Government Printing Office, Brisbane, 1st January, 1867.

In the Supreme Court of Queensland. IN INSOLVENCY.

Monday, July 1st, 1867.

R. JUSTICE LUTWYCHE delivered the following written judgment in the insolvent on Monday last, 24th June, several creditors, who had proved under the joint estate of Macleod, Radcliffe, and Co., of which firm James A. J. Macleod was the only resident partner in this colony, claimed to prove against his separate estate by virtue of the provisions of the 133rd section of the Insolvency Act of 1834, which I thought did not apply, and I accordingly rejected all the claims for apply, and I accordingly rejected all the claims for informality. At the same time, I intimated an opinion that, although the joint creditors could not be allowed to share rateably under that section with the separate creditors, they might still prove against the separate estate, and as some doubt was felt about the apportionment of the joint and separate took time apportionment of the joint and separate creditors, I took time to consider my decision.

The question is a very important one, and has at times occasioned great difficulty and complexity in bankrupt proceedings in England, but it seems to me that the Insolvency Act of 1864 has removed all reasonable ground for doubt in this colony on the subject. The 79th section of the Act provides in express terms that "if one or more of the partners of a free he adjudged insolvent, any creditor to of a firm be adjudged insolvent, any creditor to whom the insolvent is indebted jointly with the other partners of a firm, or any of them, shall be entitled to prove his debt for the purpose only of centitled to prove his debt for the purpose only of voting in the election of an assignee, and of being heard on the last examination of the insolvent against the granting of his certificate; but such creditor shall not receive any dividend out of the separate estate until all the separate creditors shall have received the full amount of their respective debts." The word "only" might have been omitted with advantage, as it is clear from the subsequent portion of the clause that the proof was intended by portion of the clause that the proof was intended by the Legislature to be sufficient for the purpose of obtaining a dividend, provided a surplus remained after payment of the separate creditors in full. As to the right of separate creditors to prove against a joint estate, the Act of 1864 is silent; but evenhanded justice seems to require that a similar rule should be applied e converso to them. And accordingly I find that the 54th rule made under the Imperial Act of 1849 provides as follows:—"Any separate creditor of any bankrupt shall be at liberty separate creditor of any bankrupt shall be at liberty to prove his debt under any adjudication of bankrupt to prove made against such bankrupt jointly with any other person or persons. * * And in case there shall be an overplus of the joint estate, such overplus shall be carried to the account of the separate to the account of the separate persons. overplus shall be carried to the account of the separate estates of each bankrupt in proportion to the right and interest of each bankrupt in the joint estate." It appears to me that this rule may be safely adopted by this Court. It has the merit of simplicity, and harmonizes with the expressed intentions of the Legislature in respect to proofs by joint creditors under an insolvent's separate estate.

The creditors who have proved against the joint estate of Macleod, Radcliffe, and Co., will be admitted to prove the same debts against the separate estate of James A. J. Macleod, but will not receive any dividend out of such separate estate until all his separate creditors shall have been paid in full.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice to appoint the following gentlemen to be Trustees of the Baptist Burial Ground, Brisbane, viz.:—

WILLIAM JEREMIAH DANIELL, and WILLIAM Moore, Esquires.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. P. BELL.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Brisbane, 25th July, 1867. LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

IS Excellency the Governor, in terms of the Electoral Act of 1858, 22 Victoria, No. 20, directs it to be notified, that a Petition, of which the subjoined is a copy, has been lodged with His Excellency, complaining of certain alleged illegalities at the late Election for West Moreton.

By His Excellency's Command,
A. MACALISTER.

To His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

The Petition of the undersigned, respectively, electors of the Electoral District of West Moreton, in the Colony of Queensland,

Humbly Showeth-

That in pursuance of a Writ directed to the Returning Officer for West Moreton aforesaid on that behalf, a nomination of candidates to serve as Members in the ensuing Legislative Assembly of Queensland, took place on the 25th day of June, 1867, and there were duly nominated, the Honorable Joshua Peter Bell, Patrick O'Sullivan, Esquire, George Thorn, junior, Esquire, Joseph Flemming, Esquire, Frederick Augustus Forbes, Esquire, Henry Kilner, Esquire, and George Vowells, Esquire.

That the show of hands was declared to be in favor of the Honorable Joshua Peter Bell, Patrick O'Sullivan, Esquire, and Joseph Flemming, Esquire, and a poll was demanded on behalf of George Thorn, junior, Esquire, and the other candidates.

That the poll for such election took place on the second day of July, 1867, and that on the fourth day of July, 1867, the Returning Officer declared that Patrick O'Sullivan, Esquire, the Honorable Joshua Peter Bell, and George Thorn, junior, Esquire, having obtained the greatest number of votes respectively, were elected to serve as members in the ensuing Legislative Assembly.

Your petitioners believe that such election is void, on the following grounds—

- 1st. That more votes were polled at such election than could have been legally polled by bona fide electors, whose names and qualifications were on the electoral roll used at such election, deducting therefrom the names of those electors who had been more than once, or several times, personated at such election, at the different polling places; also, those who were dead, or absent from the colony, or from the electoral district, or from any of the different polling places, at the time of such election.
- 2nd. That, on comparison of the electoral rolls and voting papers used at the several polling places at such election, it will be shown that a great number of the votes of the electors whose names were on the electoral roll had been illegally polled at two or more polling places in the electoral district at such election, whereby the freedom of election had been perverted into licentiousness, the will of the electors and the laws of the colony abnegated, and that therefore the election is void.
- 3rd. That a great number of electors, whom it can be proved were dead, or absent from the colony, or from the electoral district, or not present at any of the several polling places, or at such polling place where their names were then recorded as having voted, is also a reason why the election is illegal and should be declared void, as not in any way representing the will of the constituency, or the colony.
- 4th. That at the polling place at Helidon, when, in the performance of his duty, the Returning Officer there and then presiding, gave into the custody of the police a person who had personated Timothy O'Sullivan, No.

1040, on the electoral roll, such person was violently and by force rescued from such custody and is now at large, and the persons who did illegally rescue such prisoner are still at large, in defiance of law, justice, peace, and order; therefore, the polling at such polling place cannot be considered as the record of the votes of the electors of West Moreton, but of a lawless mob, and such election is, and should be declared, void.

- 5th. That it was the duty of the Presiding Officer at Helidon, when all authority, law, and order were set at defiance, to have adjourned the poll at such polling place till the following day, as provided for by the 54th section of the Electoral Act, 22 Vic., No. 20, and his not having done so makes void the election in consequence of its having been illegally taken.
- 6th. That many acts of bribery and corruption were committed, as defined by the 59th section of the Electoral Act, 22 Vic., No. 20, which your petitioners are in a position to prove at the proper time and place, and if proved will, according to the 60th section of Act above referred to, make void such election, and disqualify the members so offending from being returned to, or sitting as members in, the Legislative Assembly, till the next General Election. That the return, therefore, of the Honorable Joshua Peter Bell, Patrick O'Sullivan, Esquire, and George Thorn, junior, Esquire, as members to serve in the said Legislative Assembly is void, and that your petitioners have deposited in the Bank of New South Wales, Brisbane, the sum of One hundred pounds, to answer, in pursuance of the 77th section of 22nd Vic., No. 20.

Your petitioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Excellency will be pleased to lay the above petition before the Honorable the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, when he shall have been elected, that the same may be duly submitted to the Committee of Elections and Qualifications, when nominated, and that your petitioners may be heard in support thereof, by counsel or otherwise, with such evidence as may be necessary to prove the allegations herein contained, and that the said Committee may amend or confirm the return made by the Returning Officer before mentioned, or to declare the election void, and that the Attorney-General be required to prosecute all those persons whom to the Committee may seem to have committed acts of personation, or to have twice voted at such election, or to have violated the 59th and 62nd sections of the Electoral Act, or to have violated any of the laws of the colony, as destructive to the peace, order, and well-being of the people, and to afford your petitioners such further relief in the premises as the nature of the case may require. And that, from the nature of the case, and the offences contained in the allegations, the expenses of such procedure should be defrayed from the public revenue, as in all cases whereby the liberty of the subject is violated or interfered with.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray,

Dated at Ipswich, this 23rd of July, A.D. 1867.

VOL. VIII.] WEDNESDAY, 7TH AUGUST, 1867.

No. 63.

A T Noon, this day, His Excellency The GOVERNOR proceeded in State from Government House to the Legislative Chambers, to open the First Session of the Third Parliament of Queensland, and delivered the following Speech:—

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL,

AND GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:—

- 1. I have much satisfaction in meeting the Third Parliament of Queensland at the earliest convenient period after the General Election; and in now inviting you to enter upon the important duties entrusted to your hands under our Constitution.
- 2. It has been officially announced that His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh will visit Australia in the course of the present year; and it is confidently expected that His Royal Highness will receive a cordial welcome in this, as in the neighboring Colonies.
- 3. Several important measures, for which the people of this Colony are anxiously looking, will be submitted to you without delay. Taught by experience of the unsatisfactory working of the Land Laws passed by previous Parliaments, my Responsible Advisers, with a desire that the Alienation of the Public Lands may be set free from the obstructions which now exist, deem it necessary that Parliament should at once be invited to pass a law, having for its leading principles: First-the withdrawal of portions of the Crown Lands from the category of Unsettled, in which they have hitherto been classed, and the addition of such portions to those Districts which are now recognised as Settled: and second—the throwing open the whole of the extended Settled Districts to Free Selection, both before and after survey, in blocks of from forty to six hundred and forty acres, with conditions of residence and cultivation. It is also proposed that these lands shall be disposed of by lease for eight years, at two shillings and sixpence per acre, the rent to form the purchase money. The lands intended to be dealt with in the manner just mentioned will be the Districts known as East and West Moreton, the greater part of the Darling Downs, the District of Wide Bay, all lands within reasonable distances of navigable rivers, and those portions of the Port Curtis and Kennedy Districts within thirty miles of the sea-coast and extending northerly to Rockingham Bay. A measure to effect these objects will be immediately submitted to

- 4. The Representation of the People in the Legislative Assembly is a subject to which at an early date your attention will be invited. Our population at the present period, as compared with that existing in Queensland when a separate Constitution was granted to the Colony, would in itself warrant a re-consideration of the basis upon which the Representation was originally founded; while the anomalous position occupied by a number of the present Electorates shows that if the influence of public opinion is to be regarded in the deliberations of the Assembly, the time has now arrived when it becomes necessary to re-adjust the Electorates, and to increase the number of Representatives.
- 5. The laws at present in force in this Colony for the Registration of Electors, and the conduct of Elections have, in the opinion of the Government, been found unsatisfactory. These laws have not proved sufficient to ensure that the names of all persons entitled to votes at Parliamentary Elections are placed on the Rolls; while it is feared that in too many instances they have facilitated frauds, and have afforded no adequate protection against personation. A Bill has therefore been prepared, intended to secure a more correct Registration of Electors; and, while providing for each elector the exclusive exercise of his political privileges, it will have the effect of checking, if not entirely preventing, the offences to which we have alluded. To this measure your earnest attention will be asked.

GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:-

6. The Estimates will be laid before you without delay. It will be found that large reductions are proposed in some Departments of the Government, and increase avoided in the others, in the hope that the efficiency of the service will not be impaired. The Estimates have been framed with a view to bring the gross expenditure within the anticipated revenue, and, by this means, to render all additional taxation unnecessary.

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN AND GENTLEMEN:-

- 7. In accordance with a desire expressed on several occasions during the last Parliament, steps have been taken towards a consolidation of our Statute Law. A large number of Consolidation Acts have already been carefully prepared, and will be shortly brought under your consideration. Several other measures of considerable importance will also be introduced to your notice.
- 8. Your attention is invited to a few remarkable results exhibited by the Statistical Register of Queensland for 1866, just compiled. On the 1st of January, 1866, our population amounted to 87,775. During the early part of that year, immigration was checked, while large numbers of the unsettled portion of the people were induced to leave the Colony. In the face of these facts, our population, at the end of 1866, amounted to 96,172, showing an increase over the previous year of 8,397. Our exports were also, during the same period, largely increased, and various new industries were developed and made permanent. During the same year, the quantity of land under cultivation had increased, from 14,414 acres, on the 31st of December, 1865, to 24,433 acres, on the 31st of December, 1866; in the latter year, the land under wheat crops alone, in one district, had increased, from 1,792 acres in 1865, to 2,260 acres in 1866; while the growth of cotton, which, in 1865, covered but 447 acres, in 1866 occupied 2,884 acres. These articles are selected as being the most conspicuous; but the statistical returns show a considerable increase in every article which the soil and climate of Queensland are capable of rearing. And yet it is to be regretted that, in 1866, the Colony had occasion to import grain, and other agricultural produce of those descriptions that are now being grown in the Colony, to the value of £370,157; an amount the retention and circulation of which, in Queensland, would, no doubt, have been attended with great advantages to this community.
- 9. I trust, that by judicious legislation, you will be enabled to promote and consolidate, under the blessing of Divine Providence, the advancement and prosperity of Queensland.

By His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of New South Wales, passed in the twenty-second year of Her present Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the Electoral Law," it was amongst other things enacted that no Election for any Electoral District should be void in consequence solely of any delay in the holding of the Election at the time appointed, or in the taking of the Poll, or in the return of the Writ, or in consequence of any impediment of a merely formal nature; and that the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, might adopt such measures as might be necessary for removing any obstacle of a merely formal nature by which the due course of any Election might be impeded; Provided that the validity of such Election, and the measures so taken, should be forthwith declared by the Governor, by a Proclamation for that purpose published in the Government Gazette: And whereas a Writ was issued for the election of a Member to serve in the Legislative Assembly, for the Electoral District of Rockhampton, which Writ was made returnable on the sixth day of the present month of August; and whereas the Returning Officer duly appointed for the said Electoral District, hath certified in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, that Archibald Archer, Esquire, was chosen by a majority of votes to be such member for the said district, but the said writ was not returned to me within the period therein described as directed by the said Act: Now, therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, as such Governor aforesaid, do, by this my Proclamation, issued with the advice of the Executive Council aforesaid, declare that the election of the said Archibald Archer, Esquire, to serve in the Legislative Assembly for the Electoral District aforesaid, is valid, notwithstanding the delay in the return of the said Writ of Election.

IIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the following Regulations for keeping, rendering, and publishing the Public Accounts of the Colony; and the attention of the several Heads of Departments is especially directed to clauses 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of the same.

By His Excellency's Command,

T. B. STEPHENS.

REGULATIONS FOR KEEPING, RENDERING, AND PUBLISHING, THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS OF THE COLONY —APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, AND PUBLISHED FOR THE INFORMATION AND GUIDANCE OF THOSE CONCERNED.

1. The Pay Books of the Treasury and Audit Office to be finally closed and balanced off immediately after all the necessary entries to 31st December of each year have been completed, in the same manner as is now done with the Revenue Ledgers.

2. From and after the 31st December, 1867, quarterly and annual statements in detail of the public expenditure, whether on account of Loan, Revenue, or Special Funds, to be prepared and published with the Revenue Statement required by the Audit Act, as soon after the termination of the periods to which they relate as practicable.

a. In order to enable the foregoing regulations to be effectually carried out—the several Heads of Departments to be required to render to the Auditor-General, not later than the 24th December in each year, vouchers for examination and subsequent payment for all outstanding claims against their respective departments, in order that such accounts may be brought into the Treasury books before the close of the year. The abstracts for the month of December also to be prepared in sufficient time to admit of the salaries being, as far as possible, paid by the 1st day of the month.

- 4. As far as conveniently can be done, the abstracts for salaries for the months of March, June, and September, to be also rendered in sufficient time for their several salaries to be paid within the current quarter.
- 5. The Engineer of Roads for the Northern Districts, who still operates on a cash credit, to render his accounts for examination and adjustment as soon after the close of each month as practicable, so as to ensure at any rate, the November expenditure appearing in the published statement of accounts for that year.
- 6. In the first week of January, the several heads of departments to render to the Colonial Treasurer detailed statements of any salaries due to officers in their respective departments for the previous year, payment of which has been unavoidably postponed, in order that the requisite authority may be obtained for rendering the amounts required available in the current year.
- 7. With the above exception, balances of departmental votes remaining unexpended on the 31st December, and in respect of which no contract or engagement has been entered into, to finally lapse, and not to be available in the ensuing or subsequent years, except in urgent or exceptional cases for which special executive authority is to be obtained.
- 8. Any adjustments or transfers found necessary in the Treasury or Audit Office books to be made as the occasions arise, and not to be postponed as at present until the final balancing of accounts.
- 9. The detailed accounts of annual expenditure submitted to Parliament by the Auditor-General, to show the absolute amounts expended on each particular vote before any authorised transfers are made.

REAL PROPERTY TRANSFER NOTICE.

TAKE Notice that application has been made to bring the Land described below under the provisions of the Real Property Act of 1861. Any person desiring to oppose must do so by lodging, himself or by his Attorney, a Caveat in form B. of said Act, on or before the day named in each case.

General Post Office, Queensland, 22nd August, 1867.

TENDERS FOR THE SERVICE OF 1868-9.—CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

SEPARATE Tenders are hereby invited, and will be received until the 14th October next, for the conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one or two years, from the 1st January, 1868, to the 31st December, 1868 or 1869, both days inclusive.

All Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any Post Office in the Colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid) addressed to the Postmaster-General, with the words, "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," together with the number of the service endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender box, at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe, by their numbers as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Tenders, on separate forms, are required for each service, as well as for the periods mentioned, namely, one year or two years.

Every tender must bear the bond fide signatures of the tenderer, and two responsible persons willing to become bound with him in such sum as the Postmaster-General may direct, not exceeding double the gross amount of the contract.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn, or if on horseback.

Persons tendering, or their agents, are required to be in attendance at the General Post Office, at Brisbane, on the 21st October next, and must then be prepared, if called on, forthwith to pay to the Postmaster-General a sum equal to ten per cent. of the amount of such of their tenders as may be accepted, as a guarantee until their bonds and contracts shall be executed.

The tender of any person failing to comply with this condition will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office, or at any Post Office in the Colony. And the attention of those persons who intend tendering for services Nos. 10 and 19, is particularly drawn to clause No. 27 of those conditions, which provides for a rateable reduction in cases where it may be at any time practicable to convey mails by railway.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

THOS. L. MURRAY PRIOR, Postmaster-General.

he think fit, at such meeting or meetings of valuators as aforesaid, summon any witnesses for the purpose of giving evidence in respect to the true and real value of goods detained for undervaluation, and may examine

6. If the value of goods as assessed by the proper officer of customs after examination thereof, or by valuators to be appointed for that purpose as aforesaid, shall be greater than that declared to on entry of the same, then the costs of such examination and valuation shall be defrayed by the owner or agent of such goods according to the provisions contained in the said recited Act; but should the value of such goods, as determined by valuators as aforesaid, be the same or less than that declared to on entry of such goods as aforesaid, then the cost of such valuation shall be defrayed by the Government. ment.

7. The fees to be paid to the valuators to be appointed as aforesaid by the owner or agent of goods in dispute, and for and on behalf of the Government respectively, shall in no case exceed three guineas, nor be less than one guinea each, according to the quantity and value of goods for which the services of such valuators are required; and the amount of such fees shall be determined by the Collector of Customs or other officer acting on his behalf.

General Post Office. Queensland, 22nd August, 1867.

TENDERS FOR THE SERVICE OF 1868-9.—CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

SEPARATE Tenders are hereby invited, and will be received until the 14th October next, for the conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one or two years, from the 1st January, 1868, to the 31st December, 1868 or 1869, both days inclusive.

All Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any Post Office in the Colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid) addressed to the Postmaster-General, with the words, "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," together with the number of the service endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender box, at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe, by their numbers as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Tenders, on separate forms, are required for each service, as well as for the periods mentioned, namely, one year or two years.

Every tender must bear the bond fide signatures of the tenderer, and two responsible persons willing to become bound with him in such sum as the Postmaster-General may direct, not exceeding double the gross amount of the contract.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn, or if on horseback.

Persons tendering, or their agents, are required to be in attendance at the General Post Office, at Brisbane, on the 21st October next, and must then be prepared, if called on, forthwith to pay to the Postmaster-General a sum equal to ten per cent. of the amount of such of their tenders as may be accepted, as a guarantee until their bonds and contracts shall be executed.

The tender of any person failing to comply with this condition will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office, or at any Post Office in the Colony. And the attention of those persons who intend tendering for services Nos. 10 and 19, is particularly drawn to clause No. 27 of those conditions, which provides for a rateable reduction in cases where it may be at any time practicable to convey mails by railway.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

THOS. L. MURRAY PRIOR, Postmaster-General.

By His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

THEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of New South Wales, passed in the twenty-second year of Her present Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the Electoral Law," it was amongst other things enacted that no Election for any Electoral District should be void in consequence solely of any delay in the holding of the Election at the time appointed, or in the taking of the Poll, or in the return of the Writ, or in consequence of any impediment of a merely formal nature; and that the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, might adopt such measures as might be necessary for removing any obstacle of a merely formal nature by which the due course of any Election might be impeded: Provided that the validity of such Election, and the measures so taken, should be forthwith declared by the Governor, by a Proclamation for that purpose published in the Government Gazette: And whereas a Writ was issued for the election of a Member to serve in the Legislative Assembly for the Electoral District of Port Curtis, which Writ was made returnable on the seventeenth day of the present month of September; and whereas the Returning Officer duly appointed for the said Electoral District hath certified, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, that Arthur Hunter Palmer, Esquire, was chosen by a majority of votes to be such member for the said district, but the said writ was not returned to the Honorable the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly within the period therein described as directed by the said Act: Now, therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, as such Governor aforesaid, do, by this my Proclamation, issued with the advice of the Executive Council aforesaid, declare that the Election of the said Arthur Hunter Palmer, Esquire, to serve in the Legislative Assembly for the Electoral District aforesaid, is valid, notwithstanding the delay in the return of the said Writ of Election.

Directions.—When entering Hervey's Bay, steer so as to pass one or two miles west of the Fairway Buoy, until the two lights on Woody Island are visible, and are brought into line. Steer with the two lights in one, past Dayman Spit and the Middle Bank, until the two lights are almost on the same level; then keep a good look-out for a red buoy which is placed about a ship's length to the S.W. of the line of lights. ### NOTICE TO MARINERS. PORT CURTIS.

N and after this date the temporary light on Gatcombe Head will be replaced by a fifth order Dioptric Apparatus. The light will show seaward as a white light as formerly, but northward of the old line of shutoff light on a bearing of about W. by S. ½ S., it will now appear as a red light until it is shut in with the land at the back of Settlement Point. The light will also show as a red light between the bearing of N.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E. and N. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.

DIRECTIONS.—Vessels coming from the southward—being careful to keep outside the east banks, and in not less being careful to keep outside the east banks, and in not less than eight fathoms water—will steer to the westward until the bright light appears red, and will then haul up to the S.E. until the light is again white, and steer for the lighthouse, being careful to keep the white light open, which will lead in clear of the rocks off Settlement Point. After passing the Point, haul up so as to pass outside the Outsi Point. After passing the Point, haul up so as to pass outside the Oyster Rock, and as soon as the light opens out as red light on a N. 4 E. bearing, a vessel may stand across into the South Channel and will be to the westward of the Junction Buoy, while the red light is in Vessels from the northward will stand to the S.E. through the red light, and, as soon as they open the light as a bright light, will haul up and steer for it, keeping the white light open.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. PORT OF MARYBOROUGH.

N and after the 1st October, two Dioptric Condensing Lights, Fourth Order Fixed, will be exhibited from Woody Island, to enable vessels to enter the port by night through the west channel. The lights are placed on hexagonal white towers twenty-two feet high. The higher of the two is placed upon Middle Hill, and is at an elevation of 215 feet, while the lower and the more northern light is about 130 feet above the sea level.

Directions.—When entering Hervey's Bay, steer so as to pass one or two miles west of the Fairway Buoy, until the two lights on Woody Island are visible, and are brought into line. Steer with the two lights in one, past Dayman Spit and the Middle Bank, until the two lights are almost on the same level; then keep a good look-cut for a red buoy which is placed about a ship's length to the S.W. of the line of lights. On sighting the bucy, steer about E. \(\frac{3}{4}\) S. (making due allowance for tide) for the red buoy off the Woody Island Spit. Should the low light be the first to appear red, keep upon the edge of the red light until the high light is also red, while, if the high light appears as a red light first, steer south until the lower light is also red. When the lights are seen to become red at the same time, a vessel is about one-third of distance from the spit across the channel. Then steer about S.E. \(\frac{1}{4}\) E., and open the bright lights when similarly if the lower light shows as a bright light first, a vessel will be to the castward of the course, and to the westward if the upper light becomes bright first. DIRECTIONS .- When entering Hervey's Bay, steer so first, a vessel will be to the castward of the course, and to the westward if the upper light becomes bright first. From thence steer to pass Little Woody and Duck Islands as usual, and keep Little Woody Island open of the latter until the high light is obscured, when a vessel will be abreast the red beacon. Steer S.S.W. until the light again opens out as a bright light, when she will be abreast the red buoy opposite the white cliffs, from which a course must be gradually shaped for the river heads.

Should a vessel entering the port with the lights in one, by any accident miss the red buoy which denotes the turning-point, she may still with safety stand on with the lights in one until the high light is dipped below the northern hill.

SUPREME COURT.-MONDAY, 21ST OCTOBER, 1867. INSOLVENCY JURISDICTION.

Ex parte Benjamin Cribb, in re Robert Cribb.

M. JUSTICE LUTWYCHE delivered the following

Judgment:—
The Official Assignee of Robert Cribb's estate reported to the Court on the 4th September last, that at a meeting of the creditors duly convened and constituted according to the 166th section of the Insolvency Act of 1864, it was resolved that the estate should be wound up under a deed of composition, providing for the payment of half-a-crown in the pound to all the unsecured creditors; and that the secured creditors should be paid according to the conditions of their securities. Twentyeight creditors, whose debts amounted in the aggregate to £25,187 5s. 4d., voted for the resolution; and four creditors, with debts amounting to £5,052 11s. 6d., voted against it. In the majority were four secured creditors, whose debts amounted in all to £17,711. The consideration of the report was adjourned until the following tion of the report was adjourned until the following Monday, September 9th, when Mr. Blake applied to the Court, on behalf of Mr. Benjamin Cribb, the creditor nominated for that purpose by the meeting, to stay the proceedings in the insolvency. The application was opposed by Mr. Lilley, on the ground that the four secured creditors, who had voted with the majority, were only entitled to vote in respect of the balance of their debts, after deducting the value of their securities; and, secondly, that the terms of the proposed composition deed were neither reasonable nor calculated to benefit the general body of the creditors. In support of the first objection, Mr. Lilley urged that the Bankruptcy Act now in force in England (24 and 25 Victoria, c. 134) contains no section corresponding to the 129th section of our colonial Act, which section, he contended, was in terms similar to the 244th section (now repealed) of the Imperial Act 12 and the 244th section (now repealed) of the Imperial Act 12 and 13 Victoria, c. 106. But a comparison of the two sections serves to show not only that they are not similar in their terms, but that they were enacted diverso intuitu. The 129th section of the Insolvency Act of 1864 contemplates a proof by a secured creditor of the unsecured balance of his debt as a condition precedent to his receipt of dividends with the other creditors in the estate, and is quite consistent with holding that under the 166th and 167th sections of the same Act the secured creditors shall have a sections of the same Act the secured creditors shall have a vote proportioned to the full amount of their debts, in determining whether they will dispense with the machinery at the command of the Court, and wind up the estate under a deed of arrangement. The main question then is, whether I shall be justified in so holding, and it seems to me that, as the authorities stand at present, that point is placed beyond the pale of discussion. The decision of the Lords Justices in exparte Gods den & Shettle (32 L.J. Rep., N.S. Banky. 37), followed by the Court of Common Pleas in Turquand v. Moss (33 L.J. Rep., N.S., 355), and, again, by the Court of Exchequer, whose judgment was affirmed on appeal by the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Whittaker and Another v. Lowe (35 L.J. Rep., N.S. Exch. 44), determines that the full amount of a scurred creditor's debt must be taken into account in circumstances of this kind. It is true that some objects white distances estiminated. this kind. It is true that some obiter dicta are attributed to Lord Chancellor Westbury, which favor Mr. Lilley's line of argument, and in re Stark (35 L.J. Rep., N.S. Banky. 15) Lord Chancellor Cranworth went so far as to say that he thought the opinions expressed by Lord Westbury were more consistent with reason and good westbury were more consistent with reason and good sense than the decisions of the courts before referred to; but he went no further. He did not venture to overrule, as he might have done, the authority of the Exchequer Chamber. Mr. Lilley's first objection, then, to the application being disposed of, I have only to consider whether the terms of the proposed deed of arrangement are reasonable, and calculated to benefit the general body of the greatition. reasonable, and calculated to benefit the general body of the creditors. And seeing that the resolution has been agreed to by twenty-eight out of thirty-two creditors, I think I must find so. As was well observed by Mr. Blake, in the course of this argument, the fact is proved in the best way possible, because the resolution was passed by the general body of the creditors, who may be fairly presumed not to have assented to anything that was unreasonable or not calculated to advance their interests; and it seems, from authorities cited at page 746 of Smith's Mercantile Law (edition 1865), that the inclination of the courts at home is to throw the burden of proof to the contrary on the dissentient creditors. I therefore confirm the resolution, and order that the protherefore confirm the resolution, and order that the proceedings in the Insolvency be stayed for one calendar month from the present date.

IN Pursuance of the Act of Parliaments 22 Victoria, No. 18, and 29 Victoria, No. 10, and by the authority of the same, I hereby appoint the undermentioned times at which District Courts, in the Criminal and Civil Jurisdictions thereof, will be held at the several towns in the Western District, during the year 1868, that is to
