

Oxley Memorial Library of Queensland

A BRIEF LIST OF SOME RECENT ACQUISITIONS

Compiled by Miss M. O'KEEFFE, B.A.

ALLOM, H.

Press cutting book, largely consisting of cuttings from the Ravenswood Times, 1873-7. Deposited by Mr H. Allom of Charters Towers for copying purposes.

ALLORA SCHOOL OF ARTS LIBRARY

Papers including Letter book 1894-6 and 1914-28, Minutes 1922-38, President's and Treasurer's reports 1911-33, ledger 1888-1922.

AUSTRALIAN CHEMICAL INSTITUTE, QUEENSLAND BRANCH

Papers, comprising minutes, correspondence, 1932-58.

AUSTRALIAN ESTATES PTY LIMITED

Annual reports. General manager's reports on various properties 1890-1952; Managing Agent's reports to company 1898-1952. Microfilm copy, 6 reels.

BLACKALL

Four photographs of Blackall about 1888, received from Mr. Alec Chisholm.

BRISBANE

Photograph of Brisbane in 1888, presented by A. D. Edwards.
6 photographs of Brisbane Reservoir, presented by Royal Society of Queensland.
30 photographs of Brisbane scenes from 1858 to 1959, presented by Kodak (Australasia) Pty Ltd.

BUNDABERG SCHOOL OF ARTS LIBRARY

Papers comprising Cash book 1883-90, minutes 1892-9, Issuing Register 1891-5, Catalogue to 1913.

CAMPBELL-PRAED, Mrs 1851-1935

Papers, consisting of notes for and manuscripts of printed books, correspondence and financial papers. 6 feet. Mrs Campbell-Praed née Rosa Murray-Prior, the daughter of a Queensland squatter and postmaster-general, was a well-known novelist in England c. 1880-1916. A thoroughly practical business woman, she was also interested in the occult and one of her books, Nyria, set in Ancient Rome, was based on information she believed had been transmitted, through a clairvoyante, from the actual heroine. As an old woman she set about preparing a new edition of this, and the notes concerning it are more full than for others.

CHADWICK, W. C.

Papers, consisting of notes collected for article on centenary of Buderim, and manuscript of article. 20 pages.

CHARTERS TOWERS

Photographs of North Queensland towns and places, especially relating to Charters Towers. Various dates up to 1890. Presented by Mr H. Allom, Charters Towers.

CHARTERS TOWERS LITERARY AND DEBATING SOCIETY

Minutes Jan 1899-April 1903. Presented by Miss Sheila Mullan.

CLARKE, R. A.

Papers, consisting of photograph album, programmes, memos, etc. (16 items.)

DAINTREE, Richard 1831-78

8 photographs of Queensland scenes taken by late Richard Daintree, Agent-General for Queensland 1872-6; bequeathed by Miss Mary Daintree.

DONOVAN, Charles E.

Diary. 1897-1920. Mr Donovan was a pastoralist, of Glenside near Inglewood.

GILL, G. H. H.

Papers, including photographs, programmes, memos, etc., particularly of rowing, legal and Anglican interest. (250 items.)

GLASSEY, Thomas, 1844-1936

Papers, including 5 newspaper cutting books, photographs, broadsheets, notes for speeches, also letters of condolence received by Mr Glassey's family at his death, and letters and cuttings relating to erection of obelisk to his memory. [Thomas Glassey was the first Labor representative in the Queensland Parliament, 1888, and was a Senator in the first Federal Parliament.]

HURLE, Henry Hartley Charles

Reminiscences of colonial life in Queensland. Bristol, J. Baker & Son, 1914. Presented by Mr R. E. Hurle, Charters Towers.

ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES

Presented to Mr R. M. King by the residents of Mount Gravatt and Rochdale; Presented to Adolphus Marcus Hertzberg, Esq.; by residents of Roma and Maranoa 1886, by Members of Board of Management of Brisbane Hebrew Congregation 1896, from Members of Hebrew Congregation on 50th anniversary of his arrival in Queensland 1917, from Metropolitan Water Supply and Sewerage Board to Mrs Hertzberg on her husband's death, 1917.

MCDOWALL BROTHERS, TOOWOOMBA

Horse brand book, 1880-97. Deposited on indefinite loan by Mr A. Atkinson, of the Valley of Lagoons Station, Ingham.

MCGOVERN, Miss Annie

6 books of newspaper cuttings, also printed material, mainly relating to the Longreach district.

MAY, Sydney

Papers, comprising music, typescript copies of articles and letters concerning history and naming of Queensland districts, maps, photographs.

MORNINGTON (Yawl)

Log of voyage in Indian waters, in 1831, by J. & W. Yaldwyn, whose descendants settled in Queensland. Presented by Mrs. V. Atherton.

MORTON, Rev. R. W.

"There is no End: trips and tales of the outback": [typescript reminiscences] and two albums of illustrative photographs. Mr Morton was a padre with the Methodist Inland Mission.

NEAME, Arthur

Diary, 1877-82. Received through Mr Sydney May. Mr Neame was a pioneer sugar planter on the Herbert River.

THE NORTHERN MINER, CHARTERS TOWERS

Issue of 23 June 1897, printed on silk to mark the Jubilee of Queen Victoria. Presented by Mrs H. R. Poole.

PARTLETT, Mrs Launa

Three poems written to mark the 150th anniversary of the birth of Ludwig Leichhardt.

PECHEY, Edward Wilmott

Diary, March 1859-Feb 1860. Typescript copy. Received from Mr Sydney May.

POLITICAL AND TRADES UNION MATERIAL

Collections of periodicals and pamphlets received from Mr W. J. H. Harris. (258 titles.)

PORTRAITS

14 portraits of Governors of Queensland, presented by Kodak (Australasia) Pty Ltd.

QUEENSLAND PLACE NAMES COMMITTEE

Papers, consisting of minutes, reports, constitution, 1922-3 (16 items) received from Mr Sydney May.

ROSSER, R. V.

4 photographs of Mapleton district, taken 1911 and 1922.

SHAMROCK HOTEL, KEDRON

Visitors book, 1917-60. Presented by Dr P. R. Delamothe.

TRYON, Hervey, 1846-1943

Articles and newspaper cutting re his career, presented by Queensland Naturalists' Club. Mr Tryon was Queensland Government Entomologist 1894 — and plant pathologist, 1901-29.

VALLEY OF LAGOONS STATION

Pedigree books for horses, 1870-1934; cattle muster book, 1872-1911; letterbooks, 1896-1908, 1917-19; and diaries, 1900-11. Deposited on indefinite loan by Mr A. Atkinson, of the Valley of Lagoons Station, Ingham.

WHISH AND ROE FAMILIES

Papers, including Diary of Captain Whish, 1855-89; Diary of Maud Whish, 1879; Diary of voyage to Australia; literary sketches; book of newspaper cuttings relating to education, by Dr. Stanley Roe; Reminiscences (typescript) of Dr. A. S. Roe; Captain C. B. Whish was a pioneer of sugar-growing in Queensland. Dr Roe, his son-in-law, was headmaster of the Brisbane Grammar School 1876-1909, and father of Dr A. S. Roe who was the first Queensland Rhodes Scholar.

WINDSOR STATION

Diaries, 1885-90, compiled by Henry H. C. Hurle. Presented by Mr R. E. Hurle, of Charters Towers. Mr H. H. C. Hurle took up Windsor Station in 1884.

