Fellow Students of 1937-38:

We are happy to present to you the Aurora for 1938. It represents an honest endeavor to picture the school year as we have observed it. Enlightening its pages hang the beautiful chapel chandeliers, beneath which the names and subjects of some of the year's outstanding speakers are inscribed. As you gaze at these lovely chandeliers, we hope that you may come to a new realization of the importance of the college chapel in your school life, and that as you leave Olivet College this year, there may radiate from your own life those high ideals which have been upheld in our chapel.

Dedicated to

who for fourteen years has brought to his task the finished technique of the true scholar, enriched by years of service as a missionary in China and as a chaplain in the United States Army during the World War.

In Professor Bushey we have found genuine scholarship, unobtrusive piety, and the qualities of a truly Christian gentleman.

Half hidden behind the luxuriant foliage of barberry and spiræa, the historic old circle, and the thick green leaves of the growing maples, lie the sacred halls of Olivet College, the center of life for more than three hundred young men and women this year. Olivet's portals are ever open, and the middle walk is for many the daily path to learning, love, and life. The warmth radiated from this beautiful campus scene is symbolic of the deeper warmth of Christian fellowship and the enrichment of life which one finds in this school and community.

New Gymnasium-Auditorium

The portrayal of this construction gang engaged in the erection of our new Gymnasium-Auditorium will cause to live on in our minds that joy with which we daily observed the progress on this building.

Looking eastward from the campus we now view the fine new structure pictured below. It is approximately ninety feet square, has a seating capacity of fifteen hundred, is equipped with a splendid platform, and when finished will have cost $27,000. It will provide a much needed place for physical exercise and an excellent auditorium for public programs. This is a most valuable addition to our campus and we earnestly hope for its speedy completion.

TO THE STUDENTS OF OLIVET COLLEGE,
WHOM I DEARLY LOVE AND JOYFULLY
SERVE IN THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST,
GREETINGS:

This has been a year of genuine pleasure and profit as I have labored with and for you. The close association with you has greatly enriched my own life. Your youthful spirit, sincere devotion, and optimistic outlook have challenged my soul and inspired me with hope and a spirit of conquest. For these inestimable benefits which your presence in Olivet College this year has brought to me, I sincerely thank you. In a common devotion to our loving Savior, I join you in a sincere pledge of loyalty, friendship and Christian love one for another, and to our risen Lord.

Faithfully,

T. W. WILLINGHAM.

Our Pastor

Class of 1938:

Most men's lives are fragmentary and jerky. By accidents, circumstances, and a changing age, they are tossed about on the sea of life. Their ship has no one at the helm.

But how different it is when Christ is our Pilot. From God's Word we read: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusted in Thee." What an encouraging promise for your tomorrows if you will but trust Him and keep your mind on Him. He will keep you in the trying hours, and guide you safely through life's storms. A faithful heart and a steadfast mind means a life filled with deepest peace, a peace which can spring only from the presence of God! Conflict, trouble, and sorrow may come, but never forget that the same Christ who brought peace to you in student days will keep you to the end of life.

As ever,
Your college pastor,
R. W. HERTENSTEIN.

Field Representative

Much of the success of Olivet College depends upon the support of the people back home. To tell our parents and friends what Olivet College is doing is primarily the task of the field representative. He spends his days and nights driving from one Nazarene Church to another, putting the work of the school before the people, soliciting financial support, and interviewing prospective students.

To Rev. J. F. Leist was given this important task last fall, and his success in this new capacity is his own commendation. His educational standing, his experience in the ministry, his enthusiasm for Olivet College, and his faithfulness at the task have enabled him to do a noble piece of work out on the field. Let every Nazarene on this educational zone double his efforts this coming year to make Olivet College a bigger and a better school.

Spiritual Tide

AT GORDON'S TOMB OF JESUS, JERUSALEM

Gaddis-Moser Evangelistic Party

"Education with a Christian purpose" is the motto of Olivet College. To build sturdy Christian character, and to send forth devoted and spirit-filled young people to live lives of service pleasing to God is her highest goal. To accomplish this aim, a great emphasis is placed each year upon regular religious services and special revival efforts.

This year has witnessed two good revivals in the school and community. Last fall, the Gaddis-Moser Evangelistic party, who have their home here, were the special workers. Their many excellent instrumental numbers and special sacred songs were greatly appreciated, and the stirring messages of Rev. Gaddis were a blessing to all. Special features of their ministry were a dramatization of the twenty-third psalm and a presentation of a world pageant. At the close of the meeting these fine workers very graciously gave the sum of six hundred dollars toward the building of our new gymnasium.

For the mid-winter revival, Dr. T. W. Willingham, president of the school, was the evangelist. Although he has held several revivals here since he became president, the one this year was distinctly blessed of the Lord. After weeks of earnest praying, two weeks of special revival effort were entered upon. Many found definite victory in this meeting, and all of our hearts were made to burn within us by the spirit-filled messages by Dr. Willingham, on suffering and divine love.

The spiritual tide has been gradually rising throughout the year and will doubtless reach its peak with the coming of the annual Camp Meeting and Commencement in June, when once more Olivet's students will go out to embody her high ideals of love and service.

The Bible School faculty is supplemented by the teachers of the High School department and certain members of the College faculty.

THE BIBLE SCHOOL

In the Bible School are many students who were on their way to success in other lines of activity when the Lord laid His hand upon them for a special service. Casting all else aside, they have come to prepare themselves for that more noble calling.

From the ranks of this consecrated group have come many of Olivet's most devoted sons and daughters, and many of the church's most able ministers, both in the home and in the foreign field.

I Am Music

ERVANT and master am I; servant of those dead, and master of those living. Through me spirits immortal speak the message that makes the world weep, and laugh, and wonder, and worship.

I tell the story of love, the story of hate, the story that saves and the story that damns. I am the incense upon which prayers float to Heaven. I am the smoke which palls over the field of battle where men lie dying with me on their lips.

I am close to the marriage altar, and when the graves open I stand nearby. I call the wanderer home, I rescue the soul from the depths, I open the lips of lovers, and through me the dead whisper to the living.

One I serve as I serve all; and the king I make my slave as easily as I subject his slave. I speak through the birds of the air, the insects of the field, the crash of waters on rock-ribbed shores, the sighing of wind in the trees, and I am even heard by the soul that knows me in the clatter of wheels on city streets.

I know no brother, yet all men are my brothers, I am the father of the best that is in them, and they are fathers of the best that is in me; I am of them, and they are of me. For I am the Instrument of God

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Recognizing the importance of music in church work and the rich contribution which it makes to life, our students have a very vital interest in musical training. This fact plus the splendid quality of our instruction in music have contributed to making the Olivet College School of Music outstanding in musical training.

Courses are offered leading to the Teacher's Certificate, Diploma, and the degree of Bachelor of Music with major in piano or voice. In addition, the School of Music sponsors some very fine musical organizations, including the Orchestra, Band, Orpheus Chorus, and College Choral Society. A large number of public recitals and concerts are given each year, making a valuable cultural contribution to our school.

PIANO

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."—CARLYLE.

The ability to produce beautiful music can come only from talent and study. These students of piano are seeking to perfect the natural gifts which they possess through the excellent instruction which is available in our School of Music.

Singing, too, implies natural gifts of voice developed by study to a degree of technical skill that makes the voice an instrument responsive to the will. There is some very fine talent represented in this group of voice students, and with the vocal training which they are receiving from Professor Walter B. Larsen they should add richness to the realm of vocalization.

Aeolian Club

Aeolus never opened his bag to leave a richer musical treasure than the Aeolian Club. Vocalists, violinists, pianists, and what have you—all meet together to increase their appreciation for the art of music. An organ recital by Professor W. B. Larsen, and a study of the lives of three grand old masters, accompanied by the playing of some of their works by Mrs. H. H. Price were among the many fine programs presented this year.

Hoping to become another Demosthenes, a second Bryan, or a Henry Ward Beecher, aspiring speech-makers of Olivet organized the Forensic Club this year. Many fine programs from various fields of speech, including debate, declamation, and parliamentary law, have been presented by this club. Its large membership denotes the keen interest of our students in this field, and the club itself promises to turn out better preachers, teachers, and public speakers.

Orchestra

On the evening of May 17, under the soft yellow glow of the chapel lights, sat an appreciative audience, listening to the beautiful annual concert being rendered by the Olivet College Orchestra, accompanied by the graduation recital of Miss Linnea Henderson. "Priest's March"—Mendelssohn, "Reverie"—Franz von Blon, "Adoration"—Borowski, "Valse Triste"—Sibelius, and "Poet and Peasant"—Fraz von Suppe composed this fine program. Thanks to Mrs. Price, director, for this excellent year.

Tooters and tutor and the things they toot, and when the tutor says "Toot" you should hear the tooting. Marches, overtures, suites, and solos—all are played in one grand style. Among the outstanding numbers played this year were Goldman's "On the Mall", Schubert's "Rosamunde", and "Don Quixote". Prominent players were Wilma Eydman, cornet; Lawrence Rueff, clarinet, and Harold Fitzgerald, tuba. A fine season of tooting was completed with the presentation of the annual spring and commencement concerts.

Band

Orpheus Chorus

Royally robed in purple and gold, the Orpheus Chorus makes an impressive appearance. But the highest appreciation for them can come only by being in an audience when all hearts are thrilled by the beautiful harmony produced by their voices. A splendid concert of American anthems, sacred songs, and negro spirituals has been rendered this year with the same success both far and near.

Though they are dressed less royally than the Orpheus Chorus, the magnificence of their renditions is no less thrilling. One hundred and twenty-five voices, under the guidance of Professor Larsen, have worked wonders this year with both sacred and secular numbers. The splendid rendering of a Christmas concert; of Handel's "Messiah" on Palm Sunday; and of Commencement concerts have crowned this chorus as the best ever.

Honor Society

Along with such incidental extra-curricular pursuits as basketball, baseball, Orpheus, debate, and social activities, these twenty-five students have sought the crowning glory of college achievements; namely, a mastery of subjects studied. They are not "bookworms" as one might suppose, but by maintaining average grades above "B" they merit classification as Olivet's outstanding students.

It is a happy Student Council that lines the curb of this newly dug well, for through their recommendation the college has added this new water supply and installed a drinking fountain. Other suggestions which have been carried out this year are the employing of a non-student watchman and the provision of a more adequate place for Saturday night recreation.

Intercollegiate Debate

The great Franco-Prussian War was won for Prussia before it began by the expert planning of Bismarck and von Moltke. Likewise, back of the victories for Olivet debaters this year were many such scenes as these, where General McClain and forensic warriors met to mark out the lines of battle and to load their debate boxes with ammunition.

The first major campaign of the season, a tournament at Illinois State Normal, at Bloomington, in January, gave evidence of courageous and skillful fighting, for Olivet came out among the upper twenty-five per cent. In February, battle was renewed at Huntington College, Huntington, Indiana, where our teams crossed fire with twenty-four other colleges and universities, and came out of the conflict with sixteen victories in the bag, our men's negative winning all of their debates. Among our forensic foes this year were Northwestern University, Indiana Law School, University of Chicago, University of Illinois, and several state normals and religious colleges from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan.

An armistice was signed March 26, at Bloomington, closing the war over industrial disputes.

Student Pastors

Many dark corners within a radius of forty miles around Olivet have been illuminated this year with gospel rays from the torches of these student pastors. While studying to prepare for a more useful ministry, they have endeavored to give out an unselfish service in the same measure as they have received. We hope for every student pastor a successful ministry for the next half century in the Church of the Nazarene.

Some are called to be pastors, some evangelists, but all to be missionaries, whether at home or abroad. These have heard the divine call to carry the "Light of His Word" to far-away lands, and are here preparing for this noble task. Let us hope and pray with them that when they have finished, God may enable them to enter speedily into their labors on the mission fields.

At 9:45 on the morning of Armistice Day, the college band began to play and who should come tumbling down the aisle but the fellow you see in the picture to the left. Over the railing he went, and up on the platform, where he sprang to his feet and announced to the crowd that the Aurora Contest had begun.

And such a contest as it was! It was something new and different. Instead of a high pressure sales campaign and a hulabaloo for ten or twelve days between G-men and Gangsters or some other such line-up, the contest this year was carried on until February 1, and an appeal was made for individual sales by an array of prizes which were worth working for. The star of this year's contest was Mrs. Lena Mae Peters, whose picture is given above. Through some luck, and lots of pluck she turned in the cash for thirteen books. Contest sales this year topped last year's mark by a margin of forty books.

Basket Ball

"Worn, rough, ragged, bruised, forgotten, deflated, I lie here in this dark corner of the equipment room. They have carried out the horseshoes, the shot-put, and the tennis nets, and have forgotten me. Oh, well, they will have to admit that I furnished more excitement than any other piece of equipment.

Did I ever have a big time this year! Why, since that new rule cut out the center jump advantage for the tall players, those Spartan boys started off the first game working me under the basket and shooting me through those hoops without mercy. And the fact that Morris Chalfant dusted the lime from my leather jacket more times than any one else in the league helped a great deal to give their team first place after an undefeated season.

I wasn't sure which of the other teams, the Trojans or the Indians, could get me through the basket the most times, but in the last game the Trojans seemed to recover a little of their former pep and took second place.

Those second team boys surely gave me a workout. They slammed me against the backboard so hard that I was seldom able to feel the tender caresses of the net. The Spartans and the Indians tied for highest honors, but a post-season game ended with the Spartans in the lead.

The teams had to work very hard for every game that they won, and I wish to say before my air is completely expended that I have seen more of the Christian sportsmanship this year than ever before.

. . . Thanks for a great season."

Soft Ball

It was a feverish crowd that surrounded the diamond on the afternoon of October 15. Upon many afternoons previous to this, Spartans, Indians, and Trojans had lined up on the field and batted for the season's championship. The Indian braves had now been nosed out, leaving a deadlock between Spartans and Trojans, each team having won three games out of four. This particular afternoon was the time set to play off this tie.

Enthusiasm ran high. Out on the diamond were the Spartan boys warming up. They were in tip-top shape. Huddled around the bench were the Trojan fellows anxiously waiting to step up to the batter's box and get a "smack" at that ball.

Finally, there came the call of the umpire, "Play ball". With that, Spross stepped into the pitcher's box, wound up, threw, and the final game of the season started. Both sides played quite recklessly in the first few innings, and several errors were made. However, a number of good hits, among which were several two-baggers and one home run, compensated for those errors.

At the start of the last inning the Trojans were limping on the short end of the score. Suddenly the scene changed. A spirit of rallying seized them and they went to bat with new vigor. In a short time two Trojans crossed the home plate. The tide was high! The bases were loaded with "a mighty Trojan" at the bat. The "ump" called, "Strike two, ball three". The ball was delivered—a beautiful, well-timed steamer, and—The final score—Trojans 3, Spartans 15.

Thus was ended a very fine season of soft ball with the Spartans finishing up in "champion" style. Thanks for the memories.

SPARTANS

Weeks, Mumau, Nicholson, Barkley, Cracker, McCoy, Gephart, Willingham, Grile.

The spirited Spartan lassies put up a bitter fight for the championship this year, but the furious onslaught of the Indians was too much for them. However, their determination and accurate tosses did gain for them a tie for second place.

INDIANS—CHAMPS

Craig, Ahlemann, Langdon, Carmichael, Browning, Dernberger, Ten Eyck, Caskey. Cheer Leader—Davison.
Coach—McCoy.

After many fast and furious battles, in which tomahawks and arrows flourished, these sharp-shooting Indian Squaws changed their war cry into exuberant shouts of victory as they emerged from the last game with the scalps of the Spartans and Trojans tucked under their belts. They suffered only one defeat during the entire season.

TROJANS

Fix, Moore, McDevitt, Roberts, Riddell, Lewis, Wise, Schulz, Ling.

And here are the Helens of Troy who helped the Spartans hold down second place. Though last, they are by no means the least, for to them belong the honors for having handed to the Indians their only defeat.

Soft Ball

SPARTANS

Yarber, Barkley, Mattison, Willingham, James, McCoy, Walker, Nicholson, Wilcoxen, Cracker, Weeks, Axtelle.

In spite of all the curves tossed and the runs made, they were unable to keep up the pace with either the Indians or Trojans this year. They have taken their defeat gracefully with the hope of "some better thing" next year.

INDIANS—CHAMPS

Craig, Ten Eyck, Langdon, Carmichael, Browning, Ahlemann, Granger, Dernberger, Caskey.

Cheer Leader—Davison.

Talk about laying the wood on the horse-hide—these Indians surely do hit hard. And when it comes to running, they're as fleet as any red skin that ever lived. Three times each the Trojans and Spartans were left holding the bag while they again snatched away the honors of first place.

TROJANS

Fix, Moore, McDevitt, Wise, Roberts, Riddell, Schulz, Hughes, Bradley, Kendall, Ewald.

The Trojan girls this time drove their wooden horse within the walled city of the Spartans, and by many successful connections of swinging wood with flying leather were able to nose them out for second place.

Tennis

INDIANS

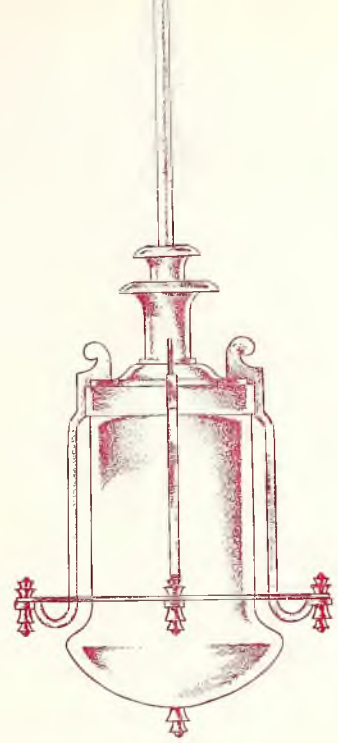

TROJANS

With the return of warm sunny days comes also the returning popularity of tennis. From every nook and corner of the campus come the tennis fans. Some of them, rising long before breakfast, don their sport clothes and with rackets tucked under their arms, set out for the tennis courts to start out the day with this exhilarating game. When classes are over in the afternoon, text-books, term-papers, and outside reading are put aside for an hour or two of delightful playing. At all hours of the day one may hear the pinging sound of balls driven back and forth across the nets.

To add to the interest in this sport, a tournament is held each spring in which Spartans, Indians, and Trojans vie for the honors. From the appearance of the line-ups for this year everything seems favorable for an excellent tourney. Some have already shown in past years their ability to handle a racket, such as Fred and Morris Chalfant and "Pat" Moore and Pauline James. But with several whose strength is yet to be tested there will certainly be plenty of thrills before this season is over.

Working Their Way Through

It's real work to iron shirts, keep a library in good condition, sweep floors, wheel out ashes, wait tables, and do numerous other things that students do in working their way through Olivet College.

By carrying on a large student work program the college has made it possible for hundreds of young people to secure a Christian education. Worthy students may receive as much as $75.00 in work during a school year. With a little additional help no young person need be deprived of the opportunity for an education in a religious atmosphere.

THE OLIVET BLUES

O, woe is me, I'm havin' a time
Since here in Olivet,
For my dear S.P.'s aren't worth a dime
Not one I'll ever get.
For the Dean loves regulations,
O, well, we can't agree;
And the blues have got me, sorta.
O, woe! O, woe! is me.

Chorus

I've got the Olivet blues
And I'm blue as blue can be,
For the Dean took all my privileges,
Not one he left for me.
My car is locked up tightly;
I must be in bed by ten,
And I can't park in the vestibule
Or I'll "ketch" it from the Dean of men.

'Twas in the Wagon Wheel they met,
Romeo and Juliet;
And when they left he was in debt,
For Romeo owed what Juli'et.

Mary Purinton—"Love is a fifty-fifty proposition, I guess."

Roy McMahan—"Yeah, I rather think it's a fifty-four-forty or fight."

Mrs. L. H. Howe—"Did you say you thought Laurence was absent-minded?"

Rev. Leist—"Well, not exactly. Of course, he did invite me over to your house to dinner, told you nothing about it, and when he was told that I came, he wondered why."

Women have many faults;
Men have only two—
Everything they say,
And everything they do.

Bill Blue speaks:

I call my sweetie "Basketball" because she's always on guard lest I become too forward. She returned all of the gifts I center, and when I attempted to make a pass, she called me for traveling. This gave her Dad a free throw and I took time out.

Ray Shadowens (to his room-mate after two months of school): "Why don't you send your pajamas to the laundry?"

Bob Fast: "Why? They aren't dirty; they are only wrinkled."

"It usually takes more than five dollars a week to keep the average preacher under a burden for a church."

—Prof. L. B. Smith.

Frank Albert (in Chemistry Class): "Alcohol made from mare's milk has more kick to it than any other kind."

The Gentleman from Florida speaks: "Now as for me, fellows, I don't like bold girls. I prefer to be the aggressor."

Professor James (in History Class): "At the rate of our present coal consumption the supply will last about 3,000 years."

Sam Roberts—"Yeah, Prof., at the rate it is being used at the 'Wilsonian' it will last 10,000."

Prof. Jones (in Rhetoric Class)—"If I should say that Melvin Shrout's muscles are as hard as steel, what would it be? A simile or metaphor?"

Class—"A lie."

DON'T BE A GOON

A Goon sat down to eat one day
With people in full dress.
He knew not what to do or say,
Of manners he knew less.

He sat him down upon his chair
For he was soon to eat,
And left his Gooness standing there
For someone else to seat.

He supped loud with shlupping sound
The soup on bill of fare,
And when the food was passed around
Took twice his rightful share.

He hacked the butter half in two
And smeared it on his bread,
And took his knife when he was through
And planked it on the spread.

With knife and fork he plied his trade,
His elbows spread out wide,
Others embarrassed he often made
When he punched them in the side

He left his spoon inside his cup
And what a nice surprise
When the waitress knocked the spoon
high up,
And tea flew in his eyes.

His plate then with his bread he swiped
And all the gravy spooned,
And on the cloth his fingers wiped
His teeth he loudly groomed.

When he was through, then back he reared
On the hind legs of his chair.
Whether others were through he little cared,
For he had gulped his share.

Now the lesson of this Goon let's heed.
For now there is no question
That if we eat with wolfsome speed
We'll have chronic indigestion.

As the elevator passed the 19th floor of the Merchandise Mart Building, Chicago,
"Dot" Ewald looked around for a good-looking radio star to fall upon, and exclaimed, "My stomach's turning over!"

Elevator Operator—"Tsk! Tsk! They don't have elevators in the country."

---

I think that I could never saw
An old Maid with a whopper jaw;
A jaw whose teeth is all fall out,
Who intimately lives with gout.
Poems is made by fools like us,
Which makes professors want to cuss.

I'VE GOT THAT SPRINGTIME FEELIN'

There's music in the air,
'There's singin' everywhere,
I've got that Springtime feelin'.
I'm gonna dress my best;
No need to tell the rest,
I've got that Springtime feelin'.
Old Cupid's got a shaft,
To fling thru my poor heart;
There's no use now to try to stop
That indescribable dart.
My studies have to wait,
For I am feelin' great,
I've got that Springtime feelin'.

---

My love is flew—he done me dirt;
I did not knew—he were a flirt.
To those unschooled,—I do forbid
To do so done—as I were did.

MY VACCINATION

Oh, vaccination, how you hurt!
How you do keep our nerves alert!
Each pin-prick seems a bit more keen,
    Until the blood is seen,
    Until the blood is seen.
Each scratch a cut,
Each cut a wound,
And then when we have almost swooned,
Ah! Cease the mutilating sword,
And quickly is our poise restored.
Oh, vaccination, how you burn;
Each tender touch doth cause alarm.
Each lover's joy I now must spurn
And strive to sooth my aching arm.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL

'Twas Sunday nite in Olivet,
Four stomachs loudly growled.
No food from Johnny could they get,
    "We're starving," they all howled.
One of these lads that afternoon
    Came back from Shelby County,
And brought some lard and country eggs,
    And other eats and bounty.

The saddest fact they had to face,
Was where to get some fire.
Said one bright lad with sudden grace,
    "My corn popper 'll make a fryer."

'Twas in the midst of fun that night,
A knock was heard outside.
Four guilty guys were in a plight;
They knew they had to hide.

Two 'neath the bed, midst dust and dirt,
Two hid behind some clothes.
The lights went out "a little late",
The monitor sees and knows.

I'll draw the curtain on the scene,
That took place then, "And how!"
I'll let you guess, I won't confess;
I'm laughing even now.

"HOWE CROOK (ED)!"

CROOK walked very FAST down the LONG STREET until he came to a restaurant along the WAY. He stopped to FIX his HATT-ON a little MOORE securely and sidled in the door. The GREEK proprietor, who was eating a CRACKER, had to CRAMIN his neck to see who the WALKER was.

"HOWE'S the PRICE of your MEALS?" asked the CROOK.

"Two bits and not a WHITMORE," answered the GREEK and gazed up at the RUEFF.

"Serve it up quick, then, and don't let the MOSS grow under your feet," snapped the CROOK. "Hey, the napkin's dirty!"

"TURNER over and TUCKER under your chin!" yelled the GREEK, who was watching the meat BROWNING in the oven and looking for a KEENER knife. He brushed a FLECK of dirt off the meat and set it before the CROOK.

"Any cops around?" asked the CROOK, WISE — LEE stroking his BUSHEY BEARD.

"Use a GILLETTE on that, brother," snickered the GREEK.

"Say that's a GOODWIN!" he said, and laughed until he was BLUE and GREEN in the face. "You get the GONG(WER) for that, kiddo," said the CROOK.

"That BEARD is a THORN(E) in my flesh. It's been growing NIGH on to two WEEKS and it's enough to make a WELLMAN sick. The WORST part of a CROOK'S life is the hiding. I've been in the WOODS for WEEKS and had only ROBBINS for company." Just then a BELL rang and a cop walked in. "Every SHEPPARD aims to have his CROOK," said the cop, collaring the villain.

"CABLE that to the judge!" yelled the CROOK, who jumped into the cop's little AUSTIN and ZIMMER(ED) away.

SONG OF THE SHIRT

On Tuesday, January twenty-four,
The men of Olivet
Into the laundry took their shirts,
Alas, they lie there yet.

They held a Pandemonium
To think the problem thru;
Said one, "Me lads, I have it now,
Our P. J. tops will do."

The morning after, they appeared
In shirts of many hues;
And looked as though when they got up
They'd just put on their shoes.

"Gentlemen, you've had your fun,"
Professor Smith did mention,
"But we all know that it was done,
'To catch the girls' attention."

---

Rev. Blacklock (en route to Veedersburg): "While I pray the morning prayer, Carmony, you play 'Fade, Fade, Each Earthly Joy'."

Carmony: "O. K., and if you pray very long, how about me switchin' to 'Sweet Hour of Prayer'?"

---

Harry Hatton (producing a powder puff from his dresser drawer): "Ya know, Jim, I never used this before I came to Olivet, but look at it now! It's about worn out."

---

"Sleeve buttons were originally placed on a man's coat to prevent him from using his sleeve to swipe his nose."

—Toots Craig.

SCHOOL - - DAZE

October 18—The Ohio Caravan comes with the rain, bringing good cheer and lots of grub. Chapel is full of Ohioans and students listening to Ohio talent perform. District Superintendent Chalfant does not give up his bed, so the boys carry him to the chapel on a stretcher. A harrassed student the next day writes:

A snore last night through Olivet's halls,
The soul of music bled,
And shook the pictures on chapel walls
From Chalfant's hard wood bed.
So slept the pride of Illinois,
His snores rolled o'er and o'er;
And as he dreamed of stretcher boys
His snores did loudly roar.

"Study and Devotion"

March 29, 1938

J. F. LEIST
Field Representative

At the Heart of the Nation

ON THE PICTURESQUE PRAIRIE-- BESIDE VIRGIN TIMBER AND HISTORIC STREAM-- STANDS THE COLLEGE THAT HAS BUILT ITS OWN CITY

HERE, in the quiet surroundings of a community devoted to the purest in religion and the best in education, hundreds of young persons have been trained during more than a quarter of a century. The record of those years is but prophetic of the years immediately ahead.

ONE-THIRD of the entire membership of the Church of the Nazarene is to be found on the Central Educational Zone, guaranteeing a steadily expanding program with ample resources to provide a college second to none.

OLIVET - through its College of Liberal Arts, School of Music, Bible School and High School - offers ● A warm spiritual atmosphere with unwavering devotion to the entire program of the Church ● A well trained and consecrated faculty offering a thorough-going educational program, as recognized by the leading State Universities where Olivet credits are regularly accepted ● A happy, normal social life with a complete schedule of collegiate activities ● Home-like surroundings . . . meals prepared by a trained chef.

$275

in cash pays all expenses for a full year. Three hundred dollars if paid in installments. Scholarships, self-help projects or club plan may reduce this to as little as $150.00.

LET US REMEMBER THE WORDS OF THE WISE MAN—

“Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.”
