A Text című folyóirat internacionális és a lehető legtágabb értelemben vett interdiszciplináris folyóiratként látott napvilágot. Lehetőséget kívánt és kíván adni a legkülönfélébb — szövegekkel, konverzációkkal, 'kommunikatív eseményekkel' stb. foglalkozó — tanulmányok megjelentetésére.

Célja, hogy előmozdítsa egy multidiszciplináris szövegtudomány kifejlődését s különböző tudományok szövegek iránt érdeklődő képviselőinek együttműködését. E cél érdekében elsősorban a sajátosan interdiszciplináris tanulmányok létrejöttét támogatja. Ebben a kontextusban különös hangsúlyt kapnak az általános elméleti kérdésekkel és a különféle metodológiai problémákkal foglalkozó írások.

A különféle szövegtípusokat illetően a folyóirat elősegíteni kívánja olyan tanulmányok megszületését, amelyek a napjainkban égető szociális kérdésekkel foglalkozó szövegek elemzésére irányulnak.

Itt e folyóirat első kilenc évfolyamának tartalommutatóját közöljük kronológiai sorrendben. (Ez a kronológiai index a folyóirat 10-1/2 (1990.) számában (175—183) található meg.

RESEARCH IN TEXT THEORY
UNTERSUCHUNGEN ZUR TEXTTHEORIE

Walter de Gruyter & Co. Berlin—New York
Editor: János S. Petőfi, Macerata, Italy

A sorozat célja az, hogy lehetőséget adjon olyan monográfiák, konferenciaakták és tanulmánykötetek megjelenésére, amelyek általános szövegelméleti kérdésekkel, illetőleg különböző típusú szövegek elemzésével, interpretálásának kérdéseivel foglalkoznak. A sorozat vitafórumot kíván teremteni mindazoknak, akik szövegkutatással foglalkoznak, függetlenül attól, hogy milyen diszciplínák képviselői.

Itt az első tizennégy kötet rövid tartalmi ismertetését kívánjuk nyújtani.

Teun A. van Dijk and János S. Petőfi (eds.):
GRAMMARS AND DESCRIPTIONS (Studies in Text Theory and Text Analysis)
1977.

Since the mid-sixties more and more studies devoted to problems arising from the grammatical analysis of texts have been published. Most of these studies also argue for the necessity of constructing a text grammar according to the methodological principles of modern linguistics.

The primary function of this volume is to present a wide choice of different text-grammatical concepts and/or different methods of linguistics text descriptions. The unusual and challenging task of having the same text (THE LOVER AND HIS LASS by J. Thurber) analyzed by different scholars promises a maximum of variety and concentration at the same time.

The contributions were written by J. Bernstein /K. L. Pike, T. A. van Dijk, R. Fowler, A. J. Greimas/F. Nef, J.-B. Grize, E. Gülich/W. Raible, M. A. K. Halliday, R. Harweg, K. Heger, R. E. Longacre, Y. Oppel, B. Palek, K. Pisarkowa.

Contributions in English, French and German.

CURRENT TRENDS IN TEXT LINGUISTICS
1977.

Text linguistics, text theory and discourse analysis have undergone a rapid development in the past years and now constitute the theoretical bases and/or provide the instruments for other disciplines. This volume describes the present state of re-
