 13 IN-N-OUT BURGERS, a California
 Corporation,

14 Plaintiff,

15 vs.

16 DOORDASH, a California company,

17 Defendant.
 18 _____

Case No. 8:15-cv-1826

IN-N-OUT BURGERS' COMPLAINT
 FOR TRADEMARK
 INFRINGEMENT AND UNFAIR COMPETITION

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

19
 20 Plaintiff IN-N-OUT BURGERS, a California Corporation (“Plaintiff” or “In-21 N-Out”) by and through its undersigned Counsel, files its Complaint and seeks a 22 permanent injunction against Defendant DoorDash (“Defendant” or “Door Dash”).
 23 In support of its Complaint, Plaintiff alleges as follows:

24 NATURE OF THE CASE

25 1. This action concerns Defendant’s acts of trademark infringement and 26 false designation of origin under the Lanham Act as well as unfair competition under 27 both state and federal laws.
 28

1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 2. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 15
3 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338 and 1367. Plaintiff’s claims are, in part,
4 based on violations of the Lanham Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051, et seq. The 5 Court has jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(b), 6 and 1367.

7 3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and for similar 8 reasons, venue is proper in the Central District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
9 § 1391(b). Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant operates its food
10 delivery business throughout the Central District of California, including throughout 11 Los Angeles, Orange County, and the San Fernando and Conejo Valleys. Further, 12 upon information and belief, a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise
13 to Plaintiff’s claims occurred in this District, where Defendant advertises and 14 operates delivery services. The effects of Defendant’s infringing acts have been felt 15 in the State of California and in this District, where Plaintiff is located.

16 THE PARTIES

17 4. Plaintiff is a California corporation having its principal place of business
18 in Irvine, California. Plaintiff operates a highly recognizable chain of restaurants, 19 with over 300 locations in the United States.

20 5. Upon information and belief, Defendant is a California company, having 21 a principle place of business at 531 Lasuen Mall, Stanford, California 94305.
22 Defendant provides on-demand food delivery from numerous restaurants to 23 customers who place orders through a mobile app or an Internet website.

24 PLAINTIFF’S BUSINESS AND MARKS

25 6. Founded in 1948, Plaintiff operates a successful and popular chain of 26 quick service restaurants offering made-to-order hamburger sandwiches and other
27 products and services. Since at least as early as 1960, Plaintiff has continuously used
28 federally registered trademarks and service marks comprising the words IN-N-OUT

1 and IN-N-OUT BURGER as well as logos related to these marks in interstate 2 commerce in connection with its advertising, promotion, offering to provide, and 3 providing specially-prepared burgers and other products and services to consumers in 4 its restaurants.

5 7. Celebrated for its fresh food and other high standards of quality,
 6 Plaintiff consistently rates as the top quick service restaurant in customer satisfaction
 7 surveys. In 2015, Zagat users rated Plaintiff as the favorite chain restaurant in Los 8 Angeles. In April 2015, Plaintiff earned the top ranking from consumers for the 9 third year in a row in the Limited-Service category in Nation’s Restaurant News’
 10 annual Consumer Picks report. In 2014, the National Restaurant Association ranked 11 Plaintiff as the nation’s top hamburger spot, “head and shoulders above the rest.”
 12 Also in 2014, OC Metro magazine named Plaintiff as the most trustworthy brand in 13 Orange County for the second consecutive year, based on a consumer survey. In 14 2013, the Quick Service Restaurant (QSR) Benchmark Study rated Plaintiff as 15 “America’s Favorite Burger Brand.” In 2011, Zagat’s fast food survey lauded 16 Plaintiff as the number one large quick service chain in the “Top Food” category. In 17 2010, Consumer Reports ranked Plaintiff as the nation’s top burger sandwich chain.

18 8. Plaintiff has amassed tremendous consumer goodwill over the decades.
 19 It is an iconic brand, and its products and services have acquired renown and a 20 fiercely devoted fan base throughout the country, including in its home state of 21 California.

22 9. Plaintiff’s Federal Trademark and Service Mark Registrations for the 23 “IN-N-OUT” mark include the following word and design marks (hereinafter, the 24 “Registered Marks”) registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent
 25 and Trademark Office, all of which are incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065:

10. Registrations for a relevant sub-set of these Registered Marks are attached hereto as Exhibits A-Q.

11. Plaintiff owns all right, title and interest in and to the Registered Marks, and has obtained Federal Trademark and Service Mark Registrations for the Registered Marks for a wide range of food and other products and services, including, inter alia, restaurant services, hamburger and cheeseburger sandwiches, French fried potatoes, hot coffee, milkshakes, bumper stickers, backpacks and coffee mugs. Plaintiff also uses the Registered Marks for mobile restaurant services, and specifically on its food trucks in California and Texas. Plaintiff has been using its Registered Marks on food trucks for more than four decades in California, and for several years in Texas.

12. The Registered Marks have been used in interstate commerce to identify and distinguish Plaintiff's products and services for decades, and they serve as symbols of Plaintiff's quality, reputation and goodwill.

13. Through its restaurants and online store, Plaintiff has sold and continues to sell goods throughout the United States.

14. Plaintiff makes use of its Registered Marks in interstate commerce by displaying them on product packaging, menus, signage, mobile food trucks, promotional materials and advertising materials.

1 15. Plaintiff has invested millions of dollars in developing, advertising and 2 otherwise promoting the Registered Marks in the United States in an effort to create a
3 strong association between Plaintiff's products and services, its consumer goodwill
4 and its Registered Marks.

5 16. As a result of the care and skill exercised by Plaintiff in the conduct of 6 its business, the high quality of its products and services offered under its Registered
7 Marks, and the extensive advertising, sale and promotion of Plaintiff's products
8 bearing the Registered Marks, the Registered Marks have acquired secondary 9 meaning throughout the United States, and the Registered Marks are widely 10 recognized by the general consuming public of the United States as a designation that 11 Plaintiff is the source of the goods and services bearing the Registered Marks.

12 17. The Registered Marks are strong, arbitrary marks that warrant broad 13 protection in both related and unrelated product and/or service classes.

14 18. Since the date of First Use of the Registered Marks, Plaintiff has 15 manifested intent to maintain exclusive ownership of the Registered Marks and to 16 continue use of the Registered Marks in interstate commerce in connection with 17 Plaintiff's products and services.

18 19. Plaintiff has carefully monitored and policed the use of the Registered
19 Marks and maintains tight control over the use of the Registered Marks.

20 20. Plaintiff adheres to the requirements of the California Retail Food Code 21 including all standards for the prevention of contamination, ensuring time and 22 temperature relationship, food storage, and food display and service.

23 DEFENDANT'S INFRINGING ACTS

24 21. Upon information and belief, Defendant is a food delivery business, 25 which promises delivery in an hour of a variety of food items from a number of 26 restaurants in cities throughout the United States.

27 22. Plaintiff is not affiliated with Defendant's delivery business, and has not 28 authorized Defendant to deliver its food products.

1 23. Despite the fact that Defendant is in no way affiliated with Plaintiff,
2 Defendant has advertised, and continues to advertise, that it delivers food from 3 Plaintiff’s restaurants. In conjunction with these advertisements, Defendant’s
4 website and promotional materials feature a mock In-N-Out logo (the “Imitation
5 Logo”), which is a colorable imitation of Plaintiff’s Registered Marks. Upon
6 information and belief, the Imitation Logo is intended to, and has, confused
7 consumers as to Defendant’s authority to deliver Plaintiff’s food items. A sampling
8 of Defendant’s promotional materials featuring the Imitation Logo is attached hereto
9 as Exhibit R.

10 24. In addition, without authorization from Plaintiff, Defendant has used and 11 continues to use the Registered Marks to advertise and promote its delivery business.

12 25. A sampling of Defendant’s promotional materials that unlawfully
13 incorporate Plaintiff’s Registered Marks is attached hereto as Exhibit S. Plaintiffs 14 did not authorize, and would never authorize, Defendant to use the Registered Marks,
15 or any colorable imitations of the Registered Marks.

16 26. Upon information and belief, although Defendant’s delivery vehicles are 17 food facilities and/or mobile food facilities as those terms are defined under the 18 California Retail Food Code (the “Food Code”), Defendant does not comply with 19 Food Code requirements.

20 27. Plaintiff would not authorize Defendant, or any other entity, to deliver 21 its food products to consumers without the necessary food handling licenses and food 22 safety procedures in place.

23 28. Defendant’s unauthorized use of the Registered Marks and the Imitation
24 Logo in its marketing and advertising materials creates a likelihood of consumer
25 confusion because actual and prospective customers are likely to believe that Plaintiff
26 has approved or licensed Defendant’s use of its marks, or that Plaintiff is somehow 27 affiliated or connected with Defendant or its services or has been authorized by 28

1 Plaintiff to deliver Plaintiff's food products. In fact, Plaintiff has not sponsored,
2 licensed, or authorized Defendant's services.

3 29. Defendant's use of Plaintiff's famous trademarks implies that Defendant
4 not only delivers In-N-Out products to its customers, but that the quality and services
5 offered by Defendant is the same as if consumers had made purchases directly from 6 Plaintiff. Upon information and belief, the quality of services offered by Defendant
7 does not at all comport with the standards that consumers expect from Plaintiff's
8 goods and services. Further, Plaintiff has no control over the time it takes Defendant
9 to deliver Plaintiff's goods to consumers, or over the temperature at which the goods 10 are kept during delivery, nor over the food handling and safety practices of 11 Defendant's delivery drivers. While Plaintiff adheres to the Food Code, on 12 information and belief, Defendant does not adhere to such regulations, including with 13 regard to compliance with required food safety and handling practices.

14 30. Plaintiff initially contacted Defendant on April 14, 2014 and requested
15 that Defendant stop using Plaintiff's trademarks on its website, or in any other 16 capacity, and refrain from delivering or offering to deliver Plaintiff's food as part of 17 its services. Plaintiff sent a follow-up letter on May 2, 2014. On October 3, 2014,
18 Defendant's CEO and Co-Founder Tony Xu responded, indicating that Defendant
19 had removed references to Plaintiff from its website.

20 31. However, on July 10, 2015, Plaintiff again sent a letter to Defendant,
21 noting that Defendant had broken its promise, and, without authority, was accepting 22 orders for and delivering Plaintiff's food, featuring In-N-Out on its website, and 23 using the Imitation Logo, wherein Plaintiff demanded that Defendant immediately
24 cease and desist the foregoing actions. Defendant did not respond to the July 10
25 letter. A follow-up letter on August 27 demanding that Defendant immediately cease
26 and desist all use of Plaintiff's trademarks and discontinue leaving DoorDash flyers
27 in In-N-Out Restaurants was likewise met with silence.

28

1 have an adequate remedy at law to recover for this harm, and is therefore entitled to 2 injunctive relief.

3 COUNT II

4 FEDERAL UNFAIR COMPETITION 15 U.S.C. § 1125 (a)

5 41. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 40 as though fully set forth
6 herein.

7 42. Upon information and belief, Defendant's unauthorized use of the 8 Registered Marks in connection with its food delivery services constitutes a false 9 designation of origin, a false or misleading description of fact, and/or false or 10 misleading representation of fact, and has caused and is likely to cause confusion, 11 mistake, and/or deception as to:

- 12 a. The affiliation, connection or association of the Plaintiff's
- 13 trademarks with Defendant;
- 14 b. The origin, sponsorship or approval of Defendant's use of the
- 15 Plaintiff's trademarks; and
- 16 c. The nature, characteristics, or qualities of Defendant's services
- 17 that bear and/or rendering of services in connection with the
- 18 Plaintiff's trademarks.

19 43. The aforesaid acts constitute Federal Unfair Competition in violation of 20 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

21 COUNT III

22 DILUTION 15 U.S.C. § 1125(C)

23 44. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 43 as though fully set forth
24 herein.

25 45. Plaintiff is the owner of the Registered Marks, which are famous marks 26 that are inherently distinctive.

27
28

1 46. Defendant's unauthorized use of the Registered Marks and the Imitation
2 Logo in connection with its food delivery services is likely to cause dilution by 3 blurring and/or dilution by tarnishment of Plaintiff's famous marks.

4 47. Defendant's acts have been willful and in conscious disregard of the 5 trademark rights of Plaintiff.

6 48. Defendant's acts were subsequent to the Registered Marks becoming 7 famous.

8 49. Because Defendant's unauthorized use of the Registered Marks and the 9 Imitation Logo is likely to tarnish the Plaintiff's marks, Plaintiff is entitled to 10 injunctive relief under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c) because Plaintiff has no adequate remedy 11 at law.

12 COUNT IV

13 UNFAIR COMPETITION

14 CALIFORNIA BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

15 50. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 49 as though fully set forth
16 herein.

17 51. Defendant's acts, complained of above, constitute unlawful, unfair
18 and/or fraudulent business acts or practices.

19 52. Defendant's acts, complained of above, including, without limitation,
20 operating in violation of the California Retail Food Code, constitute unfair
21 competition, either directly and/or contributorily, in violation of California Business
22 and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

23 53. As a result of the foregoing acts, Plaintiff has suffered damages.

24 54. The foregoing acts of Defendant have caused Plaintiff irreparable harm,
25 and unless enjoined, will continue to cause Plaintiff irreparable harm.

55. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 54 as though fully set forth herein.

58. As a result of the foregoing acts of Defendant, Plaintiff has suffered damages.
