

UNIVERSITY OF PISA

School of Graduate Studies
“Scienza del Farmaco e delle Sostanze Bioattive”

PhD THESIS
2007-2009

“Design, synthesis and bioevaluation of new metalloenzymes inhibitors as therapeutic tools in degenerative diseases.”

SSD: CHIM/08

Francesca Casalini

XXII CYCLE

DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL

Prof. Claudia Martini

SUPERVISOR

Prof. Armando Rossello

2009

Clause Secret

The contents of this report is strictly confidential, as arguments protected by law as confidential. Therefore all those who take knowledge are required, even sanctioned fees to Articles 325 and 623 of the Criminal Code, and not to disclose not use the information gained.

Some chapters of this thesis referred to as "omitted" will still be part of the final academic defence and will be presented.

(These terms are in accordance with regulations of the University of Pisa in relation to the protection of intellectual property patents.)

