I. How to Search Like a Pro

- What is the Difference Between a Search Engine and a Directory?
 - How do Search Engines Really Work?
 - Learn Boolean Logic to Create the Best Search Strategies for Finding Relevant Documents.
 - Which Search Engines are the Best?
 - A Close Look at Google
 - Learn Browser Tricks
 - Managing Bookmarks
 - Effectively Using RSS Feeds, Blogs and Podcasts

What Are Search Engines?

- Huge databases of web page files automatically assembled by machine.
- The best means invented (so far) for finding info on the web.

Examples:

- Google
 - Live Search
 - Ask.com
 - Jeteye
 - Blinkx
 - Rollyo

How Do Search Engines Work?

- Spiders crawl from link to link
 - Sites with no links to other pages may be missed
 - May submit URLs for crawling

How Do Search Engines Work?

- Site is indexed

- Index contains every web page the spider finds.
 - If a web page changes, the index is updated.
 - Pages are not available to searchers until spidered AND indexed.

How Do Search Engines Work?

- Each search engine has unique software
 - Sifts through the pages recorded in the index
 - Finds matches to a search
 - Ranks the matches by relevance.
 - Remember, not up to the minute!!

Search Engine Pros & Cons

- Pros:

- Access to a large portion of the publicly available pages on the Web
- So far, the best means devised

- Cons:

- High likelihood of thousands of responses to simple search requests.
 - Many irrelevant hits.

When to Use a Search Engine

- To find:
 - unique keywords, phrases, quotes, and info buried in the full-text of web pages
 - a wide range of responses to specific queries, use a search engine

Dead Search Engines

These search engines used to offer their own database or unique search features. They have all abandoned their position in search, although they still may have some kind of search functionality. The linked reviews reflect how these search engines used to work.

What Are Subject Directories?

- Created and maintained by human editors who review and select sites for inclusion
 - Annotations
 - Smaller than search engine databases (typically index only home page or top level pages)

How Do Directories Work?

- Matches keywords with its written descriptions
 - Can be special interest:
 - General
 - Legal
 - Academic
 - Commercial

Distinctions are Blurring

- The line between subject directories and search engines is blurring.
 - Most directories have partnered with search engines while search engines are acquiring subject directories or creating their own.

Directory Pros & Cons

- Pros:

- Capability of delivering a higher quality of content
- Provide fewer out of context results

- Cons:

- More dead links
 - Slower search process

When to Use a Directory

- For browsing and general searches.
 - To see what kind of information is available, browse through the subject categories.
 - For information on popular topics, organizations, commercial sites and products.

Directories in Action

- Open Directory – www.dmoz.org
 - Look Smart - www.search.looksmart.com
 - Yahoo! – www.yahoo.com

Tips

This form's source selections are:

- All Courts: Court decisions from all court levels
- High Courts: Court decisions from the state's highest court, usually the state Supreme Court
- Appellate Courts: Decisions from state court of appeal

Note: Cases are returned hierarchically by court -- in most states, the supreme court, followed by the appellate court. Consequently, if you're looking for information from an appellate court, you may want to check toward the end of the list of documents retrieved.

Modified and rehearing denied by People v. Schmeck, 2005 Cal. LEXIS 11739 (Cal., Oct. 12, 2005)

OPINION: ... [*249] [*404] [5] William Duffy that defendant had a plan to make money, in which he would "pretend [to] buy a motor home out of a newspaper and he would put the gun to the owner's head and insist [6] that the owner sign over the pink slip to him or he would blow him away." On May 27, defendant told an acquaintance, John Maartense, he was going to obtain a motor home. When Maartense inquired how defendant would purchase a motor home without having a job, ...

... [*250] [*405] [8] automatic teller machines, and Weber gave defendant $ 300 in cash. Weber agreed to pay defendant a balance of $ 1,200. Defendant gave Weber [9] the motor home and several documents, including the pink slip, a bill of sale, a certificate of nonoperation, and a registration renewal form.

Later on May 30, Weber made efforts to determine whether defendant was the legitimate owner of the motor home. Weber subsequently met with ...

... [*254] [*408] [ 18] asked defendant how he could telephone from the jail without calling collect, defendant said he used a satellite or calling card number. [*255]

Raymond Ruiz, a product manager at Pacific Bell, testified that starting in the fall of 1985 through the summer of 1986, the company received complaints from long distance carriers concerning telephone calls that were being made from a number of penal institutions such as Santa Rita Jail, and were being billed to the carrier. ...

COURT OF APPEAL OF CALIFORNIA, SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT, DIVISION SIX

2005 Cal. App. LEXIS 1818

November 22, 2005, Filed

SUMMARY:

CALIFORNIA OFFICIAL REPORTS SUMMARY

[...*1] Contempt proceedings were initiated in the Court of Appeal against an attorney. The proceedings arose from two petitions for rehearing filed by the attorney on behalf of her client in a legal malpractice action. The court issued two orders requiring the attorney to show cause why she should not be adjudged guilty of contempt and punished for impugning the appellate court's integrity. (Superior Court of Ventura County, Nos. B184017 and ...

OPINION: ... [*2] rehearing. We refer Koven to the State Bar for investigation and, if appropriate, the imposition of disciplinary sanctions. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6086.7.)

Factual and Procedural Background

Koven represented Bashkin in a legal malpractice action [*3] brought against DeWitt F. Blase and Heily & Blase (hereafter defendants). (Bashkin v. Blase et al., Ventura Super. Ct. No. CIV183660.) This action arose from defendants' representation of Bashkin in a combined legal malpractice and medical malpractice action against Bashkin's former attorney (Stephen Marpet) and a psychiatrist (Arthur Sorosky). (Bashkin v. Sorosky & Marpet, Los Angeles Super. Ct. No. LC026201.)

On Bashkin's behalf, Koven filed ...

... [*13] a depository of the public trust.'

6. 'Far from viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to [Bashkin], this Court spent two pages of its Opinion trashing [Bashkin] as the "patient-from-hell"[n1] who allegedly ordered his doctor to alter his medical records. ... How convenient for this Court to concoct a trumped-up review of this issue that fits so snugly into its own predetermined perception of this litigant!'

7. 'THIS COURT MISREPRESENTED THE EVIDENCE IN ORDER TO ...

HAGSTROM v. REGENTS OF THE UNIV. OF CALIFORNIA

B176153

COURT OF APPEAL OF CALIFORNIA, SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT, DIVISION EIGHT

2005 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 9782

October 26, 2005, Filed

NOTICE: [*1] NOT TO BE PUBLISHED IN OFFICIAL REPORTS. CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT, RULE 977(a), PROHIBIT COURTS AND PARTIES FROM CITING OR RELYING ON OPINIONS NOT CERTIFIED FOR PUBLICATION OR ORDERED PUBLISHED, EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED BY RULE 977(B). THIS OPINION HAS NOT BEEN CERTIFIED FOR PUBLICATION OR ORDERED PUBLISHED FOR THE PURPOSES OF RULE 977.

DISPOSITION: Reversed.

OPINION: [*1] A defendant to a medical malpractice action filed a motion for summary judgment supported only by the declaration of the doctor accused of committing the malpractice. The plaintiffs filed an untimely opposition containing no evidence. After rejecting a request for a continuance to conduct additional discovery, the trial court granted summary judgment in favor of the hospital.

Thoughts on Google Side UI

Last week I finally experienced the experimental Google user interface (UI) that has the links to other databases displayed on the left side instead of along the top of the search box. Take a look at the first screenshot that shows the top of a regular results page. It includes links to Images, Maps, News, Groups, and more (which just links straight to the More Google Products page instead of being an Ajax pop-up). Note that Groups is still listed instead of the new default of Video. Also, there is no "Web" link, which since we are already in the Web database, makes sense.

The technology behind Google's great results

As a Google user, you're familiar with the speed and accuracy of a Google search. How exactly does Google manage to find the right results for every query as quickly as it does? The heart of Google's search technology is PigeonRank™, a system for ranking web pages developed by Google founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin at Stanford University.

Building upon the breakthrough work of B. F. Skinner, Page and Brin reasoned that low cost pigeon clusters (PCs) could be used to compute the relative value of web pages faster than human editors or machine-based algorithms. And while Google has dozens of engineers working to improve every aspect of our service on a daily basis, PigeonRank continues to provide the basis for all of our web search tools.

Why Google's patented PigeonRank™ works so well

PigeonRank's success relies primarily on the superior trainability of the domestic pigeon (Columba livia) and its unique capacity to recognize objects regardless of spatial orientation. The common gray pigeon can easily distinguish among items displaying only the minutest differences, an ability that enables it to select relevant web sites from among thousands of similar pages.

By collecting flocks of pigeons in dense clusters, Google is able to process search queries at speeds superior to traditional search engines, which typically rely on birds of prey.

A Close Look at Google

- How often does Google crawl the web?
 - They won't say besides "on a regular cycle"
 - How does Google determine which pages to return and their order?
 - Every link is like a vote.
 - Analyzes the importance of the page that casts the vote.
 - "sophisticated text-matching techniques"

A Close Look at Google

- Where is my search term?
 - It might not be there.
 - In evaluating merit and relevance, Google considers the text of the page and of links that point to the page.

A Close Look at Google

- First - see 'general search construction tips'
 - Google-specific tips:
 - Not case sensitive. Searches for george washington, George Washington, and gEoRgE wAsHiNgToN will all return the same results.
 - No need to include "and" between terms.
 - The order in which the terms are typed will affect the search results.
 - To restrict a search, just include more terms.

A Close Look at Google

- Google-specific tips:

- Common words are ignored

- If a common word is essential, either:

- put a "+" sign in front of it

- Star Wars Episode +I

- put your phrase in quotation marks

- "Star Wars Episode I"

- Stemming technology is used.

- NOT is indicated by a negative sign.

- rico -puerto

- Synonym search, place the tilde sign ("~") immediately in front of your search term.

Special queries define:quo warranto

Web

Definitions of quo warranto on the Web:

- In the context of the Gazetteer, this refers to a series of enquiries held by royal judges who were sent on circuits around the country, chiefly in the reigns of King Edward I and King Edward II (1272–1327). In an attempt to assert royal rights, the justices attempted to discover by what right (quo warranto) individuals or institutions were holding markets and fairs.
www.history.ac.uk/cmh/gaz/glossary.html
- a remedy generally brought by the Government through the Solicitor General of a public prosecutor against a person, public officer or corporation, charging the latter with usurpation of office or franchise. This action intends to oust the defendant from his office or from enjoying holder's privileges if the right to hold such office is not well founded or if the holder has forfeited the said right.
www.pinoylaw.com/legal_terms/civi_actions.htm
- a hearing to determine by what authority someone has an office or franchise or liberty wordnet.princeton.edu/perl/webwn
- Quo Warranto is a legal procedure that challenges the validity of a title, holding, office or other authority. Today the authority challenged in a Quo Warranto filing is a civil matter - for example the office of a company official. Sometimes it is used to challenge the power of an elected official as well. It can also be used to challenge the validity or authority of a charter - such as one that pertains to a group, or in former times, territories and states.
en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Quo_Warranto
- Quo warranto (Latin for "by what warrant?") is one of the prerogative writs, the one that requires the person to whom it is directed to show what authority he has for exercising some right or power (or "franchise") he claims to hold.
en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Quo_warranto

AETNA HEALTH INC., fka AETNA U. S. HEALTHCARE INC. et al. v. DAVILA certiorari to the united states court of appeals for the fifth circuit

No. 02-1845. Argued March 23, 2004--Decided June 21, 2004^{*}

Respondents brought separate Texas state-court suits, alleging that petitioners, their health maintenance organizations (HMOs), had refused to cover certain medical services in violation of an HMO's duty "to exercise ordinary care" under the Texas Health Care Liability Act (THCLA), and that those refusals "proximately caused" respondents' injuries. Petitioners removed the cases to federal courts, claiming that the actions fit within the scope of, and were thus completely pre-empted by, §502 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The District Courts agreed, declined to remand the cases to state court, and dismissed the complaints with prejudice after respondents refused to amend them to bring explicit ERISA claims. Consolidating these and other cases, the Fifth Circuit reversed. It found that respondents' claims did not fall under ERISA §502(a)(2), which allows suit against a plan fiduciary for breaches of fiduciary duty to the plan, because petitioners were being sued for mixed eligibility and treatment decisions that were not fiduciary in nature, see Pegram v. Herdrich, 530 U. S. 211; and did not fall within the scope of §502(a)(1)(B), which provides a cause of action for the recovery of wrongfully denied benefits, because THCLA did not duplicate that cause of action, see *Rush Prudential HMO, Inc. v. certiorari to the united states court of appeals for the fifth circuit

No. 02-1845. Argued March 23, 2004--Decided June 21, 2004^{*}

Respondents brought separate Texas state-court suits, alleging that petitioners, their health maintenance organizations (HMOs), had refused to cover certain medical services in violation of an HMO's duty "to exercise ordinary care" under the Texas Health Care Liability Act (THCLA), and that those refusals "proximately caused" respondents' injuries. Petitioners removed the cases to federal courts, claiming that the actions fit within the scope of, and were thus completely pre-empted by, §502 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Respondents brought separate Texas state court actions, claiming that the actions fit within the scope of, and were thus completely pre-empted by, §502 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The District Courts agreed, declined to remand the cases to state court, and dismissed the complaints with prejudice after respondents refused to amend them to bring explicit ERISA claims. It found that respondents' claims did not fall under ERISA §502(a)(2), which allows suit against a plan fiduciary for breaches of fiduciary duty to the plan, because petitioners were being sued for mixed eligibility and treatment decisions that were not fiduciary in nature, see *Pegram v. therefore could have brought §502(a)(1)(B) claims to recover the allegedly wrongfully denied benefits. Both respondents allege violations of the THCLA's duty of ordinary care, which they claim is entirely independent of any ERISA duty or the employee benefits plans at issue. However, respondents' claims do not arise independently of ERISA or the plan terms. If a managed care entity correctly concluded that, under the relevant plan's terms, a particular treatment was not covered, the plan's failure to cover the requested treatment would be the proximate cause of any injury arising from the denial. More significantly, the THCLA provides that a managed care entity is not subject to THCLA liability if it denies coverage for a treatment not covered by the plan it administers. Pp. 7-12.

(c) The Fifth Circuit's reasons for reaching its contrary conclusion are all erroneous. First, it found significant that respondents asserted tort, rather than contract, claims and that they were not seeking reimbursement for benefits denied. However, distinguishing between pre-empted and non-pre-empted claims based on the particular label affixed to them would allow parties to evade ERISA's pre-emptive scope simply by relabeling contract claims as claims for tortious breach of contracts. And the fact that a state cause of action attempts to authorize remedies beyond those that ERISA §502(a) authorizes does not put it outside ERISA's pre-emptive scope. See, e.g., Pilot Life Ins. Co. v. Dedeaux, 481 U. S. 41, 43. Second, the fact that there is an external ordinary care duty, but the wrong is not external to respondents' rights under ERISA does not suggest that ERISA §502(a)'s pre-emptive scope is not broad enough to encompass this cause. Nor would it be consistent with ERISA's purpose to allow such a claim.

mechanism. See, e.g., Pilot Life Ins. Co. v. Dedeaux, 481 U. S. 41, 43. Second, the fact that there is an external ordinary care duty, but the wrong is not external to respondents' rights under ERISA does not suggest that ERISA §502(a)'s pre-emptive scope is not broad enough to encompass this cause. Nor would it be consistent with ERISA's purpose to allow such a claim. Rush Prudential did this Court that precisely duplicate an ERISA claim. Pp. 12-14.

(d) Also unavailing is respondents' argument that the THCLA is a law regulating insurance that is saved from pre-emption by ERISA §514(b)(2)(A). This Court's understanding of §514(b)(2)(A) is informed by the overpowering federal policy embodied in ERISA §502(a), which is intended to create an exclusive federal remedy, Pilot Life, 481 U. S., at 52. Allowing respondents to proceed with their state-law suits would "pose an obstacle" to that objective. Ibid. Pp. 14-16.

(e) Pegram's holding that an HMO is not intended to be treated as a fiduciary to the extent that it makes mixed eligibility decisions acting through its physicians is not implicated here because petitioners' coverage decisions are pure eligibility decisions. A benefit determination under ERISA is part and parcel of the ordinary fiduciary responsibilities connected to the administration of a plan. That it is infused with medical judgments does not alter this result. Pegram itself recognized this principle, see 530 U. S., at 231-232. And ERISA and its implementing regulations confirm this interpretation. Here, petitioners are neither respondents' treating physicians nor those physicians' employees. Pp. 16-19.

Effectively Using RSS Feeds, Blogs and Podcasts

■ Blog Posting

- Legal blogs (blawgs) usually focus tightly on one niche area of the law and/or jurisdiction.
 - Provide readers with a constantly renewing source of news and insight about the topic.
 - Usually written by an individual lawyer or practice group.
 - Establishes the author as a reliable, helpful authority
 - Builds and enhances the writer's reputation.

Effectively Using RSS Feeds, Blogs and Podcasts

■ RSS Feeds

- ❑ Rich Site Summary
 - ❑ Stay up to date through preferred news sources
 - ❑ Includes summaries, headlines, and links to online news stories.
 - ❑ Click a RSS link or button, you are directed to the URL address of that feed.
 - ❑ The feeds are viewable online using RSS Readers.

Effectively Using RSS Feeds, Blogs and Podcasts

- Typical Features of RSS Readers:
 - ❑ Monitor any site that provides an RSS
 - ❑ Let you know when new content is found.
 - ❑ Keep track of what you have already read so you don't waste time looking at the same thing more than once.
 - ❑ Archive all feed content
 - ❑ Provide a good search engine to help you find what you're looking for.

Effectively Using RSS Feeds, Blogs and Podcasts

■ Podcast

- ❑ A multimedia file distributed over the Internet that can be downloaded automatically for playback on mobile devices and personal computers.
 - ❑ Despite the name, an Ipod is not required to download.
 - ❑ Feeds are managed through an aggregator just like RSS.
 - ❑ Like RSS and blogs – key is immediacy.

estate and gift tax: an overview

One of the oldest and most common forms of taxation is the taxation of property held by an individual at the time of their death. Such a tax can take the form, among others, of estate tax (a tax levied on the estate before any transfers). An estate tax is a charge upon the decedent's entire estate, regardless of how it is disbursed. An alternative form of death tax is an inheritance tax (a tax levied on individuals receiving property from the estate). Taxes imposed upon death provide incentive to transfer assets before death.

Gift tax laws are generally designed to prevent complete tax avoidance by this route. The Federal Estate Tax is integrated with the Federal Gift tax so that large estates cannot be shielded from taxation by lifetime giving. Many states also impose an estate tax.

The Federal Estate Tax is set forth beginning in § 2001 of the Internal Revenue Code. (26 U.S.C. 2001). The Federal Gift Tax is set forth beginning in 26 U.S.C. 2501. Generally, the Gift Tax applies to any transfer made without receiving value in return and without regard to intent.

The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 provided for ten years of increasing exemptions from the estate tax. In 2005, the law exempts the first $1.5 million of an estate for an individual (or the first $3 million for married couples). The law includes a sunset clause for the estate tax to be restored in 2011. Currently, there is legislation in Congress that proposes making the full repeal of the estate tax permanent. The bill, H.R.8, passed the House of Representatives on April 13, 2005 and is waiting for a final vote in the Senate.

General Legal Research

LexisNexis for Law Schools (Law School password required)

Comprehensive source of primary and secondary legal research resources; includes access to Lexis web courses. UNM law faculty, staff, and students--please speak with a Librarian if you need password assistance.

LexisNexis Academic (UNM campus)

Provides full-text documents from over 5,900 news, business, legal, medical, and reference publications, including national and regional newspapers, wire services, broadcast transcripts, international news, and non-English language sources; U.S. Federal and state case law, codes, regulations, legal news, law reviews; Shepard's® Citations for all U.S. Supreme Court cases back to 1789; business news journals, company financial information, SEC filings and reports, and industry and market news; medical news, journals, and abstracts.

Loislaw (Law School & Law Library only)

50-state statutes, regulations and case law; U.S. Supreme Court Reports, Federal Circuit Courts, U.S. District Courts, U.S. Tax Court, Federal Rules (Appellate, Civil, Criminal, and Bankruptcy Procedure; Evidence; Procedure of the Judicial Panel; and Supreme Court Rules), U.S. Constitution, U.S. Code, U.S. Public Laws, Code of Federal Regulations, Federal Register, U.S. Sentencing Guidelines Commission Manual, and a citator, GlobalCite. UNM law faculty, staff, and students can also register for a free password for remote access--please speak with a Librarian if you need password assistance.

Shepard's Online (Law Library only)

A legal citator is a tool that lists later sources that have cited an earlier source. By doing so, citators help you determine whether the earlier source is still "good law", i.e., that it has not been invalidated by later sources. The Law Library licenses Shepard's Online Legal Citator for use by anyone visiting the Law Library Building. Coverage includes all 50 state and federal sources, plus various secondary sources.

VersusLaw (Law School password required)

Tribal court decisions, federal and state appellate case law opinions, selected state source materials, federal specialty practice courts, current versions of the U.S. Code and Code of Federal Regulations, and a citator. UNM law faculty, staff, and students can also register for a free password for remote access--please speak with a Librarian if you need password assistance.

Westlaw for Law Schools (Law School password required)

Comprehensive source of primary and secondary legal research resources; includes access to TWEN web courses. UNM law faculty, staff, and students--please speak with a Librarian if you need password assistance.

Online Resources Information

While most of the Law Library databases are available to the public from within the Law Library building, it is not always convenient to visit the Library. The librarians are happy to offer attorneys advice concerning the licensing of online legal resources, especially for solo practitioners and small firms. For example, did you know that you can access Lexis and Westlaw with a credit card account, and simply pay for access when you need it, rather than entering into an expensive, long-term subscription? If you have a citation, documents can be purchased directly from Lexis for $9 per document, and from Westlaw from $12 per document. Lexis also offers database word searches at $9 each. Citation checking from KeyCite is available for $3.75 per citation, and from Shepard's for $4.25 per citation.

Please see the following websites for more information:

- Lexis & Shepard's by Credit Card
http://web.lexis.com/xchange/ccsubs/cc_prods.asp
 For more information, call 1-800-543-6862.

- Lexis & Shepard's By Day, Week, or Month
<http://www.lexisone.com/legalresearch/index.html>
 For more information, call 1-800-543-6862.

- Westlaw by Credit Card
<http://creditcard.westlaw.com/welcome/frameless/default.wl>
 For more information, call 1-800-WESTLAW.

There are also a few low-cost databases such as Loislaw and VersusLaw that can make online access more affordable. Please contact the librarians if you have any questions.

OPINION

ALARID, Judge.

{1} The State Motor Vehicle Division (MVD) filed a notice of appeal from an order of the district court that reinstated Frank Garza's driver's license. The parties briefed the issues of the proper method of appellate review, the timeliness of Garza's motion for reconsideration before the district court, and the use of the breath test results in revoking his driver's license. We affirm the district court's order reinstating Garza's driver's license.

PROPER PROCEDURE FOR APPELLATE REVIEW

{2} While this case was pending on appeal, this Court clarified that the proper procedure for MVD to appeal the district court order was by writ of certiorari under Rule 12-505 \(A\)\(2\) NMRA 2004 rather than by direct appeal. See Dixon & Strickland v. State Taxation & Revenue Dep't, Nos. 22,787 ¶ 22,827 (N.M. Ct. App. Feb. 17, 2004). Since MVD filed its notice of appeal within twenty days of the district court's order, however, we exercise our discretion to treat the notice of appeal as a petition for writ of certiorari and to reach the merits of the issues raised in this case. See id. ¶ 10; W. Gun Club Neighborhood Ass'n v. Extraterritorial Land Use Auth., 2001-NMCA-013, & 3, 130 N.M. 195, 22 P.3d 220. In reviewing those merits, "we will conduct the same review of an administrative order as the district court sitting in its appellate capacity, while at the same time determining whether the district court erred in the first appeal." See Rio Grande Chapter of the Sierra Club v. N.M. Mining Comm'n, 2003-NMSC-005, ¶ 16, 133 N.M. 97, 61 P.3d 806. We review the order of revocation "to determine if it is arbitrary, capricious, or an abuse of discretion; not supported by substantial evidence in the record; or, otherwise not in accordance with law." Id. ¶ 17.

TIMELINESS OF THE MOTION TO RECONSIDER

{3} The district court initially entered an order affirming the hearing officer's revocation of Garza's license. This order was entered on December 18, 2001. On January 3, 2002, Garza filed his motion to reconsider, re-asserting the issue of the foundational requirement for the admission of the breath test results. A hearing was held on January 31, 2002, and the district court orally ruled on the motion. The district court then entered its order on February 12, 2002, reversing the hearing officer

BLM Site - 12/23/01

× Bureau of Land Management National Home Page

You are currently unable to access the Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) web site because of litigation against the Department of the Interior (DOI) regarding access to Indian trust data or assets. On December 5, a court order from U.S. District Judge Royce C. Lamberth required DOI and its agencies to disconnect from the internet all information systems until it can be demonstrated that systems housing or providing access to individual Indian trust data or assets meet appropriate security standards. We are currently reviewing all information systems and certifying to the court's satisfaction that all of BLM's computer systems protect all critical information. As a result, you cannot view the BLM's home page or send e-mail to DOI or its agencies.

We are working diligently to comply with the court order so that we can restore full service to our customers as soon as possible. Until that time, please telephone your local BLM office for assistance. We apologize for the inconvenience this presents.

Hantavirus Pulmonary Syndrome (HPS)

Hantavirus pulmonary syndrome (HPS) is a deadly disease from rodents. Humans can contract the disease when they come into contact with infected rodents or their urine and droppings. HPS was first recognized in 1993 and has since been identified throughout the United States. Although rare, HPS is potentially deadly. Rodent control in and around the home remains the primary strategy for preventing hantavirus infection.
