Request from Author for Reuse of IGI Materials

IGI Global ("IGI") recognizes that some of its authors would benefit professionally from the ability to reuse a portion or all of some manuscripts that the author wrote and submitted to IGI for publication. Prior to the use of IGI copyrighted materials in any fashion contemplated by the IGI Fair Use Guidelines for Authors, the author must submit this form, completed in its entirety, and secure from IGI the written permission to use such materials. Further, as a condition of IGI providing its consent to the reuse of IGI materials, the author agrees to furnish such additional information or documentation that IGI, in its sole discretion, may reasonably request in order to evaluate the request for permission and extent of use of such materials.

IGI will consider the special request of any author who:

- Completes, signs and returns this form agreeing to the terms; and
- Agrees that any IGI copyrighted materials will be labeled with the standard IGI identification, for example "This chapter/paper appears in <fill in publication title here> edited/authored by <fill in name of author/editor here> Copyright 2008, IGI Global, www.igi-global.com.
