Christopher Center's 4th - Floor Terrace Re-opened

We were happy to announce the re-opening of our 4th-floor terrace to our patrons in August 2016. The terrace is available seasonally, from building opening until dusk, weather permitting.

New Library Fellow Roberto Arteaga

On July 25th, we welcomed our new Library Fellow Roberto Arteaga to the Christopher Center. Roberto holds a BA in Economics & Management from Gustavus Adolphus College and an MA in Library & Information Science from the University of Iowa. His areas of interest include Instructional Design, Critical Pedagogy, Web Design, and UX. Roberto's office is located in CCLIR Room 250.

Reformation Pamphlets Now Available Online

The library's Reformation Pamphlet collection is now available online. The collection currently consists of 19 pamphlets published in the early to mid-1500s.

New Charging Station

Forget your phone charger at home? The library has a new charging station! It has many types of connectors - USB, mini USB, Apple Lightning - so it probably works with your device. It is located at the top of the staircase on the second floor.
