Dear [insert name of publisher's rights manager or similar],

I am a contributing author to one of your journals, and am writing to request permission to deposit the full text of the article(s) listed below into ScholarWorks@UMass Amherst, the University of Massachusetts Amherst's institutional repository at <<http://scholarworks.umass.edu>>. ScholarWorks@UMass Amherst is a not-for-profit digital repository for scholarly work created by faculty and staff at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. It helps makes their research available to a wider audience and helps assure its long-term preservation. The record of each article deposited includes the complete citation for the published version, along with a URL for the journal. The articles for which I am seeking permission are:

Article:

[authors names] , [date], [title], [journal name], [volume or number], [pages]
[authors names] , [date], [title], [journal name], [volume or number], [pages]
etc.

If possible, I prefer to archive the final pdf version as it appears in print. The final pdf version has an advantage over my own version, in that it maintains consistency in appearance of the article wherever it is read. This also maintains a closer association of the article with the Journal, through the header-title and journal house-style.

I would be grateful if you could contact me to give your permission for including the articles listed above and to pass on any associated conditions. If it would be possible to use the published pdf version of the article for this purpose, then please confirm this.

Thank you for your attention with this and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

[your name]
