Aurora History

The AURORA is the oldest tradition of Olivet Nazarene College. This annual student publication appeared first in 1914, put out by the high school junior class, and has appeared each year since without interruption and without change of name. The first editor was Albert Walters, the second, Esther Carson Winans, who later became a missionary, now deceased. The roster of editors and business managers of the AURORA contains many of Olivet's best known alumni, including Dr. Hugh C. Benner, president of the Nazarene Theological Seminary; Dr. S. T. Ludwig, General Secretary of the Church of the Nazarene; and Dr. Selden D. Kelley, pastor of Detroit First Church.

At first the AURORA staff was a self-perpetuating organization. The present constitution, by which the student body elects the staff through its electoral college, was adopted in the year 1920-21 and has had only minor changes since.

The AURORA is deservedly the most popular institution among Olivet students. To be elected editor or business manager represents two of the highest honors conferred by students of Olivet on their fellows.

DEDICATION

For his sympathetic and wise counsel, his magnanimous spirit and true Christian character; for his generous assistance as photographer and adviser of the 1945 Aurora Staff; and for his part in helping us FIND LIFE'S DIRECTIONS we affectionately dedicate this volume to Professor Dwight J. Strickler.

OLIVET

Finding Life's Directions

Our Olivet . . . here, in our endeavors to find our places in society, we have faced the Master with this question, "What good thing can I do . . .?" And here we have heard the challenging replies, "Preach the word" . . . "Come over into Macedonia" . . . "Go ye into all the world" . . . "Follow me."

Here we have made decisions, answered divine calls and set the course of our lives. We have found assurance in Christ, our Compass, who points with an unfailing hand the way to complete happiness and abundant living. We love our Olivet because she has helped us in FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

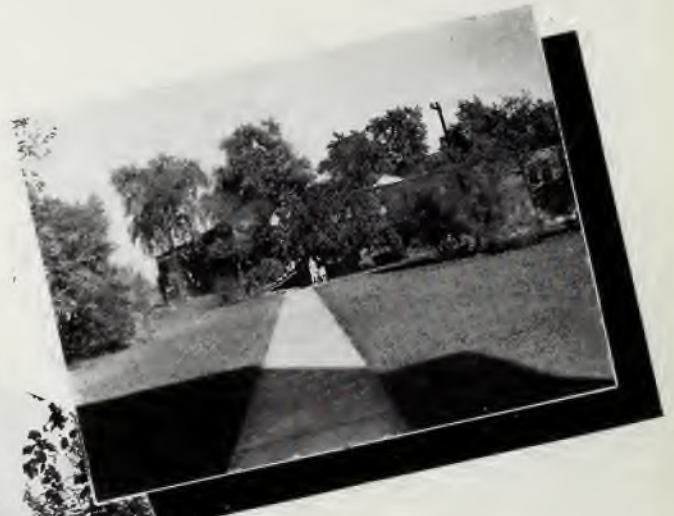

The spacious, ivy-covered stone building which spells "HOME" to over three hundred students who reside beneath its sheltering roof and within its sequestered walls . .

. . and where life is enriched by never-to-be-forgotten memories and inspired by Christian friends, friends also striving to FIND LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

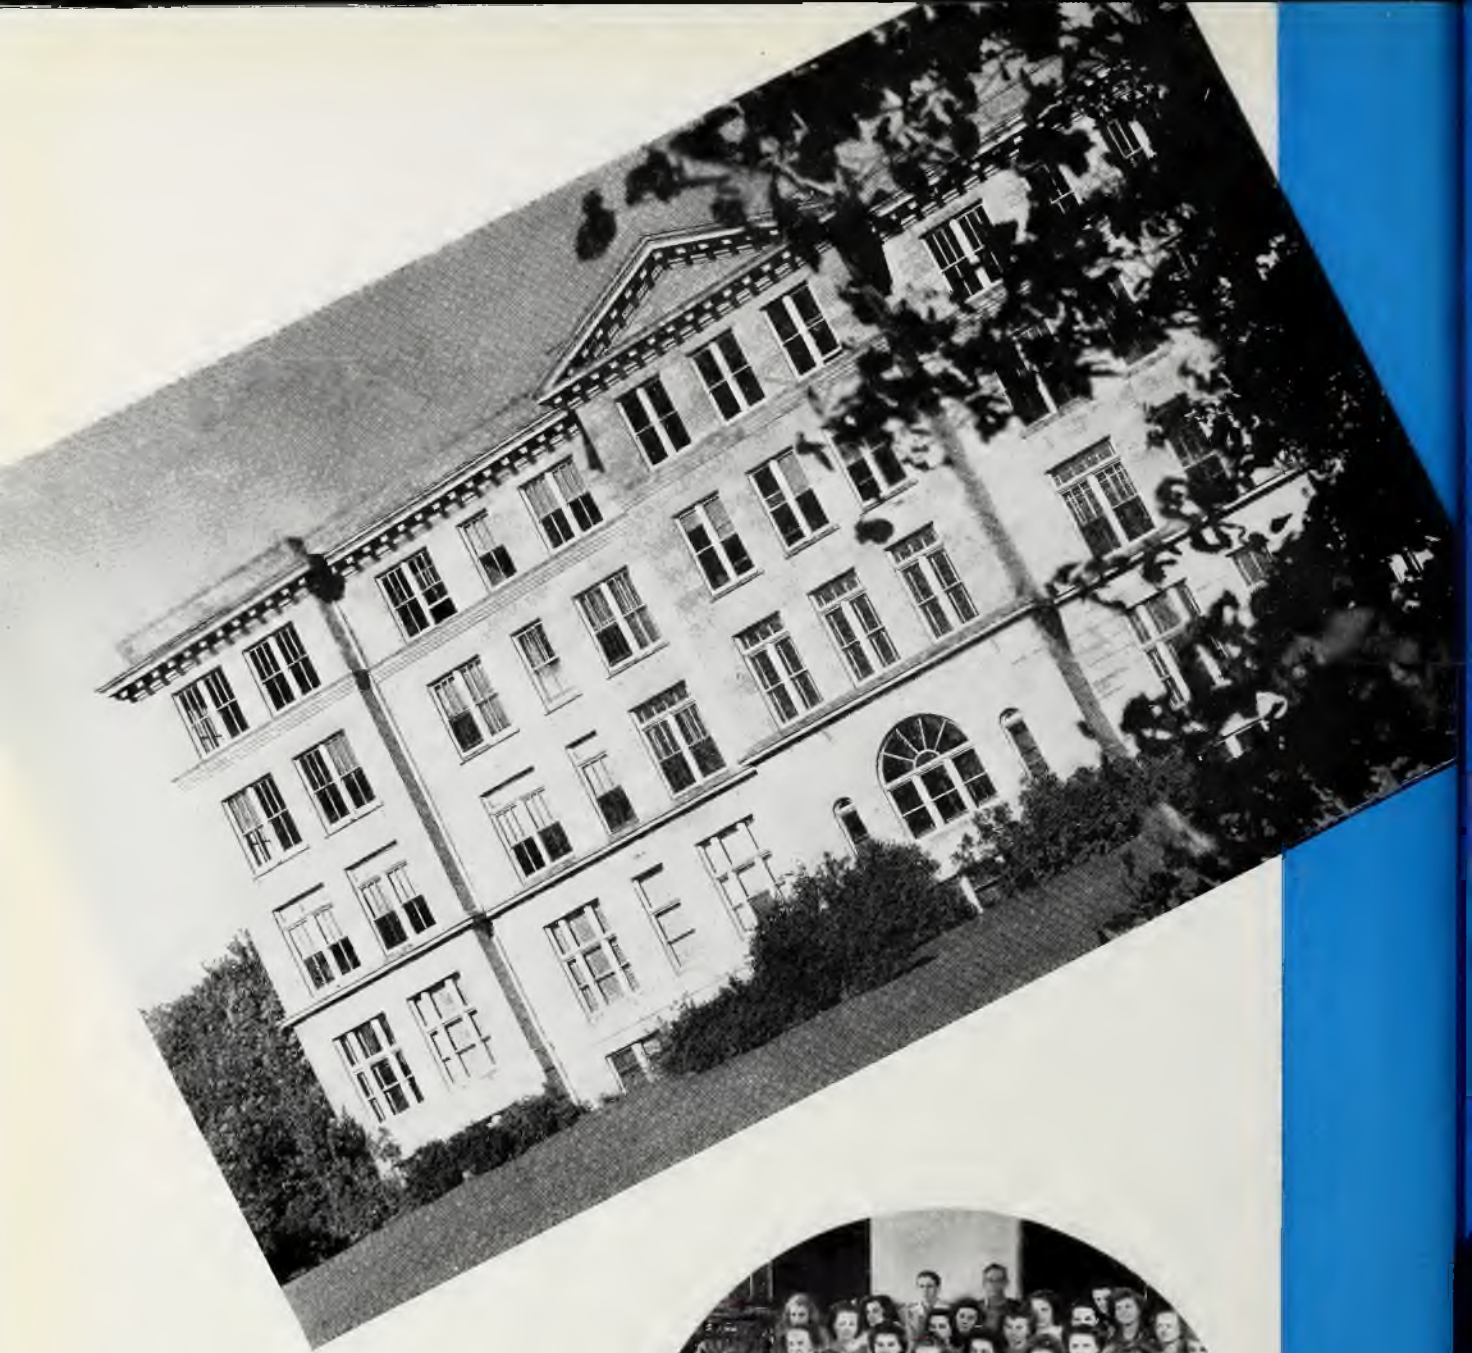

Olivet in the Springtime

Educational endeavors are pleasantly accompanied by an environment of beauty on Olivet's campus. Enhancing spots of beauty are to be found everywhere—clumps of towering trees; expanses of luxuriant lawn; spacious, imposing buildings; the Doric colonnades; the flag flying unfurled; the beds of nodding dahlias, eager ivy climbing over brick. A striking scene heretofore unnoticed will surprise when least expected, and constantly add to one's appreciation of the aesthetic.

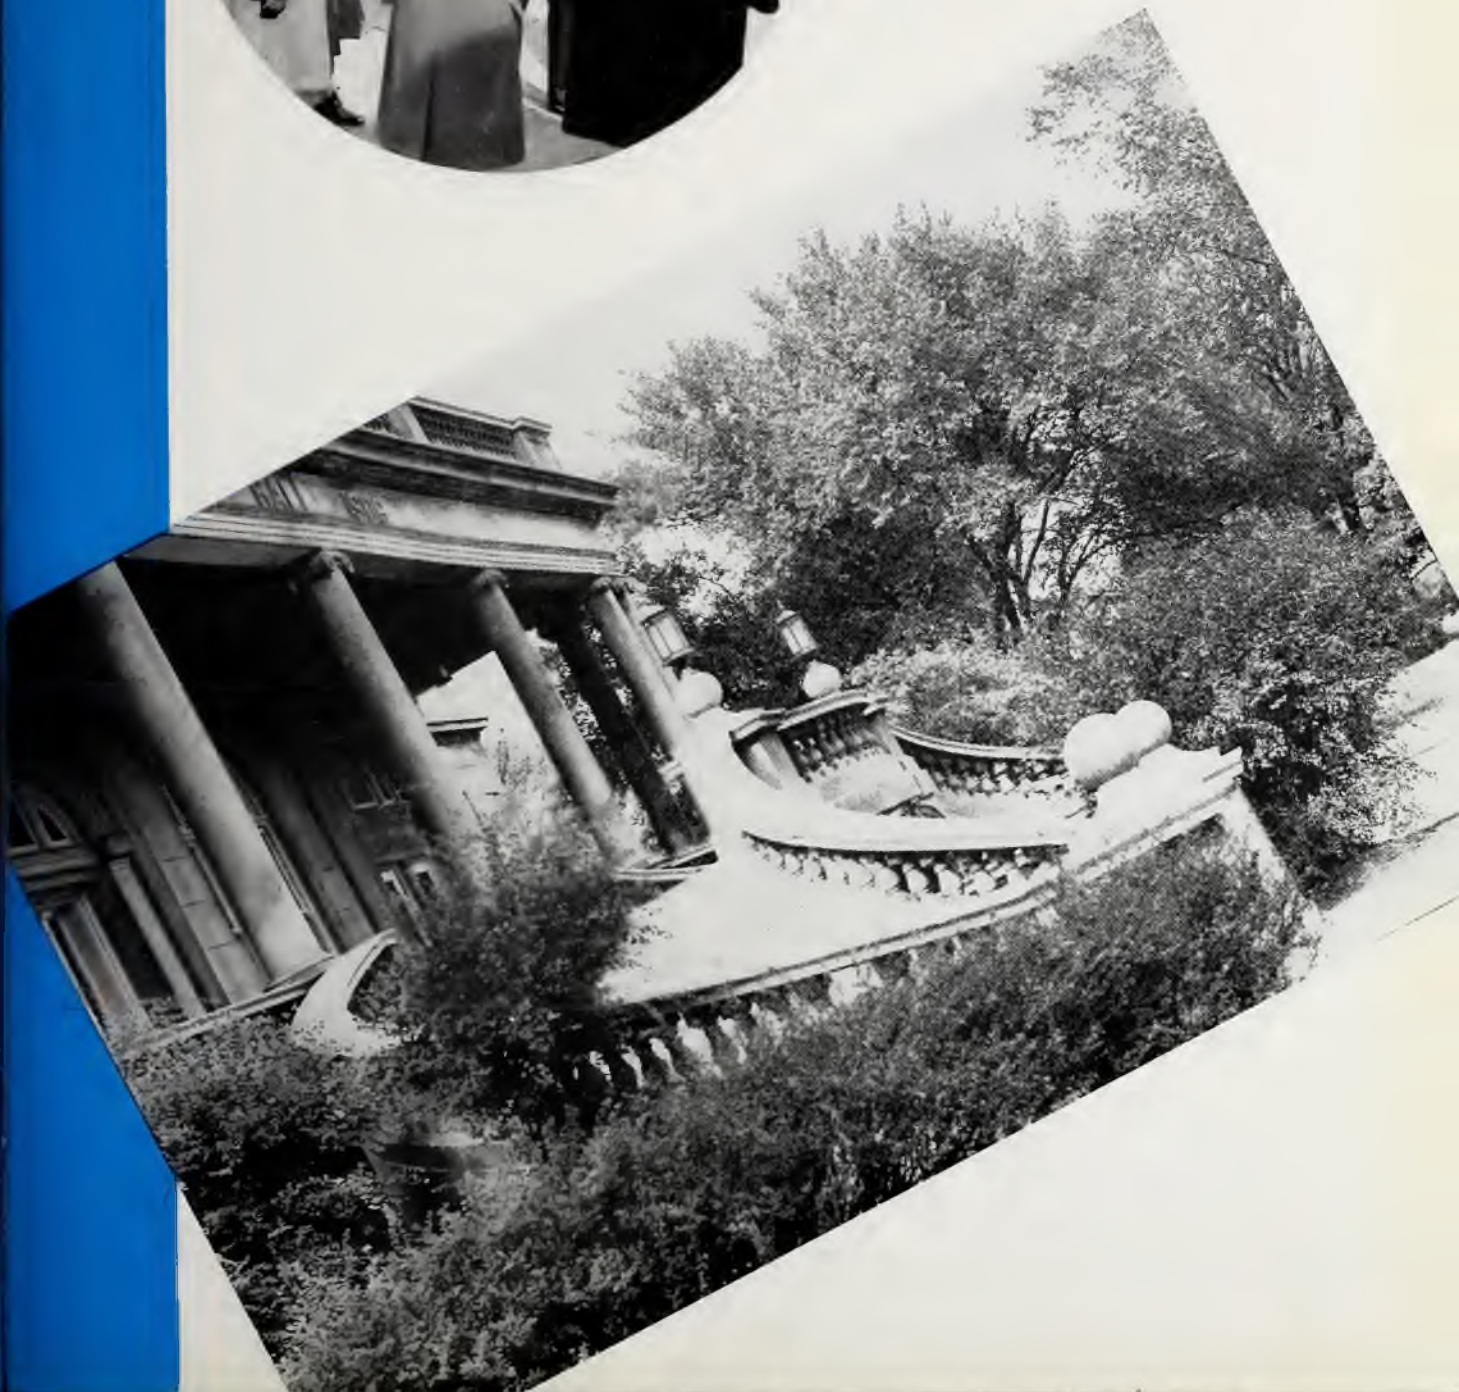

Within the halls and classrooms of the Olivet Administration Building, which rises stately and white above the surrounding community, more than eight hundred students pursue studies and activities in quest of mental and spiritual development — grateful for an "Education with a Christian Purpose."

Up these gracefully curved stone steps Christian professors daily ascend to classrooms where conscientious students wait for instruction and words of truth, for guidance and motivation toward "FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS."

Faculty
Students

Because of their scholarly achievements, their Christian characters, and their genuine interest in the individual student, the professors and administrators of Olivet Nazarene College have made a great contribution toward the students' important task of FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

They have taught us that study intensifies and enriches the life, that life is always greater than art, that the aim of education is to know the best that has been thought or said, and that Christianity consists of placing God first, others second, and self last.

Dear Friends:

In a world of utter confusion, how can youth find those things which have intrinsic and eternal value, how discover the worthy objectives of life, and live creatively?

As the 1945 AURORA goes out to its many friends, it heralds an answer to these questions. "Finding Life's Directions" is the AURORA'S message to you. It represents that one task to which Olivet Nazarene College is dedicated. In it we have concentrated those features which have been instrumental in helping the student find his directions in a world which is blinded by forces of evil, of war and destruction. Christ is the focal point, our chart, and our compass. About Him we gather life's objectives. In Him we find the real significance of life. Through Him we enter life with the assurance that we have truth and light, and that we have found "Life's Directions."

With joy and anticipation the Senior Class of 1945 don the cap and gown, but in the shadow of reminiscence we hesitate to leave our Alma Mater and the joyous years of college activities and Christian fellowship. These have been significant years . . . years when we have made decisions and answered divine calls . . . years spent in FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

Now as we are about to leave our Olivet let us go with a determination to seek only those things which have intrinsic and eternal values, to discover the worthy objectives, and to live creatively. Let us not be confused by doubts nor deceived by the ZEITGEIST of a warring world, but let us endeavor "to see life steadily and see it whole."

With characteristic initiative the Class of '47 has energetically participated in many memorable activities during 1944-45. Memories of traditional initiation ceremonies, when frightened freshmen fashioned their habits to the stipulations of unrelenting sophomores, linger even yet in the minds of upperclassmen. The Sophomore-Freshman party ended the rivalry between the two classes so that many Lasting Friendships were effected between their members.

With their heads in the clouds, their feet firmly planted on the terra firma, these "in-betweens" of the campus have become an integral part of Olivet. Inspired by past accomplishments, challenged by thoughts of greater achievements at Olivet, and still greater service in the Kingdom of Christ, the Class of '47 has finished the second chapter in FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

The incentive of the Bible School could easily be expressed by Paul's words to Timothy, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." With sincerity and a high sense of moral obligation, the members of the Bible School have endeavored to equip themselves with a more thorough knowledge and appreciation of the Bible and to learn and practice the best methods of exposition and the presentation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Their fine example of Christian character has greatly supplemented the spirit and atmosphere of the entire school.

The Academy has taken its place along with the College in many of the campus activities of 1944-45. Two Academy athletes, Dudley Powers and Charles Beatty, merited positions on the society basketball first teams and gained admittance to the "O" CLUB; John Parrott represented the Academy on the Student Council; and the Academy Choir, under the direction of Prof. O. V. Ethington, made several fine appearances before the college audiences.

In December the seniors entertained the underclassmen at a Plaid Shirt Party in the Olivet Field House and on April 8 the juniors in reciprocation were hosts to the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet, held this year at the Kankakee Country Club. Twenty-four seniors anxiously await commencement day exercises which will graduate the largest Olivet Academy class in many years.

"Witches' Wierdom"

On Tuesday night, October 31st, my friend, old man Moon, and I saw several hundred beings stalk carefully into WITCHES' WIERDOM—the meeting place of the eerie. I, too, slipped in quietly to see what would happen. Chills ran up my feathers as I passed skeleton after skeleton, Bluebeard and his wives, and one wrapped in the arms of Morpheus. Sneaking then into a large room where these beings had gathered, I saw two cats, descendants of the STARRS, magically bring forth visions of High School "Graveyard Fantasie," Senior "Tell Tale Heart," Sophomore "Scissors and Scapels," and Frosh "Nine Little Goblins." I almost discovered when I laughed at a monkey and three clowns, and I nearly swooned at the Andrew Sisters' songs. Without anyone noticing I ate some of their refreshments and slipped out. Well, I'm sleepy. Now run along. See you next year.

Among the finest cultural influences enjoyed by Olivet students during 1944-45 were the programs at the Kankakee High School under the auspices of the CIVIC MUSIC ASSOCIATION and the COMMUNITY FORUM.

Through the COMMUNITY FORUM students were privileged to hear such outstanding speakers as Sinclair Lewis, one of America's greatest novelists; Emil Ludwig, noted German author and biographer; and Stuart Chase, eminent author and commentator on economical and social problems. THE CIVIC MUSIC ASSOCIATION brought a number of excellent artists, including Leibeshutz and Neimenoff, duo-pianists; Blanche Thebom, soprano, and Louis Kaufman, violinist.

To encourage individual effort, to develop latent talents, to learn the secret of working together, and to provide a channel for the expression of student opinion; this is the manifold purpose of organizations at Olivet.

These extra-curricular activities are a vital part of college life. Their memories enrich us and God uses them to help us in our important task of "FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS."

Among American Universities and Colleges

In recognition of their merit and accomplishment these nine seniors have been chosen to appear in the 1944-45 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. Considered by many to be the outstanding honor bestowed upon college students these have excelled in the qualifications of character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities and the promise of usefulness to business and society in later life.

Student Council

DR. L. G. MITTEN
Adviser

The coordination of student activities with the school administration is effected by means of the Student Council. This popularly elected group under the direction of President Wilbur Beeson and Secretary-Treasurer Roger Ward, has served its purpose well during the school year of 1944-45.

The council-sponsored all-school Christmas banquet, with Rev. Lauriston J. Dubois, General Secretary of the N.Y.P.S., as guest speaker, was one of this year's memorable activities. Other projects sponsored by the council included student participation in the Kankakee Forum, the chapel programs, and the Saturday evening entertainments.

Alpha Tau Delta

PHI DELTA LAMBDA is the scholastic honor society in the educational system of the Church of the Nazarene. An honor point average of 2, equivalent to a grade of B by letter, in all college work, is the requirement for membership in this undergraduate organization. This recognition of the merit of high scholarship in college studies is constructive and inspires effort that is not for mere personal aggrandizement and self-gratification.

ALPHA TAU DELTA, the local chapter of PHI DELTA LAMBDA, affords a fellowship for those of like mind whose aim in education is to achieve a meritorious level of scholarship while developing the mind. Every achievement that places one within this group has immense practical value as well as lends coveted honor for intellectual distinction. Its hope is to turn its scholarly aspirations, its intellectual endeavors into coin not less base than the highest human service.

International Relations Club

CLEVE JAMES, President

The International Relations Club is a chapter of the worldwide organization sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The purpose of the club is to promote world peace through a serious study and discussion of international affairs. Organized at Olivet in 1943 under the direction of Dr. James R. Garner, the club now has a membership of forty-five. The program of 1944-45 included discussions of: "Canada's Political Relations to the United States"; "A Historical Survey of China"; and "The Philippine Question".

The annual banquet program included an address by Mr. Ernest Schwarz on the subject, "The World Situation and the American Continent." Usually each year's activity is highlighted by the Regional Conference where representatives from four states meet to discuss vital international problems but at the request of the Office of Defense Transportation the meeting this year was cancelled.

The Platonian Philosophical Society

To inspire interest and serious thought concerning the problems of philosophy and theology and to contribute to understanding in these two fields by bringing to our campus outstanding thinkers to guide us in our quest for knowledge of the "real" . . . these are the purposes of the Platonian Philosophical Society.

This cultural society originated five years ago by the stimulus of its present sponsor, Dr. S. S. White, and is an offspring from its Mother Society at Boston University.

Beginning the year with President Irving Sullivan's review of THE DOCTRINE OF THE TRINITY by Hodgson, the society presented at successive meetings, Dr. Samuel Ray Burkholder of Chicago; Dr. Albert F. Harper from Eastern Nazarene College, who presented a paper on "A Philosophy of Holiness;" Dr. James R. Garner with a paper on "The Philosophy of Peace," and the student symposium on "Philosophy in the Post-War World." Events of all years were crowned when Dr. Edgar S. Brightman, the Borden Parker Browne Professor of Philosophy at Boston University spoke at the club's annual spring banquet on the subject, "Naturalism and Personalism."

Officers for Platonian Philosophical Society during 1944-45 were Irving Sullivan, president; Clifton Summers, vice-president; Benjamin Lemaster, secretary-treasurer, and Madge Posey Killion, historian.

Commerce Club

"To make business men better Christians and Christians better business men." With this purpose in mind the COMMERCE CLUB made its debut on Olivet's campus in October. The Department of Business Administration is largely responsible for the growing interest in current business methods and practices. The COMMERCE CLUB endeavors to encourage this interest within the student body by bringing the students into closer contact with the actual business world.

In addition to the monthly meetings of the organization, its activities included a luncheon at which Mr. V. McBroom of Kankakee was the speaker, and an evening meeting with Mr. R. E. Sheppard of Chicago. Membership is not limited to those in the business department who plan business careers, but includes also ministers, missionaries, teachers and home makers.

Officials for 1944-45 were: James Weeks, president; John Hieftje, vice-president; Ruth Cailey, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. L. G. Mitten, sponsor.

The Olivet English Guild

The AURORA of 1945 presents for the first time The Olivet English Guild, organized March 8, 1944. Miss Bertha E. Supplee acting head of the department of English for 1944-45, has sponsored the organization since its inception.

The Guild seeks to aid in FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS by stimulating an appreciation for contemporary literature and encouraging creative writing among its members and with their campus compeers.

Paul Miller was the organizing president for 1943-44; Emily C. Bushey is the president for 1944-45. Lois Donson is secretary; Ruth Holman, treasurer; Elizabeth Elverd, custodian of literature.

The first annual English Guild Christmas dinner at the Kankakee Country Club was a memorable occasion when some of the Guild members read their own creative writing relating to the season "wherein our Savior's birth is celebrated." Besides meetings on the fourth Monday of each month the Guild has sponsored projects in visual education, notably, S. V. Benet's "Abraham Lincoln," Maxwell Anderson's "Journey to Jerusalem," and Thornton Wilder's "Our Town," as well as a worship service at a Pre-Easter Chapel. On March 1, Miss Supplee read Marc Connelley's "Green Pastures;" April 30 Professor Holt spoke to the Guild at the Y. M. C. A. in Kankakee.

Chi Sigma Rho

Though CHI SIGMA RHO, the speaking choir of Olivet Nazarene College, is only three years old, it contributes an entertainment and expression of art in a very old form. The Greeks used a speaking choir in their dramas to serve as interpreter between audience and actors. With its roots thus in the classical, CHI SIGMA RHO has high ideals for artistic expression. To revive this ancient art form and interpret poetry in the light of present day needs is the object of the choir.

Among the public appearances of CHI SIGMA RHO during 1944-45 were an Easter chapel program comprised of readings from the Holy Scripture; an interpretation of "Makers of the Flag", for the W.C.T.U.; and a cutting of "Behold the Jew", by Ada Jackson, for the college audience and the Immanuel Baptist Church in Kankakee.

The officers for 1944-45 were Martha Craig, president; William Bennett, vice-president; and Barbara Wind, secretary-treasurer. Miss Louise McKinley, head of the Department of Speech, is the founder and director of CHI SIGMA RHO.

DOROTHY KNIGHT DAVIDSON
 President

The Phi Tau Omega, Olivet's chapter of the Future teachers of America, has established itself as a prominent professional organization in the college extra-curricular life. Through monthly meetings unity and fellowship has been fostered among those who plan to teach, every program containing some beneficial educational feature.

The project which was entered into whole-heartedly by the members of the club was the investigation of the extra-curricular activities of the school. Each organization was evaluated as to its service to the college and as to its relation to the long-time purpose of the student's life.

The outstanding program of the year was the presentation of Mrs. Julia Bock Harwood, who spoke on the topic "People Around the World." She modeled during the program, the costumes of twenty nationalities.

"SERVING ART IN ITS HIGHEST is only the other name for serving God and serving humanity." This could easily explain the popularity of the Forensic Society among Olivet students who are FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS. These students recognize that lofty standards in speech and interpretation help to prepare them for increased usefulness to God and man.

Forensic and CHI SIGMA RHO were delightfully entertained at a joint Christmas banquet at the Kankakee Country Club when Miss Charlotte Lee from the School of Speech at Northwestern University interpreted poems by contemporary authors.

Outstanding programs for the second semester included "The White Cliffs," interpreted by Miss Louise McKinley, sponsor; "The Life and Works of Alexander Pope," an address by Mr. Frank Burns, Kankakee lawyer; and an impressive chapel program on Good Friday.

Officers for the year were Corinne Kauffman, president; John Hieftje, vice-president; Margaret Ellen Baker, secretary-treasurer; and Caryl Andrews, program chairman. Duties of the president were assumed by John Hieftje when Miss Kauffman entered Cadet Nurses' Training.

Forensic Society

The Glimmerglass

Through the capable planning of Editor Dorothy K. Davidson the makeup and format of the GLIMMERGLASS was greatly improved during 1944-45. Students eagerly received the semi-monthly issues and, with not a little excitement, scanned "Poison Ivy" for bits of "nosey" news, turned to the latest cartoon by Paul Hubartt for a good chuckle . . . or a more feminine giggle . . . or perused Professor L. A. Marquart's column for an interpretation of current events.

June Starr, who succeeded Paul Oman as Business Manager in the second semester, efficiently financed the GLIMMERGLASS and supervised the mailing of nearly three hundred copies of each issue to Olivet servicemen. Reporters, typists, proof-readers, and distributors have all cooperated to make this one of the finest years for the GLIMMERGLASS.

The 1945 Aurora Staff

The publication of the AURORA is the oldest tradition of Olivet Nazarene College. To be elected editor or business manager represents two of the highest honors conferred by Olivet students on their fellows. The 1945 AURORA staff, headed by Kenneth Sparks, has endeavored to maintain the dignity of this tradition through a lofty theme, artistically designed pages and carefully prepared copy. It is the wish of the entire AURORA staff that all who read these pages will find enjoyment as great as the staff has had in creating them.

Lots of mon', lots of fun,
You can sell them on the run!

Bigger, better, finer, new,
You can be a salesman, too!

With the singing of this little jingle by the Victory Trio, Charles Ide and the AURORA business staff launched the most successful sales campaign in all years. Eleven hundred copies of the AURORA found eager purchasers through student contacts and by mail.

We express our gratitude for the literary criticism of Miss Bertha E. Supplee, for the art work of Paul Hubartt, without which the AURORA could not have achieved its high level of artistry, and for the three hymns in this volume by Mrs. George A. Snyder.

To provide fellowship, to develop latent talents, and to enrich memories of years spent in preparation for Christian service, these students have associated themselves as THE DAUGHTERS OF MARTHA ANN WINES.

This group is another example of Olivet students who are consistently striving to reach the SUMMUM BONUM and to FIND LIFE'S DIRECTIONS. Their programs included an address by Miss Dorothy Ahlemann, now a missionary to Argentina, on the subject, "Experiences in Christian Ministry;" an inspirational Christmas story interpreted by Mrs. J. F. Leist, sponsor of the club, at the annual Christmas party; and an address by Mrs. R. L. Murphy on "Pulpit Mannerisms."

The roster of officers for THE DAUGHTERS OF MARTHA ANN WINES during 1944-45 were Mrs. Wayne Donson, president; Eleanor Reasoner, secretary; Lois Donson, treasurer; and Mary Gilbert, song leader.

MRS. MORRIS

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE A. SNYDER
Directors of Music

Though I have a scientific mind and a college degree in philosophy and linguistics, and though I am able to comprehend all mathematical formulae and interpret all the laws of the universe, and though I use the language of the scientific laboratory so as to deceive the very elect into thinking I am a scholar, and yet have not the FEAR OF THE LORD, I shall degenerate to spiritual and intellectual impoverishment.

This truth being evident to those who guide the course of Olivet Nazarene College, the church has been made the heart and focus of all activities.

Many a bark toiling in dark waters, struggling against storms which made life seem almost futile, has found a haven in this sanctuary. Here the wind and the waves were calmed, temptation was turned into victory, guilt to pardon, sorrow to comfort, darkness to light, and doubt to faith.

FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS, the soul is launched again with renewed courage and a new assurance, knowing that "no storm can swallow the ship where lies the Master of oceans and earth and skies."

Sunday Evening Choir

Goethe has poetically stated that music is the language of the soul. How much more truly can this be said of those whose hearts, as well as voices have been fully consecrated to Christ.

The Chancel Choir, composed of twelve select voices, makes an important contribution to the spirit of worship each Sunday morning, through its ministry of music. Each choir member has expressed by his attitude, a sincere desire to be used as a channel through which God can be glorified and exalted.

The characteristic enthusiasm of the Sunday Evening Choir inspires a similar response in fine congregational singing. Its loyalty and whole-hearted co-operation has been felt especially during our revival services. Without a doubt each choir seems to have caught the spirit of the Psalmist when he said, "Let everything that hath breath, praise the Lord."

The N. Y. P. S.

The N.Y.P.S., under the leadership of President Walter Eichenberger, has been of spiritual inspiration to the Olivet young people this year, providing them an opportunity for participation in religious programs and altruistic activities. The student body has been divided into four groups headed by Grayson Cosens, John Heiftje, Ernest Blanchard, and James Shaw, efficient leaders, and their respective assistants, each group presenting a program in turn.

Many impressive services have been presented during the year: the inaugural ceremony of the officers, the dedication of the church service roster, meditation services, debates, special speakers, missionary programs, skits and tributes to our service men. Following the precedent of last year, the Society sponsored a religious reading contest among the four groups, awarding worth while scholarships to the winners.

The N.Y.P.S. has shared largely in the Victory Letter Club, a new undertaking sponsored by Miss Louise McKinley, and has sent hundreds of helpful letters to our Olivet service men through this medium.

Revival Meetings

DR. J. B. CHAPMAN

MRS. CHAPMAN

Two of the highlights of the religious activity of the year 1944-45 were the two revival meetings, one each semester, sponsored by the Olivet College Church. The fall revival began October fifth, with Dr. J. B. Chapman, General Superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, and his wife, Mrs. Louise Chapman, former missionary to Africa, as evangelists. This ten-day meeting was marked by lucid personal messages which were used of God to convict many students of their need for regeneration or sanctification.

February tenth marked the beginning of the winter revival under the ministry of Dr. R. V. DeLong, Superintendent of the Northwest Indiana District of the Church of the Nazarene. The revival spirit had begun previous to the scheduled services, as evidenced in the daily student prayer meetings. Dr. DeLong's ardent messages bore fruitage in the definite help found by scores of young men and women seeking LIFE'S DIRECTIONS. On the last night of the revival Dr. DeLong opened the Prayer Chest and while petitions blazed, grateful hearts thanked God for answered prayers.

The speaker for 1944-45 was Dr. E. O. Chalfant, Superintendent of the Chicago Central District of the Church of the Nazarene. His theme for the chapel hours was "Making Your Life Count," and for the evening services "Making Your Life's Work Count."

Dr. C. A. Gibson was the speaker for an Orientation Series the first week of school. His character-building messages were both inspirational and devotional.

Other special guests in the chapel this year included Rev. Basil A. Malof, who spoke in the interest of Russian missions, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Templeton, who spoke and sang in an inspirational morning hour.

"To be like Christ, to stand in His stead and speak in His behalf, sensible of a divine commission, persuaded that we are His ambassadors, not by infallible sacerdotal selection, not by the market law of supply and demand, but by the immediate, internal, and effectual call of God; and thus persuaded, to take the truths of the Holy Scriptures and unfold, illustrate and amplify them for enlightenment and persuasion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and to have them intensified by profound personal conviction, fused in the fire of one's own soul, poured upon waiting ears and hearts from lips touched with God's altar fire, and accompanied by every possible adjunct of effective posture and gesture and voice . . . this is preaching."

Conscious of this divine commission to "preach the Word," Olivet students are eager to "be about the Father's business." This "fine art" is represented by TWELVE students who travel more than two thousand miles each week to pastor outlying churches in four districts. Student pastors face many hardships and make great sacrifices, but the commission to deliver God's message is at once the consuming incentive and the gracious reward.

Prayer Chapel

There is a place of comfort sweet,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where we our Savior meet,
Near to the heart of God.

We shall not forget the quiet hours we have spent in the Prayer Chapel, communing with God, seeking strength for the day and His will for our lives. Neither shall we ever fathom the profound influence the daily student prayer meetings have had upon us while we were FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

"Here am I, Lord, Send Me"

"We'll girdle the globe with salvation,
With holiness unto the Lord;
And light shall illumine each nation,
The light from the lamp of God's word."

Such might be the motto of The Called Missionary Band of Olivet Nazarene College, an organization composed of Olivet students who express a definite call or are considering a call to special foreign missionary service. Its purpose is to increase missionary interest on the campus and to deepen the zeal of those having a missionary call through prayer, fellowship, instruction, and inspiration derived from the meetings. About sixty-five students belonged to the Band during 1944-45. Under the leadership of Norman Bloom, president, and Rev. Walter C. Morris, faculty adviser, the Called Missionaries have experienced a fruitful year.

The Orpheus Chorus

Sidney Lanier once said, "Music is love in search of a word." But Mr. Lanier was only speaking of nature who "... from her far-off glen, flutes her soft messages to men." How much more significant it would have been if he had said, "Music is DIVINE love in search of men."

The ORPHEUS CHORUS for its fifteenth consecutive year has endeavored to interpret fine music in such a way that men will feel the attractive power of this divine love.

The outstanding performances of the ORPHEUS CHORUS during 1944-45 were the presentation of Handel's MESSIAH and Mendelssohn's ELIJAH at Kankakee and a program at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, consisting of numbers by Christiansen, Kopolyoff, and an Olivet alumnus, Bernice Albea Taylor. Appearances before the college audience included the Tip-Off, various chapel programs and the Alumni Hymn Festival.

"The Messiah"

One of the most delightful traditions of Olivet is the annual rendition of Handel's immortal MESSIAH by the Orpheus Chorus. Composed more than two centuries ago, the famous oratorio continues to be a source of religious power and Christian faith and hope. This performance by the Orpheus Chorus was an eloquent tribute to the matchless beauty and power of the MESSIAH, an encouragement to youth who are FINDING LIFE'S DIRECTIONS.

Do you think Olivet is a woman's world? Then you haven't heard the VIKINGS, directed by George Snyder, in either rehearsal or concert. This men's chorus consisting of twenty-four voices has been a challenge to the other musical organizations in spirited and enthusiastic singing.

In true womanly fashion the TREBLE CLEF CHOIR of forty voices under the leadership of Naomi Larsen has brought a new beauty and richness to the hymns they have sung in several chapel and Sunday evening appearances. This choir also joined the VIKINGS in the Winter Concert and the Spring Festival.

We have a right to be proud of our HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR of twenty-three voices. Under the direction of Oakley Ethington they worked together beautifully in the presentation of their Easter Cantata given during the Easter season.

Quiet meditation as well as joyful praise is imperative in the building of Christian character. The principal theme of this Sunday afternoon program is suggested by its name, THE QUIET SANCTUARY. It is an undertaking requiring the joint performance of three faculty members. Miss Bertha E. Supplee, narrator, and Professor Oakley V. Ethington, vocalist, offer religious and inspirational readings and hymns, complemented by the organ accompaniment of Mrs. George A. Snyder. The interpretations are performed with a masterliness that lifts the listener to regions which transcend the petty and trivial complexities of life.

Annual "O" Club Tip-Off

"LET'S TAKE 'EM"

Alumni Coach M. Taylor gives a last-minute pep talk to his team.

A PAUSE FOR PRAYER

"THE JUMP"

Highlighting all athletic events of the year was the annual "O" CLUB TIP OFF AND ALUMNI HOME-COMING. Friday, November 10, found Alumni back on the campus from most of the mid-western states. Although the basketball game was the main attraction all events of the day gave recognition to our welcomed alumni.

Preceding game time the dinner in the Olivet dining hall brought Alumni, Faculty, and "O" CLUB members together to renew old friendships and discuss old times. The talented alumnus, Mr. Ray Moore of Detroit, sang for the enjoyment of all and Dr. James R. Garner, the "O" CLUB sponsor, climaxed the banquet with his inspiring after-dinner speech.

The preliminary game found the Girls' All Star team defeating the Girls' "O" CLUB in a real thriller. Between games the band, directed by George Piersol, entertained and the Orpheus Choir sang a special arrangement of "Alma Mater, Olivet" which captivated the largest crowd ever to gather in the college gymnasium. After the introduction of the alumni players the time for the anticipated "Tipoff" had arrived.

The seasoned Alumni men grabbed an early lead and although the local boys tried hard they went down in defeat for the third successive year, 38-20. Spross led the visitors with twelve points, which were made from far out on the court. Cecil Crawford, veteran of two previous tipoff games, once again proved his value as a point-getter and captain. Coach Marvin Taylor was rightfully proud of his alumni team.

The TIPOFF originated in the fall of 1942 and has been highly successful, gaining in popularity among alumni as well as with the students. This, the third annual TIP-OFF, proved to be the most successful.

Indian "Top Five"

After a slow start in the initial game, Coach Green developed the Indian cagers into a team of which every loyal fan was proud. In contrast to the faster type of ball played by the Trojans and Spartans, the Redmen employed a slow, deliberate game which carried a sense of deadliness. Considering both floor play and scoring power, Beatty was the outstanding player. Olsen, Powers, Bloom, and Wayland also played scrappy, alert games.

CHARLES BEATTY

In the final title-deciding game, the Indians were handicapped by the absence of Green and Powers and although they put up a gallant fight they were overcome by one point in an overtime game. As a result they finished the season in second place with a record of four victories and four defeats.

WE SALUTE THE MEN OF SPARTA, THE 1945 CHAMPIONS. Winning their first three games this fast-breaking quintet were picked as the season's winners, but after losing their high scoring forward, Bob Clack, to Uncle Sam, they hit a slump, losing to both the Indians and Trojans. Coach Oman then made changes in his line-up, switched his defense tactics and brought his team back for a stunning finish.

They defeated the Indians and took the Trojans in their stride. Tall Bill Krabill, the season's leading scorer, and Jay Foster, husky center, were freshmen who proved valuable throughout the season. Veterans Ward, Kelley and Pasko rounded out a well balanced squad whose season's record shows five wins and three defeats.

The Trojans of 1944-45 did not come up to the pre-season expectations. Hard play and a spirit to win were not enough to pull the Men of Troy through. Lacking scoring power in the pinches, Coach Shaw's men ended the season with more defeats than victories. Medcalf, Fruehling and Hieftje were responsible for the fast breaking tactics while Beeson, Sullivan and Scott were pillars of defense. The championship was decided by the Trojans who won by a one-point margin over the handicapped Indians in the final game of the season.

Tennis Tournament

The fall tennis tournament attracted much attention as twenty netmen entered with hopes of becoming the Olivet champion. After much keen, competitive play, the field was narrowed down to Paul Oman and Selden D. Kelley. Oman met stiff competition right from the start, especially in the semi-finals when Holstein forced him to draw on his reserve tactics. Behind 5-1 in the first set he came back to defeat Holstein 8-6 and 7-5. Paul proved himself the real champion by defeating Kelley 6-4, 6-3, and 6-2 in the final round.

The morning of Field Day, 1944, was punctuated with instructions to judges of events, coaches' pep-talks, the cheering of campus sports fans, and all manner of track events. The day was bright and warm. Classes were cancelled; athletes were in trim; "dope" exposed on favorites; anticipation and excitement were running high.

St. John legged the mile for first place and later clipped off the 880-yard for the same. Armstrong broke the tape in the 440-yard run. Kincaid beat the cinders for the number one spot in the 220-yard and the 100-yard dashes. Esther Kendall Leach won first place in the 50-yard and 75-yard dashes for the women.

Irene Clerico, Geraldine Bridenbaugh, Beverly Huppert, and Emmabelle Botner, like many other Olivet students like to shop at the Fair. Here they are inspecting the latest in smart sportswear, one of the many second floor departments.

The Fair Store

Considered by many students as well as Kankakee citizens, to be the finest in the city, a store that specializes in fine clothes for both men and women of all ages, founded over a half century ago, the Fair Store has grown through the years due to its sound merchandising policies. Hundreds of America's famous quality brands are found exclusively at this store. Prices are reasonable . . . courteous service is a matter of habit.
