PREFACE

The Marquette Law Review has attempted to present a plea bargaining issue from each viewpoint of those involved, namely, the court, the prosecution and the defense. Our efforts, however, have not proved fruitful. We therefore present the viewpoints of those who were willing and able to timely and artfully respond. Neither the Marquette Law Review nor Marquette University supports or advocates one position over the other. We welcome comments to these articles and will gladly consider any responsive article for publication.

Likewise, neither the Marquette Law Review nor Marquette University endorses any author who may be seeking a political or judicial office. It is simply our intention to present the timely issue of plea bargaining and provide a scholarly vehicle through which debate can be fostered.
