In collaboration with the Miniaci Center of Performing Arts' event, The Point of Pas De Deux: A Dance Dialogue on Nov. 12th, the artistic director of Dimensions Dance Theater of Miami, Jennifer Kronenberg, will be teaching a Master class in our Performance Theatre!

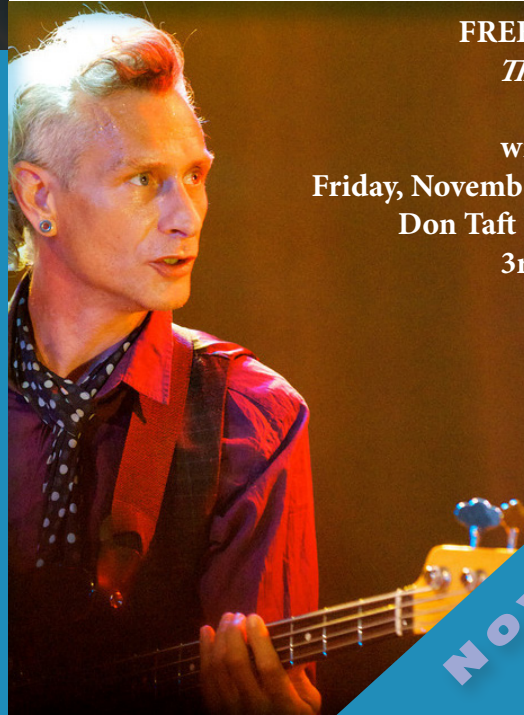

Dimensions Dance Theatre of Miami...

is a brand new ballet company founded in 2016 by former Miami City Ballet principal dancers Carlos Guerra and Jennifer Kronenberg. Carlos and Jennifer plan to offer audiences a fresh and diverse view of ballet through their direction of Dimensions Dance Theatre of Miami, exploring collaborative avenues that are distinct in their reflection of South Florida.

The CAHSS Department of Performing & Visual Arts will be hosting a master class with renowned bassist, producer, and music director, Pete Iannacone.

Iannacone will discuss his 20+ years of experience in the music industry as well as give performance, composition/production suggestions.

Artist Brief Bio: Currently in the middle of The Total World Tour with international superstar and Grammy-Award Winner Joss Stone, bassist Pete Iannacone has been described as “a perfect blend of school and street” (Bass Player magazine Sept. 93). In addition to his live work, Pete has recorded with producers such as Matt Serletic (Matchbox 20, Collective Soul), Eric White (Britney Spears, Whitney Houston), Mike Mangini (Joss Stone, Baha Men, Taylor Dayne), and Kevin Elson (Journey).

The Sharkscape Room: Escape the Tank

The Shark Talent students put up their very own escape room! Everyone came out to celebrate Razor's birthday on the S.S. Talent. What could possibly go wrong?

"You're on board the S.S. Talent on your way to the International Danceworks performance at NSU. You're currently on the bottom deck attending Razor the Shark's birthday party when the intercom turns on. Your captains, Mark and Bill, are arguing on which way is best to get back to Nova. As they fight for the wheel, Razor's ice sculpture falls off the deck. It hits the propellers, breaking them off and causing the water to seep into the ship.

It's your job to escape the bottom floor using the clues Razor the Shark has left for you, and meet Holly at the top deck. In order to escape, every person on your team needs a life floaty to get on the rescue boat. If one of your team members is missing or doesn't have the life floaty, you do NOT get to escape. Type in the password to unlock the door and float to safety."

The Shark Talet Student Creators: Kaeleigh Sturgeon, Sierra Shreves, Tal Shorr, Indya Williams, Ariella Poon, Victoria Phen, Laura Cashman, Ben Underhill, Genesis Perez, and Victoria Biddle put this amazing room together from start to finish.

Sponsored By: The Office of Campus Life and Student Engagement and The One 2 Escape.

The Painting I course taught by Kandy Lopez participated in a mural designing contest with the administrative offices of Translational Research and Economic Development led by H. Thomas Temple, M.D. The winning team of students were Jessica Cavalier, Treyce Romeus, and Aina Rivas. The winning mural represents innovation from the mind of a single scientist, that grows to an idea that is built upon by other scientists. Their minds work in unison like gears inside of a machine or an engine, circulating all ideas that will inevitably build upon the foundations of research and scientific findings.

"We wanted to capture the amazing work of NSU TRED by depicting the elements of the growth of the information collected as a whole symbolic of the NSU Sharks, our mascot is also included as it is the students and faculty that pave the way for the research and lead to Realizing Potential."
