, it is late July and for me, at least, the summer is rapidly coming to an end as summer classes wind down. But it is only a month until our Fall Term begins anew, however, and so I thought I should ask how all the various committees of the Division on

Women and Crime are doing. I have been in touch with some of you over the past several months, as the work dictates, but have not actually talked to others of you since we met last November! Soon it will be November
again and time for some of us to have various tasks completed!

So consider this a belated sort of mid-year check-up: How are you doing on your committee assignments? Need any help from me?
Dealing
with any problems I need to know about? Will you have your task completed by November? Or sooner, as is needed in some cases?

Of course, if you have completely forgotten what you signed up to do, just let me know and I will refresh your memory. I completely understand how that happens...We all have a lot of balls in the air!. I just don't want something important to the life and work of the Division to go
unattended
because of a communication failure.

So let me know how you are doing! Give me an update--and let me know what I need to do to help you reach your specific goals. Thanks.
And
enjoy what is left of the summer. I hope each of you got plenty of rest
and recreation in there somewhere--or that you will do so before school
starts again! Hope to hear from each of you soon! --Chris

So consider this a belated sort of mid-year check-up: How are you
doing on your committee assignments? Need any help from me?
Dealing
with any problems I need to know about? Will you have your task completed by November? Or sooner, as is needed in some cases?

Of course, if you have completely forgotten what you signed up to
do,
just let me know and I will refresh your memory. I completely understand
how that happens...We all have a lot of balls in the air!. I just don't want
something important to the life and work of the Division to go
unattended
because of a communication failure.

So let me know how you are doing! Give me an update--and let me know what I need to do to help you reach your specific goals. Thanks.
And
enjoy what is left of the summer. I hope each of you got plenty of rest
school
starts again! Hope to hear from each of you soon! --Chris

[This is being sent to all those members of the Division on Women
and
Crime who signed up for a committee or task force assignment and
gave me an email address. Feel free to pass it along to others as you see fit.]

Hi there, folks! Well, it is late July and for me, at least, the summer is rapidly coming to an end as summer classes wind down. But it is only a month until our Fall Term begins anew, however, and so I thought should ask how all the various committees of the Division on Women and Crime are doing. I have been in touch with some of you over the past several months, as the work dictates, but have not actually talked to others of you since we met last November! Soon it will be November again and time for some of us to have various tasks completed!

So consider this a belated sort of mid-year check-up: How are you doing on your committee assignments? Need any help from me? Dealing with any problems I need to know about? Will you have your task completed by November? Or sooner, as is needed in some cases?

Of course, if you have completely forgotten what you signed up to do, just let me know and I will refresh your memory. I completely understand how that happens....We all have a lot of balls in the air!. I just don't want something important to the life and work of the Division to go unattended because of a communication failure.

I hope each of you got plenty of rest and recreation in there somewhere--or that you will do so before school starts again! Hope to hear from each of you soon! --Chris Chris.

I received your message about the dwc committees. I have a new address now that I would like to pass on to you:

Jana L. Jasinski
Wichita State University Department of Sociology
Campus Box 25
Wichita, KS 67260-0025

phone: (316) 978-3280
fax: (316) 978-3234
email: jasinski@twsuvm.uc.twsu.edu

Also, although I am somewhat embarrassed, I cannot remember which committee I signed up for. I do remember some time in January trying to contact the committee chair with no luck. But if you could refresh my memory that would be great.

Thanks

Jana Jasinski
