

Linfield College
DigitalCommons@Linfield

All Story Transcripts

Story Transcripts

6-23-2011

Transcript of Saving Greenhorns

David L. Stiles
oceanfish62@oregoncoast.com

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/dory_transcripts_all

 Part of the Cultural History Commons, Oral History Commons, Speech and Rhetorical Studies Commons, and the Theatre and Performance Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

Stiles, David L., "Transcript of Saving Greenhorns" (2011). All Story Transcripts. Transcript. Submission 1. https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/dory_transcripts_all/1

This Transcript is protected by copyright and/or related rights. It is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield, with permission from the rights-holder(s). Your use of this Transcript must comply with the Terms of Use for material posted in DigitalCommons@Linfield, or with other stated terms (such as a Creative Commons license) indicated in the record and/or on the work itself. For more information, or if you have questions about permitted uses, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.

Title: Saving Greenhorns

Storyteller: David L. Stiles

Interviewer: Chris Forrer

Interview Date: 2011-06-23

Collection: Launching through the Surf: The Dory Fleet of Pacific City

Repository: DigitalCommons@Linfield

Transcribers: Casee Clark, Andrea Snyder

DAVE L. STILES: I'm Captain David Stiles. I've been a guide for the last 12 years, this is my twelfth year guiding. I was a commercial fisherman for 10 years prior to that.

There's nothin' like a greenhorn. I go down there every time I know a greenhorn's goin' out. Uh, I've seen 'em almost kill themselves. I had to go out and rescue 'em.

Well, we were all standin' up in the parking lot. And, we were just standin' there 'cause the surf was big, and one of my ex-clients, one of many, bought a, bought a dory and thought he was gonna be a doryman. And, he was coming down the ramp with him and his buddies. Very intelligent man, don't get me wrong, but street smart he didn't have. And, so I stopped him, and I, I said, "You don't want to go out in this." And, I said, "It's not very smart." I said, "It's gonna be a better day tomorrow. Just wait 'til tomorrow." [Speaking as the Greenhorn] "Well, nobody's ever called me smart before." I said, "Okay." So, they proceeded to go down on the beach, they launched the boat, they took some big ones, got water in the boat before they even started to take off. They got sideways, the boat knocked him down, went over the top of him. He was flat in the water, and, it's a good thing the water held the boat up, 'cause it could have crushed him and killed him. And, so I ran down there and got him out of the water, pulled the boat out. That was quite an experience. He never tried that again.

Now he calls me! [Speaking as the Greenhorn] "Is it gonna be good to go tomorrow?" [Laughter] [Speaking as the Greenhorn] "Are you going?"