

The McCoy List

The McCoy List

*A publication of
The DeForest Kelley Fan Communique
8717 S. LaCienega Blvd. #29
Inglewood, CA 90301*

The McCoy List
Introduction

Hi,

If you're a Doctor McCoy fan, you're going to find the following pages a treasure trove of information. Not only have we listed every McCoy story we could find (including those where he is featured prominently), but have also given you a thumbnail synopsis of what the story is about. If you're hooked on a certain writer like Connie Faddis or Ingrid Cross, then we also have a reference by author...and editor. Unfortunately, many of the zines listed are out of print, but there are always zine auctions going on, so this can be a guide to that elusive McCoy story that you've always wanted to read.

The credit for this publication goes to three people. A few years ago, Marcia Coates came up with the idea of putting this together. Then she found herself stuck with the job! Well, she did it, and did it well. After she went through her vast zine collection, she enlisted the zines (and aid) of Cindy Deren. It took almost two years of work, but they got it done. Then it was placed in the capable hands of Bonnie Guyan and her computer. "Zip"! It was done!

So why am I writing this introduction? Beats me! Except none of those girls would say these things about themselves, and I kinda' coordinated the project without doing any of the work. (Who said I wasn't brilliant?) Also, this is being put out by the DeForest Kelley Fan Communique, and all (if any) profits will go to our club charity: The North Shore Animal League. If you are not familiar with that organization, it is devoted to the rescue and placement of homeless animals. In their 40+ years of operation, they have never destroyed an animal. Although their facilities house only 400 pets at a time, last year they placed almost 44,000 cats and dogs in good homes. So, thank you for your order...and your donation. There are a lot of tails wagging on your behalf.

Sue Keenan, Pres.
DKFC

For more information on the North Shore Animal League, write:
NSAL, 22 South St.; Port Washington, N.Y. 11050
or contact
The DeForest Kelley Fan Communique.

The McCoy List
References

EDITOR

FANZINE

Andrus, Carol
Ash, Randy
Ball, Fran
Barbich, Debi
Barry, Dotty
Barth, Daniel
Barton, Gail
Bates, Daren
Beatty, Lori

Beckwith, Janet
Beeten, Doris
Benson, Barbara
Berman, Ruth
Betancourt, Henry
Bielowicz, Jackie
Blevins, Ellen
Blowers, Janet
Blythe, Mary Jo
Bonds, Martha

Boots, Lynda Kaye
Brennan, Carrie
Briggs, Edward
Brown, Cathi
Brown, Kay
Brown, Lana
Brownlee, Judith
Butler, Florence
Cantor, Johanna

Cargill, Cheree
Carleton, Gordon
Carlson, Beth
Carver, Ann
Chanack, Linda
Chapek-Carleton, Lori

Chapman, Debra
Chishold, Donna

Clark, Margaret
Clark, Sheila
Clark, Victoria
Cole, Debi
Crawford, Maratha
Cribb, Lucy

All My Crewmen
Sehlat's Roar
Koon-ut-kal-if-fee #4
Of Dreams And Schemes #1,#2,#3
Star Canticle
Galactic Discourse #1
Eridani Triad #3
Nuages
McCoy's Illegible Log #4
Rx McCoy
Deck Five Digest #3
Eridani Triad #3
Almost Anything Goes...Around Twice
T-Negative
Farthest Star
Sol Plus
Orion Quadrant
Starfleet Chronicles
Diverse Dimensions #4,#5
The Complete Rack
Whalesong
Gateway
The Ninth Quadrant #3
Grup
I Finally Got...The Last Word
Riders To The Stars
Spin Dizzie #5,#6
Katra
Eridani Triad #3
Destiny's Children
R&R
Accumulated Leave
Archives
Tal-Shaya
The Complete Faulwell/Landing Party 6
Reunion
Act Five, Scene Two
Formazine A Light Stimulant
Warped Space
Obsc'zine
McCoy's Illegible Log #1,#2,#3,#5
One Trek Mind
One Thousand And One Trek Tales
Rim Of Starlight
Beyond Mutara
None #1,#2,#3,#4,#5,#6,#7,#8,#9,#10
The Ninth Quadrant #5,#6,#7
Of Dreams And Schemes #1,#2,#3
Half Me

Cross, Ingrid

Crowson, Sharron
Curnow, Patsy
Deem, Jeannie
Deneroff, Linda
Dodge, Mary Louise
Donnelly, KathE
Downes, Gerry
Drach, Mary Ann
Duck, Darien

Edwards, Jacqueline
Elson, Jennifer

Entwhistle, Phoebe

Faddis, Connie
Falkowitz, Amy
Feyrer, Gayle

Gates, Sharon
Golden, Mona
Goodine, David
Guyan, Bonnie

Hall, Anne Mary
Hazelton, Ruth
Heller, Lee
Hendricks, Judi
Henry, Tina
Herndon, Shirley
Hilton, Martha
Hochman, Susan
Holmes, Michelle
Hoolahan, Elizabeth
Hornlein, Mariann
Huff, Laurie
Hunterton, Carol
Hupe, Bill
Jaecks, Lee

Jaeger, Vel
James, Vicki E.
Jenkins, Diana
Johansen, Marilyn
Kern, Trinetta
Kevelsen, Robyn
Kippax, Nancy

Kirlin, Vicki R.
Knight, Kim
Kozar, Ellen M.
Krause, Maraguerite
Lacey, Lucille
Lakin, Linda

When You Were Merlin And I Was King
Second Millennium
There Are Three
Odyssey
Of Crystal Persuasion
Formazine A Light Stimulant
Diverse Dimensions #4
Guardian #1,#2,#6,#7
Delta Triad, Supplement 1
I'm A Doctor, Not A...#1
Stardate: Unknown
Maine(ly) Trek #1,#2,#3,#4
Another
Enter-Comm #5
Dilithium Crystals
Angry Sunset
The Stars Are Lonely
Another
And Another
Interphase
The Other Side Of Paradise #1,#2,#7
KSX
The Price And The Prize
Eternal Triangle #1,#2,#3
Eternal Triangle #1,#2,#3
Odyssey #4,#5
Fantasy
Plak Tow
The Kinship
Alternate Universe
Maine(ly) Trek #1
Two-Dimensional Thinking
Pegasus
Alpha Continuum #1,#3
Lifestar #2,#3
Maine(ly) Trek #1
Rim Of Starlight
Mind Meld #1,#2
Visions
Nexus
Galactic Discourse #1,#2,#3,#4,#5
Beyond Orion II
Beyond The Furthest Star
Beyond Orion II
Bait Once, Bait Twice
Trekism At Length
Rigel
Lifestar #2
Spin Dizzie #1,#2,#5,#6
Off The Beaten Trek
Rim Of Starlight
Contact
The Complete Rack
Berengaria #8,#10
Starfleet Chronicles
Indian Summer And Other Seasons
In A Different Reality #27
Alpha Touch
Eternal Triangle #1,#2

Lambard, Shirley
Landers, Randall
Landon, Signe

Langsam, Devra Michele
Laoang, Dorothy
Lee, Carol Ann
Lee, Jan
Leveille, Lizette R.
Levine, Cynthia
Lilker, Leslye
Lindner, Jan
Lorenstein, Bev
Lowe, Mary

Lynch, Kathleen S.
Maier, Cheryl
Maiewski, Shirley
Marder, Fern
Martin, Terry
Maschke, Carol
McChesney, Marion Catherine
McCoy, Julie
McInnis, Linda
McKenna, Marjorie
Meyer, Teri
Montgomery, Wendy
Nolan, Pat
Padgett, Helen

Pettersson, Cheryl
Pollet, Richard
Popovich, Karolyn
Price, Toni Cardinal
Provee, Robyn
Ranelle, Jelica
Rathbone, Wendy

Rayborn, Freda
Rockburn, Wendy
Rogers, Madeline
Rogow, Roberta
Rossi, Linda
Rothermel, Caitlin
Scarritt, Katharine

Scarsdale, Laura L.
Schlein, Catherine
Seller, Pat
Shreve, Melinda
Seigrist, Marty
Silva, Noel
Silver, Cindy
Stallings, Harriett
Steiner, D.
Storey, Barbara L.
Sutter, Phyllis
Thomas, Jim

Excalibur
Stardate
The Other Side Of Paradise #1,#2
Paradise
Masiform D
Amazing Grace
Rigel
Maine(Iy) Trek #1
Maine(Iy) Trek #1
Guardian #1,#2
IDIC
Pegasus
Organia
Only Trek
Obsession
Maine(Iy) Trek #2,#3
Half Me
Alternate Universe
Dagger Of The Mind
Deck Five Digest #1
Star Shadows
Vault Of Tomorrow
Cordrazine
Idylls #2
Enter-Comm #1,#2,#3,#4,#5
Berengaria #10
Tender Expressions
Farthest Star
In A Plain Brown Wrapper #2
The Ninth Quadrant #3,#5,#6,#7
Alternatives
Captain's Log
I'm A Doctor, Not A... #1,#2
Nexus
McCoy's Illegible Log #4
Indian Summer And Other Seasons
Daring Attempt
More Missions, More Myths
Illegical These Humans
Enter-Comm #1,#3
In A Plain Brown Wrapper #2
Grip
Crystal Constellation
Meridian
Only Trek
Deck Five Digest #1,#2
Obsession
Delta Triad #1,#2,#3,#5, Sup.
Of Dreams And Schemes #1,#2,#3,#4
Kaiidth
Delta Triad #1,#2,#3,#4,#5, Sup
Alpha Continuum #2
Greater California K/S
Energize
It Takes Time On Impulse
Metamorphosis
Nome #1,#2,#3,#4,#5,#6,#7,#8,#9,#10
Eternal Triangle #1,#2
Voyages #2

Tilley, Virginal
Townsend, Deborah
Tulloch, Joyce

Varela, M.V.M.
Venino, Carolyn
Verina, Michael
Volker, Beverly

Walske, Carol
Ward, Judith
Warner, Rowena
Webster, Elaine
Wolfe, Marie
Zier, Sandy
Zotti, Pat

Alternate Universe
Deck Five Digest #2
When Heroes Die - A Starchild's Quest
There Are Three
When You Were Merlin And I Was King
Odyssey #7.5, #8
Nome #1, #2, #3, #4
Beyond Orion II
Starborne
The Complete Rack
Contact
Voyages #3
Dagger Of The Mind
The Ninth Quadrant #3
Whatever Star That Beckons
Diverse Dimension #4, #5
Sahndara
Mind Meld #1, #2, #3, #4
Voyages #1, #2, #3

AUTHOR

FANZINE

Alain, Alinda
Alling, Cathy
Anderson, Astrid
Anderson, Barb
Anderson, Cathy
Archer, Daralyn
Arvizu, Michele
Bach, Ellie
Baker, Linda
Balch, Janet
Barnes, M.L.

Barr, Betsy
Bates, Karen

Batterby, Anne
Beatty, Lorraine

Beetem, Doris
Belton, Marcella
Berman, Ruth

Bielawicz, Jacqueline

Birkel, Kate

Vault Of Tomorrow #1
Warped Space #21
T-Negative #9
T-Negative #20
T-Negative #20
Alternatives #2
Nome #10
T-Negative #20
Idylls #2
McCoy #1
I'm A Doctor, Not A...#1
The Best Of I'm A Doctor, Not A...
I'm A Doctor, Not A...#2
Kobayashi Maru
It Takes Time On Impulse #3
Nuages #2, #4
Masiform D #13
McCoy's Illegible Log #5
McCoy #4
Of Dreams And Schemes #2, #3, #4
Vault Of Tomorrow #5
Odyssey #4, #5, #6, #6.5, #7
Eridani Triad #3
Nome #6
T-Negative #3, #14, #15
Deck Five Digest #1
Guardina #7
Sol Pluls #2
Maiden Voyages
Fernata

Black, Alexis Fegan

Blacque, Donya

Blair, Ellen
Blazej, Rosalie
Black, Paula

Bond, V.
Bonds, Martha
Boyle, Christopher
Brannick, Landa
Brooks, Cathy
Brown, Cathy
Burkel, Kate
Bush, A.T.
Bushman, Patty
Butler, Florence
Cade, Mara-Lyn
Cadwell, Nikki
Campion, Lynn

Cantor, Johanna

Cargill, Cheree
Carlson, Beth

Carraher, Lynda

Carter, Carmen

Carver, Ann
Chambers, Lynda
Chanack, Linda
Chegwidden, Barbara
Chonka, Denise S.
Christenson, Carol
Clair, Catherine
Clair, Elizabeth
Clark, Beverly

Clark, Donna C.
Clark, Terri
Clarke, Jackie A.
Cole, Marilyn
Collin, Debbie
Conaway, Teresa
Conway, Elwyn
Cory, William
Cribb, Lucy
Crisp, Marquita
Cross, Ingrid

Shades Of Grey
First Time #3
More Missions, More Myths #1
As I Do Thee #3
Shades Of Grey #2
Daring Attempt #3
Sehlat's Roar #4
Spin Dizzie #6
Warped Space #7,#8,#9,#10,#11,#12,#15,#26/27,#37
Obsc'zine #2
Interphase #3
Nexus #6
Nome #2,#4
Cardrazine
Deck Five Digest #3
Odyssey #7.5,#8
Kaiidith #1
Organia
Amazing Grace
Deck Five Digest #3
Odyssey #7.5,#8
Shades Of Grey #2
Spin Dizzie #1
Excalibur #2
McCoy #2,#3
Archives #7
Maine(ly) Trek #3
One Thousand And One Trek Tales
Tal-Shaya #3
Archives #2
Fantasy #11
Kobayashi Maru
Reunion
Spin Dizzie #6
Archives #7
Voyages #3
T-Negative #21
Daring Attempt #3
McCoy #2
It Takes Time On Impulse #3
Excalibur #5
Trekism At Length #5
McCoy's Illegible Log #4
Obsc'zine #1
Obsc'zine #2
Tal-Shaya #5
Sehlat's Roar #3
Stardate #13
Vault Of Tomorrow #3
Excalibur #1
Vault Of Tomorrow #6
One Trek Mind #4
Sahndara #2
Nome #5,#6,#7,#8,#9,#10
In A Different Reality #22,#25
Half Me
McCoy #2
Alpha Continuum #1,#3
Mind Meld #1

(Cross, Ingrid)

Crouch, Ann
Crowson, Sharron

Crunk, Carol
Curnow, Patsy
Danielson, Beverly
Dawson, Ginger
Delitsky, Mona

Denman, Pam
Deren, CinDe

Deusen, Mary Van
Dewitt, Sarah Macht

Dimick, Eleanor
Dodd, Hazel
Dodge, Mary Louise
Dougall, Marion
Downes, Gerry
Drach, Mary Ann
Duck, Darien

Duston, Beth Ebner, Helen
Edwards, Jacqueline

Eierman, Rosemarie

Ellington, Liz
Elson, Jenny
Evans, Kathryn Anne
Faddis, Connie

Fargas, L.V.

Odyssey #1,#3,#4,#5,#6.5,#8
Vault Of Tomorrow #1,#2,#4
Interphase #3
McCoy's Illegible Log #2
Dagger Of The Mind
When You Were Merlin And I Was King
Galactic Discourse #4
Alternaties #2
Of Crystal Persuasion
In A Different Reality #25
Riders To The Stars #3
McCoy's Illegible Log #3
The Ninth Quadrant #7
First Time #3
Mind Meld #2,#3
Alpha Continuum #2
Warped Space #12
McCoy #6
Galactic Discourse #5
Maine(ly) Trek #4
Only Trek #1
It Takes Time On Impulse #3
Mind Meld #3
Two-Dimensional Thinking
Odyssey #8
Nome #5
Nome #9
Odyssey #7.5
R&R #22
Vault Of Tomorrow #9
Katra #5
Delta Triad #1,#2,#3,#4,#5,Sup
Contact #3
Staradate: Unknown #1,#3,#5
Maine(ly) Trek #1
Parallax Ring
Enter-Comm #5
Illogical These Humans
Formazine A Light Stimulant
McCoy #5
Full Circle
Dilithium Crystals #1,#2
In A Different Reality #19
Odyssey #8
Vault Of Tomorrow #9
McCoy #1
R&R #18
Contact #2
Furaha #4
IDIC #3
The Other Side Of Paradise #1,#2
Alpha Continuum #2
R&R #3
T-Negative #11,#26
Interphase #2,#4
Energize
Metamorphosis #2
Rigel #3
Paradise

Farnell, Kathie
Farrell, Susan
Feaster, Jocelyn

Ferguson, Syn
Fern, Yvonne
Fetter, Sharon

Feyrer, Gayle

Fine, Suzanne
Fint, Cheryl
Firmstone, Jane
Fish, Leslie
Fisher, Betsy
Fleming, Karen

Frashure, Cheryl

Frost, Donna
Garian, Tay
Gates, Sharon
Gelfand, Alayne

Gilbert, Debbie
Gilbert, Sherri
Gilchrist, Cathy
Ginnie
Golden, Mona
Goodine, David
Gordon, David
Grech, Linda
Greener, Paula
Greville, Jan
Guyan, Bonnie

Hallam, Beth

Harper, Brenda
Hawkins, Bobbie
Helm, Devery

Hapner, Ruth Ann
Herndon, Shirley
Hickey, William
Hinr, Suzanne
Hobart, Leslie
Hogue, Meg
Hollunder, Sabine
Hood, Robin

Hood, Sarah
Howard, Teri

Voyages #2,#3
Sol Plus #8
Odyssey #3
Alpha Continuum #3
The Price And The Prize
Mind Meld #4
Odyssey #7
As I Do Thee #1
Organia
KSX
Obsc'zine #3
Mind Meld #1,#2
Diverse Dimensions #4
Obsc'zine #1
It Takes Time On Impulse #2
Lifestar #3
Grup V
R&R #11
Alpha Continuum #2
Guardian #2
The Other Side Of Paradise #7
Trekism At Length #5
Vault Of Tomorrow #12
Eternal Triangle #1,#2,#3
Only Trek #1
As I Do Thee #1
Kobayashi Maru
Southern Comfort
Enter-Comm #8
McCoy's Illegible Log #5
Eternal Triangle #1
Odyssey #4
Vault Of Tomorrow #1
IDIC #6
McCoy #1
Spin Dizzie #1
Fantasy #1,#2,#3,#4,#5,#6,#7,#8,#9,#10,#11,#12,LTD
The Kinship
Nexus #4
Tal-Shaya #4,#5
Plak Tow #2,#3,#4,LTD,#7
Accumulated Leave #1
R&R #10
McCoy's Illegible Log #1
Galactic Discourse #4
As I Do Thee #1
And Another
Archives #7
Lifestar #2
Delta Triad #3
Sahndara #2
Alpha Continuum #2
Alpha Continuum #2
McCoy #4
Shades Of Grey #2
Daring Attemptn #4
More Missions, More Myths #2
Sol Plus #8
McCoy's Illegible Log #2

Howlett, Winston A.
 Huff, Laurie
 Humphrey, Jeanie
 Hunter, Karen
 Hupertan, Carol
 Hydeman, Carol
 Inventus, Non Est
 Jackson, Shona
 Jaeger, Vel

Jemison, Frankie

Jenkins, Diana
 Johansen, Marilyn
 Johnson, Janice
 Jones, Dorothy
 Jones, Lou Ann
 Kandel, Jeri
 Keenan, Sue

Kelley, Deborah Kelly, Marian

Kelsey, Brenda
 Kern, Trinetta

Kevelson, Robyn N.
 Kinlock, P.E.
 Kippax, Nancy

Kirk
 Knapp, Kim
 Knight, Kim
 Knights, Linda
 LaCroix, Ginna

Lakin, Linda
 Lambard, Shriely
 Lamski, Maraty

Landon, Signe
 Langsam, Devra
 Lansing, Marya Suskind
 Lee, Autumn
 Lee, Melissa
 Lilker, Leslie

Dagger Of The Mind
 Galactic Discourse #1
 Odyssey #6,#7
 In A Different Reality #19
 Beyond Orion II
 Warped Space #12
 It Takes Time On Impulse #2
 Maine(ly) Trek #4
 R&R #13
 Stellar Gas #2
 Paradise
 Accumulated Leave #1
 Lifestar #2
 Guardian #6
 In A Different Reality #21,#23,#24,#26,#27
 T-Negative #9
 T-Negative #20
 Warped Space #49
 Dilithium Crystals #2,#3
 Full Circle
 Fear No Evil
 McCoy #5
 Odyssey #5,#6,#6.5,#7,#7.5,#8
 Eternal Triangle #3
 Valley Of Shadow
 Eternal Triangle #1,#2
 Delta Triad #4
 I'm A Doctor, Not A...#2
 Warped Space #44
 Fifty Ways
 The Other Side Of Paradise #2
 Plak Tow #1
 IDIC #4
 Off The Beaten Trek #1
 Rim Of Starlight #1
 Diverse Dimensions #5
 Contact #5/6
 Maine(ly) Trek #3
 Galactic Discourse #1,#2,#3
 Parallax Ring
 Trekism At Length #5
 Starfleet Chronicles #3
 Spin Dizzie #2
 Galactic Discourse #4
 Whalesong
 Nome #4,#5,#6,#7
 Rigel #3,#4/5/6
 Eternal Triangle #1
 Excalibur #1
 Don't Tell It To The Captain
 R&R #18
 IDIC #6
 Eridani Triad #3
 Nome #9
 The Other Side Of Paradise #7
 Eternal Triangle #3
 Off The Beaten Trek #1
 Guardian #1
 IDIC #1

Logan, Anne Laurie
Lovett, Suzan
Lowe, Mary

Lynn, Carolyn G.
Maier, Cheryl
Mailander, Jane
Malkin, Michelle
Mancinelli, Joy
Mann, Allyson
Manning, Dorothy
Marek, Joann

Martin, Joe
Maschke, Carol

Masters, Sharon
Mathews, Denise
Max, Collette

McChesney, Marion

McCoy, Julie

McCoy, T.R.
McHale, Sandra
McInnis, Linda
McNally, C.J.
Meinecke, Susan
Middleton, Sandra

Mills, Alice
Mills, Mary
Miskiewicz, Diane

Montgomery, Wendy
Moore, Martha
Morris, Ellen
Mularski, Carol
Mumford, Madaalena
Murdock, Melinda

Newsom, Alice M.
Noga, Jeanne
Norwood, Elaine
Oliver, Gladys
Osborn, Julie
Ouellet, Cecile
Paciello, Jacqueline
Padol, Lisa
Painter, Debbie
Papas, Susan

Alpha Continuum #2,#3
Odyssey #7
Deck Five Digest #1
Obsession #3
Galactic Discourse #5
Half Me
Odyssey #7
Back Trekking
Spin Dizzie #6
Captain's Log, Voyage 9
McCoy #2
As I Do Thee #3
Naked Times #7
Delta Triad #4
Spin Dizzie #6
Star Shadows #1,#2,#3
Vault Of Tomorrow #6
Of Dreams And Schemes #1
Don't Tell It To The Captain
In A Plain Brown Wrapper #2
Contact #7
Vault Of Tomorrow #2,#3,#6
Cardrazine
McCoy's Illegible Log #5
Nexus #6
There Are Three
Beyond The Farthest Star #2
Archives #6
Vault Of Tomorrow #4
Vault Of Tomorrow #6
There Are Three
Odyssey #7.5
Act Five, Scene Two
Mind Meld #3
It Takes Time On Impulse #3
Galactic Discourse #5
Odyssey #8
Maine(ly) Trek #4
Mind Meld #3
Two-Dimensional Thinking
Only Trek #1
Deck Five Digest #3
Tender Expressions
Orion Quadrant #1
Mind Meld #4
Fantasy #11
There Are Three
McCoy #5
Dilithium Crystals #1
R&R #5
Odyssey #6,#8
McCoy's Illegible Log #3
Excalibur #5
Alpha Touch #2
I'm A Doctor, Not A...#1
Pegasus #2
Grip #17
Enter-Comm #7
Star Shadow #1

Parkos, Sharon
Peacock, Twyla
Penland, Kathy
Pennington, Erin
Pentland, April

Persic, Liz
Pettersen, Cheryl
Phillips, Lee
Pierce, Carol

Pittaway, Gail D.
Pollet, Richard
Papplestone, Ann
Powers, Jeanne

Preece, Ann
Price, Toni Cardinal

Puhl, Gayle
Ranelle, Jelica
Rayborn, Freda
Rice, Cheryl D.

Ridener, Laurel

Roberta
Robison, Sharon
Rockburn, Wendy
Roderick, Tere Ann

Roe, Rayelle

Rogow, Roberta

Rose, Jo Scott
Rose, Pam

Ross, J. Thomas
Ross, Rebecca
Rottler, Mary
Roy, Eileen

Rusnak, Diana
Ryan, Joan G.
Salicrup, Juanita

Scarsdale, Laura
Schlein, Catherine
Schmierback, Marlene

R&R #8
More Missions, More Myths #4
Rigel #3
Katra #1
Interphase #4
Alpha Continuum #2
None #2
In A Different Reality #10,#15
Trekism At Length #4
Act Five, Scene Two
More Missions, More Myths #2,#6
Rim Of Starlight #5
Captain's Log, Voyage 9
Guardian #2
Warped Space #21
Odyssey #7,#8
Beyond Mutura
As I Do Thee #2
Starborne
Fantasy #12
None #1,#7
Alpha Continuum #3
Grip #19,#20
Indian Summer And Other Seasons
The Ninth Quadrant #3
Alpha Continuum #2
Warped Space #26/27
Gateway #2
Whalesong
It Takes Time On Impulse #2
Mind Meld #2
Vault Of Tomorrow #5,#6,#9,#12
Shades Of Grey #2
The Ninth Quadrant #6
Enter-Comm #3,#4
Obsession #3
Shades Of Grey
Fantasy #11
Spin Dizzie #5
Star Canticle #1,#2
Diverse Dimensions #4
Nexus #1
Grip #10,#17
Shades Of Grey #1,#2
Deck Five Digest #1
None #4,#5
Galactic Discourse #2
Sol Plus #6
Vault Of Tomorrow #12
Enter-Comm #2
Warped Space #43
Interphase #1
Galactic Discourse #3
Two-Dimensional Thinking
Guardiana #1
Galactic Discourse #2
Delta Triad #2,#3,#4,#5,Sup
Of Dreams And Schemes #1,#3
Eternal Triangle #3

Schnirch, Gail
Schultz, Doris
Schultz, Mandi
Schuttler, Mary
Scott, Crissandra
Seiler, Pat
Shell, Lezlie
Shelton, Cheryl
Shomei, Lynn
Shreve, Melinda
Silverman, Linda
Sinclair, J.P.
Sipe, Shirley

Sizemore, Susan
Skaff, Madona
Slusher, Linda
Smith, Fran

Smith, Norma
Smith, Paula
Smithey, Rebecca
Synder, Liz Ellen
Salten, Natasha
Sparks, Karen
Spinks, Nancy
Stephens, Lynn
Stephenson, Susan
Stevensen, Jean
Stripe, Kandie
Sullivan, Jan
Surah, Marie
Sutherland, Beverly

Sweetingham, Pauline
Syck, Lynn

Syrjala, Sally
Tathwell, Denise
Terry, C.L.
Thomas, Tess

Thompson, Alice
Tirare, Teshen
Trapp, Tonie
Tulloch, Joyce

More Missions, More Myths #6
Friendship And Duty
Alpha Continuum #2
Vault Of Tomorrow #11, #12
Parallax Ring
Kaidith #1
Obsession #3
The Best Of I'm A Doctor, Not A...
As I Do Thee #8
Delta Triad #3,#4,#5,Sup
IDIC #1
One Thousand And One Trek Tales
Mind Meld #2
There Are Three
Two-Dimensional Thinking
The Ninth Quardant #6
In A Different Reality #10
Enter-Comm #8
R&R #21
I Finally Got...The Last Word
Delta Triad #4
Voyages #1
Interphase #3
Almost Anything Goes...Around Twice
Nexus #3
In Triplicate
McCoy #6,#7
Warped Space #24
Orion Quadrant #1
Second Millennium
Enter-Comm #2
Enter-Comm #1
Greater California K/S
As I Do Thee #4
Name #8
Another
McCoy #2,#3
Vault Of Tomorrow #5,#6,#9,#12
Gateway #2
Whalesong
Mind Meld #2
Star Canticle #2
Enter-Comm #4
McCoy's Illegible Log #1
Grip #6
Odyssey #6,#7
IDIC #6
Shades Of Grey #2
Sahndara #1
Galactic Discourse #3,#4,#5
Vault Of Tomorrow #3
When Heroes Die - A Starchild's Quest
There Are Three
Enter-Comm #5
Plak Tow #4
McCoy #2,#3,#5
Only Trek #1
Odyssey #5,#6,#6.5,#7
When You Were Merlin And I Was King

(Tullock, Joyce)	Stellar Gas #2
Vance, J. Emily	Farthest Star
	Contact #4
Vanderlaan, Donna Rose	Naked Times #9
Varian, Egan	Meridian #2
Velkamp, Sherry	R&R #18
Venini, Carolyn	IDIC #6
	Beyond Orion II
Verba, Joan Marie	Odyssey #5
	Warped Space #50
	The Genesis Aftermath
Vincent, Faris	As I Do Thee #2,#4
Volker, Beverly	Galactic Discourse #2,#3
	Contact #5/6
Waldren, Abigail	Enter-Comm #1
Walker, A. Stuart	Furaha #2
	One Trek Mind #3
Walker, Robin	Vault Of Tomorrow #9
	Almost Anything Goes...Around Twice
Warner, Roberta	The Ninth Quadrant #5
Warner, Rowena	Visions #2
	Captain's Log 7/8
Washburn, Moria	Whatsoever Star That Beckons
West, Libby	Gateway #2
White, Patricia M.	Destiny's Children #3
Williams, Hazel Ann	Odyssey #3
Wilson, Frances M.	Nexus #6
Wilson, Steve	Captain's Log, Voyage #6,#9
Wood, Charmaine	Voyages #2
Wood, Elaine	Enter-Comm #8
Woodbridge, Ann	McCoy #4
Wordsmith, Miki	Meridian #2
Wray, Jane	Destiny's Children #3
Wylie, K.V.	More Missions, More Myths #2,#4
Wyllie, Susan	Enter-Comm #6
Zier, Sandy	McCoy's Illegible Log #4
Zipkin, Laura	Mind Meld #1,#4
	Gateway #2
Zotti, Pat	Vault Of Tomorrow #3
Zuk, Beverly	Voyages #1,#2,#3
	The Honorable Sacrifice
	Don't Tell It To The Captain
	R&R #18
	Enter-Comm #6

The McCoy List
Publications

ACCUMULATED LEAVE #1, Johanna Cantor, 1980

"The Day Of The Guinea Pig", Beth Hallam, 11 pgs - McCoy tells the humorous story of Spock's very unusual reactions to an experimental drug to reduce the violence of Pon Farr.

"Come Fill The Cup", Frankie Jemison, 4 pgs - Jim Kirk joins the last leave party on the Shore Leave planet. While strolling through the forest land thinking of what he might conjure up, he hears the voices of two old friends. Are they the product of the Shore Leave machinery?

ACT FIVE, SCENE TWO (K/S), Ann Carver, 1986

"Half Tones In Vulcan", Carol A. Pierce, 14 1/2 pgs - Returning from Vulcan after his Pon Farr, Spock begins to show definite signs of mental illness. McCoy works to understand what is happening to his friend and to help.

"Where Have All The Playthings Gone", Alice Mills, 21 1/2 pgs - We learn of additional violence that occurred on Miri's planet. Spock's involvement in this violence troubles him months after their return to the Enterprise. Kirk turns to McCoy to ask for his special kind of 'old fashioned country doctoring'.

ALL MY CREWMEN, Carol Andrus, 1977, Volume #1 - 7 pgs; Volume #2 - 13 1/2 pgs; Volume #3 - 16 pgs,

A McCoy-Natira novel printed in 3 small zines and never completed.

ALMOST ANYTHING GOES...AROUND TWICE, Anonymous Knoxville Associates/Barbara Benson, 1986

"Restored", Rebecca Smithy, 3 1/2 pgs - Tonia Barrows has been badly burned in an accident. As McCoy fights to save her life he realizes how much Tonia means to him.

"McCoy vs Meers & Warbucks", Robin Walker, 6 pgs - Have you ever tried to clear up a credit problem in a department store? Follow McCoy as he tried to correct an error in his credit line.

ALPHA CONTINUUM #1, Tina Henry, 1976

"No Time For Past Regrets", Ingrid Cross, 16 pgs - As Leonard McCoy is about to board the Enterprise for the 5 year mission, he looks back on the life he is leaving and meets Captain Kirk and Mr. Spock for the first time.

ALPHA CONTINUUM #2, Marty Siegrist, 1977

(This McCoy issue with several 1 page vignettes, poetry and art.)

"When The Good Is Gone From Goodbye", Karen Fleming, 2 pgs - The confrontation that led to the break-up of McCoy's marriage.

"Change Of Habit", Meg Hogue, 10 pgs - Christine Chapel is going through a difficult time in her personal life and as Leonard McCoy tries to find some way to help her he finds, to his surprise, that Christine is very important to him.

"To The Edge", Mona Delitshy, 5 pgs - While on a planet the Captain and Spock are injured in an explosion. The Enterprise will not return for many hours and McCoy, injured himself, struggles to stay awake and alert to care for his two friends until help arrives.

"No Child Of Man", Anne Laurie Logan, 3 1/2 pgs - A conversation between McCoy and his daughter reveals a very bizarre family background they share.

"Mad Dogs And Earthmen", Connie Faddis, 2 pgs - McCoy has an encounter with a Phoenix on a planet that has no animal life.

"The Real McCoy", Leslie Hobart, 10 pgs - Our kindly doctor has been called 'seducer, thief, barbarian and temple desecrator' by the people of the planet Alard. They will sell their Dilithium crystals to the Klingons if he is not punished. A case of mistaken identity, of course, but McCoy will be held in prison until it is all straightened out. Or will he?

"To Each His Own", Mandi Schultz and Cheryl Rice, 27 1/2 pgs - One of two 'Diamonds and Rust' stories in this zine. McCoy becomes involved in a very unfortunate situation with his daughter that leaves him emotionally shattered.

"Idols I Have Loved", Mandi Schultz and Cheryl Rice, 44 pgs - Second of 'Diamonds and Rust' stories in which Chantel, the mysterious new Security Chief on the Enterprise, tries to help McCoy recover his mental health.

"Log Jam", April Pentland, 6 pgs - McCoy feels he has been wronged by a less than complimentary entry in the Captain's Log. Their friendship is threatened until McCoy, with Spock's guidance, finds a means of 'revenge'.

ALPHA CONTINUUM #3, Tina Henry, 1982

- "Hostage Of Fortune", Anne Laurie Logan, 12 pgs - Spock befriends Joanna McCoy and her child who a not very likable Leonard McCoy has rejected.
- "Sarpeidon Apogee", Jocelyn Feaster, 3 pgs - Alternate ending to Spock and McCoy's trip to Sarpeidon.
- "A Warrior's Death", Ingrid Cross, 3 pgs - Spock helps McCoy come to terms with the impending death of Jim Kirk.
- "Amulet", Toni Cardinal-Price, 23 pgs - McCoy accompanies Spock on a trip to Vulcan for the celebration of Amanda's birthday. When their aircar crashes in the desert they go through a mystical adventure before rescue.

ALPHA TOUCH #2, Lucille Lacey, 1980

- "Requiem", Julie Osborn, 2 pgs - Just returned through the Guardian of Forever, McCoy tries to comfort his young Captain.

ALTERNATE UNIVERSE 4, VOLUME 1, Shirley Maiewski, Anne Mary Hall and Virginia Tilley, 1974, 62 pgs-

Jim Kirk has been found guilty of culpable negligence in the destruction of 3 heavily populated planets, court martialed, and dishonorably discharged from Starfleet. We see his departure from the Enterprise and his friends and his recruitment into Lightfleet. Lightfleet is a secret organization that is dedicated to the peaceful unification of the galaxies. It is organized by the Velonians whose technology is far advanced over that of Starfleet. Kirk becomes an Action Agent and on one of his assignments is captured by Starfleet and returned to the Enterprise for questioning. There is a joyful reunion with McCoy and Spock. They cannot turn Kirk over to Starfleet and devise a means to allow Kirk's escape.

ALTERNATE UNIVERSE 4, VOLUME 2, Shirley Maiewski, Anne Mary Hall, Daphne Hamilton and Virginia Tilley

1975, 140 pgs - Kirk has been captured by the Enterprise and this time he will be turned over to Starfleet security by Spock's order. To escape Kirk used a method in which he apparently turns a phaser, set to kill, on himself. McCoy is so devastated by Kirk's apparent death that he can no longer function and is given an indefinite leave to try to recover. Most of this volume deals with Kirk's effort, with the help of Melon and a Velosian psychologist, to save McCoy's sanity.

ALTERNATIVES #2 (X-rated), Cheryl Petterson, 1986

- "S'More Leave", Daralyn Archer, 7 1/2 pgs - There seems to be a malfunction of the equipment on the Shore Leave Planet and McCoy has his hands full with one-too-many Yeoman Barrows.
- "A Furious Ceiling", Ann Crouch, 5 1/2 pgs - Spock, unsure and vulnerable in his new relationship as Kirk's lover, spends an evening with McCoy. An evening in which McCoy realizes his love for the Vulcan. McCoy wants the relationship between his friends to work but he feels Kirk is mistreating Spock and he challenges Kirk to really show his love for Spock or relinquish him to someone who will.
- "Bequest", (no author), 2 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. McCoy brings Spock's bequest to Christine. Genetic material taken from Spock during the 5 year mission. Material to use to produce Spock's child or to destroy as she sees fit.
- "The Bare Bones", Ann Crouch, 3 pgs - Spock, after returning from Vulcan, finds the Pon Farr has not completely dissipated and goes to McCoy for medication. McCoy is able to help, but not with medication.

AMAZING GRACE (K/S), Dorothy Laoang, 1984

- "To Face The Future", A.T. Bush, 33 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. McCoy is trying to care for Kirk and deal with his own grief over Spock's death. Life is further complicated by the approach of Klingons to investigate the Genesis planet. Kirk suddenly begins to hear Spock calling for their help and sensors show a life form on the planet.

ANGRY SUNSET, Jennifer Elson, 69 pgs, British Novella - Probably the most unpleasant picture of McCoy's wife and his marriage that you will ever read. Interesting picture of a strong, long-time friendship between McCoy and Montgomery Scott.

ANOTHER (K/S), Darien Duck and Phoebe Entwistle, 1982

- "Resting Place", Beverly Sutherland, 77 pgs - Moving novella where we learn of the aftermath of Spock's death in 'The Wrath of Khan' from McCoy's point of view. We are given new insight into the Kirk/Spock relationship and both the positive and negative aspects of death.

AND ANOTHER (K/S), Phoebe Entwistle, 1983

- "No Secrets", Devery Helm, 6 1/2 pgs - When McCoy learns that Kirk and Spock are lovers he must fight his feelings of pain and frustration at his inability to be part of something that means so much to Kirk. He is unsure of his part in the relationship, but Kirk and Spock are determined that the Doctor realize his friendship is wanted and needed as much as ever.

ARCHIVES #2, Johanna Cantor, 1978

"While Still We Feel", Johanna Cantor, 15 pgs - Kirk, Spock and McCoy are called upon to help Gem and her people. They have been relocated by the Vians, but their culture is not thriving.

ARCHIVES #6, Johanna Cantor, 1982

"The Fool's Gift", C.J. McNally, 3 pgs - A rare glimpse into McCoy's childhood. Why did he show such interest in the battered tricycle in the Miri episode? Learn how a young McCoy does a lot of growing up on his 5th birthday.

ARCHIVES #7, Johanna Cantor, 1983

"The Stranger", Ruth Ann Hepner and Johanna Cantor, 19 pgs - McCoy, expecting to be transported to the Surgeon General's Office, arrives instead on an Amish farm on Earth in the year 1979. He tries to fit into the life of the farm while hoping for rescue. Then comes the challenge of a Poliomyelitis epidemic.

"A Civilized Man", Lynda Carraher, 9 1/2 pgs - McCoy is on a fishing trip with an alien friend. A Ka'ardeshi kills his friend and takes McCoy captive. The Ka'ardeshi maintains that to kill is instinctive and that McCoy would kill him if he was given the chance. When the Ka'ardeshi is badly burned, McCoy proves he is a civilized man by doing his utmost to save his enemy.

AS I DO THEE #1 (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1984

"Seaside Rendezvous - An Interlude", Sharon Fetter, 13 pgs - An exploration of McCoy's reactions to the sexual relationship of his two best friends.

"The Edge Of Certainty", Alayne Gelfand, 26 pgs - Spock has not recovered his sight after Deneva. We share McCoy's guilt and his efforts to use new methods to restore the Vulcan's sight.

"Coming To Terms", Devery Helm, 5 pgs - Another story of McCoy's awkwardness in accepting the Kirk/Spock relationship and in finding his place in the relationship. Kirk and Spock have invited McCoy on a leave to try to resolve the conflict.

AS I DO THEE #2 (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1984

"Second Chance", Toni Cardinal-Price, 3 pgs - We join McCoy and Kirk in the sickbay of the Bird of Prey as they watch over Spock. It is easy to feel the depth of their friendship and their love for Spock.

"The Stars Far Away", Faris Vincent, 8 pgs - It is the end of the five year mission. McCoy, about to leave for Georgia, has come to Kirk to try to heal the rift that developed when Kirk accepted the ground assignment. Kirk needs to know that McCoy will not desert him as he feels Spock has done.

"The Control Of Destiny", Toni Cardinal-Price, 4 1/2 pgs - Spock's anger and fear over Kirk's reckless behavior disturbs him to the point where he is considering leaving the ship. It is McCoy's council that helps the Vulcan understand his feelings.

"The Reward", Debi, 36 1/2 pgs - A sequel to 'The Prize' by Ray Newton. McCoy's lunar shuttle has been attacked by a slaver ship and the captured Doctor will be sold at the slave market in ShiKahr. Before this can happen, he is rescued by a party of warriors led by Spock and his slave, Jim Kirk. McCoy saves the life of a wounded Kirk and is accepted into the household of Spock and into the bed of Spock's Aunt T'Kara.

AS I DO THEE #3 (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1985

"Echoes", Donya Blacque, 19 1/2 pgs - Kirk, McCoy and Spock are on Vulcan following the Fal Tor Pan. They are trying to recover from the experience and re-establish some type of relationship. McCoy is experiencing the lingering effects of Spock's presence in his mind and it appears that Spock and McCoy are going to be inseparable for some time to come and Spock begins to realize that he and McCoy are very much alike.

"Of Private Dreams", Joann Marek, 5 pgs - Spock and Kirk have admitted their love for each other to themselves, but not to each other. Separately they seek out McCoy for his guidance.

AS I DO THEE #4 (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1986

"Frozen Stiff", Marie Surah, 16 pgs - A mission on the glacier of a cold planet becomes dangerous as Kirk, Spock and McCoy are trapped in a crevasse. It is a time of danger, shared memories and affection as they wait for rescue.

"Where The Ice Breaks", Faris Vincent, 1 pg - Kirk has just learned of McCoy's approaching death. He seeks out Spock while trying to imagine life without McCoy or what life would be if it were Spock who were dying.

AS I DO THEE #8 (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1987

"Odd Man Out", Lynn Showei, McCoy and Spock are lovers. It is a truly loving, caring relationship for both men, but they knew from the beginning that it would end when Kirk realized his love for the Vulcan. That time has come and Spock plans for one last very special night with the doctor.

BACK TREKKING, Selections from Pastaklan Vesla #1-#4, 1970-1972

"Deadlock", Michelle Malkin, 25 pgs - There is a dispute over a planet with large veins of Dilithium. The Enterprise is sent to orbit the planet until its ownership is established. When a Romulan ship arrives the Organians once more intervene and decree that the fate of that part of the galaxy will be settled by the actions of one person from each ship that will be sent to the planet. The Enterprise representative is McCoy.

"Spectre Out Of The Past", Michelle Malkin, 14 pgs - The Enterprise rescues the survivors of a passenger liner that was attacked by Orions. One of the injured is McCoy's x-wife and contact with her puts an end to 20 years of a dream of reconciliation.

BAIT ONCE, BAIT TWICE, Lee Jaecks; 1980, 243 pgs, (Novel) - Kirk, exposed to the deadly rays of Delta Radiation, has been relieved from duty and Spock is in command. McCoy and Christine work frantically to find a cure for Kirk while Spock, Scotty and all are fighting a desperate battle with the Klingons.

BERENGARIA #8, Vicki R. Kirlin, 1976

"Meld", (no author), 3 pgs - Jim Kirk is awakened by Spock's voice in his mind. Soon Lt. Ker appears at his door. A telepath, Lt. Ker has also been summoned by Spock's voice. They find Spock in the Biology Lab trying to revive Leonard McCoy who has been bitten by a poisonous spider. The medical team pronounce McCoy dead, but Spock and Lt. Ker use their combined mental powers to save his life.

BERENGARIA #10, Teri Meyer and Vicki Kirlin, 1978

"The Gathering", Michele Arvizu, 25 pgs - The death of a loved one and a reunion with his ex-wife leaves McCoy shattered and doubting his ability to function as CMO on the Enterprise.

THE BEST OF I'M A DOCTOR, NOT A..., Datazine Publications, 1984

(Reprints of stories that originally appeared in this publication of the DeForest Kelley Association of Fans.)

"World's May Change, and Galaxies", M.L. 'Steve' Barnes

"The Need", Cheryl Shelton

"Heat Wave", M.L. 'Steve' Barnes

"Blue Rain", M.L. 'Steve' Barnes

BEYOND MUTARA, Sheila Clark, 1983

"Remembering", Ann Preece, 4 pgs - McCoy seeks the solitude of his quarters as he attempts to deal with his grief at Spock's death. Hours of memories do not bring peace and he is about to seek out Kirk when the Captain arrives at his door to offer his company to the doctor.

BEYOND ORION II, Carol Hunterton, Lee Jaecks and Carolyn Venino, 1977

"And So To Bed", Carol Hunterton, 1 pg - Still tortured by memories of his first wife, McCoy battles these memories and the desire to drink them away.

"Night Vigil", Carolyn Venino, 1 pg - Poem - This time it is Spock keeping the vigil over McCoy who was injured protecting Spock.

BEYOND THE FARTHEST STAR #2 (Adult), Bill Hupe, 1987

"Southern Comfort", Linda McInnis, 10 1/2 pgs - McCoy is back in Atlanta on a medical leave and uncertain about returning to the Enterprise. A chance meeting with a woman he knew many years ago helps the doctor make the decision about his future.

CAPTAIN'S LOG, VOYAGE 6, Richard Pollet, 1982

"Just A Few Memories", Frances M. Wilson, 7 1/2 pgs - Leonard McCoy is reluctant to accept the assignment of CMO on the Enterprise until he learns the name of the new Captain. As McCoy spends his last hours on earth, he recalls past encounters with James Kirk.

CAPTAIN'S LOG 7/8, Richard Pollet, 1983

"You Got'ta Know When To Hold 'Em", Rowena Warner, 8 1/2 pgs - Scotty and a reluctant Spock are the subjects of McCoy's experiment to determine why Vulcans are less affected by alcohol than humans. Scotty, the old hand with a drink, is certain he can outdrink the Vulcan. Interest is high and the betting is heavy.

CAPTAIN'S LOG, VOYAGE 9, Richard Pollett, 1984

"The Burden", Allyson Mann, 4 pgs - Post ST:TUOK. Christine Chapel is studying at the Vulcan Science Academy when Dr. McCoy and Captain Kirk come to tell her of Spock's death.

"What's In A Voice", Richard Pollet, 5 pgs - After being the victim of a number of practical jokes which he is sure were Kirk inspired and aided by a certain Vulcan, McCoy seeks his revenge.

"An Application Of Colloquial Psychology", Frances M. Wilson, 10 pgs - McCoy and Spock help Kirk recover from the psychological damage inflicted by capture and torture.

THE COMPLETE FAULWELL/LANDING PARTY 6, VOLUMES 1 AND 2, Gordon Carleton, 1985

These two volumes contain the on again, off again romance between Leonard McCoy and Sadie Faulwell that was carried originally in the zine 'Warped Space'. Volume 2 carries 'The Book of Changes', the only new story in the series. It is an alternate sequel to ST II and is 40 pages in length.

THE COMPLETE RACK, Martha J. Bonds, Nancy J. Kippax and Beverly J. Volker (J. Emily Vance), 1984

One volume that contains "The Rack" and "All The King's Horses, All The King's Men" plus three additional stories that were not printed before this volume. 198 pgs

CONTACT #2, Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 1976

"The Third Wheel", Connie Faddis, 7 pgs - A classic McCoy story. The doctor suffers the grief and loneliness of being the third wheel in the relationship with Kirk and Spock until a near fatal accident shows him the depth of their caring.

CONTACT #3, Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 1977

"Difference Is A Virtue", Marion Dougall, 5 pgs - Kirk's mind has been injured by a psychic weapon. McCoy with his emotion, affection, and humor joins with Spock to heal their Captain.

CONTACT #4, Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 1977

"The Rack", J. Emily Vance, 59 pgs - The rumors of a homosexual relationship between Spock and Kirk run throughout Starfleet. Although untrue, the rumors become so serious that Spock decides to resign his commission. McCoy tries to help both men but is unsuccessful. Kirk, who is depressed and recovering from an injury, accidentally or purposely takes an overdose of pills and dies.

CONTACT #5/6, Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 1979

"Home Is The Hunter", Nancy Kippax and Beverly Volker, 137 pgs - Jim Kirk is returned to the Federation after 10 months as a prisoner resulting from his arrest on a spy mission. He is a broken man and Spock takes him to an ocean side retreat in an attempt to restore him both physically and mentally. Spock soon realizes he cannot do this alone and calls upon McCoy for his help.

CONTACT #7, Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 1981

"Wait For The Morning", Marion McChesney, 47 1/2 pgs - Spock persuades a very unwilling McCoy to withhold from Kirk that the Captain has a malignant brain tumor for which there is no treatment. When Spock dies in an accident protecting Kirk, McCoy reveals the truth to the Captain and is told with great bitterness that Kirk wants the doctor out of his life forever. McCoy leaves, but it is not long before both men realize their need for each other.

CORDRAZINE, Julie McCoy, 1981

"Cheap Thrills", Christopher Boyle, 7 pgs - McCoy helps a young ensign overcome the obsession that has led him to share his quarters with 121 tribbles.

"Broken Rules, Desperate Chances", Julie McCoy, 17 pgs - Adventure story in which McCoy follows his x-wife into Klingon territory.

CRYSTAL CONSTELLATION, Linda Rossi and Sarah Thompson, 1984

"The Fatal Spark", (author unknown), 47 pgs - On shore leave McCoy meets an old college friend who is now head of Neurology on a penal colony. He claims his superior is running an illegal mining operation under the prison and using prisoners to do the mining and he wants McCoy to help him prove it. McCoy agrees and endangers his life in the process.

"If I Had Known", (author unknown), 30 pgs - Spock has been dead a year when Kirk and McCoy are sent back in time through the Guardian of Forever to a Vulcan where the young Spock is still alive.

DAGGER OF THE MIND, Fern Marder and Carol Walski, 1980

"And All My Days Before Me", Ingrid Cross, 10 pgs - At the end of the five year mission, McCoy is about to meet Natira again and a decision must be made about their future.

"Afro-Disiac", Winston A. Howlett, 6 1/2 pgs - A shore leave shared with Uhura, Tonia Barrows and Lieutenant Tai Busher turns out to be a little more exciting than planned.

DARING ATTEMPT #3 (K/S), Wendy Rathbone, 1985

"A Handful Of Dust", Donya Blacque, 13 pgs - The men of the Enterprise have just returned from Vulcan following Spock's Pon Farr. The tension between Kirk and Spock is threatening to end their friendship until McCoy's guidance is able to bring them back together.

"What Are Friends For?", Ann Carver, 30 1/2 pgs - When the Vulcan Council refuses Spock's request to have his relationship with Kirk formally recognized, it causes so much conflict between the two men that they part. Spock returns to Vulcan and Kirk leaves the Enterprise. McCoy realizes how miserable his friends are and does everything possible to see them reunited without success. Spock's capture by Romulans brings Kirk to his rescue and they are together again. Now it is McCoy who is bitter and alone as his friends seem to have no time for him. Spock finally realizes what is troubling McCoy and sets about to assure the doctor that he is loved.

"My Word Is My Bond", Robin Hood, 5 pgs - As Jim Kirk died, he forced Spock to promise not to follow him into death. Spock's agony, as he tries to fulfill his promise, is too much for McCoy and the doctor finds a way for Spock to break his promise.

DECK FIVE DIGEST #1, Terry Martin and Katharine Scarritt, 1981

"Brother's Keeper", Ruth Berman, 5 1/2 pgs - Spock cares for an ill McCoy while they are stranded on an unfriendly planet.

"Graven Image", Mary Lowe, 4 pgs - Spock has summoned McCoy to Vulcan to ask his help in cloning a duplicate of the deceased James Kirk.

"Smidgeon Of Passion", Pam Rose, 6 1/2 pgs - McCoy requests leave in Georgia. Could it be? It is...the Ponn Pecan!

DECK FIVE DIGEST #2, Katharine Scarritt and Deborah Townsend, 1982

"LT. Teddy", Landa Brannick, 5 pgs - A group of animals, including a Sehlat, are brought aboard the Enterprise for transport. McCoy tries to keep the Sehlats presence a surprise until Spock's birthday.

DECK FIVE DIGEST #3, Janet Meek Beckwith, 1983

"Sweet Vengeance", Diane Miskiewicz, 10 pgs - McCoy, motivated by good intentions, manages to alienate Spock, Scotty and Kirk.

"And The Moon Is Full And Bright", Patty Bushman, 42 pgs - McCoy is bitten by an animal that turns out to be a werewolf. As a result he becomes one himself. His friends, with the help of a woman claiming super natural powers, attempt to remove this curse.

DELTA TRIAD #1, Laura L. Scarsdale and Melinda Shreve, 1975

"The Alphan Primaries", Mary Louise Dodge, 69 pgs - McCoy has been invited to attend the manhood rites of a son he has not seen since the boy was 5 days old.

DELTA TRIAD #2, Laura Scarsdale and Melinda Shreve, 1976

"Companion Four", Laura Scarsdale and Mary Lou Dodge, 27 1/2 pgs - McCoy tries to solve the mystery behind a genetic defect that plagues the population of the planet Vesha III. He has a special interest in the cure because of his affection for one of the lovely inhabitants of the planet.

DELTA TRIAD #3, Laura L. Scarsdale and Melinda Shreve, 1976

"A Question Of Priorities", Mary Louise Dodge, 29 1/2 pgs - McCoy is gravely injured and in need of immediate transport to a medical facility. Mr. Spock and Captain Kirk are on a planet out of contact with the Enterprise and with chem-immunity to the planets deadly radiation for a few hours. Does Mr. Scott deliver McCoy to the medical help he must have or wait to retrieve his First Officer and Captain?

"To A Time Divided", Mary Lou Dodge, Laura Scarsdale and Melinda Shreve, 50 pgs - A whiplash back to the year 1864 with Kirk, McCoy and Uhura being sent to Earth. Archaeologists have uncovered a library with a storehouse of knowledge that can only be opened with a key that happens to be hidden in Georgia, Terra.

"Insight Into The Empath", Laura Scarsdale, Melinda Shreve and William Hickey, 2 pgs.

DELTA TRIAD #4, Melinda Shreve, 1977

"Bivouac", Melinda Shreve, Laura Scarsdale and Mary Louise Dodge, 45 pgs - Deeply concerned by the antagonism that exists between McCoy and Spock, Kirk sends them on an isolated one week survey in the hope that it will bring them closer.

"Rigel Five", Joe Martin, 28 1/2 pgs - Five Rigellians come aboard the Enterprise to conduct secret scientific experiments using the ships facilities. McCoy becomes very close to one of the young scientists, not realizing the successful conclusion of their work will mean the death of all five scientists.

"Lillith", Fran Smith, 3 1/2 pgs - McCoy returns to his home for a short time before reporting for Starfleet duty. His Father wishes him well, but his Mother refuses to see or speak to him.

"The Resignation", Marian Kelly, 3 pgs - McCoy prepares to resign due to the insult his defiance of T'Pol brought to Vulcan. Then Spock comes forward to express his gratitude to the doctor.

DELTA TRIAD #5, Linda Scarsdale and Melinda Reynolds, 1979

"The Cultural Investigators", Mary Louise Dodge, 4 1/2 pgs - 'In the name of cultural understanding', Scotty and McCoy investigate the quarters of their First Officer.

"Mission And Men", Mary Lou Dodge, Laura Scarsdale and Melinda Shreve, 54 pgs - After failing to save a patient for whom he has special feelings, McCoy plans to hide away doing pure research. Then a critically ill Lt. Kirk comes under his care. McCoy risks his career to win a battle his colleagues believe is hopeless. Kirk recovers to promise that when he becomes a Captain, McCoy will be his CMO. McCoy's faith in himself as a doctor is renewed.

DELTA TRIAD, SUPPLEMENT 1 - R, Mary Louise Dodge, Melinda Shreve and Laura Scarsdale, 1977

"Autumn's Echo", Mary Louise Dodge, Melinda Shreve and Laura Scarsdale, 34 pgs - McCoy makes a happy and rewarding visit home. He helps settle affairs concerning the family, enjoys a romantic interlude in an idyllic cabin, and is kidnapped by three local roughnecks. He beats them hands down in a brawl and to top it off, parks their aircar in a most inconvenient spot.

DESTINY'S CHILDREN #3, Florence Butler, 1987

"Interim", Libby West, 2 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Kirk in the sickbay of the Bird of Prey as they rush to Vulcan.

"Case Study Of A Victim", Miki Wordsmith, 12 1/2 pgs - McCoy is surprised to find Jim Kirk in his quarters when he returns from a memorial service for an old friend. Kirk thinks the doctor might need to talk and McCoy realizes he would like to tell Kirk about the important part Dr. Silverman played in his life.

DILITHIUM CRYSTALS #1, Jacqueline Edwards, 1979

"The Healing", Jacqueline Edwards and M.S. Murdock, 12 pgs - Uhura, Scotty and Mr. Spock do everything they can to encourage a romance between Dr. McCoy and Christine Chapel.

DILITHIUM CRYSTALS #2, Jacqueline Edwards, 1982

"Remember", Sue Keenan, 3 pgs - McCoy agonizing over the death of Spock and what it is he is to 'remember'.

"Leonard McCoy: Diplomat", Sue Keenan, 8 pgs - Recovering from serious injuries on Beta VI and waiting for the return of the Enterprise, McCoy happens into a situation where he defends a group of Vulcans against the insults of Starfleet personnel. This leads to an invitation to the Vulcan embassy and a reunion with Sarek, Amanda and T'Pol.

"Notification", Jacqueline Edwards, 4 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. McCoy takes on the sad task of informing Christine Chapel of Spock's death.

DILITHIUM CRYSTALS #3, Media Press, 1986

"Sleight Of Hand", Sue Keenan, 25 pgs - The Enterprise captures a belligerent, young, female smuggler who calls herself Tonia. When it is learned that the Klingons have developed a vaccine that will allow them to release a deadly virus on the Federation, Kirk offers Tonia her freedom if she will use her underground connections to infiltrate a Klingon planet and steal the vaccine formula. McCoy is the medical expert assigned to accompany Tonia on this dangerous mission.

DIVERSE DIMENSIONS #4, Mary Jo Blythe, Jeannie Deem and Elaine Webster, 1983

"Lament", Cheryl Flint, 14 pgs - An injured Commander Spock is treated by an outpost doctor. One version of the first meeting between Spock and McCoy.

"Safety Factor", Roberta Rogow, 3 pgs - A series of memos between Leonard McCoy, Medical Officer, USS Enterprise and Starfleet Engineering personnel. Subject: The Transporter.

DIVERSE DIMENSIONS #5, Mary Jo Blythe and Elaine Webster, 1984

"A Patient Outlook", P.E. Kinlock, 84 pgs - A sudden energy surge as McCoy is being transported lands him right in the middle of the Korean War as a patient in the '4077' MASH Unit.

DON'T TELL IT TO THE CAPTAIN, Collette Max, Beverly Zuk and Mardy Lawski, 1983, 142 pgs, (Novel) - Spock is injured so badly that he may be taken off the ship for specialized treatment, but not while McCoy is CMO. Never one to bow to regulations, McCoy breaks them all, shanghi-ing a doctor to tend to Spock and turning sickbay and the Enterprise upside down to keep the Vulcan on the ship without his knowledge, behind Kirk's back and during of all things, a major tour of inspection. Be prepared to hold your sides.

ENERGIZE, Cindy Silver, 1975

"The Gardener's Craft", Connie Faddis, 19 1/2 pgs - A landing party discovers a lush tropical garden on an otherwise desolate planet. They become the guests of the friendly 'gardeners' of this planet, a humanoid species with remarkable mind scanning abilities. When Kirk is injured in a rockslide his legs must be amputated and McCoy learns that the gardeners have the knowledge to care for more than the plants of their planet.

ENTER-COMM #1, Marjorie McKenna, Wendy Rockburn, 1979

"The Morning After", Kandie Stripe, 3 pgs - McCoy's attempt to 'help' Spock after a night of celebration.

"Time And Music", Abigail Waldren, 14 pgs - McCoy and the rest of the crew attempt to help Spock deal with the death of Jim Kirk.

ENTER-COMM #2, Marjorie McKenna, 1980

"One-Finger Symphony", Eileen Roy, 2 1/2 pgs - McCoy helps a despondent Christine deal with her feelings about Spock.

"Home Again", Jean Stevensen, 2 pgs - A reunion with Joanna told from her point of view.

ENTER-COMM #3, Maureen McKenna and Marjorie McKenna, 1980

"There But For The Grace", Wendy Rockburn, 8 pgs - A chance encounter with a Starfleet Captain who lost his two closest friends reaffirms Jim Kirk's appreciation of Spock and McCoy.

ENTER-COMM #4, Marjorie McKenna, 1981

"Sometimes Just The Nearness", Denise Tathwell, 30 pgs - Trapped by unknown forces and many of the crew ill, including Kirk, McCoy strives to cure the illness while Spock works to release the ship.

"You Can't Get There From Here", Wendy Rockburn, 25 pgs - Spock, Kirk and McCoy are kidnaped to prevent them from being the Federation's representatives at a very important ceremony. Story tells of their humorous adventures as they attempt to get to the ceremonies on time.

"Candle In The Dark", Wendy Rockburn, 2 pgs - McCoy's letter to Joanna telling of Spock's disappearance and the reaction of Jim Kirk.

ENTER-COMM #5, Darien Duck and Marjorie McKenna, 1982

"A Test Of Pride", Joyce Tullock, 16 pgs - A torrential rainstorm has destroyed an archaeological research project with which Dr. McCoy was serving. This story reveals the feelings of Kirk, Spock and others as they search for the Doctor, and of McCoy as he struggles to survive.

"The Reason Why", Darien Duck, 5 pgs - McCoy's account of the events of Spock's first Pon Farr.

ENTER-COMM #6, Canadian Contingent Press, Marjorie McKenna, et. al., 1983

"The Kismet", K.V. Wylie, 24 pgs - Is Dr. McCoy the Wayfarer who will save the people of Peron? A fatally ill McCoy is believed to be...

"The Take", Frances M. Wilson, 24 pgs - McCoy and Spock are on a mission to trade with the people of the Norii System for their crystallized minerals and to find a missing James Kirk.

ENTER-COMM #7, Canadian Contingent Press, 1984

"An Old Sweet Song Of...", Debbie Painter, 8 pgs - The love between two friends is shown as McCoy cares for Spock who is fatally ill as the result of the radiation accident that killed James Kirk.

ENTER-COMM #8, Canadian Contingent Press, 1984

"The Substitute", Charmaine Wood, 6 pgs - Leonard McCoy is on a leave of absence from the Enterprise, but we get a very good insight into the doctor through the eyes of his substitute.

"McCoy Discovery", Cathy Gilchrist, 17 1/2 pgs - McCoy is stranded on a landing party assignment by an ion storm. Injured and alone he is rescued by the only inhabitant of the planet, a large humanoid female.

"The Sallin Gift", Madona Skaff, 10 1/2 pgs - McCoy has received a gift from the Sallins, a crystalline stone with the power to intensify thoughts and dreams. The stone is so powerful that Spock is affected along with McCoy.

ERIDANI TRIAD #3, Gail Barton, Doris Beetem and Judith Brownlee, 1972

"The Mating Game", 14 pgs - It is amazing when Spock requests leave on Wrigley's Pleasure Planet and even more amazing when he is the only one missing when the crew is recalled. All evidence points to the fact that Mr. Spock is in Jenny's House of Joy. When McCoy readily admits he was the one who gave Spock the address, it is logical that McCoy be the one to accompany Kirk as he attempts to 'rescue' Mr. Spock.

"A Little More Than Kin, But Less Than Kind", Devra Langsam, 21 1/2 pgs - Sara, a young Vulcan girl comes aboard as a passenger. She has been raised by humans and has very little knowledge of things Vulcan. Spock thinks she should be trained as a Vulcan on Vulcan and Sara rebels. This time McCoy is the one to come up with the logical solution to their conflict.

"The Hunting", Doris Beetem, 10 pgs - McCoy accompanies Spock on a hunt which is the Vulcan rite of passage into adulthood. It turns out to be the most trying time for both participants.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE #1, Sharon Gates, Mona Golden, Linda Lakin and Phyllis Sutter, 1981

"Revelations", Linda Lakin, 6 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TMP. Spock is having great difficulty dealing with the emotions he is now able to acknowledge. He needs someone to talk to, someone to help, and it is McCoy he asks for that help.

"Take Two Aspirins And...", Linda Lakin, 1 pg - Everyone has a cold except Spock and McCoy is trying to figure out what makes him immune. Spock is not enthusiastic about the doctor's research.

"Logically Speaking", Sharon Gates and Mona Golden, 12 pgs - While on a landing party assignment McCoy picks up a stone which renders the person closest to it completely logical. It isn't long before the other members of the landing party notice the change that has come over their friend.

"Another Parting", Sandra Randant, 1 1/2 pgs - Spock seeks out McCoy for a final farewell at the end of the five year mission. McCoy's initial anger at Spock for leaving is snuffed out by his love for the Vulcan.

"Sweet Solitude", Sandra Randant, 1 1/2 pgs - The end of a day at McCoy's research cabin and we sit on the porch and share his thoughts about his life and his friends from the Enterprise.

"I've Been Drafted", Sharon Gates, 2 1/2 pgs - McCoy has a hard time maintaining his outrage when he learns that he has been drafted.

"Stranded Again", Deborah Kelley, 3 pgs - Typical dialogue between McCoy and Spock as they are stranded together by a non-functioning transporter.

"The Planet Enterprise, Part I", Sharon Gates, 25 pgs - Fifteen years after the V'Ger mission, the Enterprise is decommissioned. Kirk with Spock, McCoy and Scotty purchase the ship and receive permission to colonize a newly re-opened planet.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE #2, Sharon Gates, Mona Golden, Linda Lakin and Phyllis Sutter, 1982

"The Ivy And The Wall", Deborah Kelley, 4 pgs - The shock of Jim Kirk's murder has caused Spock to withdraw from life and he has spent many years in a withdrawn state that even the Vulcan healers cannot penetrate. McCoy has remained close all through the years, but now McCoy is dying and he decides to end both their lives with dignity.

"The Planet Enterprise, Part II", Sharon Gates, 79 1/2 pgs - Planet Enterprise is ready for colonists: all former crewmen on the Enterprise. Christine Chapel accepts McCoy's invitation to join the group and discovers a love for the doctor that leads to their marriage. Scotty and Spock have also found wives. Uhura returns for McCoy's wedding and is drawn to Kirk. After a stormy courtship they are married. There is happiness for all until the Kzinti attack the planet.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE #3, Sharon Gates and Mona Golden, 1983

"Spock's Triangle", Marlene Schmierbach, 3 pgs - McCoy asks Spock why his hands are placed in a triangle position when he meditates and is surprised to learn that the reason involves the doctor himself.

"Echo Of A Memory", Sue Keenan, 18 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise orbits Vulcan where Captain Kirk is to attend a diplomatic affair and the rest of the crew will have shore leave. Every one, that is, except McCoy who has been warned that to return to Vulcan means death. T'Pol has not forgiven his interference during Spock's Pon Farr. When Spock is injured while on the planet it soon becomes apparent that McCoy must go to Vulcan to save Spock's life. And if he does it will likely lead to his own death.

"Remember", Melissa Lee, 1 pg - Post ST:TWOK. As McCoy rests following all the bloodshed of Khan's savagery, his dreams are of Spock's experiences as seen through Spock's eyes.

"Planet Enterprise, Part III", Sharon Gates, 57 pgs - The Kzinti attack the planet and Uhura, Sulu and Chekov are part of the help sent by the Federation. McCoy, Spock and Kirk rejoin Starfleet and help to defeat the Kzinti, but not before Scotty and Uhura are injured. All ends happily with Christine and Scotty's wife producing baby boys, Uhura with twins and Spock's wife expecting a child: The new generation of Planet Enterprise.

EXCALIBUR #1, (British), Shirley Lambard, Date of Publication Unknown

"Daan Indians", Shirley Lambard, 7 pgs - McCoy, Scotty, Sulu and young Yeoman Paula Yelrish accompany Captain Kirk on a landing party to form a treaty between the natives of the planet and the Federation. They are met by a hostile group and in the battle Kirk is wounded. The story tells of McCoy's efforts, aided by his friends, to care for Kirk until the Enterprise can come to their rescue.

"McCoy", Jackie A. Clarke, 11 pgs - McCoy joins the Enterprise and finds his young Captain puzzling and annoying: 'A young upstart'. Time and shared experiences lead to the cementing of their friendship.

EXCALIBUR #2, (British), Shirley Lambard, Date of Publication Unknown

"New World", Lynn Campion, 2 1/2 pgs - It is 14 months since McCoy left Yanada and now the Enterprise is approaching New Fabrini and a reunion with Natira.

EXCALIBUR #5, (British), Shirley Lambard, 1980

"Journey's End", Gladys Oliver, 2 1/2 pgs - We share McCoy's thoughts as he looks back on his life following the V'Ger mission and we share a conversation with Spock as the two men re-establish their friendship.

"McCoy's Secret", Barbara Chegwiddden, 17 1/2 pgs - McCoy keeps a secret that leads his staff and friends to believe that he is neglecting his duties to pursue a romantic interest. The object of his desire is a woman newly assigned to the Enterprise and young enough to be his daughter.

FANTASY I, Bonnie Guyan, 1982

"The Fabric Of A Dream", Bonnie Guyan, 35 pgs - What you call the world of Star Trek goes far beyond the imagination. The mind of a true genius gave birth to the original concept, but thousands of fans have documented and created such detail that the world of Star Trek has crossed from make-believe to a reality of its own. Join a young writer as she steps past the threshold and travels through time and space to a place yet unknown to mankind of today. It is there that both you and she will first meet an officer of the U.S.S. Enterprise...

FANTASY II, Bonnie Guyan, 1983

"Remember Rodenba", Bonnie Guyan, 41 pgs - A shuttlecraft crash sends McCoy and Spock into a mysterious world where the Doctor finds a young woman who he loves and lends to his decision not to return to the Enterprise.

FANTASY III, Bonnie Guyan 1983

"All The Kings Men", Bonnie Guyan, 54 pgs - Following the supposed death of the ship's First Officer, McCoy joins with Kirk to unveil a mastery of disguise. A romance set in the times of knights of old when kings and queens ruled the world from their castles and dungeons.

FANTASY IV, Bonnie Guyan, 1984

"The Kinship - The Final Chapters", 50 pgs - Spock and Kirk are requested by Joanna McCoy to attend the memorial service for her father. A difficult time for all until word comes that the doctor is alive. Their joyful reunion is interrupted by an adventure that threatens all of their lives.

FANTASY VI, Bonnie Guyan, 1987

"Shaman", Bonnie Guyan, 21 pgs - McCoy has long been fascinated by the Indian cultures of Old Earth. Now he is on a planet with a settlement said to be identical to those Indians. While accompanying Kirk and Spock on a horseback trip into the mountains of this planet, McCoy is seriously wounded. The reality of his life divides. He exists on the Enterprise, fighting to survive the bullet wound; and he exists on the planet with the gentle Indian woman - Moheya - caring for him.

"The Legend Of Lone Sky", Bonnie Guyan, 14 pgs - McCoy, Kirk and Spock step through the Guardian into the American Southwest in the year 1851. They are sent to a Cheyenne village where they must try to prevent the destruction of these gentle people. Unknown to all, McCoy has a special destiny apart from fighting the enemies of the Cheyenne.

"Manted", Bonnie Guyan, 15 pgs - Aaron IV, is one of the most beautiful planets in the Beta Sector of the galaxy. The peaceful home of a nomadic people known as the Coinjock. Resembling the American Indian of the planet Earth, their tribal laws and mysteries become painfully clear to McCoy as he battles both the forces of man and nature to learn the secrets of the distant mountains.

FANTASY VII, Bonnie Guyan, 1987

"The Rape Of A Rock", Bonnie Guyan, 30 pgs - Spock's mind has been wiped clean by the mind-sifter and he is about to be placed in a sanitarium until he can be transferred to Vulcan. We learn of the events that led up to the tragedy and we are with McCoy as he bids a gentle farewell to his friend. Months later, Kirk and McCoy return to Vulcan where they accompany a partially recovered Spock on a trip into the mountains. Their adventure endangers McCoy's life, but helps restore Spock's memory and leads to his return to the Enterprise. (This story also appeared in Nexus #4 and Plak Tow #4)

FANTASY VIII, Bonnie Guyan, 1987

"Whalehead", Bonnie Guyan, 54 pgs - As the result of a shuttle accident, McCoy along with Kirk and Spock are transported back to a coastal village of the Twentieth Century. Without hope of rescue, they finally face the reality of facing a future in a frightening new world. McCoy's future has become his past though, as time no longer becomes a constant.

FANTASY IX, Bonnie Guyan, 1988

"Whalehead Revisited", Bonnie Guyan, 47 pgs - Lighthouses and surf-pounded beaches continue to tantalize the imagination in the sequel to 'Whalehead'. Unanswered questions the Enterprise crew found in the 20th century New England now come to light with a blinding force. McCoy's past has come forth to haunt his future.

FANTASY X, Bonnie Guyan, 1988

"Duplication Of The Heart", Bonnie Guyan, 48 pgs - Dungeons and thrillers unite as the first chapter that originally appeared in Plak Tow combines with its long awaited exciting conclusion. When superior beings interfere with the crew of the Enterprise, McCoy is drawn in as a spectator to witness the mysterious bonding between Spock and Christine Chapel. But...which Spock?

FANTASY XI, Bonnie Guyan, 1988

"Star Struck", Cheree Cargill, 8 pgs - A cartoon in writing that shows an off-color version of where no man has gone before! Prepare to howl out loud as the true personalities of the Enterprise crew surface.

"Foot In Mouth Disease", Bonnie Guyan, 4 pgs - After a night of over-indulgence, McCoy, Spock and Kirk awake to find themselves trapped inside a cargo hold. A comedy of dialogue that gives the word 'hangover' a new meaning.

"The Devil In Music", Carol Mularski, 8 pgs - On a planet where its natives communicate entirely in musical tones, Spock performs a musical number that nearly gets the entire Enterprise crew shot at sunrise!

"Who", Bonnie Guyan, 5 pgs - A feathery, one-eyed dustmop becomes McCoy's 'pet' while on shoreleave, but little do Kirk or Spock know that 'Harold', as the creature is dubbed, has the ability to make dreams come true. A few erotic, as well as tender fantasies are revealed, much to each individuals embarrassment.

"Basilisk", Bonnie Guyan, 2 pgs - Kirk and Spock pull a con job on an unsuspecting McCoy. Will the Enterprise Three become 'dragon bait'....?

"Is This Any Way To Run A Shoreleave?", Rayelle Roe, 12 pgs - Following a miserable illness, McCoy sends Kirk and Spock on a forced shoreleave...but the surroundings are not what the pair might have chosen for themselves. Barn yard antics explode as Kirk teaches Spock to milk a cow, in turn, Spock testing culinary delights on his Captain. But, vengeance is sweet. A little treat is prepared for McCoy on the last day of the shoreleave.

FANTASY XII, Bonnie Guyan, 1988

"The Moon Of Trius 2", Toni Cardinal-Price, 33 pgs - An epidemic breaks out on a colony, and the Enterprise is called to help. Never suspecting the manipulation of alien creatures, Spock and Christine set about making a serum to cure the illness. One of the colonists that has already died though, turns out to be a lost love of the Vulcan's - Leila Kalome - and despite Kirk's and McCoy's efforts, little can appease Spock's shielded grief.

"Circle Of Fire", Bonnie Guyan, 4 pgs - Seated within the halo of light provided by a campfire, Spock and McCoy share the pain of loss. Ridden with guilt over the death of Spock's wife, McCoy finds solace through the Vulcan himself...while Spock finds comfort in a treasured gift from the doctor.

FANTASY LTD, Bonnie Guyan, 1988

"Nun Too Soon", Bonnie Guyan, 27 pgs - As a representative of Starfleet on a newly organized planet, Leonard McCoy comes face to face with an ancient religious figure that has moved into modern times - Sister Jamiez. But, beneath the heavy robes of black and white, who is this mysterious lady? Within a brief span, McCoy gets a caustic lesson in both religion and intrigue.

"Whalehead - The Real Story", Bonnie Guyan, 26 pgs - If you've ever been to the Outer Banks of NC, you'll recognize the places described, as Kirk, Spock and McCoy venture into the past to archive history. But, a problem turns up that puts a kink in their plans....all 100 pounds of her.

FARTHEST STAR, Pat Nolan and Henry Betancourt, 1978

"All The King's Horses, All The King's Men", J. Emily Vance, 88 pgs - A sequel to The Rack that appeared in Contact #4. McCoy attempts to save Spock's life as the Vulcan withdraws after Kirk's death, but is unsuccessful. After Spock's death he resigns from Starfleet and disappears. Living in drunken poverty, McCoy brings himself out of his despair when he is brought into the lives of two young Starfleet officers who are being unjustly affected by the action of Starfleet as were Spock and Kirk.

FEAR NO EVIL, Sue Keenan, 1984, 56 pgs, Odyssey Press, (Novel) - Sequel to Valley of Shadow. McCoy is painfully recovering from Klingon torture. He must operate to save the life of his torturer who later dies by mysterious means. McCoy becomes the prime suspect and friendships are strained, tested and strengthened.

FERMATA, Ankar Press, 1981

"Wish Me Luck", Kate Birkel, 1 pg - Spock has taken the shuttlecraft into the space Amoeba and McCoy believes the Vulcan is doomed. We learn of McCoy's thoughts about Spock and the relationship he has with Spock and we learn of McCoy's fervent wish that Spock knew he had wished him luck.

FIFTY WAYS, (British), Brenda Kelsey, 1985, 58 pgs, Scotpress - Sheila Clark, Editor; (Novel) - Spock is about to go into Pon Farr. McCoy and his daughter do all they can to help their friend.

FIRST TIME #3, Merryman Press, 1985

"Midnight Silence", Beverly Danielson, 3 1/4 pgs - Spock has confessed to McCoy his love for Kirk, but sworn the doctor to secrecy. Spock believes his desire is completely hopeless, but McCoy does not agree and feels Kirk must be told of his feelings.

"The Confidence", Alexis Fagan Black, 3 1/4 pgs - A time of solitary, quiet reflection for McCoy following the Fal Tor Pan. The doctor now knows the love Spock feels for Kirk and is trying to use the bit of mental link they still share to encourage Spock to go to Kirk.

FORMAZINE A LIGHT STIMULANT, Patsy Curnow and Linda Chanack, 1986

"In Days Of Old", Helen Ebner, 20 1/2 pgs - McCoy, Sulu and a young Romulan are accidentally propelled through the Guardian of Forever into the time of knights and quests.

FRIENDSHIP AND DUTY, (British), Doris Schultz, 1985, 59 1/2 pgs, Scotpress - Sheila Clark, Editor; (Novel) - Jim Kirk is faced with a personal tragedy and McCoy finds his friendship with Spock strengthened as they work together to help Kirk.

- FULL CIRCLE, (British), Sue Keenan and Jackie Edwards, 1984, 25 pgs, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, (Novel) - Christine Chapel and Leonard McCoy are newly married. They go to the nearest planet for the honeymoon, but it turns into a nightmare when Christine is arrested for murder. The charges are obviously false, but there is little chance of justice on this planet.
- FURAH #2, Nichelle Nichols Fan Club Publication, 1975
- "Interference", A. Stuart Walker, 4 1/2 pgs - Spock is troubled by dreams and seeks McCoy's professional opinion.
- FURAH #4, Nichelle Nichols Fan Club Publication, 1975
- "Caduceus", Connie Faddis, 43 1/2 pgs - The survey team on the planet Alcestis has become the victim of an unknown disease and McCoy and Christine Chapel, piloted by Chekov, are sent to find the cure. To complicate matters, on the planet is Doctor J.D. Calvin, a man McCoy has reason to hate. As the disease progresses claiming everyone including the rescue team, McCoy makes a pact with the mysterious insect-like Keeris sacrificing more than his life to effect a cure.
- GALACTIC DISCOURSE #1, Laurie Huff and Daniel Barth, 1977
- "A Final Duty", Laurie Huff, 7 1/2 pgs - Kirk is hurt beyond McCoy's ability to help and is about to be removed from the Enterprise. In a meld Kirk pleads with Spock to end his life and Spock agrees. Racked with guilt and grief, Spock finds surprising comfort from McCoy.
- "The Human Touch", Nancy Kippax, 16 1/2 pgs - As Kirk sits in vigil at the bedside of a seriously injured McCoy, his thoughts turn back to when he was the patient and first met the doctor.
- GALACTIC DISCOURSE #2, Laurie Huff, 1978
- "The Solution", J. Thomas Ross, 2 pgs - The behind the scenes discussion as McCoy, Spock and Scotty decide what to do with the tribbles.
- "The Ninth Circle", Juanita Salicrup, 11 pgs - The sickbay scenes we did not see in Operation Annihilate: McCoy's despair and guilt over Spock's blindness; Spock's thoughts as he tries to adjust to the situation; and finally, the discovery that Spock has his sight after all.
- "The Healing Time", Nancy Kippax and Bev Volker, 24 1/2 pgs - Jim Kirk joyfully welcomes his friend Leonard McCoy as the new CMO of the Enterprise, but his satisfaction is dimmed when it becomes apparent that McCoy and Spock are not getting along. It takes a near tragedy for Spock and McCoy to learn to trust one another.
- GALACTIC DISCOURSE #3, Laurie Huff, 1980
- "A Hero's Return", Joyce Tullock, 5 1/2 pgs - McCoy is returning to the Enterprise after helping to fight a plague. This story tells of the feelings of his friends, especially Jim Kirk, as they welcome him home.
- "As Goes Your King", Diana Rusnak, 4 pgs - The lives of Spock and Kirk and the fate of the Enterprise depend on the outcome of a game of chess between McCoy and the evil Ryjamy.
- "The Hidden Truth", Beverly Volker and Nancy Kippax, 50 pgs - Spock's attempt to conceal a physical condition and a tragedy in the life of McCoy combine to tear apart the friendship of Kirk, Spock and McCoy.
- GALACTIC DISCOURSE #4, Laurie Huff, 1983
- "Crossing Visions", Joyce Tullock, 8 pgs - After V'Ger, Spock and McCoy try to re-establish their friendship.
- "Theragen Again", Bobbie Hawkins, 5 pgs - McCoy confesses to Kirk what transpired while Kirk was trapped in the Tholain Web and then faced a very Vulcan Spock with his apology.
- "A Time To Care", Genna Lacroix, 3 pgs - McCoy and Kirk in engineering immediately following Spock's death.
- "Schovil", Joyce Tullock and Ingrid Cross, 37 pgs - McCoy's efforts to investigate mistreatment of inmates in a prison camp lead to his secret imprisonment on a planet where the climate is often fatal to humans. The doctor is befriended by a fellow prisoner while Kirk and Spock search for him.
- GALACTIC DISCOURSE #5, Laurie Huff, 1987
- "The Only Choice", Cinde Deren and Diane Miskiewicz, 7 pgs - McCoy, Spock and Kirk await the return of the Enterprise on Minara immediately following the exit of the Vians. McCoy is still seriously injured despite the Vians repair efforts and as Spock cares for the doctor, he is unable to hide his anger at the Vians and his even greater anger at McCoy.
- "The Needs Of The Two", Carolyn G. Lynn, 6 1/2 pgs - McCoy is troubled by his feelings of loss and uncertainty following the Fal Tor Pan. He becomes more apprehensive when Spock seeks him out. Spock has no depth to his memories of the doctor and he believes those memories are still contained in McCoy's mind. Spock wants to know this man who held his Katra and that means another mind meld.

"Pegasus And The Starman", Joyce Tullock, 30 pgs - It happens to many spacemen. They lose something and become afraid. Kirk believes that it is happening to McCoy and to help him overcome his fear, he orders the doctor to participate in a landing party assignment with Uhura and Scotty. This routine assignment becomes perilous when they are stranded on a research outpost being torn apart by savage winds and influenced by a strange alien.

GATEWAY #2, Martha J. Bonds, 1985

"Beyond All Darkness", Moria Washburn, 24 1/2 pgs - Spock requests that McCoy and Kirk accompany him to Vulcan to attend Sarek's funeral. When they beam down into the Sasashar Desert with its black monoliths, McCoy is immediately overcome with feelings of repulsion and fear. Both Kirk and Spock realize McCoy's unease and encourage him to return to the ship. He should have taken their advice.

"Forgotten Lore", Laurel Ridener and Lynn Syck, 58 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock fight a lifeform that is gradually transforming Kirk into her mate using a method attributed to Old Earth vampires.

"Desperate Chances", Laura Zipkin, 7 1/2 pgs - Spock has been killed and Kirk, against McCoy's pleas, is returning through the Guardian to try to change events and save Spock's life. He is successful, but a terrible price is paid for his actions by McCoy and others.

THE GENESIS AFTERMATH, Joan Marie Verba, 54 pgs, (Novel) - An Alternate Universe version of Star Trek III in which Spock is rescued without the Enterprise being destroyed or Starfleet being defied. This version gives a better picture of McCoy's anguish and Kirk's efforts to help the Doctor.

GREATER CALIFORNIA K/S, Noel L. Silva, 1985

"A Question Of Trust", Jan Sullivan, 5 pgs - McCoy's initial reaction to Spock's confirmation of his bonding with Kirk is anger. The doctor tries to explain his feelings to Spock as he fights the deep ache of loneliness.

GRIP #6, Roberta Rogow, 1980

"Reunion", Tess Thomas, 7 1/2 pgs - The Interplanetary Museum of History has a new exhibit: a model of the legendary ship Enterprise. Thanks to Mr. Spock's telepathic abilities many of the old crew are drawn to the museum and to a reunion that could be their last.

GRIP #10, Roberta Rogow, 1981

"Gone Fishing", Roberta Rogow, 6 1/2 pgs - After the 5 year mission McCoy has joined Natira on her new world and has joined in helping establish the Fabrini people. With Natira and McCoy is their son Lenar. They are strangers to each other and draw a little closer with a day spent together as McCoy introduces Lenar to fishing.

GRIP #17, Roberta Rogow, 1984

"Physician, Heal", Lisa Padol, 2 pgs - McCoy has learned of Natira's death and it is Spock who comes to offer comfort.

GRIP #19, Roberta Rogow, 1984

"McCoy's Luck", Gayle Puhl, 16 pgs - McCoy fighting depression over the death of an old friend, becomes involved in various intrigues that endanger his life.

GRIP #20, Roberta Rogow, 1985

"The Paradise Prisoners", Gayle Puhl, 23 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise is held by some type of force as it orbits a newly discovered planet. A landing party beams down and McCoy is seized by the beings of the planet and submitted to a mind probe that could prove fatal to the Doctor.

GRUP, (Adult), Carrie Brennan, 1976

"Feeling Good", Karen Fleming, 4 pgs - McCoy tells Christine she needs to reach out for some good old-fashioned human contact, do something because it feels good and then reaches out to her for that human contact.

GUARDIAN #1, Linda Deneroff and Cynthia Levine, 1978

"And The South Shall Fall Again", Leslye Lilker and Juanita Salicrup, 24 pgs - McCoy receives a message from his sister saying that their father is dying and he rushes to Earth accompanied by Mr. Spock. They find a hardy Rev. McCoy and to their surprise, Amanda, Sarek and Spock's son Sahaj. A real family reunion takes place when Amanda's family joins the gathering. A thoroughly enjoyable mixing of two cultures.

GUARDIAN #2, Cynthia Levine and Linda Deneroff, 1979

"House Call", Cheryl Frashure and Ann Popplestone, 4 pgs - McCoy is suddenly removed from a medical staff meeting to an unknown place where an alien race asks for his help. One of their kind has been in McCoy's universe and returned with an illness that through symbiosis will kill all of the alien race.

GUARDIAN #6, Linda Deneroff, 1984

"Homesick", Marilyn Johansen, 3 pgs - After the 5 year mission Natira has joined McCoy on Earth where he is doing Fabrini research. Now Admiral Nogura has informed McCoy that he is needed back on the Enterprise and Natira knows there is a part of McCoy that wishes to return.

GUARDIAN #7, Linda Deneroff, 1986

"What Cost Friendship?", Jacqueline Bielowicz, 7 pgs - As Kirk pleads for McCoy to join him at the beginning of the V'Ger mission he thinks back to the end of the five year mission. At that time, a tragedy for McCoy led to an action by Kirk that almost ended their friendship.

HALF ME, Lucy Cribb and Cheryl Maier, 1982

"Star-Bound", Cheryl Maier, 2 pgs - McCoy, with an injured ankle keeping him on board, waits with Christine for the return of Kirk and Spock from a landing party. All appears routine but you never can be sure, so they wait.

"The Assassination", Lucy Cribb, 21 1/2 pgs - Jim Kirk has no sooner recovered from Klingon torture than he becomes the victim of an assassin who is poisoning him nightly through the air vents in his cabin. McCoy and Spock work together to save the Captain's life.

THE HONORABLE SACRIFICE, Bev Zuk, 1981, 72 pgs (Novel) - Leonard McCoy has been court-martialed and dishonorably discharged from Starfleet. He is now on the planet Cyr. This planet is known to be infected by a deadly disease and to be influenced by the presence of Klingons. The Enterprise is sent on a secret mission to Cyr, but before it begins Captain Kirk is snatched from his ship and deposited on the planet. His most dangerous enemy on Cyr could be Leonard McCoy.

I FINALLY GOT...THE LAST WORD, Edward Briggs, 1977

"McCoy's Daughter", Fran Smith 19 1/2 pgs - An injured McCoy is held hostage in Sickbay by a crew member poisoned by Zenite gas. Joanna McCoy, just arrived on the Enterprise, enters the effort to save her father.

IDIC #1, Leslye Lilker, 1976

"The Auction", Linda Silverman and Leslye Lilker, 23 pgs - Kirk, McCoy, Sulu and Chekov are captured and sold into slavery by the Vulcan-like inhabitants of the planet H'Tuos. Spock leads the rescue team just in time to save McCoy's life.

"The Ambassador's Son", Leslye Lilker and Linda Silverman, 24 1/2 pgs - The first in the Sahaj series. McCoy is very close to Sahaj in these stories of Spock and his son.

IDIC #3, Leslye Lilker, 1976

"Confrontation", Connie Faddis, 9 1/2 pgs - This story is an exploration of the Spock-McCoy relationship while they are enslaved in the Roman world created by D.T. Steiner in her novel 'Spock Enslaved'.

IDIC #4, Leslye Lilker, 1976

"In Answer Let The Record Show", Trinette Kern, 7 1/2 pgs - A landing party is formed to evacuate Federation citizens from a planet in rebellion. McCoy is not required nor is he intending to go with the landing party until a premonition of disaster compels him to accompany his Captain.

IDIC #5, Leslye Lilker, 1977

Several Sahaj stories including Reunion, Rebel Style in which Sahaj spends time with McCoy and his family in Georgia. 144 pgs

IDIC #6, Leslye Lilker, 1978

"Coda", Signe Landon, 2 pgs - An alternate ending to the episode All Our Yesterdays in which there is no return to the Enterprise for Spock and McCoy.

"Bread Upon The Waters", Carolyn Venino, 4 pgs - An alternate ending to the episode Bread and Circuses in which both Spock and McCoy are wounded by the machine gun bullets of Claudius Marcus' guards. We see Kirk's vigil at the bedside of his two friends.

"No Bones About It", Linda Grech, 1 pg - Confrontation between McCoy and Spock that was not seen in the episode The Tholian Web.

"Wanna Bet On It?", Alice Thompson, 4 pgs - Admiral Mendez may have made a mistake when he sent Kirk, Spock and McCoy back to the planet Iotia to collect the Federation's share of the 'loot' from Bela Oxmyx.

"McCoy's Naked Time", Linda Grech, 2 pgs - We see how McCoy is affected by the disease that invaded the Enterprise in the episode The Naked Time.

IDYLLS #2, Linda McInnis, 1987

"A Gentleman Never Tells", Linda P. Baker, 15 pgs - A return to the ShoreLeave Planet where McCoy can enjoy whatever his imagination dictates.

ILLOGICAL THESE HUMANS, Freda Rayborn, 1980

"Transition", Beth Duston, 5 1/2 pgs - McCoy waits while Spock risks his life fighting the space Amoeba. He realizes his regard for the Vulcan and when Spock returns, he seeks him out to apologize and ask for Spock's friendship.

I'M A DOCTOR, NOT A...#1, Karolyn Popovich and KathE Donnelly, 1974

"Blue Rain", M.L. Barnes, 13 pgs - Stranded on a desert planet, McCoy becomes a friend to it's only life-form, a jellyfish-like pseudopod he names Duhr. With rescue comes the chance to save the planet and the hibernating members of Duhr's species.

"Bride Of The Universe", Cecile Ouellet, 37 pgs - Kirk is very puzzled by the doctor's reaction to a visiting scientist until he learns her part in McCoy's past.

I'M A DOCTOR, NOT A...#2, Karolyn Popovich, 1978

"World's May Change And Galaxies", M.L. Barnes, 17 pgs - McCoy becomes involved in political intrigue when he befriends a young woman who reminds him of his daughter.

"Physician, Heal Thyself", Marian Kelly, 4 pgs - McCoy's feelings of loneliness are relieved first by an unusual medical problem and then by an attractive ensign.

"Heat Wave", M.L. Barnes, 20 pgs - An airborne virus has been brought aboard the Enterprise and McCoy's attempt to find a cure is not helped by the fact that Tonia Barrows has been assigned to assist him.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #10, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1981

"My Friend, The Witch Doctor", Cheryl Petterson and Susan Sizemore, 12 pgs - One of the series in the Valjir Universe. Ruth Valley is a Keheil with empathic healing ability. She has been authorized to use this ability as needed and that order brings her into conflict with Dr. McCoy. The hostility continues to escalate until a plague invades the Enterprise and they must work together.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #15, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1982

"The Priest", Cheryl Petterson, 1 1/2 pgs - A quick drink at a shuttle port bar brings McCoy and the barmaid together for his 4 day leave. As we share their time together, we see a touching glimpse of McCoy's memories, insecurities and loneliness.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #19, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1983

"Far Dreams, Near Disasters", Rosemarie Eierman and Karen C. Hunter, 30 pgs - The V'Ger mission is over. McCoy and Kirk are having a difficult time regaining their old relationship. McCoy feels Kirk no longer wants or needs him and plans to return to his research as soon as possible. Then he learns Kirk has been summoned back to Starfleet to face a possible court martial for leaving on the unauthorized shake down cruise.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #21, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1984

"Wildcard", Janice Johnson, 28 pgs - The first story in a series. The Enterprise has another diplomatic mission, transporting delegates to a debate about admitting the mysterious planet Lenore to the Federation. The Federation representative, Admiral Ignaceous, brings aboard 3 staff members who are actually a Special Forces team sent to protect the delegates from terrorists who do not want Lenore to join the Federation. McCoy becomes a victim of the terrorists' plot and is seriously injured. He is rescued by the team and healed by the powers of Rikki Daniels, team member and Lenore witch.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #22, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1985

"The Apple Revisited", William L. Cory, 5 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise has been ordered to return to Gamma Trianguli to check on the progress of its inhabitants. They find no sign of the People of Vaal until McCoy and Spock detect two life forms which are apparently the sole survivors of the planet.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #23, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1985

"White Magic", Janice Johnson, 32 pgs - Second in a series. The Enterprise has been diverted to Lenore, the mysterious planet that has become the newest member of the Federation. McCoy is reunited with Rikki, the Lenoran witch, and introduced to her family. Rikki and her people know that McCoy is Rikki's soulmate, the one person who can become her mate. It comes as a surprise to the doctor, but as he denies the possibility he realizes how much he does love Rikki.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #24, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1986

"Twist Of Fate", Janice Johnson, 13 pgs - Leonard McCoy and his soulmate, Rikki McKramer, have returned to the Enterprise after their bonding. They bring with them a Lenoran dragon, Kevin Riley, and Kevin's wife, Torrie. These former members of the Special Forces will join the crew. Jim Kirk is not the only one who is apprehensive about these former agents, their influence on McCoy, and their ability to fit into Starfleet.

IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #25, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1986

"McCoy's Ni Var", Sherry Crowson, 1 pg - Two who are one: McCoy and Spock as they approach the Fal Tor Pan.

- "Diagnosis: Terminal", William Cory, 12 1/2 pgs - An alternate universe version of the confrontation with Commodore Matt Decker and McCoy's solution to the Decker obsession.
- IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #26, Intragalactic Underground Press, 1987
- "Old Games", Janice Johnson, 51 pgs - The 4th story in a series. McCoy's soulmate, Rikki, and Torrie Riley are kidnapped. Their rescue endangers many of the Enterprise crew and almost results in McCoy's death. It leads to the reluctant decision that McCoy, Rikki and the Rileys can no longer serve on the Enterprise.
- IN A DIFFERENT REALITY #27, Marguerite Krause, 1987
- "Shattered Dreams", Janice Johnson, 12 pgs - Continuing the Lenoran series started in IADR #21. McCoy, Rikki, Torrie, and Kevin Riley have departed the Enterprise, realizing that they can no longer serve in Starfleet. All seems well for them as they travel away from the ship until Rikki suddenly withdraws into a mental state where no one can reach her. McCoy will try to reach into her mind to bring her back.
- "Bitter Tears", Janice Johnson, 8 pgs - While McCoy is trying to save Rikki, her kin and friends wait for word of her well being. We learn something more about those who worked with Rikki's team on the Special Forces Circuit and about their feelings about Rikki's marriage to Leonard McCoy.
- "Ghosts Of Memory", Janice Johnson, 4 pgs - On the Enterprise the crew reacts to the sudden departure of McCoy and Rikki and await word of their welfare.
- "Jigsaw", Janice Johnson, 48 pgs - McCoy has been able to bring Rikki out of her withdrawal. They are trying to pick up the pieces of their life when they learn that someone is trying to destroy the Enterprise and/or Jim Kirk. McCoy, Rikki, Torrie and Kevin return to the ship to warn their friends of the danger.
- IN A PLAIN BROWN WRAPPER #2, Helen Padgett and Madeline Rogers, 1981
- "A Matter Of Respect", Collette Max, 8 pgs - Leila Kalomi has died while trying to carry Spock's child. Spock is greatly distressed, but does not wish anyone to know of his grief. When McCoy becomes concerned about Spock, he investigates and learns Spock's secret and uses his own unique methods to help his friend.
- INDIAN SUMMER AND OTHER SEASONS, Ellen M. Kozar and Jelica Ranelle, 1982
- "The Small Rain", Jelica Ranelle, 12 1/2 pgs - When McCoy marries Nilza Froemming, Kirk is afraid of losing the friendship of his old friend. These thoughts are set aside when a medical crisis involves all on the Enterprise and almost costs the life of McCoy.
- INTERPHASE #1, Connie Faddis, 1975
- "Bones' Vision", Eileen Roy, 18 pgs - A story in the Kraith Series. The influence of a black star is having dangerous ESP effects on the entire crew. Influenced is McCoy and with him, Kirk, Spock and Tanya, Spock's wife.
- INTERPHASE #2, Connie Faddis, 1975
- "Trial By Ordeal", Connie Faddis, 27 1/2 pgs - McCoy is the only member of a landing party to be returned to the Enterprise after 4 months of captivity by a barbarian race. Spock is one of the missing landing party. Traumatized, abused and drugged, McCoy is apparently the one who is responsible for Spock's death.
- INTERPHASE #3, Connie Faddis, 1976
- "Thought Of A Man", Paula Smith, 9 pgs - McCoy endangers his own life trying to keep Scotty alive after their shuttle has crashed and Scotty has been exposed to a lethal dose of radiation.
- "The Tinman", Paula Block, 33 pgs - McCoy returns from Minara with all physical wounds repaired but with a heightened empathy that could mean not only the end of his medical career, but a life of isolation if no solution is found.
- "Thy Glory Like A Shooting Star", Ingrid Cross, 2 pgs - McCoy's dying thoughts.
- INTERPHASE #4, Connie Faddis, 1977
- "An Article Of Faith", April Pentland, 20 pgs - Mevran Al-Azar has committed the sacrilege of stealing from the Ellysians their Temple of Tendra-Galing. When the Enterprise captures the lady pirate along with the temple, McCoy finds himself strangely drawn to her. When Kirk is injured it is Mevran who uses the power of the temple to help McCoy save his life.
- "The Third Wheel", Connie Faddis, 6 pgs - McCoy suffers the grief and loneliness of being the outsider trying to find a place in the Kirk-Spock relationship. (Revised and reprinted from Contact #2)
- IN TRIPLICATE (K/S/M), Natasha Solten, 1985, 85 pgs, (Novel) - After McCoy returns Spock's katra, he and Spock feel uncomfortably alone. In seeking to fill the void, a physical relationship develops between them; a tender, caring relationship that is still incomplete until Kirk is included.

IT TAKES TIME ON IMPULSE #2, Harriett Stallings, 1983

- "The Undeparted", Leslie Fish, 4 pgs - A unique concept of the bond that continues to exist among Kirk, Spock and McCoy even after Spock's death.
- "In Silent Remembrance", Laurel Ridener, 7 pgs - A delightful look at McCoy and co-conspirator, Lisa Tallon of the computer department, as they plan a surprise for the first officer of the Enterprise.
- "McCoy, Patron Saint", Non Est Inventus, 16 pgs - McCoy helps some of the more unusual members of the Enterprise crew survive a shore leave escapade.

IT TAKES TIME ON IMPULSE #3, Harriett Stallings, 1985

- "The Trackers", Karen Bates, 8 pgs - A story of courage, fear and savage death on a landing party assignment that goes very, very wrong.
- "Circle Of Memories", Linda Chanack, 6 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. Kirk, the bridge crew and McCoy gather to deal with their grief for Spock.
- "McCoy, I'm Glad You Came This Day", Linda Chanack, 2 pgs - Seeking quiet and solitude in a woodland, McCoy is visited by an unseen entity that knows our doctor very well.
- "Unmentionables", CinDe Deren and Diane Miskiewicz, 9 1/2 pgs - A warm, humorous story of the adventures of McCoy and Spock when they become prisoners of the little inhabitants of an unexplored planet.

KAI IOTH #1, Pat Seiler

- "Buttertania", Cathi Brown, 7 pgs - McCoy makes the acquaintance of the unique inhabitants of the planet Buttertania.
- "The Promise", Pat Seiler, 18 pgs - McCoy has been stricken by a serious illness and is being piloted by Spock in a shuttle to meet the transport carrying the anti-toxin needed to save his life. The shuttle crashes leaving them stranded as time runs out for McCoy.

KATRA #1, Lana Brown, 1985

- "One Decent Emotion", Erin Pennington, 1 1/2 pgs - Post ST III. A conversation between McCoy and Spock as they adjust to life following the Fal Tor Pan ceremony on Vulcan.

KATRA #5, Lana Brown, 1986

- "Long Day On Lanania", Hazel Dodd, 19 pgs - McCoy is on medical leave and stranded on the miserable planet of Lanania waiting for transportation to Earth. What he believes will be a tedious two day wait becomes intriguing and dangerous as he becomes involved with espionage, murder and the delivering of a Klingon baby.

THE KINSHIP, Bonnie Guyan, 1978, 118 pgs, (Novel) - The complete novel of The Kinship as it originally appeared in the Plak Tow and Fantasy series of fanzines. Savor all seven chapters as Spock finds a sister, and McCoy a love. Span a multitude of years, encounter life, death and the 'beyond' as never imagined before as aspects of Spock's and McCoy's life come into full view as never before known in fandom. This is a landmark revelation in the world of Star Trek.

KOBYASHI MARU, STFU Press, 1983

- "Solace", Debbie Gilbert, 7 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. We experience the time immediately following Spock's death until funeral. We follow McCoy through his attempts to help Kirk, at first refused, the autopsy, the memories of time and adventures he shared with Spock to a final gentle time when he helps Kirk to accept the death and begin the grieving process.
- "Trilogy Of Our Yesterdays", Betsy Barr, 3 pgs - All Our Yesterdays seen through the eyes of Spock, Zarabeth and McCoy.
- "The First Half Of The Battle", Beth Carlson, 14 1/2 pgs - Spock has been seriously injured and we watch as McCoy, Christine and Kirk fight to save their friend.

KOON-UT-KAL-IF-FEE #4, Fran Ball, 1981

- "An Apple A Day", Author Unidentified, 16 pgs - Spock disagrees with McCoy's contention that command personnel are subject to forms of hypochondria just the same as the lower ranks. A bet is made that McCoy can make any officer believe they are suffering a disease of his invention. The subject of this challenge will be the next officer to walk through the door of the rec room. It just happens to be Captain James Kirk.

KSX (K/S), Gayle Feyrer, 1987

- "Cave Of The Heart", Gayle Feyrer, 16 pgs - McCoy and Spock are stranded by a shuttlecraft crash and Spock is about to go into Pon Farr. Despite his fear, McCoy saves Spock and finds the bonding everything he ever wished for, until Jim Kirk appears to rescue his friends. McCoy realizes Spock is still in love with Jim Kirk.

LIFESTAR #2, Diana Jenkins and Shirley Herndon, 1986

"Exodus", Shirley Herndon and Diana Jenkins, 90 pgs - A sequel to The Search For Spock. Carol Markus has been abducted by Klingons and Kirk has taken his crew, with the exception of McCoy, to attempt her rescue. McCoy has remained on Vulcan to help with Spock's recovery; a process that brings them very close.

LIFESTAR #3, Shirley Herndon, 1987

"The Last Farewell", Betsy Fisher, 3 pgs - The last medical log of Leonard McCoy. Injured and waiting for death, McCoy records the events that led to the destruction of the Enterprise and the deaths of Kirk and Spock.

MAIDEN VOYAGES, Ankar Press, 1980

"A Tale Of Two Men", Kate Birkel, 1 pg - A bitter exchange between Kirk and a guilt ridden McCoy following Spock's death.

MAINE(LY) TREK #1 Lizette R. Leveille, Martha Hilton, Mary Ann Drach, Jan Lee and Ruth Hazelton

"Royal Flush", 4 1/2 pgs - The results of a poker game threaten the delicate friendship of Dr. McCoy and Mr. Spock.

MAINE(LY) TREK #2, Mary Ann Drach and Kathleen S. Lynch, 1980

"The Medical Mind", 40 pgs - McCoy and Spock work together, each in his own way, to help the citizens of the Benecia Colony deal with a devastating earthquake.

MAINE(LY) TREK #3, Mary Ann Drach and Kathleen Lynch, 1981

"Homeward Bound", Nancy Kippax, 9 pgs - Homeward bound after two weeks of duty on Deneb Six, McCoy's craft is attacked by an Orion pirate. It crashes, killing the young pilot and leaving McCoy to deal with the pirate. Is he killer or healer?

"Support Services", Johanna Cantor, 19 pgs - McCoy and Spock show that they can work together when they care for the Vulcan children who were off ship when the Intrepid was destroyed.

MAINE(LY) TREK #4, Mary Ann Drach, 1985

"Friend Or Foe", Diane Miskiewicz and CinDe Deren, 12 pgs - Spock and McCoy are right in the middle of one of their 'discussions' when they are interrupted by an admiral on an inspection and a very unhappy Jim Kirk. The Captain decrees "No More Fights. Not One Word?" Will Spock and McCoy manage to follow orders? Will Kirk and the Enterprise be able to survive the peace?

"By A Cat's Whiskers", Shona Jackson, 8 pgs - McCoy and Spock are given the joint responsibility for the welfare of a Snow-Cat, the property of a Klingon ambassador on his way to a cultural exchange mission to the Federation.

MASIFORM D #13, Devra Michele Langsam, 1983

"Remember", Anne Batterby, 1 1/2 pgs - A quiet conversation between McCoy and Scotty shortly after the death of Spock.

MASIFORM D #14p, Devra Michele Langsam, 1984

"Footprints In The Sand", No Author, 24 pgs - McCoy and Kirk risk their lives in a journey through a mysterious desert, the land of the undead, in search of information about ancient space stations.

McCOY #1, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society

"D 90", Jenny Elson, 10 pgs - Captain Kirk is upset by McCoy's strange behavior on the shore leave base of D 90. Then he learns the troubled doctor's ex-wife and daughter are both on the base.

"Encounter", Paula Greener, 5 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise sends a landing party to a planet seeking help for their damaged ship and McCoy is strangely drawn to the alien woman who is trying to help them

"Night Of Tears", Janet Balch, 3 pgs - McCoy and his wife do love each other, but they realize this love is not going to be enough to save their marriage.

McCOY #2, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1982

"The Message", Joyce Tullock, 3 1/2 pgs - Dr. McCoy has beamed down from the Enterprise to meet his daughter for a long awaited reunion. No sooner than he has left, a message arrives to tell the doctor Joanna's leave has been postponed. It is Spock who accepts the burden of delivering the unhappy message to McCoy.

"Just My Luck", Dorothy Manning, 3 pgs - A look at duty aboard the Enterprise through the eyes of a newly assigned nurse.

"The Challenge", Marquita Crisp, 6 pgs - Mr. Spock states his belief that humans enjoy luxury and the comforts of the ship to the point where they could not survive a week without them. This sounds like a challenge to Scotty and he drags a reluctant McCoy along on a camping trip to prove Spock wrong.

"Persecution", Lynn Campion, 3 1/2 pgs - McCoy's life is thoroughly miserable when his ex-wife becomes a passenger on the Enterprise.

"Lifeline", Pauline Sweetingham, 3 1/2 pgs - Is Leonard McCoy guilty of gross misconduct and malpractice? Did he willfully cause the deaths of 4 of his shipmates?

"A Happy Ending", Lynda Chambers, 5 pgs - McCoy recalls the heartbreak of a shipboard romance.

McCoy #3, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1983

"Horatio's Turn", Joyce Tullock, 9 1/4 pgs - Horatio is surprised and delighted to find his great grandson deposited on his doorstep in the middle of the night. Leonard McCoy is very dear to old Horatio. He hopes this drunken, desolate man returning from the 5 year mission will never return to Starfleet.

"The Glorious First", Pauline Sweetingham, 17 1/2 pgs - In old earth time it is April 1st: April Fool's Day. Spock becomes the victim of humans celebrating the day. McCoy is the one he seeks out for an explanation of this illogical behavior.

"Hope And A Future", Lynn Campion, 8 1/2 pgs - A glimpse of McCoy's life following the breakup of his marriage and his decision to join Starfleet.

McCoy #4, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1983

"Ring Of Value", Lorraine Beatty, 16 pgs - News has reached the Enterprise that Klingons have attacked and severely damaged the settlements on Cygnus II. Joanna McCoy is stationed on Cygnus II and it will be weeks before news of her fate becomes available. Kirk, Spock and many of the crew do what they can to comfort and sustain McCoy as he awaits word about her welfare.

"One Man's Loss", Elaine Wood, 12 pgs - Dr. Rebecca Langsdale is an old friend of Leonard McCoy and he is delighted to find her assigned to the Enterprise. This delight becomes a nightmare when Rebecca is severely injured saving Scotty's life.

"After The Grief Is Over", Sabine Hollunder, 9 1/2 pgs - Dr. Simon Frazier died while serving on a medical outpost and the Enterprise has been sent to transport his wife to a starbase. McCoy is shocked to learn that Sarah Frazier holds him responsible for her husband's death.

McCoy #5, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1984

"Awakening", Joyce Tullock, 3 1/2 pgs - It is obvious to McCoy's woman that he is very troubled by Spock's death. She is not able to help him and sends for the one man she believes will be able to help, James Kirk.

"Like A Flaming Sword", Sue Keenan, 8 pgs - Another routine mission gone wrong. The shuttle carrying McCoy and Spock has crashed in the desert of Tartan II and they have a long trek back to civilization. With Spock's guidance it should be no problem, but Spock becomes the victim of a poisonous snake and now it is McCoy who must get the Vulcan to safety.

"The Healing", Jackie Edwards and Melinda Murdock, 10 1/2 pgs - Spock, Uhura and Scotty work together to encourage a romance between Christine Chapel and Leonard McCoy.

McCoy #6, DeForest Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1984

"A Debt Repaid", Karen Sparks, 17 1/2 pgs - Planet Arkura is being decimated by a disease for which they can find no cure. The Enterprise is called to help. Adding to Dr. McCoy's burden is the fact that one of the victims is his daughter who he has not seen since she was a small child.

"Aftermath", Pam Denman, 10 pgs - Sequel to Lorraine Betty's story 'The Lark' which appeared in 'RX McCoy'. Ensign Tangeleen LaCoste enticed Leonard McCoy into an affair before being assigned to the Enterprise. She deceived him concerning her age and position. Now she is on board the Enterprise and fears McCoy's reaction to her presence.

"The Last Chance", Karen Sparks, 20 1/2 pgs - Admiral Kirk is working overtime trying to prove to himself that he is still capable of commanding a starship. He is no longer willing to accept the help and affection of his first officer or CMO. McCoy fears he may soon have to certify Kirk unfit for command, but is willing to give him one more chance as they undertake a new assignment.

McCoy #7, DeForests Kelley International Appreciation Society, 1986

"Friends In Need", Karen Sparks, 12 1/4 pgs - Spock is missing for a short time while on an exploration of the planet Malda. On his return he violently attacks Captain Kirk. McCoy finds the Vulcan has no memory of his experience on the planet and doesn't understand what led to his violent behavior. It is up to McCoy and Kirk to discover what happened to their friend and to find a way to restore his health.

"The Best Laid Plans", Karen Sparks, 20 pgs - McCoy beams aboard a plague ship and finds two children, who had been placed in the isolation ward, the only survivors. The children are sent to the Enterprise, but McCoy has been contaminated and must remain alone aboard the ship in a frantic effort to find the cause of the plague before he becomes its last victim. There seems little chance he will succeed until Spock appears to help.

McCOY'S ILLEGIBLE LOG #1, Debra Chapman, 1977

- "Moira", Brenda Harper, 15 1/2 pgs - McCoy returns to an old love to find a son he did not know existed.
- "McCoy's Daughter", C.L. Terry, 7 pgs - McCoy and his daughter find it difficult to serve together on the Enterprise.

McCOY'S ILLEGIBLE LOG #2, Debra Chapman, 1977

- "On The Whole, I'd Rather Be In Philadelphia", Ingrid Cross, 8 pgs - McCoy has a week's leave on Earth which includes a reunion with his ex-wife and his daughter.
- "A Special Leave", Teri Howard, 15 pgs - McCoy shares a leave with Kirk, Uhura and T'Ling, a Vulcan nurse who does not act as most Vulcan's do.

McCOY'S ILLEGIBLE LOG #3, Debra Chapman, 1978

- "The Unexpected Ceremony", Elaine Norwood - A McCoy, Christine romance.
- "Old Love-New Love", Carol Crunk, 18 pgs - McCoy finds himself drawn to Dr. Jocelyn Harris, an archaeologist who strongly resembles Gem.

McCOY'S ILLEGIBLE LOG #4, Lori Beatty and Robyn Provee, 1979

- "One Of A Kind", Carol Christenson, 17 pgs - McCoy and Kirk help Sulu after his is arrested for trying to help a young girl. She is the product of a genetic experiment and apparently being mistreated by the scientist who created her.
- "The Pink Grink", Susan Wyllie, 8 pgs - A Grink is a large, fat, furry pink animal with 6 eyes, stubby legs, and a long prehensile tail. It has been given to Kirk and he has appointed McCoy the one to find a home for it.

McCOY'S ILLEGIBLE LOG #5, Debra Chapman, 1981

- "Space Legs", Julie McCoy, 7 pgs - Kevin Riley has a problem adjusting to space when he first arrives on the Enterprise and McCoy seeks a means to help him.
- "Precious Day...And Magnolias", Lori Beatty, 6 pgs - Tanya Barrows and Leonard McCoy review their feelings for each other following the adventure on the Shore Leave planet.
- "Even Now", Lori Beatty, 4 1/2 pgs - Nancy Crater meets the last of the salt creatures in the form of Leonard McCoy.
- "The Rayne Tree", Lori Beatty, 4 pgs - McCoy meets a treasured friend from years ago. In the course of their conversation he learns a secret that she has kept for all those years. A secret that could have drastically changed the doctor's life.
- "The Lark", Lori Beatty, 4 pgs - On the night before she will receive her first Starfleet assignment, a young Ensign puts on something 'clingy and sexy' and sets off for the most renowned and expensive nightclub on the starbase. During this evening she is attracted to Dr. McCoy, but there are repercussions when she is assigned to the Enterprise.
- "Love Guidance", Ginnie, 4 pgs - McCoy and Natira's first night together.
- "One Life", Lori Beatty, 4 pgs - Tearful farewell as McCoy is about to return to the Enterprise and Natira remains to guide her people.
- "Of Lyre And Lymphoid Tissue", Julie McCoy, 7 pgs - McCoy has returned from the paradise planet with a new set of tonsils thanks to the spores. They promptly become infected and need to be removed. Following surgery, McCoy is astonished by a visit from Spock who brings his lyrette to play for the doctor.
- "Excerpts From A Correspondence", Julie McCoy, 7 pgs - Correspondence over several years between Leonard McCoy of Earth and his penpal, T'Parn of Vulcan.

MERIDIAN #2, Caitlin Rothermel, 1986

- "Keagh", Egan Varian, 17 1/2 pgs - The crew of the Enterprise is exploring the remnants of an ancient civilization on a beautiful planet that reminds McCoy of Earth. All is tranquil until McCoy is lured away by an entity that has no intention of ever returning the doctor to his friends.
- "A Small Deception", Ann Wooldridge, 4 1/2 pgs - The crew of the Enterprise is long overdue for R&R. They need a diversion and McCoy is just the one to come up with a plan.

METAMORPHOSIS #2, D. Steiner, 1976

- "Letting Go", Connie Faddis, 6 1/2 pgs - A look into the future several years beyond the five year mission. A diplomatic assignment has ended in the death of all except Kirk and McCoy. We read of Kirk's thoughts as he holds a gravely injured McCoy and waits for a rescue that may not be in time to save their lives.

MIND MELD #1, Sandy Zier and Michelle Holmes, 1984

- "Hold Back The Dark", Sandy Zier, 3 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. Kirk is troubled by a dream in which McCoy is dying. Is it a part of the grieving process for Spock or a premonition of things to be?

"The Trust", Ingrid Cross, 17 pgs - McCoy's sorrow and anger at Spock's death are complicated by 'a deranged subconscious that appears to be going Vulcan'.

"The Bequest", Suzanne Fine, 47 pgs - McCoy returns to Yonada to find Natira dead and an eight year old daughter that he did not know existed. He is drawn into intrigue which endangers Yonada and his daughter's life as well as his own.

MIND MELD #2, Sandy Zier and Michelle Holmes, 1985

"The Finest Gift", Suzanne Fine, 34 pgs - Touching story of McCoy's first encounter with the warrior race of Capellans. McCoy accompanies Joha'an, a young Capellan, on his Rite of Passage with tragic results.

"Empty Spaces", Shirley D. Sipe, 4 pgs - A few minutes together for Kirk and McCoy as the Enterprise returns to the Genesis planet.

"Dear Jim And Spock", Laurel Ridener and Lynn Syck, 1 pg - Last instructions from Leonard McCoy.

"Thy Brother's Keeper", Ginger Dawson, 8 pgs - Injured in a shuttle crash and marooned on an isolated planetoid, McCoy discovers he is not really alone when a small Vulcan child appears.

"The Silent Drummer", Laura Ridener and Lynn Syck, 1 pg - McCoy muses about his place in the Kirk-Spock relationship.

MIND MELD #3, Sandy Zier, 1986

"Until The Fear Subsides", Diane Miskiewicz and CinDe Deren, 35 pgs - McCoy and Spock have been rescued after six months as prisoners of the Klingons. A battered McCoy is convinced that his mind has been permanently damaged by the mind sifter and that Spock broke under torture. To compound his problems, his rescuers are Vulcans whose consideration and precise medical care fail to meet his emotional needs. As much as he dislikes the idea of a meld with Spock, he finally sees it as their only hope of coming through the ordeal intact.

"Baptism By Fire", Mary Mills, 7 pgs - McCoy and Spock are stranded on a planet where exposure to the sun will cause insanity in Spock and, eventually, McCoy. Unable to touch Spock, McCoy can do little to help. After the rescue McCoy realizes the experience has strengthened their friendship.

"Stardance", Ginger Dawson, 8 pgs - Spock has arranged a very unusual birthday gift for Dr. McCoy.

MIND MELD #4, Sandy Zier, 1987

"The House Of Sarek", Yvonne Fern, 29 pgs - McCoy is staying with his friends at the home of Sarek following the Fal Tor Pan. They are trying to come to terms with all that has happened as they prepare to return to Earth. Before they leave, Sarek makes a very special request of McCoy.

"Medical Logs", Sandy Zier, 4 pgs - McCoy's logs as he and his shipmates return to Earth after the Fal Tor Pan.

"Shared Light", Ellen Morris, 3 1/2 pgs - We share McCoy's thoughts and feelings as he experiences the Fal Tor Pan.

MORE MISSIONS, MORE MYTHS #1, Wendy Rathbone, 1985

"The Dangling Conversation", Alexis Fegan Black, 1 1/2 pg - Post ST:TWOK. A conversation between McCoy and the Spock that he carries around in his mind. It sounds like many of their friendly - enemy conversations.

MORE MISSIONS, MORE MYTHS #2, Wendy Rathbone, 1985

"The Ones Left Behind", Jane Wray, 15 pgs - McCoy, Christine, Spock and a young Vulcan ensign Savik help each other adjust to life on the Enterprise following the death of Captain Kirk.

"Shining Through The Haunt", Robin Hood, 2 pgs - Kirk and McCoy share their grief after Spock's death.

"Three For Leave", Carol A. Pierce, 14 pgs - McCoy, Spock and Kirk share the good times of a shore leave on a cold and snowy planet.

MORE MISSIONS, MORE MYTHS #4, Wendy Rathbone, 1986

"A Force Of Two", Jane Wray and Twyla Peacock, 16 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise is hunting for a lost vessel and her crew when Kirk is warned by unknown beings to turn back or be destroyed. After explaining their mission, Kirk is given permission to continue, but the beings will demonstrate their power by depriving him of that which is closest to him - Spock and McCoy. The story tells of the adventures Spock and McCoy go through after their removal from the Enterprise.

MORE MISSIONS, MORE MYTHS #6, Wendy Rathbone, 1987

"Definitely Not Serendipity", C.A. Pierce, 19 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Scotty are on their way to a two week leave on Earth when their aircar is involved in a collision with another aircar containing three young Vulcans. They land in an isolated area and the Vulcans are injured, but McCoy is able to help and all seems well until the Doctor suffers a heart attack.

"Sound Of Silence", Gail Schnirch, 29 1/2 pgs - Post ST III. Dr. McCoy disappears while exploring a new found planet. Although no body is found, the doctor's communicator is discovered at the edge of a steep ravine and there seems no hope that he is alive. The Enterprise leaves for Starbase IX and shoreleave but returns to the planet when Spock insists that they must, if only to retrieve the body.

NAKED TIMES #7, Pon Farr Press, 1985

"A Tribute To Friendship", Joann Marek, 10 pgs - Since the completion of the Fal Tor Pan it is McCoy who has seemed to crumble. He is withdrawn within himself, confiding in no one. Spock is aware of the doctor's pain and takes the opportunity to follow him to the ceremonial place of the Fal Tor Pan to offer aid. Their long conversation reviews much of their past relationship before Spock insists the doctor face his own pain.

NAKED TIMES #9, Pon Farr Press, 1986

"A Night Of Sharing", Donna Rose Vanderlaan, 8 1/4 pgs - It is the Christmas holiday season and a time of painful memories and loneliness for Leonard McCoy. Locked in his cabin one evening, his depression reaches the point of suicide when Spock is suddenly in the room with him. The conversation they share that evening returns the Doctor's will to live.

NEXUS #1, Toni Cardinal-Price and Mariann Hornlein, 1978

"Nancy With The Laughing Face", Roberta Rogow, 7 1/2 pgs - After the death of the Salt Vampire, McCoy recalls the part that Nancy Crater played in his life.

NEXUS #3, Toni Cardinal-Price and Mariann Hornlein, 1979

"The Glass Rose", Liz Ellen Snyder, 4 pgs - As McCoy prepares to join the Enterprise, he is still fighting the guilt he feels for the death of his wife. A friend tries to help the doctor put the death in proper perspective and ready himself to begin a new life in Starfleet.

NEXUS #4, Toni Cardinal-Price and Mariann Hornlein, 1979

"The Rape Of A Rock", Bonnie Guyan, 30 1/2 pgs - Spock's mind has been wiped clean by the mind-sifter and he is to be placed in a Sanitarium until transfer to Vulcan. We learn of the events that led up to the tragedy and we are with McCoy as he bids a gentle farewell to his friend. Months later Kirk and McCoy return to Vulcan where they accompany a partially recovered Spock on a trip to the mountains. Their adventure endangers McCoy's life, but in the process restores Spock's memory and leads to his return to the Enterprise.

NEXUS #6, Toni Cardinal-Price and Mariann Hornlein, 1981

"The End Of The Journey; A Place Of Rest", Hazel Ann Williams 3 1/2 pgs - McCoy is permitted a few moments return from the dead to bid his two friends a loving farewell.

"Reductio ad Absurdum", T.R. McCoy and V. Bond, 6 pgs - Both Spock and McCoy are in need of R&R so their kindly Captain orders them to take 2 weeks leave on an ideal, but primitive planet - together. What appears in the transporter room at the end of two weeks does not resemble the tanned, rested friends Kirk is expecting to see.

THE NINTH QUADRANT #3, Helen Padgett, Judith Ward and Lynda Kaye Boots, 1979

"Not The First Nor The Last", Freda Rayborn, 5 pgs - Spock has been shaken by a disastrous landing party assignment in which 5 crewmen were killed. The wall of misunderstanding between McCoy and Spock may prevent the doctor from helping the First Officer resolve his guilt.

THE NINTH QUADRANT #5, Helen Padgett and Debi Cole, 1983

"I Am A Rock", Roberta Warner, 12 1/2 pgs - Kirk, Spock and McCoy beam down to a planet and into a Klingon trap. Kirk is apparently killed, leaving Spock and McCoy alone to battle the Klingons.

THE NINTH QUADRANT #6, Helen Padgett and Debi Cole, 1985

"Challenge Accepted", Shirlely Sipe, 5 pgs - Spock's life on the Enterprise was predictable and secure. Then came the arrival of Dr. Leonard McCoy. To Spock's dismay, this new doctor is always underfoot and seems oblivious to intimidation.

"Duties Choice", Sharon Robison, 32 1/2 pgs - The colony on the planet Beta Ti Alpha has been stricken with an unexplained disease and the Enterprise is preceding to the planet at maximum warp with medical personnel and perishable drugs. McCoy is outraged when the ship is ordered to alter course to investigate a possible distress signal from a small ship, only to discover the sole survivor on the ship is his daughter, Joanna. The two McCoy's are delighted to be together again, but problems develop when Jim Kirk becomes interested in Joanna.

THE NINTH QUADRANT #7, Helen Padgett and Debi Cole, 1986

"Me Leonard, You Lizzy", Patsy Curnow, 25 pgs - Leonard McCoy and Montgomery Scott vie for the attention of Dr. Elizabeth O'Shinacy, the new veterinarian assigned to the Enterprise. An unexpected turn of events give McCoy the advantage in winning the doctor's affection.

NOME #1, Victoria Clark, M.V.M. Varela and Barbara L. Storey, 1979

"The Time's Wake", Toni Cardinal-Price, 13 1/2 pgs - Alternate ending to The Deadly Years. The serum that reversed the strange aging disease affecting McCoy, Kirk and Scotty does not work on Spock. The Vulcan has 28 hours to live if McCoy cannot find the cure.

NOME #2, Victoria Clark, Barbara L. Storey and M.V.M. Varela, 1980

"I Just Came To Say Hello", Liz Persic, 5 pgs - A touching visit by McCoy to Spock's grave.

"The Days Of Me And You", Martha Bonds, 27 pgs - The first part of a trilogy. A formless alien invader from another universe, the Moreau Effect, threatens the Federation. To save his world, Kirk offers himself to the effect. We see McCoy's struggle to help his Captain as he fights the effect and his grief as he believes Kirk dead and must watch as Spock follows Kirk into the effect.

NOME #4, Victoria Clark, Barbara L. Storey and M.V.M. Varela, 1981

"The Parting", Ginna LaCroix, 27 pgs - It is the end of the 5 year mission. Spock has suddenly departed for Vulcan and Jim Kirk is being cleverly manipulated into accepting the admiralty assignment. We see McCoy as he does everything he can to prevent Nogura from grounding Kirk, but Nogura and Lori Ciani are too much for him. The story ends with McCoy's subdued and bitter parting from Admiral Kirk.

"Both Sides Now", Martha J. Bonds, 23 pgs - Second part of a trilogy. Seven years have passed since Kirk and Spock disappeared into the Moreau Effect. McCoy believes them dead, but he is troubled by dreams in which Kirk and Spock are calling to him. When Terra-forming is discovered on a faraway planet, McCoy and Scotty investigate and find their two friends and Moreau who has assumed human form. As they return to civilization, McCoy feels the alien in the strange relationship shared by Kirk, Spock and Moreau.

"Spanish Moss", Pamela Rose, 50 1/2 pgs - McCoy has returned to Georgia after the 5 year mission. Tired and disheartened by Spock's flight to Vulcan and Kirk's acceptance of the ground assignment, he finally decides to return to research. A short, bitter reunion with Kirk and a devastating encounter with his ex-wife leave him seeking solace in the bottle, but an unexpected kindness by Kirk returns the doctor to a productive life.

NOME #5, Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L. Storey, 1982

"Earthbound", Elwyn Conway, 14 pgs - It is the end of the five year mission and Spock has left for Vulcan. McCoy uses all his persuasive talents to prevent Kirk from accepting the assignment at the Admiralty, but to no avail. As Kirk begins to realize his mistake in accepting the assignment, McCoy finds there is little he can do to help his friends.

"The Reason Why", Pamela Rose and Cindy Deren, 15 pgs - This story explains why McCoy disobeys a direct order from Spock, why he distrusts machines so much, and why he lost custody of his daughter, Joanna.

"The Sun Is No Friend Of The Dead", Ginna LaCroix, 35 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TMP. Jim Kirk has developed a form of hemophilia. It is not genetic hemophilia so there must be a cause and a cure. It is up to McCoy and Spock to find the answers before it is too late.

NOME #6 (K/S), Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L.B. Storey, 1983

"When There Are No Answers", Ginna LaCroix, 44 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TMP. McCoy uses all his ability as a physician and his love for Jim Kirk to help the Admiral survive a personal crisis that could destroy his career and his relationship with Spock.

"The Legend Of The Sand Dollar", Marcella Belton, 32 pgs - Sequel to 'The Seed' which appeared in Nome #5. Following Jim Kirk's death, Spock has become obsessed with Jennifer Williams, the daughter Kirk never knew he'd had. Spock has brought Jennifer to Earth to meet Leonard McCoy and she and McCoy become close friends. The doctor counsils his two troubled friends who are so dear to him.

"And Never Parted", Elwyn Conway, 76 pgs - Continuation of a novella started in Nome #5. Spock and Kirk are struggling to reestablish their friendship on the shakedown cruise following the V'Ger mission and McCoy is by their side to offer his friendship, council and love. Little is resolved between these men before the Enterprise is given a new assignment: convey a group of scientific observers and media personnel on a survey of the planet Styros II.

NOME #7 (K/S), Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L.S. Storey, 1984

"A Common Bond", Ginna LaCroix, 37 1/2 pgs - McCoy, Kirk, Sulu and an injured Spock are stranded on a planet where whites are supreme and all non-whites are oppressed and shunned. The doctor and Kirk struggle to protect their friends and eke out a living until they can be rescued, if they can be rescued.

"Remembering Will Have To Do", Toni Cardinal-Price, 5 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. It is two weeks since Spock's death. McCoy has come to confront Kirk because he fears the Admiral is withdrawing from reality to avoid facing Spock's death.

"And Never Parted", Elwyn Conway, 71 1/2 pgs - A continuation of the novel started in Nome #5. The Enterprise is on an assignment to escort a group of scientists, media representatives and a documentary team to the planet Styros II. While coping with the irritating passengers, Kirk is still trying to come to terms with his feelings for Spock. McCoy, as always, is by his side to help in any way he can.

NOME #8 (K/S), Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L.B. Storey, 1985

"Fantasies", Beverly Sutherland, 58 pgs - McCoy is deep into research on the Pon Farr, fearing for Spock's life when it happens again. He feels Kirk and Spock are already paired without realizing or admitting the fact. The problem is how to get these two dear friends to come to the same conclusion. McCoy learns that an establishment on Wrigley's planet is featuring a pornographic holo film in which the two lead actors could be doubles for the Captain and Spock. After McCoy investigates personally, he arranges for Kirk and Spock to attend a performance. This, he hopes, will open their eyes.

"And Never Parted, Part 3", Elwyn Conway, 96 pgs - Continuing the novel that began in Nome #5. The Enterprise, still transporting its retinue of media personnel and scientists, is leaving Styros II. It will proceed to a remote planet where legend says there lives an infallible oracle who is immortal.

NOME #9, Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L.B. Storey, 1986

"Intermezzo", Mary Van Deusen, 27 1/2 pgs - Alternate sequel to ST:TWOK. Kirk stands vigil over McCoy as they prepare for the Fal Tor Pan ceremony which will inter Spock's katra on Vulcan. The katra will remain there until Kirk lives out his life and his spirit joins with Spock's

"180 Degrees", Mary Suskind Lansing, 106 pgs - A new method of time travel sends McCoy and Kirk to a deserted planet. In 20 minutes of ships time they are to experience 2 days on the planet. An accident damages the mechanism used to send them to the planet and the two men cannot be returned until Spock effects repairs. McCoy and Kirk spend 7 years together in the 15.2 days of ships time it takes to bring them back. During that time they become lovers. When they return, McCoy is willing to give up the relationship knowing Kirk and Spock love each other. Kirk is not willing to turn away from McCoy, nor is he willing to give up his love for Spock.

"Never And Always, Part 1 and Part 2", Elwyn Conway, 140 1/2 pgs - McCoy is prominently featured in this continuation of the novel which began in Nome #5. The Enterprise is diverting to the planet Llan'Karrin where they hope to contact the fabled Etife.

NOME #10, Victoria H. Clark and Barbara L.B. Storey, 1987

"Amperсанд", Michele Arvizu, 44 1/2 pgs - Spock struggles to understand his relationship with his human friends and in particular, Jim Kirk. At the end of a long evening spent attending a Star Fleet retirement party, McCoy and Spock share a drink and a conversation that helps Spock decide on a course of action for his life.

"Touching And Touched", Elwyn Conway, 65 pgs - Book 4 of Elwyn Conway's epic which began in Nome #5. The crew of the Enterprise is still on the planet Llan'Karrin enjoying the mystique of its people. This part of the story includes McCoy's efforts to comfort Christine Chapel when she finally admits that Spock loves Kirk and will never return her affection.

NUAGES #2, Karen Bates, 1984

"A Story Of Survival", Karen Bates, 126 pgs - The Enterprise is propelled across time, leaving most of the crew dead and Kirk, Spock, Chapel and McCoy stranded and separated on a barbaric planet.

NUAGES #4, Karen Bates, 1985

"The Sequel", Karen Bates, 132 pgs - A continuation of A Story Of Survival in Nuages #2. After a period of adjustment on the Enterprise, Spock and Christine Chapel are sent on a secret mission while Kirk and McCoy remain on the Enterprise to battle against sabotage and assassination.

OBSC'ZINE #1 (Adult), Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1977

"Vintage Wine", Jane Firmstone, 5 pgs - A romantic relationship between Dr. McCoy and a young lab technician.

"Bitter Dreams", Catherine Clair, 15 1/2 pgs - A strange life support system has been found floating in space. When it is brought to sickbay for study, McCoy is immediately consumed by a feeling of intense revulsion. The doctor inadvertently discovers the way to open the stasis field and releases the evil life form, the Lamia. This female creature possesses the doctor and tortures him with terrifying dreams of sex and death.

OBSC'ZINE #2 (Adult), Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1977

"Bridle For A Nightmare", Elizabeth Clair, 28 pgs - Sequel to 'Bitter Dreams' which appeared in Obsc'zine #1. McCoy has accidentally caused the death of the Lamia. Kirk and Spock, not realizing how the Lamia was torturing McCoy, conduct a hearing on the doctor's responsibility for her death. McCoy is cleared when the facts are revealed, but is still haunted by his experience. An old friend, psychiatrist Beatrice Kowalski, is serving on the Enterprise and she uses unique methods to reach out to McCoy and effect a cure.

"Up For The Honeymoon", Paula Block, 5 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Sadie are married and it is the first night of the honeymoon. Although they have been lovers for some time, Sadie has a few surprises for the doctor.

OBSC'ZINE #3, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1978

"Between Friends", Gayle Feyrer, 18 pgs - On his birthday McCoy spends the evening with Kirk and Spock. With reservations he agrees to participate in their physical relations. This new, somewhat difficult, but ultimately pleasant experience is related in explicit detail.

OBSESSION #1, Katharine Scarritt and Mary Lowe, 1981, 7 pgs - Captain Kirk has been offered a new post on a small explorer craft which will venture far into unexplored space. McCoy and Spock stand by as he tries to decide if he should accept this new assignment.

OBSESSION #2, Katharine Scarritt and Mary Lowe, 1982

"Graven Image", (Reprint from Deck Five Digest #1), Mary Lowe - Spock has summoned McCoy to Vulcan to ask his help in cloning a duplicate of the deceased James Kirk.

"Graven Image, Part 2", Lezlie Shell, 13 1/2 pgs - Jamie, the genetic duplicate of Jim Kirk is now a young man. He has a close, loving relationship with McCoy, but is in constant conflict with Spock. He has not grown up as Spock envisioned and McCoy, nearing the end of his life, strives to bring them together.

OBSESSION #3, Mary Lowe and Katharine Scarritt, 1984

"Things To Remember", Tere Ann Roderick, 4 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. McCoy is troubled by Kirk's apparent inability to grieve for Spock and by his own failure to keep the Vulcan from sacrificing his life. The bottle doesn't help; maybe reaching out to Kirk will.

ODYSSEY #1, Ingrid Cross, 1977

"Thy Glory Like A Shooting Star", Ingrid Cross, 4 1/2 pgs - McCoy's dying thoughts. Spock tries to give comfort in the last moments of McCoy's life.

"Requiem", Ingrid Cross, 2 pgs - The thoughts of a physician who cannot always win against death.

"Not All Of Your Laughter, Not All Of Your Tears", Ingrid Cross, 14 1/2 pgs - McCoy is attending a medical conference when an unexpected meeting with his ex-wife leads to a conflict with an old enemy.

ODYSSEY #2, Ingrid Cross, 1978

"Darkness In My Soul", 16 pgs - The Enterprise is returning at the end of the 5 year mission when it becomes involved in combat with a Klingon Warcruiser. Mr. Spock is one of 62 crewmembers killed in the battle and Kirk is injured. Due to the injury, Kirk will be grounded and McCoy asks to be assigned to his staff.

"A Deeper Shade Of Darkness", Ingrid Cross, 59 pgs - Eleven years have passed since Spock's death and now there is a Klingon-Romulan alliance and war is approaching. Jim Kirk finds that he can do something to prevent this war and McCoy must stand by and watch his friend sacrifice his life to save the Federation.

ODYSSEY #3, Ingrid Cross, 1979

"Kate", Patricia M. White, 10 1/2 pgs - Dr. Kathryn Kennedy; is she the new Head of Medical Research on the Enterprise and the woman that Dr. McCoy loves, or is she the product of his delirium while ill?

"Buddies", Jacelyn Feaster, 2 pgs - McCoy introduces us to his new pet Tweed who he describes as a 'fluffy little fellow' and who Spock describes as 'undisciplined, sexually overactive and physically aggressive'.

ODYSSEY #4, Ingrid Cross and Dave Goodine

"Journey's End", Ingrid Cross, 3 pgs - Spock was killed long ago and now Jim Kirk has been killed preventing a Klingon-Romulan alliance from destroying Starfleet. McCoy must face life without his friends. He is going home, but first there is a parting conversation with Uhura.

"Encounter", David Goodine and Ingrid Cross, 19 pgs - After the death of Jim Kirk, McCoy has returned to Georgia and is staying with his brothers family. He cannot shake his depression and when Joanna arrives, her efforts to help lead to a confrontation that brings on a heart attack. McCoy is perfectly willing to give up life until he meets Kirk and is persuaded to return to his family.

"Lullaby", Lorraine Beatty, 2 1/2 pgs - We share with Dr. McCoy a night time feeding of his infant daughter.

"After Images", Ingrid Cross, 4 pgs - The mind rape of Spock's counterpart in the mirror universe has badly shaken McCoy and effected his feelings for the Spock of his own universe.

ODYSSEY #5, Ingrid Cross and David Goodine, 1981

"The Natchez Switch", Lorraine Beatty, 27 pgs - McCoy was crossing the bridge to the science station when the communications panel blew up. When he regained consciousness he was in Natchez, Mississippi during the 1850's with no memory of his true identity. Apparently he was Lance Beaumont, a man with an unsavory reputation as a gambler. Back on the Enterprise the real Lance Beaumont was thought to be Dr. McCoy.

"All My Life's A Circle", Ingrid Cross, 21 1/2 pgs - It has been 12 years since McCoy served on the Enterprise. Now he is returning to active service on the first constellation-class starship, the Orion. Her young Captain, Karin Simmons, reminds him so much of Jim Kirk.

"Reporting For Duty", Sue Keenan, 13 1/2 pgs - This is an account of M'Benga's introduction to the Enterprise and to Dr. McCoy. M'Benga has done every thing possible to be assigned to work with McCoy, but a series of misinterpreted events leave him with the impression that McCoy is a drunken, womanizing coward and bigot. It takes a time of shared danger to show M'Benga the true character of McCoy.

"Promises To Keep", Lorraine Beatty, 9 1/2 pgs - A childhood experience reinforces McCoy's desire to become a doctor.

"Natural Selection", Joan Marie Verba, 18 pgs - After 2 months aboard the Enterprise following the V'Ger mission, McCoy finds he has become so involved with Spock and Kirk as they adjust to their return, that he is neglecting his duties to the rest of the crew. He feels he cannot practice medicine on the Enterprise and resigns, but Jim Kirk is not about to accept the resignation without a fight to keep the doctor on board.

"Communion", Joyce Tullock, 7 pgs - The diagnosis has been made: Xenopolycythemia. M'Benga seeks out McCoy to try to 'share the hurt'. As he does he wonders: How do you comfort the comforter?

"Sweet Refrain", Lorraine Beatty, 22 1/2 pgs - After the 5 year mission, McCoy has returned to New Yonada. Natira, still loving McCoy but believing he has no interest in her, is about to marry Ledon. With McCoy's return, Ledon sees his chance for Natira and the power he craves slipping away. McCoy must be killed.

ODYSSEY #6, Ingrid Cross, 1981

"For Dixie", Joyce Tullock, 11 pgs - While testing a new time-travel devise, McCoy and Uhura become separated from the rest of the crew. They are exploring Southwestern Illinois in the time just after the Civil War and as they return to the beam-up point are attacked by a group of wandering northern soldiers. McCoy is seriously injured and is sheltered by an elderly black woman as Uhura goes for help.

"Nightmare Reflection", Tess Thomas, 21 1/2 pgs - A comparison of the gentle, caring Leonard McCoy of the Enterprise with his savage, sadistic counterpart of the mirror universe.

"Friends, Lovers and Strangers", Jeanie Humphrey, 17 pgs - Dr. Diane Hendricks, a friend of McCoy's ex-wife is part of a scientific team traveling on the Enterprise. She wants to hurt McCoy and uses trickery and deceit to drive a wedge between McCoy and Kirk that may put an end to their friendship.

"Valley Of Shadow", Sue Keenan, 29 pgs - Jim Kirk is worried about McCoy. The doctor is distant and quiet after two weeks of fighting a deadly epidemic. A survey team is to be placed on the beautiful planet Vogel II and Kirk adds McCoy to the team being led by Spock, thinking a few days on the peaceful planet will help the doctor. On Vogel, McCoy turns to Spock for understanding but receives only cold logic. The resulting argument is bitter but before it can be resolved McCoy is captured and tortured by Klingons who have infiltrated the planet. Spock tries to care for a dying McCoy until the Enterprise returns.

"To Carry And Contain", Jeanne Noga, 10 pgs - Kirk has been felled by a mysterious illness and McCoy, with his staff, works to find the cure as Spock commands the Enterprise.

"The Man Who Only Visited", Joyce Tullock, 14 1/2 pgs - Admiral Kirk has come to Georgia to see Leonard McCoy who is staying with Horatio, his Great Grandfather. Kirk wants to mend the breach that developed between them after the 5 year mission and to try to persuade McCoy to return to the service. After a short time with Horatio and McCoy, Kirk realizes that the doctor is very much his own man and has no need for Kirk or Starfleet.

"A Subject Of Dispute", Lorraine Beatty, 28 pgs - The women of Midland make sex an adventure to be shared by the two partners. McCoy's adventure places him in West Virginia in 1887 and right in the middle of the Hatfield-McCoy feud.

ODYSSEY #6.5, Ingrid Cross, 1983

- "Love's Guidance", Lorraine Beatty, 4 1/2 pgs - The wedding night of McCoy and Natira.
- "The Teacher", Sue Keenan, 20 pgs - McCoy, Kirk and Spock are summoned to a mysterious planet claiming interest in joining the Federation. What they find are the Vians with Gem and her people. Gem and McCoy share a night of gentle love that turns to bitterness for McCoy as he realizes there is no way he can remain with Gem who he loves, nor was it ever intended that he do so.
- "Some Planets Are Like Home", Joyce Tullock, 11 1/2 pgs - A shore leave spent in a bitter-sweet affair with 'the only innocent call girl in the whole damn perverted galaxy'. A time that brings back memories of his marriage and the need to be really loved by someone.
- "There Is One Alone", Ingrid Cross, 26 pgs - On a shore leave McCoy becomes the victim of a brutal rape. The doctor is helped in his recovery from the shattering experience by the loving care of Uhura and the concern of Kirk and Spock.

ODYSSEY #7, Ingrid Cross, 1983

- "The Healers", Jeanne Powers, 17 1/2 pgs - An assignment early in McCoy's Starfleet career brings him to a reptilian planet where he meets one of the Great Healers. They are a nomadic group of Vulcans who travel about the planet and have the ability to cure emotional ills. When McCoy finds the healers are a dying race, he tries to persuade one of the mysterious women healers to leave the planet in order to preserve her life. She refuses, but gives McCoy a gift that he will treasure for the rest of his life.
- "The Twilight Man", Tess Thomas, 3 pgs - McCoy slips away from a party being held at his home in Georgia following the V'Ger mission. He sits on the old yard swing to relive memories of his youth and to wonder about the future.
- "Still Waters", Suzan Lovett, 12 pgs - The Enterprise is transporting several entertainers to ceremonies welcoming a new member of the Federation. The Captain has plans for one of these entertainers, the intriguing, beautiful Fem. Fem, however, has plans of her own and they involve McCoy, not Kirk.
- "Jim, We've Got A Problem", Jeanie Humphrey, 20 1/2 pgs - McCoy comes to the rescue of a Klingon child being mistreated by a slave dealer and finds himself and the Federation involved in a serious diplomatic incident.
- "Remember", Sharon Fetter, 3 1/2 pgs - In a Personal Log entry McCoy pours out his feelings following the death of Spock.
- "Delivery", Joyce Tullock, 9 pgs - A lazy shore leave day on the beach turns to terror as McCoy finds a small child trapped in the pit of a ferocious lizard-like creature.
- "For Services Rendered", Jane Mailander, 7 1/2 pgs - McCoy recounts one of his adventures in which he assisted a unicorn-like creature give birth to her child and received a precious gift for his help.
- "Leonard McCoy - Captain", Sue Keenan, 3 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise is in orbit around Earth while the life support systems are overhauled. McCoy has returned to the ship to pick up a book when a mistake by the repair crew engages impulse engines. The doctor finds himself on the bridge and responsible for returning the ship to orbit.
- "Lagniappe Noel", Lorraine Beatty, 27 1/2 pgs - To please McCoy, Captain Kirk has arranged a Christmas shore leave for the two of them on the planet Asphodel. McCoy, however, is not pleased. There is a secret on Asphodel that he does not want to share with his friend.

ODYSSEY #7.5, Ingrid Cross and Joyce Tullock, 1987

- "To Look At Stars", Sue Keenan, 15 1/2 pgs - McCoy's ex-wife returns to his life when she and her current husband are given transport aboard the Enterprise. The doctor relives all the pain of his marriage and realizes that he still loves, and always will love Ariana. Her presence strengthens the unending loneliness with which he lives and he thinks of trying to win her back, but he is haunted by what he did on the last night they spent together.
- "Ladies' Choice", Florence Butler, 6 pgs - Identical twin sisters, newly assigned to the Enterprise, share the attentions of Dr. McCoy.
- "Soft, Southern Night", Cathy Brooks, 1 1/2 pgs - We share the thoughts of McCoy's ex-wife as she attends the doctor's funeral.
- "Bride Of Darkness", Sarah Macht-Dewitt, 12 pgs - A female assassin uses an unsuspecting McCoy as a pawn in her efforts to kill a doctor attending a top secret conference.
- "A Small Diversion", Sandra Middleton, 11 1/2 pgs - There is a party scheduled on the Enterprise and scuttlebutt from Engineering indicates that someone will slip an aphrodisiac into the drink of the very attractive Lieutenant Elana Peterson and competition will take place to see who will take advantage of the situation. McCoy is concerned, but his plans to protect the lady are disrupted when he accidentally becomes the victim of the love potion.

ODYSSEY #8, Ingrid Cross and Joyce Tullock, 1986

- "Starting Point", Sue Keenan, 18 1/2 pgs - James Kirk is the new Captain of the Enterprise and Dr. Mark Piper is his only friend and trusted adviser. After Piper suffers a massive coronary, the Enterprise heads for the medical facilities on Rigel, but is ordered to divert to pick up a new CMO. Kirk is unhappy about the delay and the replacement, Leonard McCoy, is unhappy about being taken away from his current assignment where he was close to finding the formula that would stop a devastating epidemic. Kirk immediately dislikes this unmilitary doctor who appears to have little concern for Piper's welfare, but events soon show Kirk and Piper the true merit of Leonard McCoy.
- "A Night To Remember", Cathy Brooks, 3 pgs - Feeling the peace and comfort of the Enterprise slipping away, McCoy is helped by a short, chance meeting with Tonia Barrows.
- "The Draftee", Rosemarie Eierman, 2 pgs - We follow McCoy through the first few hours of his reluctant return to the Enterprise.
- "Home", Ingrid Cross, 3 1/2 pgs - Following V'Ger, McCoy finally has the time to reflect on his life. What of Leonard McCoy? Where does he fit in and where is his home?
- "A Handful Of Time", Florence Butler, 6 pgs - Uhura has suffered a personal tragedy and McCoy as friend and physician comes to help.
- "Gifts Freely Given", Diane Miskiewicz and Cindy Deren, 14 pgs - McCoy is captured by the natives of a semi-arid planet when they believe him guilty of stealing food. He is thrown to the Fire Needles as punishment. The vicious, stinging insects inflict much damage before Spock and Kirk can rescue him. While waiting for the return of the Enterprise, Spock uses a heretofore unrevealed Vulcan technique to relieve McCoy's pain and fear.
- "Return To Genesis", L. Jeanne Powers, 5 1/2 pgs - A macabre post ST:TWOK story. Kirk cannot accept Spock's death and returns to Genesis to find his friend.
- "The Gift Of Love, Too", Jeanne Noga, 24 pgs - Lisa Jarmane, Medical Technologist on the Enterprise, means a great deal to Leonard McCoy. He selects Lisa to accompany him on a 3 week assignment at a research station, but the routine assignment turns into a tragedy and shattering experiences that could separate Lisa and the doctor.

OF CRYSTAL PERSUASION, Sharron Crowson, 1983, 89 pgs, (Novel) - A crystal found on a planet possesses an injured McCoy. He overcomes it with Spock's help. Later McCoy and Spock are removed from the Enterprise and involved in research to harness the crystal's power. As a telepathic team they use it to heal the sick, even helping Kirk across the parsecs. Even successful research does not prevent McCoy from missing Kirk and his Enterprise home. Warmth between McCoy, Spock and Kirk highlight this story.

OF DREAMS AND SCHEMES #1, Martha Crawford, Catherine Schlein and Debi Barbich, 1981

- "Pictures In An Exhibition", Catherine Schlein, 23 1/2 pgs - McCoy, Spock and Kirk seek shelter from a rainstorm in an alien art gallery and are mesmerized and drawn into the action shown in one of the paintings. We follow McCoy and Spock through their adventure in a warrior society.
- "Christmas Cards", Denise Mathews, 7 1/2 pgs - Spock is once more enduring the 'frivolity and undignified rituals' of the Christmas season. The day before Christmas is Care Day on the Enterprise and traditionally crewmen write their own verses and messages. McCoy has a special message for Spock and is flabbergasted when, for the first time in his life, Spock returns the greeting.

OF DREAMS AND SCHEMES #2, Catherine Schlein, Debi Barbich and Martha Crawford, 1982

- "Love Songs And Gardenias", Lorraine Beatty, 16 pgs - After the 5 year mission McCoy returned to New Yonada to claim Natira and they are now on Earth happily awaiting the birth of their first child. This happiness turns to tragedy when Natira becomes ill.

OF DREAMS AND SCHEMES #3, Catherine Schlein, Debi Barbich and Martha Crawford, 1984

- "The More Things Change", Lorraine Beatty, 2 pgs - McCoy examines his motives for returning to the Enterprise at the start of the V'Ger mission.
- "And On The Third Day", Catherine Schlein, 12 pgs - A religious cult believes that Spock's rebirth on the Genesis planet is the 2nd coming of Christ. While Spock and McCoy are attending a symposium on Earth, McCoy is kidnaped by the cult and seriously injured in the process. The cult refuses to provide medical help for McCoy. They wish Spock to give them a sign, perform a healing miracle on McCoy.
- "What A Difference A Year Makes", Catherine Schlein, 24 pgs - Jim Kirk has been missing for a year and officially declared dead. During that year Spock has become Captain of the Enterprise and his friendship with McCoy has strengthened. When the ship enters the area of space where Kirk was last seen, Spock receives some indication of a mind-link that still exists with Kirk and sets off with McCoy to find Kirk or his body.

OF DREAMS AND SCHEMES #4, Catherine Schlein, 1985

"On That Day, I Shall Mourn", Lorraine Beatty, 9 1/2 pgs - The shuttle returning McCoy to the Enterprise has exploded, killing all on board. Spock tries to use his Vulcan techniques to accept McCoy's death as 'regrettable' and not something he should dwell on, but finds he is unable to do so. He finally acknowledges his grief and guilt over not being willing to mourn his friend's death and sets about to create his own memorial.

OFF THE BEATEN TREK #1, Trinetta Kern, 1976

"Me And Thee", Trinetta Kern, 17 pgs - James Kirk is discharged from prison after serving 4 years for culpable negligence and gross incompetence. McCoy, Scotty and Spock are there to greet him. Spock has also been discharged from Starfleet and offers Kirk a place with him in the business he has built with that goal in mind. When Kirk accepts it means McCoy must part from his friend once more.

"Dogwatch", Leslye Lilker, 8 pgs - The Enterprise gets the dubious honor of transporting Admiral Komack's 4 Great Dane dogs which he decrees can only be handled by the senior staff. To make matters more interesting, one of the dogs is pregnant and Dr. McCoy may have a chance to practice his skills as a vet.

ONE THOUSAND AND ONE TREK TALES, Donna Chisholm, 1977

"After The Dark", Johanna Cantor, 15 pgs - Spock suffers painful after effects from his meld with the Horta. McCoy cares for him with the insight and perception that is uniquely his, providing a little plot of Vulcan to help restore Spock's equilibrium.

"Forever Apart", J.P. Sinclair, 22 pgs - McCoy is reunited with his daughter Joanna when she becomes a passenger on the Enterprise, but it is Jim Kirk who captures Joanna's interest.

ONE TREK MIND #3, Donna Chisholm, Date of Publication Unknown

"Interference", A. Stuart Walker, 4 1/4 pgs - Spock surprises McCoy by requesting a private consultation about a medical problem.

ONE TREK MIND #4, Donna Chisholm, 1975

"The Anniversary", Debbie Collin, 4 pgs - McCoy's musings on the 10th anniversary of his daughter's marriage to Spock.

ONLY TREK #1, Katharine Scarritt and Mary Lowe, 1982

"The Human Thing To Do", Joyce Tullock, 4 1/2 pgs - Spock and a reluctant McCoy are guest speakers at a scientific symposium attended primarily by Vulcans. McCoy feels uncomfortable and out of place and plans to avoid fulfilling his obligations at the symposium until he overhears a conversation that changes his mind.

"Mneme Muse Of Memory", Alayne Gelfand, 5 1/2 pgs - It is ten years since the Enterprise was destroyed with close to 400 dead. In his dying moments Spock had implored McCoy to care for Kirk and the doctor has tried to do that although confined to a wheelchair. He begins to worry that his care is not enough when Kirk claims to be visited by his dead companions.

"Saturday Night Vulcan", Diane Miskiewicz and CinDe Deren, 19 1/2 pgs - Somehow Spock is persuaded to accompany McCoy on a trip to a 'real, live 20th century disco'. It proves to be the horrendous experience he anticipated, but with a surprise that might make it all worthwhile.

ORGANIA, Bev Lorenstein, 1982

"Souvenir", Kate Burkel, 5 pgs - Both Spock and Kirk are dead. They died not in battle but in accidents aboard ship. This story is a conversation between McCoy and Scotty that takes place on the night of Kirk's death. We learn McCoy's assessment of the character of Spock and Kirk and of their close relationship.

"Secrets Of The Nightside Soul: A Soliloquy", Sharon Fetter, 1 pg - This is McCoy's soliloquy. While Spock lived McCoy was content to bask in the warmth of the love that was shared by Kirk and Spock. Now Spock is dead and Kirk has come to McCoy for comfort. McCoy wishes to take Spock's place in the Captain's life and declares his love for Kirk.

ORION QUADRANT #1, Ellen Blevins, 1979

"The Heart Has Its Own Logic", Martha Moore, 10 pgs - Spock discovers why McCoy is fighting Jim Kirk's efforts to gain custody of his nephew Peter.

"Magnolias And Memories", Lynn Stephens, 13 pgs - The annual 4th of July celebration at McCoy's home brings Charles McIver, a distant relative, to see the venerable 98 year old physician. Charlie is trying to decide if he should join Starfleet and during his discussion with the doctor, he learns of the tragic ending of the Kirk-Spock-McCoy relationship.

THE OTHER SIDE OF PARADISE #1, Signe Landon and Amy Falkowitz, 1976

"Claire De Lune", Connie Faddis, 4 pgs - McCoy and Spock are marooned on a planet where the soil reacts with the lunar presence to adversely affect brain waves. They desperately seek a means to save their sanity and even their lives.

THE OTHER SIDE OF PARADISE #2, Sogne Landon and Amy Falkowitz, 1977

"The Letter", Trinette Kern, 2 pgs - Spock's farewell letter to Leonard McCoy.

"Genius Loci", Connie Faddis, 20 pgs - Spock and Kirk hunt for a missing McCoy on a planet inhabited by a young Oracle that seeks knowledge from the humans.

THE OTHER SIDE OF PARADISE #7, Amy Falkowitz, 1987

"Back To The Front", Autuan Lee, 3 1/2 pgs - McCoy encounters some interesting characters in the underground repair facility of the Shore Leave planet.

"Memories Best Forgotten", Cheryl Frashure, 3 1/2 pgs - McCoy returns to Skikahr for his first meeting with Spock since the Fal Tor Pan. The doctor fears this meeting, but both men are experiencing conflicts and emotional turmoil that the healers feel must be resolved.

PARADISE (The Other Side Of Paradise #3, Part 1), Signe Landon, 1978

"Foreshadowing", Frankie Jewison, 8 1/2 pgs - Commander Thelin, First Officer of the Enterprise following Spock's death, tries to understand the situation as he watches Kirk and then McCoy prepare to follow Spock into death.

"McCoy", L.V. Fargas, 1 1/2 pgs - We learn of McCoy as we share his thoughts.

PARALLAX RING, Empyrean Publications, 1984

"Behind The Scenes", Darien Duck, 7 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. In the hours immediately following Spock's death we follow McCoy as he deals with the chaos in sickbay, cares for Kirk, and tries to deal with his own grief.

"To Seek A Balance", Crissandra Scott, 16 pgs - Alternate version of the time following the 5 year mission. Spock is on Vulcan attempting to attain the Kohlinar while Kirk and McCoy are continuing to serve on the Enterprise. Both Kirk and Spock are not dealing successfully with their life apart, but Spock refuses to respond to all messages from Kirk. McCoy, worried for the sanity of both men, takes matters into his own capable hands.

"Things That Go Bump In The Night", Kirk, 23 pgs - The Enterprise encounters the Courageous, a derelict ship rumored to be haunted. A boarding party does meet what appears to be the supernatural entities of the ship's crew. McCoy is seized by whatever controls the derelict and the Enterprise is propelled away from any chance to rescue their CMO.

PEGASUS #2, Jan Lindner and Judi Hendricks, 1977

"The Hand That Touches", Jacqueline Paciello, 90 pgs - A joyous reunion between McCoy and his daughter turns into tragedy with the death of Joanna's companion, a strange drain on the ship's dilithium, and the impending death of Joanna.

PLAK TOW #1, Bonnie Guyan, 1978

"For This", Trinette Kern, 12 pgs - After Jim Kirk is killed with Tyree and his people, Spock and McCoy seek to maintain a relationship without the cementing influence of their friend.

PLAK TOW #2, Bonnie Guyan, 1979

"The Kinship", Bonnie Guyan, 29 pgs - The first story in a series. After the death of his parents, Spock learns that he has a half-sister. He is unsuccessful in trying to locate her and then is shocked to find that a new member of the medical staff, Pamela-Jean Grayson, is his missing sister. The situation is further complicated when Leonard McCoy falls in love with Pamela-Jean.

"Search The Stars", 3 pgs - Horoscope analysis of DeForest Kelley.

PLAK TOW #3, Bonnie Guyan, 1979

"The Kinship Part II", Bonnie Guyan, 21 pgs - The continuing story of McCoy's involvement with Pamela-Jean Grayson, Spock's half-sister. When Spock is seriously injured during a landing party mission, his interment on a Starbase Facility brings Leonard McCoy and Pamela-Jean Grayson back together in a stormy conflict. Spock's death though, erases all past disagreements, bringing the couple back together once again.

PLAK TOW #4, Bonnie Guyan, 1980

"Rape Of A Rock", Bonnie Guyan, 30 1/2 pgs - Spock's mind has been wiped clean by the mind sifter. We learn of the events that led up to the tragedy, and we are with McCoy as he bids a gentle farewell to his friend. Months later, Kirk and McCoy return to Vulcan where they accompany a partially recovered Spock on a trip to the mountains. Their adventure endangers McCoy's life, but helps restore Spock's memory and leads to his return to the Enterprise.

"Side Effects", Joyce Tullock, 8 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock encounter a poisonous plant while exploring a newly discovered planet. Spock has no ill effects, but McCoy is not as fortunate and is isolated as a patient in sickbay with Spock caring for him until it is established that the poison is non-communicable. A good look at the McCoy-Spock relationship.

PLAK TOW LTD, Bonnie Guyan, 1980

"The Kinship", Bonnie Guyan 84 pgs - The Kinship series continues in novel form. Contains Chapters 1 through 4 of the series.

PLAK TOW #7, Bonnie Guyan, 1982

"The Kinship", Bonnie Guyan, 26 pgs - Chapter 5 in the series involving the relationship between McCoy and Pamela-Jean Grayson.

THE PRICE AND THE PRIZE (K/S), Gayle Feyrer, 1981

"Taaz Avine", Syn Ferguson, 9 pgs - To save both Kirk and Spock, McCoy, disguised as a pleasure slave, must publicly engage in sexual intercourse with Kirk, also a pleasure slave. McCoy succeeds, but not without injury to his own spirit.

R&R #3, Johanna Cantor, 1977

"None There Embrace", Connie Faddis - Alone with Spock on the planet Sherod, McCoy is at his professional and emotional best as he fights to save Spock from the Pon Farr. This story of McCoy's loving support and medical expertise in saving Spock's life is unsurpassed.

R&R #5, Yeoman Press, 1977

"Half-Empty Bottle", Alice M. Newsom, 4 pgs - When there is a crisis in your life, you often need a friend. Scotty finds one in Leonard McCoy.

R&R #8, Johanna Cantor, 1978

"Born An Irishman", Sharon Parkos, 23 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock accompany four young crewmembers, including Kevin Riley, on their first landing party assignment. What should have been routine, turns into a life-threatening horror.

R&R #10, Yeoman Press, 1979

"McCoy Cleans His Teeth", Beth Hallam, 5 1/2 pgs - The adventures and misadventures of Dr. McCoy as he tries to find the time to brush his teeth.

R&R #11, Johanna Cantor, 1979

"Alternatives", Karen Fleming, 7 pgs - Uniquely funny...McCoy as Kirk's sex therapist? McCoy does his duty to relieve Kirk's sexual tensions, to our and Kirk's amusement. Not X-rated.

R&R #13, Yeoman Press, 1980-81

"A Diplomatic Relationship", Vel Jaeger, 12 1/2 pgs - A diplomatic mission to a Bedouin-like culture brings Irene Armstrong aboard the Enterprise and into a gentle romance with Leonard McCoy.

R&R #18, Yeoman Press, 1983

"The Doctor's Decision", Marty Lamski and Beverly Zuk, 10 1/2 pgs - The V'Ger mission is over and the Enterprise has a new mission with Dr. McCoy a reluctant participant. The doctor has complied with his Captain's request to put off handing in a resignation for at least a month. The deadline is drawing near and we follow McCoy as he goes about his duties, talks with his friends and family and struggles to make the decision to stay or leave the Enterprise.

"Letters", Kathryn Anne Evans, 15 pgs - Letters that span many years from Joanna McCoy to her father.

"It Tolls For Thee", Sherry Velkamp, 7 1/2 pgs - A savage battle and 2 1/2 days in OR have left McCoy exhausted, but before he can rest there is one last autopsy report to complete.

R&R #21, Yeoman Press, 1985

"Gift Of Value", Linda Slusher, 1 1/2 pgs - Spock received a special birthday gift from Dr. McCoy.

R&R #22, Yeoman Press, 1985

"Just A Country Doctor", Sarah Macht Dewitt, 4 1/2 pgs - A bit of shore leave for McCoy that includes a week as a 'country doctor' on a frontier planet.

REUNION, Beth Carlson, 1984, 119 pgs, (Novel) - A deeper look at the V'Ger mission from Christine Chapel's point of view. McCoy helps her establish herself as the new CMO and deal with the emotional strain of losing Captain Decker while learning to work with Spock. Now McCoy is free to retire quietly to Earth to live with Joanna and his Grandson.

RIDERS TO THE STARS #3, Cathi Brown, 1985

"Prescription For Madness", Sherry Crowson, 53 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise has been sent to Beta Darrien where a plague is devastating the planets children. McCoy works with Dr. Calida Ayala, the resident doctor, to isolate the virus causing the disease and to find some way to save those already afflicted. Just as McCoy isolates the virus, he becomes the first adult victim of the plague. Now the fight is for McCoy's life.

RIGEL #2, Carol Ann Lee and Vicki E. James, 1975

"Born Yesterday", Connie Faddis, 20 pgs - The shuttlecraft Columbus is missing with Scotty, Christine, M'Benga and Chekov aboard. While searching for the Columbus, Kirk and Sulu suddenly disappear from the Enterprise. All are found - brutally murdered. The story deals with McCoy's grief and Spock's search for the reason for this tragedy. A search that reveals some surprising answers.

RIGEL #3, Carol Ann Lee and Vicki E. James, 1977

"Pas De Trois", Kathy Penland and Friend, 9 pgs - There are fourteen crewmen dead and Spock is seriously injured. This story tells the thoughts and feelings of Spock, Kirk and most of all, McCoy as he comforts his anguished Captain.

"Invasion", Ginna LaCroix, 16 pgs - Kirk and Spock are sent on a dangerous secret mission with McCoy the only other one on the Enterprise that knows of the mission. They return with Spock seriously injured and, to make matters worse, Kirk must return to the mission without Spock. We see McCoy's agony in knowing about their danger and not being able to help.

RIGEL #4-5-6, Carol Ann Lee and Vicki E. James, 1979

"Triptyck", Ginna LaCroix, 26 1/2 pgs - A look at the backgrounds of Kirk, Spock and McCoy from birth, through school, marriage and life in the fleet up to the point where they are all brought together on the Enterprise.

RIM OF STARLIGHT #1, Rochelle Hausman, Robyn Kevelson, Susan Hochman and Margaret Clark, 1978

"The Other Side Of The Coin", Robyn N. Kevelson, 15 1/2 pgs - Jim Kirk meets Joanna McCoy and becomes romantically involved with her. Neither realize that Leonard McCoy has an important place in the others life, but when the three learn of the situation, there is plenty of fireworks from the outraged doctor.

RIM OF STARLIGHT #5, Margaret Clark, Rochelle Hausman, Susan Hochman and Robyn Kevelson, 1978

"A Cloak Of Dignity", Gail D. Pittaway, 4 pgs - A rare look at the McCoy-Uhura relationship seen as they share a few moments of quiet conversation.

Rx McCoy, Lorraine Beatty, 1981

"The Rayne Tree", 6 1/2 pgs - McCoy meets a treasured friend from long ago. In the course of their conversation he learns a secret she has kept for all those years. A secret that could have drastically changed the doctor's life.

"Even Now", 6 pgs - Nancy Crater meets the last of the salt creatures in the form of Leonard McCoy.

"One Life", 4 1/2 pgs - McCoy returns to say a last, private farewell to Natira.

"Precious Days...And Magnolias", 7 1/4 pgs - Tanya Barrows and Leonard McCoy review their feelings for each other following their time together on the Shore Leave planet.

"Till Death Do Us Part", 4 pgs - We share the thoughts of a young Arianna McCoy as she thinks of her love for her husband and the child she is carrying.

"The Lark", 5 1/2 pgs - On the night before she will receive her first Starfleet assignment, a young ensign puts on something 'clingy and sexy' and sets out for the most renowned and expensive spot on the starbase. She is out for a lark. A lark that ultimately involves Leonard McCoy.

"A Nice Guy", 2 pgs - We see DeForest Kelley through the eyes of a young woman working with him on the filming of a movie.

SAHNDARA #1, Marie Wolfe, 1983

"The Greatest Gift", Toni Trapp, 18 pgs - The Enterprise is investigating a planet in search of a rare element when McCoy is suddenly transported from the ship. The sole inhabitant of the planet is a humanoid female seeking companionship so that she will not die alone.

SAHNDARA #2, Marie Wolfe, 1985

"Mentapontum", Teresa Conaway, 7 pgs - The Enterprise has been ordered to the planet Mentapontum for a diplomatic contact. Mentapontum was McCoy's home during the years before the V'Ger mission and on this planet is Valerie Dietrich, the woman McCoy loves. It is time for a decision, stay with Valerie or follow Kirk when the Enterprise leaves the planet.

"What More Could A Man Ask For", Teresa Conaway and Suzanne Hinr, 35 pgs - Post ST III. Another version of the events following the creation of Genesis and the Far Tar Pan. Admiral Morrow is determined to destroy Kirk's career as well as those of his crew who helped rescue Spock.

SECOND MILLENNIUM, Ingrid Cross, 1977

"The Strategist", Susan Stephenson, 4 pgs - McCoy uses a unique strategy on his Captain who is reluctant to report for routine medical procedures.

SEHLAT'S ROAR #3, Randy Ash, 1977

"The Same Wilderness", Beverly Clark, 46 pgs - Joanna McCoy is one of those rescued from a damaged ship. Relations between McCoy and his daughter are strained until McCoy is injured and Joanna's true feelings for her father become apparent.

SEHLAT'S ROAR #4, Randy Ash, 1977

"To Entertain A Stranger", Ellen Blair, 30 1/2 pgs - A party of scientists is brought aboard the Enterprise for transport and in their group is one young woman called Elizabeth. Elizabeth, however, is not what she seems to be and before she leaves the Enterprise she has a profound effect on McCoy, Kirk and Spock.

SHADES OF GREY (K/S), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1986

- "Who Follow Other Paths", Tere Ann Roderick, 10 1/2 pgs - We learn how Kirk and Spock first realized they wanted McCoy to become a part of their intimate relationship.
- "Two Into Three", Alexis Fegan Black, 12 1/2 pgs - Spock is in sickbay recovering from Pon Farr in which Kirk was his partner. We see the beginning of a triad developing as Kirk and McCoy watch over their friend.
- "Shi'Jarae", Jo Scott-Rose, 44 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock are bonded and McCoy wishes to initiate the Vulcan custom of Shi'Jarae in which a third party is brought into their relationship to serve Spock in Pon Farr if McCoy should die or be unavailable. Spock is reluctant, but McCoy uses a unique method to convince his bondmate.

SHADES OF GREY #2 (K/S/M), MKASHEF Enterprises, 1987

- "Cornerstone", Robin Hood, 12 1/2 pgs - Jim Kirk is troubled by something that Spock has done and he has been avoiding the Vulcan and ignoring McCoy's efforts to help. When Spock comes to the doctor for advice, McCoy finds himself drawn into a loving relationship with his two friends.
- "Room Enough", Roberta, 5 pgs - Jim Kirk seeks out McCoy when he feels the doctor drawing away from him after he and Spock have become lovers.
- "Shared Silences", Jo Scott-Ross, 11 1/2 pgs - Sequel to 'Shi-Jarae' that appeared in Shades of Grey #1. McCoy and Spock are bondmates and Kirk has been welcomed into their relationship. As the ship waits to welcome the Vulcan delegation aboard for transport to Babel, McCoy discovers he has Xenopolythemia. He reveals his condition to Kirk, but wants to conceal it from Spock.
- "After You've Touched The Sky", Mara-Lyn Cade, 8 1/2 pgs - The Fabrini tapes have saved McCoy's life, but his brush with death has made Spock and Kirk realize how much the doctor means to them. McCoy expects a sexual relationship to develop between his two friends, but is astonished when Spock approaches him with a request for the doctor to become a part of that relationship.
- "The Heart Of The Beast", Douya Blacque, 21 1/2 pgs - Following McCoy's brush with death from Xenopolythemia Spock approaches him in an attempt to express his love for the doctor. They are interrupted and the words are never spoken, but Kirk realizes what is happening and goes to Spock with an offer to help only to be drawn into the loving relationship that develops.
- "Legacies", Teshen Tirare, 127 1/2 pgs - Spock, McCoy and Kirk accompany the Enterprises' new Security Chief, Madenia Sandecker, through the Guardian on a Starfleet assignment that takes them aboard the doomed Titanic.

SOL PLUS #2, Jackie Bielowicz, 1976

- "Survival", Jacqueline Bielowicz, 14 1/2 pgs - McCoy is marooned on a planet with a hostile environment and populated by a savage race. He is helped in his struggle for survival by the mental image of Spock offering his logical advice.

SOL PLUS #6, Jacqueline Bielowicz, 1979

- "Lot's Wife", Rebecca Ross, 6 1/2 pgs - McCoy is about to start his autopsy on the salt monster when he realizes the creature is not dead.

SOL PLUS #8, Jacqueline Bielowicz, 1981

- "Earthfall", Susan Farrell, 13 pgs - We follow McCoy and his friends as they return the Enterprise to Earth at the end of the 5 year mission.
- "My Brother Cain", Sarah Hood, 31 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock become the prisoner of the Vulcan Sinnok who is a dangerous throwback, and determined to kill them.

SOUTHERN COMFORT, Sherri Gilbert, 62 pgs, (Novel) - McCoy and Spock follow an alien through the Guardian of Forever into the time of the Civil War on Earth. As they attempt to keep the alien from changing history, they are very much a part of the wars bloody battles.

SPIN DIZZIE #1, Marilyn Johansen, 1978

- "Missing - Presumed Dead", Jan Greville, 13 1/2 pgs - McCoy has escaped an alien prison only to crash land on a planet of underground cave dwellers. Although befriended by these people, he is lonely and isolated and longing to return to the Enterprise. The Klingons decide they have an interest in this planet and McCoy is caught in the middle of the conflict.
- "Sea Of Tears", Nikki Cadwell, 2 pgs - While swimming, McCoy is claimed by Nerissa, the sea nymph. She plans to keep the doctor for herself but changes her mind when the doctor's friends come searching for him.

SPIN DIZZIE #2, Marilyn Johansen, 1979

- "To Sleep: Perchance To Dream", Linda Knights, 23 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock work to find a cure for a strange nerve disease that threatens Kirk.

SPIN DIZZIE #5, Kay Brown and Marilyn Johansen, 1981

"Turbolift Review", Rayelle Roe, 5 pgs - McCoy and Spock are trapped in the turbolift for hours, and at such close quarters, the sniping is bound to begin. The bridge crew ease-drops via an intercomm, placing bets on who will emerge undamaged. The bi-play is hilarious.

SPIN DIZZIE #6, Kay Brown and Marilyn Johanson, 1982

"The Gift", Joy Mancinelli, 6 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Scotty's expensive, elaborate and exotic gift for their Captain ends up being given unexpectedly to another member of the Enterprise crew.

"Last Gift", Carol Maschke, 7 1/2 pgs - Spock, attempting to rescue McCoy, is now stranded with the doctor. Both are victims of a rapidly acting poison. McCoy strives to devise a means to keep them alive until the return of the Enterprise.

"A Civilized Man", Lynda Carraher, 10 pgs - McCoy is on a fishing trip with an alien friend. A Ka'ardeshi kills his friend and takes McCoy captive. The Ka'ardeshi maintains that to kill is instinctive and that McCoy would kill him if he could. When the Ka'ardeshi is badly burned, McCoy proves he is a civilized man by doing his utmost to save his enemy.

"An Obligation", Rosalie Blazej, 16 pgs - Spock has undertaken a mission on a planet with an atmosphere of Epsilon wave radiation which is fatal to Vulcans. McCoy blames himself for letting this happen and when Spock returns, the doctor is prepared to allow him a 'dignified death' without attempting treatment which would be useless. An enraged Christine refuses to allow this to happen.

STARBORNE, Michael Verina, 1979

"In Palaces Of Sand", Toni Cardinal-Price, 2 pgs - A sad, tender account of Leonard McCoy's final act of love for a dying Jim Kirk.

STAR CANTICLE #1, Dotty Barry, 1978

"As The Worm Turns", Rayelle Roe, 3 1/2 pgs - Doctor McCoy is notorious for the jokes he plays on his shipmates. When Spock becomes a victim, his Captain counsels: 'Just indulge in a little revenge every now and then and your life would be a lot more peaceful'. Logical, decides Spock and sets about to follow the advice.

STAR CANTICLE #2, Dotty Barry, 1979

"Reverie", Sally Syrjala, 1 pg - McCoy, new to the Enterprise, wonders if he dares to open himself to the possible pain of new friendships.

"Paper Dragons", Rayelle Roe, 4 1/2 pgs - Spock is returned to the ship after captivity and rape and fighting to save his sanity. McCoy uses his skills and love for Spock to heal his friend.

STAR SHADOWS #1, Carol Maschke, 1978

"Joyeux Noel", Carol Maschke, 6 pgs - McCoy wants to give Mr. Spock a gift for Christmas, but is not sure how to go about doing it.

"Open And Shut Case", Susan Papas, 18 pgs - Montgomery Scott is missing and all evidence seems to show that he was murdered by Leonard McCoy.

"The Memory Machine, Parts 1 & 2", Carol Maschke, 59 pgs - Scientists have discovered an ancient machine which has the ability to recall all memories of those attached to it. McCoy has been assigned to be a subject of the experiments using the machine.

STAR SHADOWS #2, Carol Maschke, 1979

"Memory Machine, Part 3", Carol Maschke, 63 1/2 pgs - McCoy's experience with the memory machine return him to the painful years of his life before he joined Starfleet.

STAR SHADOW #3, 1982

"Never And Always", Carol Maschke, 5 1/2 pgs - A landing party is sent to the surface of a planet to ascertain the progress of a civil war. They are to observe and remain undetected by the planet's inhabitants, but McCoy is seen by an injured man and the doctor can not turn away from his plea for help.

STARDATE #13, Randall Landers, 1981

"Chess Partners", Donna C. Clark, 21 1/2 pgs - Dr. McCoy is pleased to have his daughter assigned as a nurse on the Enterprise, but her developing relationship with Spock does not please him.

STARDATE: UNKNOWN #1, Gerry Downes, 1976

"Among The Stars", Gerry Downes, 30 pgs - The Enterprise discovers the Trmwylans, a gentle, cultured race of winged humanoids who are being hunted to extinction by a neanderthal-like species that share their planet. The men of the Enterprise try to find a way to help them survive and McCoy finds a special closeness with the female, Llarla.

STARDATE: UNKNOWN #2, Gerry Downes, 1976

"Full Circle", 8 pgs - Spock reaches out to help a troubled McCoy.

STARDATE: UNKNOWN #3, Gerry Downes, 1977

"Winged Joy Soaring, Gloriously Free", Gerry Downes, 37 pgs - Sequel to Among The Stars. It has been three years since the Enterprise encountered the Trwylans and now Kirk and crew have been ordered to relocate the survivors to guarantee their continued existence. McCoy discovers the two new members of the species are his children.

STARDATE: UNKNOWN #5, Gerry Downes, 1979

"What If The 'T' In JTK Really Did Stand For 'Tomcat'?", Gerry Downes, 11 pgs - The Captain is missing and as Spock and McCoy hunt for him, they are constantly pestered by an unusually friendly cat.

STARFLEET CHRONICLES #3, Janet Blowers and Kim Knight, Date Unknown

"Control Point Zero", Kim Knight, 5 1/2 pgs - McCoy has been taken prisoner while on a landing party assignment. The planet they are exploring is in the midst of a civil war and McCoy is held by one faction who believes him a spy. McCoy is tortured beyond endurance while Kirk and Spock seek a way to rescue him.

THE STARS ARE LONELY, Jenny Elson, Date Unknown, 18 pgs - The death of his ex-wife and a bitter, unsuccessful reunion with his daughter lead McCoy into a depression that almost results in his death.

STELLAR GAS #3, Pon Farr Press, 1980

"Not For The Captain's Log", Joyce Tullock, 2 pgs - McCoy has done it again. He is separated from the shuttlecraft party with no communicator and knows full well that it will be Spock to rescue him 'for the sheer humiliation of it'. He can just imagine Spock's report to the Captain. Mr. Spock, however, is not that predictable.

"Idylls Of A Gentle Healer", Vel Jaeger, 1 1/2 pgs - McCoy recalls many of his adventures during the 5 year mission.

T-NEGATIVE #3, Ruth Berman, 1969

"Set-To", Ruth Berman - An interview with DeForest Kelley taken on the set 8-2-68 while filming The Empath.

T-NEGATIVE #9, Ruth Berman, 1971

"The Rainbird", Dorothy Jones and Astrid Anderson, 8 1/2 pgs - One of the large bird creatures of Regenswelter has come to Earth to study the locale plants and animals while on a backpacking trip with a group of scientists. McCoy is with the group accompanying the bird, but he is more interested in his lovely shipmate, Myfanwy, than in the Regenswelter.

T-NEGATIVE #11, Ruth Berman, 1971

"Marginal Existence", Connie Faddis, 12 1/2 pgs - On a landing party investigating an ancient civilization three of the crew, including McCoy, are snared by a robot and trapped in a drugged existence in a sleeper unit.

T-NEGATIVE #14, Ruth Berman, 1972

"Notes On Leonard McCoy", 4 1/2 pgs - An analysis of the character of Dr. Leonard McCoy.

T-NEGATIVE #15, Ruth Berman, 1972

"Brother's Keeper", Ruth Berman, 3 pgs - Spock cares for an ill McCoy while they are stranded on an unfriendly planet.

T-NEGATIVE #20, Ruth Berman, 1973

"Dard", Ellie Bach, Lou Ann Jones, Cathy Anderson and Barb Anderson, 11 pgs - A party from the Enterprise agrees to help the Emperor of Margi hunt the 'Demon' that haunts the woodlands of his planet. During the hunt McCoy becomes the hostage of the demon.

T-NEGATIVE #21, Ruth Berman, 1973

"Tunnels Of An Imprisoned Mind", Carmen Carter, 6 pgs - A brush with a plant on the planet Silvane could be fatal to Leonard McCoy. A small sliver from the plant, embedded in his foot, contains a poison which causes temporary paralysis followed by insanity. There is no antidote.

T-NEGATIVE #26, Ruth Berman, 1975

"Sleep Not, Dream Not", Connie Faddis, 15 pgs - The Enterprise finds a Klingon ship orbiting a class M planet. All aboard the ship are dead as a result of murder or suicide. The only survivor from the planet, found in the brig of the Klingon ship, is an ancient female humanoid, the Nal. She appears to be the cause of all the deaths. No one can communicate with her or even approach her as she is surrounded by a terror field. As the Nal slowly dies, McCoy defies his Captain and risks his own life in an attempt to save her life.

TAL-SHAYA #3, Cheree Cargill, 1976

"I'm Not Dead Yet", Johanna Cantor, 2 1/2 pgs - McCoy lives life as well as he can after returning from Yonada while Spock and the medical staff work frantically to decipher the Fabrini archives. (This story also appears in Academy Chronicles #5)

TAL-SHAYA #4, Cheree Cargill, 1977

"An Evening Prayer", Bonnie Guyan, 1 pg - McCoy's bedtime prayers.

TAL-SHAYA #5, Cheree Cargill, 1978

"Hippocrates Was A Healer", Bev Clark, 16 pgs - McCoy is called to the planet Hippocrates to investigate the miraculous cure of a terminally ill scientist. He claims to have been cured by a 'diet' of some type belonging to the planet. McCoy is skeptical until his own experiences on the planet.

"McCoy's Lament", Bonnie Guyan, 1 pg - McCoy reflects on his life in Georgia, and on the life and times of his father.

TENDER EXPRESSIONS (British), Wendy Montgomery, 1985, 58 pgs, Scotpress, (Novel) - McCoy is delighted when Spock becomes bonded to T'Alina, a new member of the Enterprise crew. Tragedy strikes when T'Alina is injured on a landing party assignment. McCoy is not able to save her, but does save the child she was carrying. McCoy returns to Vulcan to help care for the child and finds he is reluctant to return to the Enterprise.

THERE ARE THREE, Ingrid Cross and Joyce Tullock, 1985

"The Pearl", Sandra Middleton, 7 1/2 pgs - McCoy is experiencing an emotional reaction to his ordeal at the hands of the Vians. He has become silent and withdrawn. Kirk and Spock are concerned and reach out to help, but it is a gift from Spock, given in friendship and honor, that most strongly affects the doctor.

"Succession", Shirley Sipe, 22 1/2 pgs - The planet Tevis accepted Federation membership over the objections of many of its citizens. When the Federation facility on the planet is destroyed, killing many and contaminating the planet's water supply, the Enterprise is sent to help. McCoy soon comes into conflict with the healers on Tevis who treat only those they select, in secret, and at great expense.

"A Fleeting Touch", Sandra McHale, 25 pgs - The planet Kilbian is being devastated by the Thy-Rugic disease. There are vaccines and antidotes that should be working, but they are not. Spock discovers the virus was brought to Kilbian by a member of the Dark Society, a secret organization devoted to death and destruction. When a society member invades the Enterprise, McCoy becomes a victim of the disease. Kirk and Spock struggle to prevent the alien from using the Enterprise to rejoin his evil comrades.

"Crystal, Crystal, Burning Bright", Madalena Mumford, 25 pgs - Kirk and McCoy are sharing time on shore leave when the doctor is abducted. Twelve hours later a package is delivered to Starfleet Headquarters containing the doctor's uniform and ring. It eventually becomes apparent that McCoy is a pawn being used to lure Kirk and the Enterprise into a confrontation with the Klingons.

"The Shattering", Joyce Tullock, 30 1/2 pgs - The emotional trauma of the mission on Minara is slowly destroying Leonard McCoy. His repressed memories of the experience are leading to violent psychoic episodes. The Enterprise will lose their CMO if the doctors, Kirk and Spock cannot find a way to help the doctor.

TREKISM AT LENGTH #4, Vel Jaeger, 1984

"A Matter Of Time", Lee Phillips, 156 1/2 pgs - The Enterprise has been vanquished in a battle with the Klingons. McCoy has been seriously injured, Kirk blinded and Spock taken prisoner by the Klingons. The story tells of McCoy's efforts to help Kirk, the Klingons treatment of Spock, and the adventures that lead to the reuniting of the three friends.

TREKISM AT LENGTH #5, Vel Jaeger, 1985

"Innuendo", Kim Knapp, 1 pg - Christine Chapel is obviously very angry at Dr. McCoy, but he has no idea what he could have done to deserve her wrath.

"In The Garden Of Thought", Denise S. Chonka and Donna Frost, 2 1/2 pgs - We join McCoy in the Garden Of Thought at Sarek and Amanda's home in Skikahr. It is immediately following the Fal Tor Pan and McCoy is trying to understand the 'dark and empty' space inside him that he cannot fill or banish.

TWO-DIMENSIONAL THINKING, Lee Heller, 1985

"In Sleep We Meet", CinDe Deren and Diane Miskiewicz, 8 pgs - Strange dreams trouble McCoy and Kirk following their visit to Vulcan. What is the cause of these dreams and how is Spock affected?

"The Journal", Joan G. Ryan, 12 pgs - On a visit to Jim Kirk's home, McCoy is strangely obsessed by the portrait of Jim's mother. With some reluctance, Jim gives McCoy his mother's journal which reveals much about Kirk's early life and many of the puzzling aspects of his character.

"Private Sins", Shirley Sipe, 4 pgs - McCoy begins to show his troubled mental condition following Spock's death. Kirk tries to understand and comfort his friend.

VALLEY OF SHADOW, Sue Keenan, 1985, 43 pgs, (Novel) - McCoy has fought a losing battle with an epidemic on Vogal II. He turns to Spock for support. Receiving only logic, sparks fly between them. Before McCoy can apologize, he is captured and tortured by Klingons. Spock must protect and care for him until help comes; but can McCoy survive until then? (This is an expanded version of a story that originally appeared in Odyssey #6 published by Odyssey Press.)

VAULT OF TOMORROW #1, Marion Catherine McChesney, 1981

"Evening Conversation", Ingrid Cross, 2 pgs - An elderly McCoy's conversation with his Grandson. The last of the three comrades, McCoy recalls their years together.

"We Just Disagree", Alinds Alain, 21 1/2 pgs - McCoy and Spock are part of a delegation sent to Lamona to study the planet's facilities. They find part of the citizenry planning a genocide program against other citizens and McCoy is appalled when Spock refuses to interfere in this civil matter. McCoy's sudden disappearance does draw Spock into the conflict along with Captain Kirk.

"Interesting Game This Poker", David Gordon, 4 pgs - McCoy and Kirk introduce Spock to the game of poker. Who said Vulcans never bluff?

VAULT OF TOMORROW #2, Marion McChesney, 1982

"Thy Glory Like A Shooting Star", Ingrid Cross, 4 1/2 pgs - McCoy is dying and Spock is there to comfort the doctor.

"Five, Any Way", Marion McChesney, 1 pg - McCoy and Spock in another duel, this time in a game of Bingo.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #3, Marion Catherine McChesney, 1982

"In Darkness Hidden", Marion McChesney, 17 pgs - McCoy has disappeared while on a planet assignment investigating the ruins of a long dead civilization. Kirk soon learns that McCoy is the prisoner of Koloth. The Klingon has secreted the doctor in an undetectable place with an oxygen supply that will run out in 26 hours, 42 minutes.

"Destiny", Terri Clark, 12 1/2 pgs - A young Commander Kirk is removed from his ship when he contracts Vegan Coriomeningitis. The doctor who saves his life is Leonard McCoy and we see the development of the friendship that leads to McCoy's assignment as CMO on the Enterprise.

"The Accident", Joyce Tullock, 9 pgs - McCoy has been seriously injured in an explosion of the planet Corrid. The Corridians believe their human visitor is dead and remove the body to a temporary morgue. McCoy is very much alive, but cannot move or speak. We live through this experience from McCoy's perspective as he struggles to let someone know he is alive and as he endures the emotional turmoil when Kirk and Spock come to retrieve the body.

"All I Ask", Laura Zipkin, 5 1/2 pgs - Two friends are enjoying a shore leave in a small coastal village. Tragedy strikes when the young Starfleet Captain does not return from a solitary sailing trip. Now his friend remains in the village, returning to the shore each day to wait for a boat that will never appear.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #4, Marion Catherine McChesney, 1983

"Just For Fun", Susan Meinecke, 6 1/2 pgs - Kirk, McCoy and a reluctant Spock attend the playing of Super Bowl CCLII. A bit of wagering enhances their interest in the game.

"The Dark Moment", Ingrid Cross, 5 pgs - We spend a few hours with Leonard McCoy as he tries to deal with the agony of the diagnosis of Xenopolycythemia.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #5, Marion Catherine McChesney, 1984

"The Endymion Prize", Lorraine Beatty, 15 1/2 pgs - McCoy is to be awarded the prestigious Endymion Prize. It is a great honor, but one with strings attached: the formal ceremony and the extravagant outfit the prize winner must wear to the ceremony. McCoy would like to get his hands on the individual responsible for his nomination.

"Life's Final Star", Lynn Syck and Laurel Ridener, 36 pgs - The people of the planet Cota are dying of a plague and the Enterprise is ordered to do whatever possible to help without deploying a landing party. McCoy can stand the frustration only so long before he, against all orders, beams himself to the planet. It is only a matter of time before Kirk and Spock follow him. The quality of these men and their love for each other proves strong enough to survive this deadly situation.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #6, Marion Catherine McChesney, 1984

"The Final Toast", Sandra Middleton and Sharon Masters, 5 1/2 pgs - Post ST:TWOK. Kirk and McCoy trying to come to terms with Spock's death.

"Validity Of Friendship", Marilyn Cole, 17 1/2 pgs - Arica, a young Klingon-Human hybrid captures Spock. She wants Spock to mind-meld with her to help integrate her two halves. It is a dangerous procedure and Spock would never attempt it willingly, but Arica has McCoy as her prisoner.

"Wait For The Morning", Marion McChesney, 47 1/2 pgs - First printed in Contact #7. Spock persuades a very unwilling McCoy to withhold from Kirk the fact that the Captain has a malignant brain tumor. When Spock dies in an accident protecting Kirk, McCoy reveals the truth and is told with great bitterness that Kirk wants out of his life. McCoy withdraws, but it is not long before both men realize how much they need each other.

"When Evening Comes", Marion McChesney, 4 1/2 pgs - Sequel to 'Wait For The Morning'. McCoy returns to the ocean side home he shared with Jim Kirk during the last few weeks of Kirk's life. It is time to put the house in order, take care of the Captain's possessions and get on with the rest of his life.

"Amazing Grace", Lynn Syck and Laurel Ridener, 32 pgs - Kirk has been hideously injured. Spock and McCoy seek the help of the Pelf Protectorate, believing these mysterious beings might be able to restore their Captain.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #9, Marian Catherine McChesney, 1986

"The Hearts We Leave Behind", Liz Ellington, 25 1/2 pgs - Kirk, McCoy and Spock are sharing an apartment after their retirement. Spock is visiting Vulcan when he learns of McCoy's sudden death. Story tells of Kirk's reaction to McCoy's death, the rallying of friends, and Spock's efforts to get back to earth at this time of need.

"Possibilities", Eleanor Dimick, 90 pgs - Post ST III. Kirk, McCoy and crew are arrested following the Fal Tor Pan and removed from Vulcan. Kirk is given a choice: accept a secret mission to initiate diplomatic contact with the Klingon Governing Guild or spend the rest of his life in prison along with all the crew who rescued Spock. So McCoy, Kirk and all are off to contact the Klingons.

"A Candle Burns", Laurel Ridener and Lynne Syck, 12 pgs - Sequel to 'Somewhere In The Darkest Night' that appeared in Vault #6. Kirk has been struck with a disease which is incurable. He decides to leave the ship, take the deep-space shuttle, and die at a time and place of his own choosing. Spock and McCoy will not let him go alone, even though they will not be immune to Kirk's disease.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #10, Marion McChesney, 1986

"The Demon", Robin Walker, 6 pgs - On shore leave on Zeta 4, McCoy drinks a local brew that turns out to be very toxic to humans. The coma that results could lead to respiratory failure and death. We are led through the delirium of his illness to the point of death where a friend attempts to reach him through the mind meld.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #11, Marion McChesney, 1987

"Symbiosis", Mary Schuttler, 5 pgs - The minds of Spock and McCoy were not completely separated by the Fal Tor Pan. Each exhibit some characteristics usually shown by the other. The two men try to decide what to do about the 'problem'.

VAULT OF TOMORROW #12, Marion McChesney, 1987

"To Touch The Stars", Mary Rottler, 81 pgs - Another version of the events that followed Spock's death. McCoy and Kirk have returned to Starfleet assignments, but it is soon apparent all is not as it should be with McCoy. He is going through great physical and emotional distress and Kirk, David, Carol Marcus and Sarek are all drawn into the doctor's torment.

"A Three Fold Cord", Tay Garian, 2 1/2 pgs - Post ST IV. Spock has been hurt by an angry outburst from Jim Kirk. McCoy steps forward to offer his special blend of compassion and advice, and Spock is once again aware of the strength of the friendship of the three men.

"Crossed Wire", Mary Schuttler, 4 pgs - Before he left for shore leave, McCoy employed Uhura's instructions to program his Comm unit to identify callers and give pre-recorded responses. Upon his return it becomes apparent he did not follow those instructions correctly.

"Ordained", Lynn Syck and Laurel Ridener, 4 1/4 pg - A shuttle crash has taken Spock's life and Jim Kirk is dying. McCoy comforts Kirk, knowing he too will die with his friends.

VISIONS #2, Elizabeth Hoolahan, 1983

"The Light", Rowena Warner, 7 1/2 pgs - A captive Spock is chained to a wall in complete darkness. We share his struggles against the cold and his fear of the darkness and we learn of his concern for the safety of his friends. Spock reviews their past experiences and analyzes their character as he waits for rescue.

VOYAGES #1, Pat Zotti, Date of Publication Unknown

"Matchmaker, Make Me A Match", Norma Smith, 10 pgs - A letter from an old friend asking McCoy's help in finding him a wife takes the doctor's time and thoughts until the crew of the Enterprise is suddenly the victim of Bubonic Plague.

"Amy", Pat Zotti, 25 pgs - Amy Bedford suddenly appears aboard the Enterprise, supposedly escaping Klingon capture. She is a Lythian, a gentle, peaceful race of humanoids with great Psionic abilities. There are many mysteries about Amy, but she has no trouble capturing McCoy's heart.

VOYAGES #2, Pat Zotti and Jim Thomas, Publication Unknown

"Remember, Remember Me", Pat Zotti, 23 pgs - Leonard McCoy and Amy Bedford have been married for three months when Amy and Spock disappear while on planet assignment. Events that follow lead to problems between Spock and McCoy.

"The Birthday Present", Kathie Farnell, 4 pgs - Spock has decided to use the computer to facilitate his search for a suitable Vulcan wife and McCoy is determined to lend a helping hand.

"From The Parallel Universe", Pat Zotti, 4 pgs - A look at the McCoy from the mirror universe through the eyes of a woman crewmember who shares his bed.

VOYAGES #3, Pat Zotti, Publication Unknown

"Odyssey", Carmen Carter, Kathie Farnell and Pat Zotti, 148 pgs - Leonard McCoy is participating in a diplomatic mission when word reaches the Enterprise that the entire delegation has been assassinated. In truth McCoy is still alive, but in hiding as he attempts to escape to safety. Amy McCoy returns to Earth to be with the doctor's family. When McCoy finally returns to the ship it is to learn that Amy has been kidnapped by slave traders.

VOYAGES #2, Beverly Volker, 1987

"Mandy", Steve Wilson, 24 1/2 pgs - It is the night following the Fal Tor Pan and an inability to sleep brings Saavik and McCoy together in Amanda's kitchen. They share hot chocolate and a secret from McCoy's past that he thought he would never reveal. A secret concerning Amanda Grayson.

WARPED SPACE #7, Lori Chapek, 1975

"Birthday Waltz", Paula Block, 5 1/2 pgs - McCoy, depressed by a 'surprise' birthday party that reminds him of his age, leaves the merriment and takes refuge in sickbay. He is not too happy to be disturbed by ensign Sadie Faulwell who is seeking attention for a sprained ankle. This is the first story in a long series.

"After The Ball", Paula Block, 3 pgs - It takes a lot to get through to Leonard McCoy - and Sadie Faulwell wants to do just that. After an evening of dancing alone with the doctor in sickbay, McCoy is avoiding Sadie and it is up to her to take the initiative if they are ever to get together again.

WARPED SPACE #8, Lori Chapek, 1975

"A Private Little Naked Time", Paula Block, 7 pgs - McCoy rescues Sadie from the influence of the spores from Psi 2000.

WARPED SPACE #9, Lori Chapek, 1975

"After The Goldrush", Paula Block, 7 pgs - Joanna McCoy is about to be married. McCoy wants to attend the wedding, but dreads the reunion with his ex-wife and her family. Both Sadie and Jim Kirk feel obligated to help and agree to accompany the doctor into the uncomfortable situation. After meeting McCoy's ex-wife Sadie feels lonely, alienated, and realizes she really knows little about Leonard McCoy.

WARPED SPACE #10 (Adult), Lori Chapek, 1975

"Mirror Leerer", Paula Block, 7 pgs - Sadie Faulwell becomes the victim of McCoy's savage counterpart from the mirror universe.

WARPED SPACE #11, Lori Chapek, 1975

"Trouble In River City", Paula Block, 5 pgs - McCoy finds that Sadie has been sleeping with Athos when the alien challenges the doctor to a battle for her favors. McCoy is hurt and furious and all seems to be over between them.

WARPED SPACE #12, Lori Chapek, 1975

"To Need A Friend", Carol Hydeman, 4 pgs - Both Spock and McCoy are devastated by the death of Jim Kirk, but it is Spock who suffers the most as he tries to hide his grief. McCoy draws Spock out of his cabin and into the garden on the Enterprise. As they talk and Spock is able to finally express his grief, he realizes how much he needs the friendship of Leonard McCoy.

"Birthday Waltz II", Paula Block, 9 pgs - This time it is Sadie's birthday and she ends up needing treatment in sickbay just as she did when she first met McCoy on his birthday. With reluctance McCoy is drawn once again into the arms of Sadie Faulwell.

WARPED SPACE #13, Lori Chapek, 1975

"A Different Way Of Thinking", Mona Delitsky, 1 pg - McCoy's thoughts and sensations as Natira uses the way of her people to explore his mind and body.

WARPED SPACE #15, Lori Chapek, 1976

"Pasadena Blues", Paula Block, 6 1/2 pgs - Shore leave on P-77 or Pasadena II as it is renamed by the crew. Palm trees, warm breezes, sand. It should be idyllic for Sadie as she shares it with McCoy, but Sadie is uneasy and finally returns to the ship. She is no sooner on board then Pasadena suddenly begins to break out of orbit pulling the Enterprise in its wake. Pasadena is not a planet but a living organism.

WARPED SPACE #17, Lori Chapek, 1976

"Mind Rape", 1 pg - We experience the forced mind meld by the mirror universe Spock on Dr. McCoy.

WARPED SPACE #21, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1976

"Day Of Darkness", Jeanne Powers and Cathy Alling, 4 1/2 pgs - McCoy recalls the one crushing event that ended his marriage.

WARPED SPACE #24, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1977

"Trek Over The Black Ridge", Nancy Spinks, 7 pgs - A research colony is in ruins and the Enterprise responds to the distress call. The inhabitants will evacuate to an alternate settlement, but 5 children are missing. Spock and McCoy are assigned to locate the children and lead them safely to the new settlement.

WARPED SPACE #26/27, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1977

"To The Water And The Wild", Cheryl D. Rice, 9 1/4 pgs - McCoy spends the last few hours on the shore leave planet with Tonia Barrows. Her announcement that she will soon leave the Enterprise has added to his ever present feeling of loneliness, but a brief encounter with a beautiful mythological beast helps him realize that his involvement with Tonia was never meant to last.

"The Way I Always Heard It Should Be", Paula Block, 18 pgs - McCoy's unexpected proposal of marriage leaves Sadie bewildered and uncertain. Her attitude leaves McCoy shaken and contributes to a heart attack that nearly takes his life. While Sadie stands vigil at McCoy's bedside she realizes how much he means to her. The wedding will take place.

WARPED SPACE #37, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1978

"Man Trapped", Paula Block, 1 pg - We share McCoy's anguish after he has killed Nancy Crater.

WARPED SPACE #43, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1980

"One-Finger Symphony", Eileen Roy, 3 pgs - Christine Chapel feels useless, totally undesirable, and so afraid of failure. The pharmaceutical cabinet with its row of pills draws her near, but Leonard McCoy is there to offer his help.

WARPED SPACE #44, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1980

"Heartbeat", Marian Kelly, 1 1/2 pgs - Leonard McCoy is about to become a sacrifice to savage captors if he is not found by his shipmates.

WARPED SPACE #49, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1983

"Mere Puppets They Who Come And Go", Jeri Kandel, 7 1/2 pgs - Dr. McCoy, Kirk and Spock are snatched from the Enterprise by aliens who want to know more about the physiology of humans and vulcans. The aliens possess McCoy and he performs an autopsy on his two living friends. They are returned to the ship and Kirk and Spock recover, but McCoy's experience results in his confinement to a mental facility where he will stay if Spock can not find a way to help.

WARPED SPACE #50, Lori Chapek-Carleton, 1984

"A Death In The Family", Joan Marie Verba, 5 1/2 pgs - Dr. McCoy is reported to be dead, the victim of a disease that struck a planet settlement being evacuated. There is much confusion on the planet, but there seems no doubt the doctor is gone. His shipmates prepare to honor his memory with a wake.

WHALESONG, Martha Bonds, 1987

"When Eagles Cry", Ginna LaCroix, 44 1/4 pgs - Post ST III story. The Fal Tor Pan has just been completed and Spock is secluded with the healers. Both McCoy and Kirk are struggling to overcome the physical and emotional trauma they have experienced in the rescue of Spock and the uncertainty about Spock's recovery and their future in Starfleet.

"Held Too Tightly", Lynn Syck and Laurel Ridener, 12 1/2 pgs - It is 3 weeks since the reassignment to the new Enterprise. Spock does not know how to handle his human feelings, especially where Jim Kirk is concerned, and prepares to leave the ship. McCoy does all he can to prevent a hasty departure by the Vulcan and to prepare Jim Kirk if the parting does occur.

WHATSOEVER STAR THAT BECKONS, Rowena G. Warner, 1984

"My Friend, My Foe", Rowena G. Warner, 24 pgs - McCoy and Spock have been captured by Romulans to be used as subjects of an experiment. The Romulans think they have a way to turn humans against Vulcans. If it works with McCoy and Spock, it will be used to tear apart the Federation.

WHEN HEROES DIE - A STARCHILD'S QUEST, Joyce Tullock, 1983, 142 pgs, (Novel) - After the five year mission, McCoy answers a summons to a distant world to prove that a threatened life form, the Mandois, is sentient. There is romance, a long journey through a dangerous swamp, and the beautiful triumph as McCoy succeeds in communicating with the creature he has come to save.

WHEN YOU WERE MERLIN AND I WAS KING, Joyce Tullock and Ingrid Cross, 1983, (Novel) - With V'Ger's guidance, McCoy courageously undertakes the dangerous, shattering task of restoring a proud, distant, and overbearing Kirk to the loving third of the triad he once was. A powerful story.

A picture's worth a thousand words...

LOOK AT THE MAGIC OF THE NORTH SHORE ANIMAL LEAGUE

People like you make it all possible

MEET RAY "TO THE RESCUE" BRENNAN

Ray joined the League a few years back, and has since become an important member of our group. His typical day begins with making the rounds to rescue pets from pounds that might destroy them. Below, back at the League, using a stethoscope with skill and love, he examines a new pal, Clyde, one of the pups just rescued.

NEW "ORPHANS" ARRIVE EVERY DAY...

...and our Nursery Team is ready for them! Puppies and kittens are brought to the League by the basketful. Volunteers are the backbone of NSAL, and devote hours to feeding, exercising, and just loving the "little fellas" during their stay with us. Shown here (l to r) are Debbie Rubins, Doe Ann Kumberger, Manager Stephen Maziejka and Donna Borkowski.

TWO MATCHES MADE IN HEAVEN!

Mrs. Charlotte Bielman and "Tiny" have been inseparable since finding each other at the League seven years ago. Marion Kane (R) is all smiles at hearing she met the League's standards of a good home for "Jo-Jo". One out of four applicants is turned down, usually because they can't provide the time and attention a pet needs.

See message on back—

MEDICAL CARE, GROOMING, TRAINING—AND MOST OF ALL, LOVE—HELP MAKE ADOPTIONS HAPPEN

BEFORE AND AFTER

Al Mazzucca, grooming manager, took this mass of tangled fur and in less than two hours out came "Fifi", a purebred poodle, to greet groomers Susan White and José Cosio. Needless to say, Fifi was adopted almost immediately.

LOVE IS ALL AROUND

There is a special room at the League—reserved for puppies, small dogs, kittens and cats. It's just a plain room, but magic happens here, with animals changing into pets and people changing into pet-loving families. All these animals have been cleaned up, given shots and are ready for adoption.

FREE SUBSCRIPTION TO SAVE-A-PET NEWS

SAVE-A-PET GOLD CLUB NEWS
Published Now and Then by the North Shore Animal League

League saves starving deer in Utah
The emergency news reports on radio and TV were not just about the deer. They were about the people who were helping them. Over 30,000 deer were brought away from starvation. They were brought to the North Shore Animal League where they were given medical care and food. The League raised $10,000 for a special rescue fund to help the deer. While all the deer were being rescued, the League's 50 volunteers were working hard to help them.

League honored in nation's capital
The League was honored in the steps of the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. by the U.S. House of Representatives. The North Shore Animal League was the only animal organization to be honored. The League was honored for its outstanding work in saving and caring for animals. The League's 50 volunteers were also honored for their dedication and hard work.

Meet Debbie Carlson—League's Foster Mother Of The Year
The League is proud to announce that Debbie Carlson has been chosen "Foster Mother Of The Year". She has been chosen from more than 20 other "Foster Mothers" who have cared for thousands of homeless puppies and kittens. Debbie is a truly special. Her gentle touch and loving care have given over 2,000 "Foster Mothers" a chance to give a home to a homeless animal. Debbie is a truly special. Her gentle touch and loving care have given over 2,000 "Foster Mothers" a chance to give a home to a homeless animal.

Dear Friend:

Join the Gold Club and get a free subscription to the Save-A-Pet News - published now and then - especially for volunteers and other good friends of our animal shelter.

Alex Lewy

NORTH SHORE ANIMAL LEAGUE

22 South Street, Port Washington 11050

YOUR SUPPORT ALSO SAVES PETS AT THE NORTH EAST ANIMAL SHELTER IN SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS

BR-16

IMPATIENT EDITORS' QUERY FORM
FOR LoCs FROM ~~LAZY~~ BUSY ZINE BUYERS

I received my copy of OUR FAVORITE THINGS #5.    ☐ Yes    ☐ No    ☐ I forget

I have read my copy of OUR FAVORITE THINGS #5.    ☐ Yes    ☐ No    ☐ I forget

I have looked at the pictures in my copy of OFT#5<sup>1</sup>.    ☐ Yes    ☐ No    ☐ I forget

Check the appropriate response among the following:

	POETRY	FICTION	ARTWORK	COVER	LoC FORM
<input type="checkbox"/> I didn't care for it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> It was OK.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> It was pretty good.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> I liked it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> I loved it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> It was FANTASTIC!!!	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Comments (please be specific):

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

My favorite story was _____.

My favorite illo was _____.

My favorite poem was _____.

My favorite puzzle was _____.

(This is not a test. You will not be graded on your answers. Continue on the back if necessary.
Please feel free to write a free-form Letter of Comment if the urge strikes.)

<sup>1</sup>OUR FAVORITE THINGS #5
Elan Press; copyright 5/89

Elan Press, P. O. Box 615, Macedon NY 14502-0615

DO NOT WRITE IN THIS SPACE
OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Form Copyright Elan Press, 1/87
ELAN8905.01-emb/aeb, revised

Yes, it's late. We know it.

Blame it on the printer. See, we gave the masters to him May 1, and said we absolutely, positively had to have it back by May 25. He said no problem. But on May 23 he called to say his machine was broken, and the part was on order, and it wouldn't be in 'til the following week. Which meant we had no copies of OFT #5 to take with us to Media Con 9. We were unhappy. June 8 we called to see if he was anywhere near done, since we hadn't heard anything from him yet. He told us the part still wasn't in, but he would have our order ready by the end of the next week. We were unhappy.

This printer has been reliable in the past, and has done good work for us. So we decided not to string him up by the thumbs.

Here's your zine.