

Africa RISING outcome relationships with sustainable intensification domains

Mateete Bekunda

Chief Scientist, Africa RISING East and Southern Africa Project

Africa RISING East and Southern Africa Phase II Planning Meeting, Lilongwe, Malawi, 5-8 October 2016

Outcome relationship

Outcomes	Related SI Domains
Outcome 1: Productivity of crop-livestock systems in selected semi-arid and sub-humid agro-ecologies of ESA enhanced	Productivity
Outcome 2: Community adoption of technologies that will lessen hunger and poverty under conditions of climate change	Environment
Outcome 3: Options for equitable food and feed safety, nutritional quality and income security of target smallholder families improved	Human
Outcome 4: Functionality of markets, institutions, and partnerships associated with SI technologies through providing mechanisms that improve household linkages to markets improved	Economic
Outcome 5: Delivery and uptake of SI innovations through building functional partnerships among research and development institutions enhanced	Social				