in our 1955 aurora we have recorded a diary of a year spent together at olivet nazarene college

An evening at home

For your unreserved devotion to God and His kingdom, for your faithful service to our college, and for your genuine interest in each of us, we hold you in highest esteem.

Because of your decisive leadership, your continued campus improvement program, your untiring efforts to raise the scholastic standard of the college; because you are prominent in our thoughts every day, we dedicate our 1955 Aurora diary to you, our president, Dr. Harold W. Reed.

student council

President.....Millard Reed
Secretary.....Ruth Peters
Treasurer.....Harvey Galloway
Faculty Advisor..Dr. John Cotner

Whether it be the initial task of proposing a program, the intellectual task of the coordinate planning of it, or the physical task of applying one's skills and energies, the principal motive of the Student Council is to better serve for a better Olivet.

Included in the year's activities was the complete re-decoration of the Wagon Wheel. On the social side there were the freshmen party, the fall bar-b-cue, Christian film productions, travelogues, the Tip-Off Parade, the annual Christmas party, a spring lawn party, and an outstanding lyceum series.

DEAR DIARY,

HOW CAN I GET ANYTHING DONE ON A DAY LIKE THIS — SO WARM AND BEAUTIFUL? MAKES ME LAZY. BUT THERE'S THAT JOB APPLICATION TO FILL OUT, GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS TO SEND, AND WITH SENIOR TRIP JUST BEFORE COMMENCEMENT, EXAMS ARE COMING EARLY. THINK I'LL TAKE A MONTH VACATION AFTER GRADUATION — SOUNDS GREAT, WISH I COULD. DON'T KNOW HOW I'LL EVER GET ALL MY POSSESSIONS OUT OF HERE — THE UNCONTROLLABLE ACCUMULATION OF FOUR EXCITING YEARS AT O.N.C. THINK I'LL BE GLAD TO FINALLY LEAVE ITS HALLS, AND YET . . . AND YET . . .

DEAR DIARY,

I WAITED 20 MINUTES IN A DRIZZLE AT 7:00 A. M. FOR MY CHAUFFEUR?? TO THE JUNIOR OUTING. WE HAD A GREAT TIME IN SPITE OF THE RAIN — SOMETHING DIFFERENT THO. I STILL HAVEN'T FIGURED OUT WHY ROSE STOPPED AT THAT FARMHOUSE. THE SENIORS GREETED US ENTHUSIASTICALLY — LUCKY KIDS, DIDN'T HAVE TO SIT UP ALL NITE WAITING FOR US TO SNEAK. I HAD A DATE FOR THE PARTY (FOR A CHANGE!) AND HAD A TOLERABLE TIME. WELL, I GUESS THE PLACE RAN O.K. WITHOUT US AROUND.

DEAR DIARY,

SO MANY MORE TESTS — ONE DAY GONE, ONE TO GO!
NOTHING LIKE AN EXAM TO SHOW MY IGNORANCE. I REALLY MISSED GOING TO CLASSES? GOT A LETTER FROM HOME TODAY. AUNT MARY ISN'T DOING SO WELL.
I WAS AFRAID SHE'D MEET HER END RIDING WITH UNCLE GEORGE — THE WAY HE DRIVES! PLANNED A PICNIC WITH SOME OF THE KIDS FOR SATURDAY —
HOT DOGS, COKE, AND ALL THE FIXIN'S. I WENT SHOPPING TODAY FOR SOME NEW CLOTHES — THAT
"ONCE-IN-A-COON'S AGE" EXPERIENCE — GOT A SHARP OUTFIT. DR. WOODRUFF KEEPS INSISTING I
WORK ON THAT TERM PAPER. HONESTLY, THESE PROFS
DON'T GIVE YOU A FIGHTING CHANCE!

Left to right:

Seated: R. North, treasurer; D. Anderson, vice president; G. Phillips, president.

Standing: P. McGuire, student council representative; Prof. Liddell, sponsor; D. Barker, secretary.

DEAR DIARY,

I STILL DON'T HAVE ALL THE GREEN OUT OF MY HAIR WHERE THOSE SILLY GREEN HATS FADED IN THE RAIN. OH WELL — "SILLY LITTLE FRESHMEN, GREEN AS GREEN CAN BE" AS THEY SAY. GOOD OL' MOM SHOWED TODAY WITH A BOX OF COOKIES AND A SMALL CHECK! MY PROLONGED FAST COMES TO A SCREECHING HALT. THE FELLAS STARTED GROWING GOATEES AND SOME OF THE GALS SPORTED FLASHY SKIRTS AND KNEE SOCKS. I FEEL SO FUNNY TONITE — COULDN'T BE HOMESICK 'CAUSE I'M BIG NOW. MY ROOMMATE JUST CHARGED IN SO I'LL HAVE TO STOP . . .

The Christian College

This year you have had the high privilege of being enrolled in a Christian College. The advantages which have accrued to you have been many. Among the more important advantages are those of close personal friendships in a warm atmosphere of Christian spirit and fellowship. This is true concerning both faculty members and student body. There is a sense in which Olivet is a closely knit family with little differentiation between faculty and student. The success of any one on the campus is not only the success of one individual, but it is that of the corporate group. Likewise, failure on the part of any one is reflected not only in that individual, but in the entire Olivet family as well.

This community feeling of love, fellowship, and concern plays a dynamic part in making Olivet a Christian college. For the secular college, all of life is secular, but for the Christian college, all of life is sacred. It is this distinction which makes all the difference in the world.

This does not mean that the Christian young person, or Christian college, is drab and uninteresting; it simply means that life has a central purpose, a real point of beginning, from which life can be lived to the full. That is one reason why an educator observed, while visiting Olivet recently, that our young people look so clean and so wholesome. There is a Christian buoyancy, enthusiasm, and idealism on a Christian campus which carries with it genuine contagion for Christian service in all the vocations of life.

May God grant us a truly Christian college, and truly Christian young people to meet the challenge of our day.

Little--Great

By Becky Holstein

A snowflake here within my palm,
So tiny yet so strong;
For out from it
Shall come a drop
To help some plant along!

A grain of sand upon the beach,
Of what use could it be?
Some day it may
Be molded glass
To help somebody see!

A single note within the scale
Is useless, so it seems,
But put within
Its rightful place—
A melody it gleams!

A clove of garlic in a sauce
May seem so light, so small,
And yet without it
That same sauce
Would not taste right at all!

A little word of thoughtfulness,
Of cheer, of comfort too,
Could change a life
If spoken right—
It's entirely up to you!

The life of one upon this earth
Although not bright with fame
Then, too, can count,
And blessed be,
If Christ is the true aim!

Fever's First Epidemic

By Joe Herdler

It's April, the warm days have come back again,
And a smell in the air says we're gonna have rain.
There's a brand-new green carpet up the side of the hill,
And the creek in the meadow has started to fill.

The apple-tree's branches are white with their bloom,
And a breeze full of perfume has flooded the room.
There's a boy and girl walking away down the road,
And their big picnic basket seems hardly a load.

The birds have been singing their best all day long,
'Til it seems the whole world is alive with the song.
It's still light, yet my eyes have grown heavy somehow.
There's work to be done . . . but perhaps not just now.

apollo chorus

Naomi Larsen

The Apollo Chorus, the largest musical organization on Olivet's Campus, is under the capable leadership of Naomi Larsen. The 65 member group enjoyed both social and musical activities throughout the school year. One of the outstanding events was participation with Orpheus Choir in the annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah." The Apollo Chorus proved to be a blessing in their musical contribution to the worship services in College Church of the Nazarene.

The student officers are: John Payton, president; Willis Coburn, vice-president; Gwen Johnson, secretary; Barbara Reed, treasurer; Joyce Mandly, social chairman; Gene Braun, librarian.

Dr. W. B. Larsen

Orpheus Choir, now in its 21st season, and perhaps the most outstanding organization on campus, has attained new heights in its unique "ministry in music," under the leadership of Dr. Walter B. Larsen, founder and conductor. A wider variety of musical presentations was made possible by a Chamber Orchestra within the membership of the choir.

February 18, 1955 was a red letter day in the history of the choir, as it has long been the desire of choir alumni and friends that records be made for dissemination over the entire country. This year has seen the fulfillment of this aspiration when Recorded Publications Company, affiliated with RCA Victor, cut several selections for distribution.

The choir's most outstanding activities this year included: appearance at Keswick Conference in Chicago, presentation of Handel's "Messiah" to two capacity audiences, participation with the College Symphony Orchestra in a joint concert for the Kankakee Women's Club, and its annual tour, this year throughout Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

The activities of the choir were rounded out in its annual banquet at "Wings" in Rantoul, Ill., and its participation in the Commencement activities.

Twelve students—specialists on trumpet, French horn, trombone, baritone horn, and tuba—comprise the Brass Choir, a unique organization which plays choral music without singing and which uses band instruments without using band music. Hymn tunes, choral compositions, organ chorals, and gospel songs are transcribed for brass instruments to make up the repertoire of this group. With this varied program the Brass Choir has found an enthusiastic response to its concerts in chapel, in College Church, in Youth for Christ rallies, and in churches throughout the mid-west. The sonority of the brasses coupled with re-harmonized arrangements of familiar church music gives new interest to these concerts of sacred music. Prof. Carl Bangs directs the group and makes some of their musical arrangements.

The student officers are: Bruce Phillips, president; Beverly Fullerton, secretary-treasurer; Douglas Reedy, librarian; and John Neff, chaplain.

college band

The Concert Band contributes in many ways to the musical, social, and recreational life at Olivet. Its schedule has included appearances at the Fall Talent Show, the Tip-off game, many of the Friday night basketball games, a chapel concert, assembly programs in nearby public schools, and a formal spring concert.

When occasion demands, the Concert Band appears as a marching unit. A landmark in Olivet band history was reached at Tip-off when a 58-piece marching band in uniforms led the parade. A new feature of the marching band is the six-member Girls' Drill Team, which leads the band in marching formation and performs intricate maneuvers at the basketball games. Normal Barnes is the drum major of the band and trainer of the drill team.

Under the leadership of Prof. Carl Bangs, director, the band has strengthened the quality of its repertoire, including in its concerts numbers by Mozart, Dvorak, Debussy, and Tschaikowsky.

Band officers are: Marvin Hoffert, president; Gerald Parker, vice-president; Glenna Nance, secretary; Max Durbin, treasurer; Robert Brown, properties manager; and Jean Schray, librarian.

symphony orchestra

Harlow Hopkins

Professor Harlow Hopkins assumed leadership of the Olivet Symphony Orchestra, now in its eighth season, this year. The Annual Winter Concert was presented February 11 at West Junior High School, with Winard Wilhoite and Roger Deal as soloists. In March a joint concert was given with Orpheus Choir for the Kankakee Women's Club at the Small Memorial Auditorium. A successful year was climaxed in the May Commencement Concert with student artists as soloists. Throughout the year the orchestra performed works by many composers, including: Mozart, Sibelius, Beethoven, Franck, Anderson, Vierne, and Poulenc. Periodic appearance in College Church added to the busy schedule of the orchestra.

The student officers are: Herbert Samra, president; Frank Hallum, vice-president; Pat Pinner, secretary-treasurer; Janice Powell, librarian.

our pastor

Once again it is our opportunity to extend greetings to the Editor, Business manager and Staff of the Aurora and through them, to the entire student body. Within these pages you have retained much of life here at Olivet during the past year.

It is our sincere desire that College Church has had an influential place in your student days. We are here for your sake. By means of our regular church services, auxiliary organizations, revival meetings and special services of many kinds, we have sought to interpret the way of Holiness in the best possible manner.

If each one of our students go from Olivet with a better understanding of God and His Word, a greater love for Christ and a higher loyalty to the church, we will feel amply repaid for every spiritual effort.

staff

Olivet's Glimmerglass this year has attempted to follow its stated purpose in reflecting the spiritual, academic, and social activities of the six departments. This year's newspaper has the same arrangement as that of the 1953-54 academic year with the new style paper and larger pages. However, more pages, pictures, special columns, and advertisements have appeared in all issues combined than in previous years. The business department has accomplished a splendid job in providing increased funds for making these extra items possible for a better publication.

publicity

The able editor of the college catalogue is the Dean of the College, Dr. Willis Snowbarger. The catalogue is important in that it gives new students an over-all view of the college and furnishes valuable information pertaining to offered courses and suggested curricula.

To keep the Alumni in touch with their Alma Mater, Mrs. Harriet Demaray edits the Olivet Collegian. This quarterly publication gives accurate information of current school activities and data about former Olivetians.

The complicated position of staff photographer for the college is efficiently filled by Prof. D. J. Strickler. The many pictures, negatives, and cuts which pass through his office all serve to make his job a difficult one. He serves as designer and layout man of general publicity.

It is truly said, "Nothing great was ever accomplished without hard work." These words are certainly true in regard to our athletic department. This department is making great strides under the capable supervision of Prof. E. Vail. The "Prof.," a great competitor, a capable leader, and a fine Christian gentleman, is respected and loved by students and faculty alike. He has truly been an asset to Olivet Nazarene College.

Spartans: D. Watson, J. Hanson, R. McQueen

men's o club

This was another good year for the "O" Club at Olivet.

In November they sponsored the annual Tip-Off for the twelfth year. This was undoubtedly one of the most successful yet.

It was in the Bradley High School gymnasium where the "O" Club defeated a tough Alumni team by a 77-71 score.

Another highlight of the year for the "O" Club was the March "O" Club Banquet, one of the biggest socials of the year.

Under the fine leadership of Prexy Don Watson, this select athletic group had a very successful year.

With an addition of this year's athletes, the club is being made still stronger.

First Row: B. Crabtree, F. Fortune, W. Parsons, D. Watson, B. Squires, Prof. Vail.

Second Row: J. Hanson, P. Bassett, H. Keech, C. Bailey, R. McQueen, D. Metcalf, R. Myer, T. Murray, G. Houchins.

Third Row: F. Kanipe, F. Hallum, J. Mitchell, B. Winegar, M. Demaray, D. Warner, V. Fischer, W. Kizzee.

First Row: A. Taylor, M. Hiner, S. Strickler, R. Peters.

Second Row: V. Schoenwetter, J. Schray, R. Scott, S. Spence, N. Blochberger, B. Strong, E. Vest.

women's o club

A "cracking" good fall initiation started the 1954-55 year off with a bang for the women's "O" Club.

About a dozen girls had the honor of being "broken" to this elite athletic club.

This year the club was under the fine leadership of Shirley Strickler. They started off with a 34-21 triumph over the Alumni at Tip-Off. The club was active throughout the year and then the second semester was climaxed by the annual spring "O" Club Banquet.

spartan football

Coach Ron McQueen had, potentially, one of the strongest teams in recent years at O.N.C. However, throughout the entire grid season the Green line was riddled by injuries. Not one time were they really at full strength. They possessed plenty of size, lots of speed, and plenty of "savvy", but when it was needed the most, they did not have it because of the plague of grid-iron accidents. Key men in the line were Paul Bassett, Pete Romeril and Bob Templeton. Carroll Ball, Don Carpenter, and Ron McQueen were real threats in the backfield.

indian football

These hard-charging Indians have the honor of being crowned champs of the first tackle football season in the history of Olivet. Although threatened to the final wire, the Red Men maintained the lead throughout the entire season. Under pressure they performed like true champions. This is indicated by winning several one-point decisions. Ray Reglin and Bob Squires were mainstays in the line with Fred Richardson, Don Spotloe, and Gene Phillips handling most of the backfield duties.

trojan football

Although threatening all the way to win the championship, these Trojans had to settle for a tie for second place. Coach Dave Boice had a strong starting lineup, but lacked in depth of substitutions. In the final game of the season the "men in blue" avenged an earlier loss to the Indians by sacking the champs 14 to 0. Standouts in the line were Bud Polston and Clint McLouth. Dave Tyler, Tom Murray, and John Beal were a terrific trio in the backfield.

indian softball

This tribe of Redskins had to settle for second place—finishing at an even .500. What they lacked in experience they made up in hustle and spirit. With only a couple veterans, “Coach” Crabtree had a tremendous task of rebuilding. Of those pictured below, eight are freshmen. With all their men returning, the “men in red” should prove to be a real threat next year. Strong in the hitting department were Bob Crabtree, Scott Gardner, and George Garvin. Lee Durbin handled most of the hurling assignments.

Left to right:

Sitting: B. Crabtree, R. Robinette, M. Spence, L. Durbin, C. Nash.

trojan softball

These powerful Trojans won their third consecutive softball title this year. They won their sixteenth straight game by blasting the Indians in the season finale. In six games they scored a total of sixty-two runs while holding their opponents to just five. Jim Smith, Paul Dishong, and Dick Converse each hammered the ball at a .500 clip or better.

Another significant factor in the Trojan power was their air-tight defense which pulled them through in the clutch on many occasions.

Standing: R. Converse, L. Schoenwetter, C. Hartberg, V. Fischer, J. Mitchell.

spartan softball

It was a long, hard season for the "men of Sparta." Duplicating last year's record, they failed to come through with a single victory. Although trying desperately on several occasions, they lacked the final drive. They had a fairly strong fielding team, but were lacking in the hurling department. They were paced by two lefties, John Hanson, and Burley Smith, and by slugger Frank Hallum.

Standing: E. Anderson, M. Brokaw, L. Strickland, F. Hallum, L. Morford, J. Brillhart.
Seated: J. Hanson, M. Demaray, H. Taylor, J. Hanson, B. Smith.

indian softball

These Indian gals could never be counted out. They lost two one-run decisions to the powerful Trojans. They ended the softball campaign with a three-won and three-lost record.

Barbara Strong and Norma Blochberger, the "old reliables" for the Indians, hammered the ball for .636 and .619 averages, respectively. Handling most of the hurling assignments was Ann Taylor, who finished the season with a two-won and two-lost record.

spartan softball

The Spartan girls just could not get into high gear this year as they finished the season with a record of no victories and six defeats.

Gwen Ulveling, who did the pitching, lacked the fielding support that she needed to come through with victory. Josie Jarvis and Norma Morse were the leading hitters for the "lassies from Sparta." With most of their crew back next year, they should be a real threat.

First Row: B. Vogel, M. Hickler, S. Spence, N. Hendricks, R. Scott, E. McWherter, Z. Hawkins, S. Bayes.

trojan softball

The Trojan lassies would not take a back seat to the Trojan fellows as they roared through the season without a single loss. On two occasions they eked out one-point verdicts—displaying their ability to perform under pressure. They were paced in the hitting department by Barbara Vogel, Shirley Kruger, and Rosella Scott who hit .666, .611, and .608 respectively. Nancy Hendricks hurled five games and Bev Hickler pitched the other one.

trojan basketball

A mid-season slump plus the loss of Jim Smith to Central Michigan almost cost the Trojans even a tie for the championship. However, they fought back gamely—winning their last three contests, and managed to gain a share of the crown.

The basket sniping of John Beal and Vern Fischer along with John's floor play and the rebounding of Craig Hartberg and Dave Boice explain their fine record of nine wins against three losses. This was the third straight year in which the Trojans have had to share the title with the Indians.

Kneeling: B. Crabtree, J. Romain.

First Row: D. King, W. Parsons, B. Cobert.

Second Row: R. Reglin, C. Nash, S. Meissner, G. Garvin, S. Gardner, M. Spence, D. Spotloe.

indian basketball

Though the championship was not decided until the final game, this stubborn tribe of Indians came through under pressure. On one occasion they pumped in ninety points for a new school record. The tremendous height of George Garvin and Scotty Gardner along with the hustle of Wendy Parsons and "Stu" Meissner's jump shot made a well-balanced attack. They finished with a season's record of nine victories and three defeats.

spartan basketball

Coach Ron McQueen had hardly a man over the six-foot stripe. The well-coached men of Sparta had plenty of drive and hustle, but they just couldn't cope with the height and experience of the Indians and Trojans. Two southpaws, Burley Smith and John Hanson, provided most of the scoring punch. The additions of Dave Brown at the latter part of the season strengthened the team considerably. This is explained by the fact that he poured in seventy-two points in two games.

First Row: N. Morse, E. Nichols, D. Pollard, E. Young, L. Fraley, K. Horner, R. Downs.

spartan basketball

The lassies from Sparta duplicated their men's record by winning none and losing eight. The scrappy, but inexperienced green wave couldn't quite come through when the pressure was on. With practically all their team returning next year they should be considerably tougher. Leading them on offense was set-shot artist, Betty Nauman, who averaged eight points per game. John Hanson coached the Spartan gals.

First Row: R. Peters, D. Keller, B. Hickler, B. McBride.

trojan basketball

The Trojan gals finished the season at an even .500 clip, ending up in second place. All their four victories came at the hands of the winless Spartans. They lacked the depth and experience of the champion Indians, but were real competitors to the final gun. With the freshmen talent they had this season, next year they'll be the team to watch out for. Bev Hickler lead the girls from Troy with an 18.8 per game average, and Ruth Peters followed with 7.7 points per game.

First Row: J. Schray, A. Taylor, S. Strickler, M. Cook.

indian basketball

The Indians girls made it a clean sweep as they romped through the season without a single defeat. Led by the offensive punch of Barb Strong and Shirley Strickler, the squaws were seldom challenged. Their height advantage and experience proved to be too much for their opposition.

This was the third straight season in which they have won the championship.

The defensive play of Norma Blochberger and the 24.7 and 17 point averages of Strong and Strickler made them tough in anybody's game.

Where Many Olivet Graduates Are Making Good

This 152 page book tells the thrilling story of the Church of the Nazarene as it began and grew in the Midwest. It contains 368 unforgettable pictures and many graphs and charts of historical significance. The eight chapters name hundreds of people and tell of many events. This book is beautifully bound in durable green leatherette and imprinted with gold. It is of interest to Nazarenes from coast to coast.
