THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO: The President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Pursuant to medical advice, I, Jimmy Carter, President of the United States, on this date will undergo surgery in the nature of a hemorrhoidectomy. I am advised that I will be administered an anesthetic which will incapacitate me for a period of approximately _____ hours.

Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of Amendment XXV of the Constitution, section 3, I hereby declare that, commencing at _____ (time) today I will be unable to discharge the powers and duties of my office, and therefore, the Vice President shall discharge such powers and duties as Acting President commencing at such time.

Upon recovering my ability to discharge the powers and duties of this office, I will sign the appropriate declaration, transmit it to you, and thereby reassume the powers and duties of the office. My medical advice is that this will be approximately _____ (time) today.

No pre-set papers at Justice's papers as drafted.

Transmittal:

- Talk personally to each.
- Have rep. to take possession in their office on the Hill or even at the White House.

"Contingent" delivery questionable.

No informal transition would be effective.
