

“ Il Design: Contemporary Design from Italy” March 15 – April 9

In celebration of Seton Hall University’s Primavera Italiana III, the Walsh Library Gallery will be exhibiting, “ Il Design: Contemporary Design from Italy.”

The exhibit will feature a variety of objects, ranging from a Ducati motorcycle to a Sergio Brioschi lamp, and from a Broadway chair by Gaetano Pesci to jewelry designed by young and upcoming designer Giuliana Macchiati. A Vignelli handkerchief lamp will be on loan from Seton Hall Law School. Several decorative art pieces, including some Murano glassware, on loan from the Newark museum, will also be on display.

The exhibit is conceived and organized by three students in Seton Hall’s MA program in Museum Professions, Christie Grevera (South Orange, NJ), Karen May (Nanuet, NY), and Debbie Westmoreland (Plainfield, NJ).

Seton Hall’s Primavera Italiana is an Italian celebration of spring, which highlights the contributions of Italians and Italo-Americans to our culture.

For further information please call JoAnn Cotz at (973) 275-2033.