THE LAW SCHOOL

Law School student honors for the year 1934-35 are as follows: The Hill Law Review prize of fifty dollars, established by George Watts Hill, Esquire, of the Durham bar, for the best total contribution to the NORTH CAROLINA LAW REVIEW during the year has been awarded to Donald William Markham, of Earlville, N. Y. Mr. Markham has also been designated by the faculty as student editor-in-chief of the LAW REVIEW for 1935-36, and as faculty research assistant. Frank Marion Parker of Asheville has been named as assistant student editor-in-chief of the LAW REVIEW, and as faculty research assistant. William Robert Booth, of Pollocksville, has been appointed to the third faculty research assistantship. Selected from among the highest ten per cent of the class in point of scholarship, Joel Barber Adams, of Asheville, and Emmett Clive Willis, Jr., of Southmont, have been elected to membership in the North Carolina Chapter of the national honorary law school society of the Order of the Coif. For distinction at the bar, Hon. A. A. F. Seawell, Attorney General, has been elected to honorary membership in the Order of the Coif.
