Germans Sponsor "Spring Rhapsody"

Carried out over campus by March winds tomorrow night will be "cool notes" of music as played by the Dean Hudson band.

"Spring Rhapsody" is the German Club dance theme, with emphasis on fun and dancing. Reed Gym will be transformed into an aura of spring itself, and you will enter, "belle of the ball," with your handsome escort to dance through an evening of sheer rhapsody.

"Nete" Wood, German Club president, will lead the figure, composed of club officers and graduating members. Your journey of enchantment will last from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m., and a ticket for $4.00 will furnish you with a passport.

That ticket also entitles you to attend the afternoon concert starting at 4:00 p.m. for a real "send-off". Tickets to the concert may be purchased for 50 cents stag or $1.00 drag.

Hope you're among those who will be carried by Dean Hudson and Orchestra into "Spring Rhapsody", tomorrow night, 8:00 to 12:00 p.m.

Attention, Seniors!

Have you signed a contract for next year? If not, check the bulletin board at the Placement Office daily for announcements concerning visiting superintendents. Next week there will be several superintendents here looking for teachers in all areas.

If you have already signed a contract or accepted a position for next year, please inform the Placement Office so that we will stop calling you for interviews.

Local FBLA Holds Regional Meet Here

Madison Chapter of FBLA will have the regional meeting here at Madison College on March 26. This meeting will include high school FBLA chapters from approximately 23 counties in the northwestern part of the state. Miss Sarah Anderson is the sponsor for Region IV. Madison College is in this region.

The meeting will begin Saturday morning at 9:00. There will be a public speaking contest sponsored by the Waynesboro chapter, a parliamentary law contest sponsored by James Wood High School, a bulletin board contest sponsored by Middle River High School, and a spelling contest.

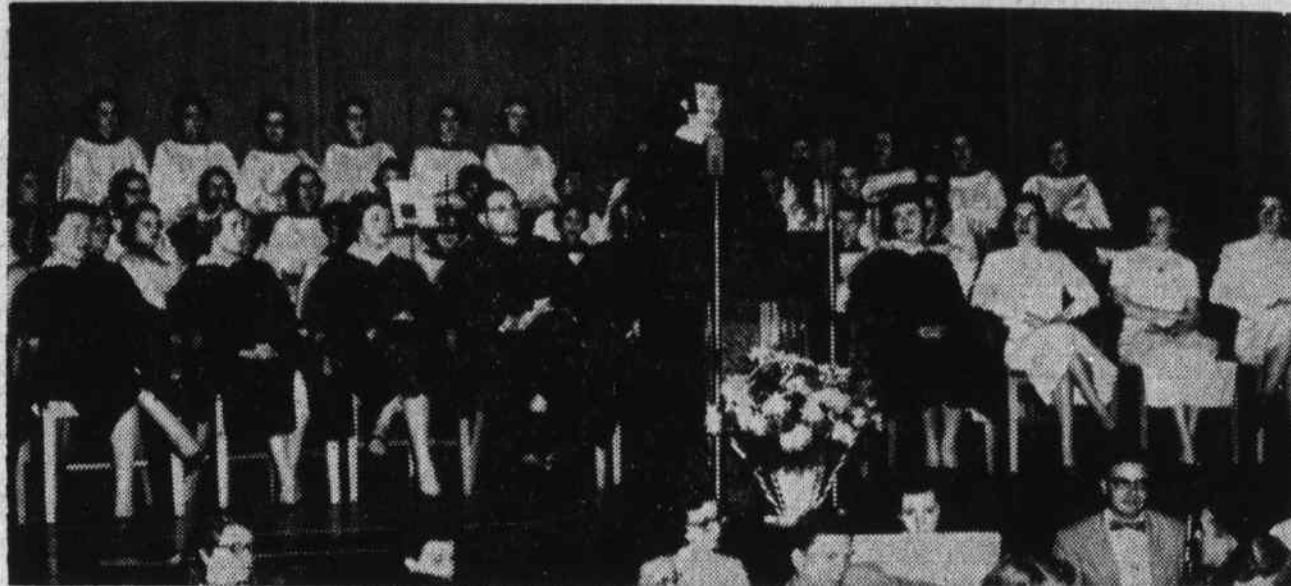

"Miss and Mr. FBLA" will be elected at the regional meeting. Each high school has nominated persons to be voted on at the meeting. Also, regional officers will be elected. Miss Lola Jones is acting reporter for the region.

On Thursday, March 10, Mr. H. R. Anderson and Mr. James R. McEckron from the General Electric Company in Waynesboro, Virginia, spoke to the Madison group. Mr. Anderson suggested the methods he used when hiring an employee. They are: study application blank, talk personally to the applicant, give the applicant a test, and send the person directly to the person for whom he will work.

Mr. McEckron talked about filing procedures, various kinds of office machines, and invited our chapter to visit the plant.

The next meeting of the FBLA will be held on April 14, when the new officers will be elected.

Dingledine, Speaker At Student Assembly As Newly Elected Officers Are Installed

Installation of major officers Wednesday, March 23, featured Dr. Raymond Dingledine, speaker, and the Reverend Richard Wentz, devotions. The new leaders took their oaths of office at this time.

New officers of the Student Government Association for the 1955-56 school session were installed Wednesday. The program was opened with the invocation by the Reverend Mr. Richard Wentz, followed by the Madison College Glee Club presenting "Puere Habraorum".

Dr. Raymond C. Dingledine addressed the student body and faculty expressing the importance of a successful student government. He stressed his main points for the success of a democratic government in a nation as well as in any self governed body. Placing particular emphasis on the importance of individual participation with every-

Madison Orchestra Begins Tour Of Southwestern Virginia Soon

In case you miss the strains of the orchestra rehearsing around four o'clock any time next week, it is because they are on their annual spring tour. The Madison College Concert Orchestra is planning to leave on Monday afternoon to make their rounds, giving concerts in the southwestern part of Virginia. On the agenda for the tour are concerts in Clifton Forge, Pulaski, Abington, Hillsville, and Buena Vista. A total of 8 concerts are to be given. Some of the numbers to be included on these programs are Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," Grofe's "Mississippi Suite," "Holiday for Strings" by David Rose, Strauss' waltz, "Roses From the South", Bizet's "Carmen Suite", and Selections from "Oklahoma" by Rodgers and Hammerstein, and "Student Prince" by Sigmund Romberg. The orchestra is also offering Glazounov's "Saxophone Concerto" featuring Janet Thomas as saxophone soloist.

The orchestra is conducted by Clifford T. Marshall, its founder, who formerly was associated with the National Broadcasting Company. The concert master is David Brewster and the soloists are Nancy Wheatley and

Registration Notice

Every student will receive a notice from his Adviser about his registration conference. It is important that the student report to his Adviser at the time designated. Detailed instructions will appear in next week's BREEZE.

The period set for registration for classes is April 20 through May 5.

A student who expects to change from one Curriculum to another should make the change before the registration period begins. The student should call at the Registrar's Office for the Change of Curriculum blank.

one playing his share of the game, he illustrated his point with a story of two football teams during a big game. The captain of the under dogs approached the referee during half time and demanded a new football. Under close inspection, the referee found nothing amiss with the ball and asked why the demand for a new one. The reply was simply "Well, they've been playing with this one, and we want one to play with, too." Dr. Dingledine then expressed the importance of maintaining respect, and safe-guarding the rights of the minority groups. Of freedom and our behavior toward that freedom, he pointed out that there can be no freedom without limitations of it; that there is no such thing in existence as absolute freedom. This he illustrated with the adage that "The right to swing one's arms stops at the end of the other man's nose."

His last and one of his most strongly emphasized points was that of the supreme importance of government and God together.

Following Dr. Dingledine's address, the installation of the new officers was begun with out-going president of Y.W.C.A., Joyce Herrin, installing Mary Sue Nelson. Mary Lou Carroll then pledged herself to the duties of new president of the Athletic Association to Jo Guyton, out-going president. Janet Hefner, this year's Schoolma'am editor, installed Mary Sue Missimer as the '55-'56 editor; followed by Betty Smith, editor of the Breeze, who installed Nat Tiller as incoming Breeze editor.

Next were installations of Chairman of the Honor Council and President of the Student Government Association. Jean Hogge turned her office as Honor Council Chairman over to Charlene Meyers, and Norma Proctor, out-going S.G.A. President, installed Sarah Munday as the new head of student government.

During the processional and ceremony selections were presented by the Madison College Glee Club and Orchestra.

Gwaltney Will Render Senior Recital

Senior Recital: Jean Ann Platt, accompanist; Joyce Gwaltney, soloist.

Joyce Gwaltney, soprano, will present her recital in Wilson Hall, Sunday, April 3, at 3:30 p.m. She will be assisted by Jean Ann Platt, accompanist, Douglas Soyars, clarinetist and David Brewster, violinist.

Dr. Turille Announces Business Opportunities

A number of very important tests, interviews, and employment opportunities will be open to business majors and to any other qualified non-business students. Any person interested may apply to Dr. S. J. Turille, in Wilson 25.

March 24—Central Intelligence Agency openings in secretarial and office fields in Washington, D. C. and some in foreign service.

May 2-6—Federal Civic Service. Examinations for all office areas.

April 26-29—Federal Bureau of Investigation (F. B. I.) examinations.

April 29-30—National Business Entrance Examinations. Tests are open in five office occupation areas—clerk, typist, stenographer, bookkeeper, and calculating machine operator.

Dean States Criteria For Professional Cuts

If a student plans to attend in an official capacity any meeting, she must clear the absence in the office of the dean of women in advance. She must submit in advance a statement giving information regarding the type of meeting, the length of meeting and the names of the delegates. She must check the cumulative average of the people going, as a student must have a 2. average to be eligible for a professional excuse.

My Last--30--

In newspaper language -30- signifies the end of an article. Signing the final -30- on this page marks the end of one editor's office, and the beginning of another's.

We have endeavored to give you a paper with a more "catchy" make-up, with more lively heads, with well written news stories, features, and editorials, with better sports coverage, and with more pictures.

We have appreciated your compliments and profited by your criticisms. We do wish you would more fully express your opinions through more letters to the editor. Freedom of the press is advocated here, and you are entitled to your opinions, pro or con.

This final editorial could not be complete without a sincere thanks to all those instrumental in publishing the paper since last April—the staff members and reporters. Ann Fosnight should be singled out for her consistent aid as news editor; Nat Tiller and Bee Ellis for the heads they have struggled over which have "fit to a T"; Ginger Brown for her efforts in the feature department; Jo Gildersleeve for her alert copy reading; Jan Bolen for excellent sports coverage; and Skip Michael for giving us, for the first time, a terrific men's column. Special credit goes to Jean Anthony and Sylvia Painter for improving the looks of the paper through one of the hardest jobs—make-up. To B. J. Butler, associate editor, goes a particularly big pat on the shoulder for her "Did Its", and for putting out the paper in excellent form for eight weeks. Thanks go, too, to the business manager and staff for handling the "dollars" end and ads, and to the distributors.

Signing this final -30- carries many mixed emotions and memories. It has indeed been an experience, a pleasure, and a privilege publishing the paper for you.

Culture---You Flunk!

Dear Editor,

On Monday night, Madison College was honored in having the National Symphony on its campus. But how many of us considered it an honor? How many of us showed the Symphony the respect that they so rightly deserve? From where I sat (in the balcony) you might have thought people were attending a three ring circus. Laughing, talking, coughing and throwing programs were only a few of the outrageous things that went on during the evening. It is my opinion that if people know ahead of time that they aren't going to enjoy a program, the most courteous thing they could do is to stay in their dorm or go to the movies.

And then there was the applause between movements of both the Concerto and Symphony. It seems to me that we as college students should be cultured enough to know that applause between movements is just not done. Mr. Mitchell and the entire orchestra were certainly in an embarrassing position when this unmannerly act took place.

Last Friday, it was my pleasure to hear the Symphony at Staunton. I have always heard that Mary Baldwin's girls were the most cultured girls in Virginia. Of course, knowing my own Madison co-eds, I threw this off with a twist of the shoulder. However, after a comparison between Friday and Monday nights, I have to go along with this thought, at least between Madison and Mary Baldwin.

Why does it have to be like this? Is it because the students on this campus have not been taught better? If this be the case, I feel that a phase of concert etiquette should be added to the new General Education classes at Madison College.

The Butler Did It - - -

by B. J. Butler

Once again the Butler Did It and with this Did It, I'll be done with it. (Apologies are in order for all my English profs who tried.) This is my last article and it is (I guarantee) filled with all kinds of nostalgia for the many hours spent in the Breeze room mulling over ideas (?) for an article. These hours resulted in (1) need for glasses, (2) writer's cramp, (3) mutilation of the English language, (4) hang nails and (5) cigarette hangover. The combination of five factors such as these can cause an individual to become totally warped. What's your excuse? However, it is all now ended which makes it fairly final, and the time has come to say farewell to those of you who were good enough to indulge in my column. Farewell, those of you who were good enough to indulge in my column.

With the taking over of the new editors and other major officers, we realize that June is swiftly bearing down upon us, and with June comes graduation. In regard to graduating, I treasure the fond hope that when June 6th rolls around, I will be able to say, "The Butler Did It!"

Skip's Skoop

by Skip Michael

Spring has sprung; fall has fell; and it is just as hot as _____ it was last summer. Oh well, it was a good thought until the hurricane struck here Tuesday night.

A big "hat's off" to our girl "Smitty". She's done a marvelous, marvelous job and I say without reservation that there isn't a soul on the Breeze who hasn't enjoyed working under such a fine editor. May you be as successful in all of your other undertakings as you have with the Breeze. Nat Tiller, that's my cue to wish you loads of luck in your new job. We're all behind you and we know you're going to do "Swell".

Bathing Beauty: A girl worth wading for.

On one of Groucho Marx's television programs there appeared a 102-yr. old man. When asked why he was so cheerful, the oldster said: "Every morning when I get out of bed, I have two choices; to be happy or to be unhappy. I always choose to be happy."

Free passes this week go to John McMichens and Eddie Melton at the State and John O'Neill and William Garrett to the Virginia.

Well, I've gotta go pack for orchestra tour. Wish I could slip some of you in my suitcase and take you with us as we are really going to have a ball. Y'all be real good.

My Word!

by Smitty

My word, my last word!

After installation ceremonies Wednesday, Nat Tiller has officially stepped behind the reins of "the Breeze". It's been a great year, and I sincerely hope, Nat, everything will run just as smoothly for you. The newspaper has many possibilities, and I'm sure you will bring them out to the fullest.

The third in the Y.W.C.A.'s series of discussion groups will be held Monday in Alumnae. The subject "What is an Educated Person?" will be lead by a panel composed of Mrs. Leullin Hewitt, Dr. Otto Frederickson, Dr. John Wells, and Dr. Leland Schubert.

This is certainly a wise remark: "It's too bad that the only men who can solve the world's problems are too busy sitting on the front porch whittling!"

A program on Medical Technology was sponsored yesterday by the biology department. A film on Medical Technology was shown followed by a panel discussion on such topics as pay, opportunity, and academic requirements. A number of high school students in the vicinity, as well as college students, attended.

Asked to define "memory" one youngster replied, "The thing I forget with!" How true!

Now, don't forget Stratford's Spring production, "Suspect", next Friday and Saturday nights at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Caldwell made a talk recently to the combined groups of Mother's Clubs of Weyers Cave and Mt. Sidney on "Discipline". He was accompanied by Jean Platt and Skip Michael, who gave several musical selections. Dr. Caldwell leaves Sunday for New York where he will attend a National Conference of the Association for Child Study.

The article last week on Gwen McCormick, May Queen, and Betty Myers, Maid of Honor, was written by Nancy Gardner. And, my word, congratulations to the fairest of them all!

Corrections are in order for part of "Sport Specs" last week. Joan Van Saun is the name, and the convention at Natural Bridge involves the Virginia Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Miss Betty Hartman will have a leave of absence next year to work on her masters at Ohio State.

As Bob Hope says, "I know you can't take it with you, but I wish they'd leave me enough to get there."

And many seniors are asking for just enough to get them through June 5th! With that it's bye, bye, good luck, and, my word, keep those presses rolling with "nothing but the best".

He is backed up by Lee J. Cobb, who starred in Death of a Salesman. Also outstanding is the blonde TV discovery, Eva Marie Saint.

"On the Waterfront" is the story of the brawling racketeer union men in the big city and the boys from the slums who work with them in business and murder. Brass-knuckle fights and bloody wars are included.

A sharp contrast to the brutality of "Waterfront" is the love story woven into Brando's life.

For tense excitement, see "On the Waterfront" next week at the State.

Flaming Flicks --

Starting Sunday at the Virginia Theatre is "Jupiter's Darling". This eye-filling CinemaScope musical in color stars Esther Williams and Howard Keel.

Nothing this funny has been seen on the screen for a long time. Esther Williams, playing Amytis, the Roman beauty, promises to marry the dull Roman dictator, Fabius Maximus (George Sanders) because she can't face the alternative — that of becoming a Vestal Virgin.

Amytis manages to get into the camp of Hannibal (Howard Keel) who is threatening to demolish Rome with his army. At first he threatens to put her to death as a spy, but before long she has him eating out of her hand. After that she offers herself as a sacrifice to spare Rome.

The aquatic displays in "Jupiter's Darling" are sensational. Marge and Gower Champion do an equally terrific job with their dancing.

The whole mad frolic is set to a joyous pattern of songs and dances. Be sure not to miss it!

"Go, Man, Go", coming to the Virginia on Thursday and Friday, features the Harlem Globetrotters. The plot portrays Abe Saperstein, the tough and open-hearted promoter and coach who built the Trotters into the greatest sport attraction today.

The Globetrotters are as formidable in the line of comics as they are in basketball.

This picture, combining thrills with comedy, tells the saga of the Trotters' trail from rags to riches.

Sports car races are the rage in Europe; so Kirk Douglas, Gilbert Roland, and Cesar Romero risk their lives in Twentieth Century Fox's story, "The Racers", which is playing at the State Theater Sunday through Wednesday.

Katy Jurado and Bella Darvi play the only female parts as a racer's wife and a ballet dancer respectively.

A triangular love affair between Kirk Douglas, John Hudson, (a young French racer) and the dancer is the main attraction in this thriller.

Action, suspense, and death combine to make "The Racers" one of the best dramatic movies of the year.

Going from race to race, Kirk Douglas works his way up to the Italian Grand Prix, where the winner gets the girl.

"The Racers" will be at the State the first of next week. When you see it, you will think it is the most stirring movie you have ever seen.

If you missed "On the Waterfront" before, you can see this talked-about Brando movie at the State Theater for a limited engagement starting Thursday.

Marlon Brando plays his usual tough-guy role in excess in "Water-

Sweet Briar Yields To Duchesses

by "Mac" McKaye

Madison College racked up another victory by defeating Sweet Briar College 49-37 on the home court.

From the first toss in, the two highly skilled teams began matching their abilities and endurance.

Jo Guyton burned the cords with her remarkable goal-scoring ability and led the Madison team in producing some of the finest shooting displayed on the court.

The effective guarding ability exhibited by the Madison guards kept the Sweet Briar team trailing from the beginning.

Sweet Briar, by the use of rebounding, narrowed the gap but failed to even up the score. Madison left the court with a narrow lead 22-20 at half time.

Immediately after the beginning of the second half, both teams strove to gain that all important lead. Madison seemed to catch fire and raced continuously to the basket to rack up 27 more points.

By the rebounding ability and accurate shooting of Carolyn Legard, Madison was able to control both back boards. The Madison forwards as well as guards controlled the all important back boards from the beginning whistle.

Using beautiful set shots and lay ups Madison was able to gain a lead. After a terrific hard quarter, Madison still maintained their lead.

Upon beginning the final quarter, which really counted, Madison exhibited sportsmanship and used many of the skills exhibited by the experts of the game and mastered them well. Madison left the court at the final whistle, a tired but very happy team.

They had played a tremendously strenuous game using all the sportsmanship available to them.

Line-up and points scored: Guyton 23; Stewart 0; Legard 18; and Myers 8. Guards were: Talbort, Carroll, and Smith.

SECOND TEAM

Madison's second team coped another victory for the day by defeating Sweet Briar's second team 48-35.

The two teams played a "nip and tuck" game until Pat Schultz broke loose for the basket beginning Madison's road towards victory.

Both teams strove for the necessary goals, but due to the rebounding of the guards, Madison controlled the necessary positions. Peggy Stemp broke for the cords as she hit for pay dirt.

Madison took the lead and maintained it due to the extremely well trained zone the guards played. Sweet Briar matched the Madison teams advance and were able to stop the drive for the basket.

When the whistle ended the half, Sweet Briar had been able to gain the slim lead of 11-8.

Upon beginning the second half, the mighty Madison team broke loose and went on to rack up another win.

Pat Schultz again moved in, this time to aid Madison in rebounding as well as scoring. Using fast lay ups, Madison raced far ahead of Sweet Briar to rack up 40 more points.

With the advantage of fast and skilled players, Madison took and maintained the lead of 12 points.

Line-up and points scored: Schultz 15; Slemp 15; Hockman 8; Strother 6; and McClanahan 4. Guards were: Painter, Eubank, Rinker, Lewis, and Christopher.

Burau, Hicks, Watkins Present Recital Sunday

There will be a faculty recital Sunday afternoon, March 27, at 3:00 in Wilson Auditorium. Participating are Gertrud Burau, contralto; G. Raymond Hicks, organist; Lowell Watkins, pianist and J. Edgar Anderson, violinist.

Among others, Miss Burau will sing "Adam and Eve," an American folksong set by Ernest Bacon and "I'm Sad and I'm Lonely," (Southern mountain ballad) arranged by Clifford Shaw.

On the organ, Mr. Hicks will render "Ave Maria," by Bedell, Debussy's Prelude to "The Blessed Damozel," and others.

Miss Burau, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Watkins will present two songs for contralto, viola and piano, "Gestilte Sehnsucht" and "Geistliches Wiegenlied," Cradle Song of the Virgin, by Brahms.

Classical numbers by Miss Burau include arrangements by Handel - Bibb, Secchi - A. L., Paradies, J. S.

Dukes End Season With Even Record

Playing heads-up ball in a hard fought game, the Madison Dukes closed the current season by trouncing Bridgewater College's Independent team 74-66. Continuing to show the great improvement they have made this year, the Dukes were never headed after the first three minutes. Eldon Padgett, towering center of the Dukes was high scorer for both teams with 23 points. Johnny Warner was next with 16, closely followed by Nick Crantz, who was able to rack up 14. Dennis Eckard combined his tricky jump shot with two fouls to add 10 more points while Billy Koch had a good average from way out, sinking 4 set shots and adding a foul for a total of 9 points. Dale Long added the other two to bring the Dukes total to 74.

The game was hard fought and tempers flared several times but the Dukes had cool heads when they were most needed. By winning this contest, the Dukes were able to finish with a .500 record. Much of the credit must go to Coach Claude Warren who, through his fine work with the boys, enabled them to finish with one of the best records in Duke history. Coach Warren remarked that he was well pleased with the Duke's continued improvement and fine teamwork. The following is a resume of individual statistics for the season:

On Thursday, March 31, at 3:30 p.m. students in the music department will give a recital in the recital room of Harrison Hall.

LUCKY DROODLES! GET 'EM HERE!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.
Doodle suggested by Norman Gerber, C. C. N. Y.

HAVE A LITTLE FUN when you smoke. Enjoy yourself. Give yourself the pleasure of a better-tasting Lucky Strike. The enthusiasm often inspired by Luckies' famous better taste is illustrated in the Doodle (right) titled: Alphabet soup for Lucky smoker. So why stew over what cigarette to smoke? Luckies' taste is letter-perfect. After all, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. When you light up, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.

Hey, you gals who complain that you have nothing to do! Are there really any such lucky ones? Here's your chance to get out and have some great fun! Tuesday, April 5, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. will be designated as "Fun Night". The campaign to enlist members on two teams for the occasion will be next Thursday. Six leaders for each team will seek you out for membership on either the "carrots" or the "celery", and as a token of having signed up to participate in "fun night" you will receive a piece of celery or carrot depending on your team affiliation. "Fun Night" will be held in the gym and pool and no particular skill is required, so be watching for the team leaders (I don't think you'll have any trouble identifying them) and get your name on the "carrots" or "celery" team lists.

"Land of Make Believe" is the theme for May Day. The various committees are already hard at work. Let's all join in and do everything we can to make this year's May Day a great success.

A volleyball officiating clinic will be held Wednesday, March 30 at 7 p.m. Here's the final chance for anyone interested to get their ratings this year. If you would like to get in some extra volleyball play this is your chance, too. Teams will be needed to play for the rating trials and lists are now posted in the dorms for you to sign up to play during the rating clinic.

In fencing Madison's girls bowed to William and Mary and Mary Washington Colleges in a tri-meet held at William and Mary last Saturday. The first team scoring was as follows: William and Mary, 10; Mary Washington, 9; and Madison, 8. Congratulations go to first team fencer Carolyn Bair who won all six of her bouts and to Peggy Farmer who won two. Scoring for the second team was William and Mary, 11; Mary Washington, 10, and Madison, 8. In these bouts Harriet Hilton won four, Jane Shaffer and Martha Cromer, one each.

Here's the list of the ratings received in basketball for this year: national officials — Miss Hartman, Miss Tate, and Carolyn Legard; local officials — Norma Proctor, Jo Guyton, Betty Myers, Sara Welch, Mary Lou Carroll, Jo Kiser, Ann Lewis, Ellie Laing, and Eleanor Christopher; associate officials—Jane Wine, Pat Shultz; intramural officials—Jean McClanahan, Janet Bolen.

It looks as if we are really getting into the big leagues now . . . that is as far as softball is concerned. The intramural softball program this year will be initiated under a new plan. There will be three days of practice play and then playing coaches and managers will be chosen for as many teams as needed according to the turnout. The coaches and managers will be allowed to meet and bid on the players they would like to have. Each team will be allowed to bid $20,000 for the players. A maximum of $3,000 may be bid for a pitcher and $2,000 for any other player. The teams will be announced and organized into a tournament. If time and weather permits the season will be climaxed by a game between two All Star teams. Sign up lists will be posted in the dorms at the beginning of next week so hurry and get your name up there with the rest.

Attention
Ashby Hall Recreation Room is closed to "dates" and men-students Monday and Tuesday each week. "Dates" are received at Alumnae Hall on Mondays and Tuesdays in the reception room.

WHO ARE THE "TOP-FLITE" GOLFERS ON YOUR CAMPUS?

If you've watched them on the course, you've probably thought: "Boy, if I could just get my game down like that!"

Constant practice is the answer, of course, but getting the best from your equipment is just as important, too.

That's where Spalding TOP-FLITE® clubs have the edge. They have more to offer in precision balance that gives an absolutely uniform swing-feel with every club in the matched set.

That's the secret of Spalding SYNCHRO-DYNED® clubs. And, it will pay off for you from the first round. You'll make the same shots with new uniformity. The perfect balance of these clubs lets you swing through the ball with confidence. Without "choking-up" or "compensating." You get the ball away cleaner, longer, and with more shot control.

These are the clubs that have lowered handicaps by as much as 1/3: Spalding SYNCHRO-DYNED TOP-FLITE clubs. Your Golf pro has them now. And, now's the time for you to start playing better golf.
