PROGRAM NOTES FOR MR. GRIFFIN

Du bist wie eine Blume
(Thou'rt Like a Lovely Flower)

Robert Schumann

We have just heard the song "E'en as a Lovely Flower" which is an English setting of this famous Heine poem. The poem compares a beautiful young lady and a lovely flower. A young man prays to God that He would keep his love as pure and fair as the flower.

Wohin
(Whither)

Franz Schubert

This is the second song from the cycle "Die Schone Mullerin" by Wilhelm Muller. The song tells of a young man hiking and finding a tiny little rill. He is fascinated and follow the rill as it becomes a brook which finally passes through a grinding mill. As the man watches the brook he says sing on, sing on your merry way.

Je la vis s'arreter
(When Yesterday We Met)

Sergei Rachmaninoff

The poem by Polonsky speaks of an older gentleman who after many years meets his first love. She has been aged by time and no longer has the look of youthful beauty. There is no longer a lasting feeling and they say good-bye never to meet again.

Il mio tesero intanto

Wolfgang A. Mozart

The aria is taken from the opera "Don Giovanni." The song is sung by Ottavio who speaks of bringing justice upon Don Giovanni who killed Elvira's father.

Un'aura amorosa

Wolfgang A. Mozart

This delightful aria from the opera "Così fan tutti" tells of Ferrando's love. She is like a flower; all fragrant, sweet and alluring. The irony of the song is that Ferrando and his best friend are disguised as soldiers. Through their disguises and a small wager with a cynical old bachelor the two friends are proving their beloved's love by serenading each other's love.

PROGRAM NOTES FOR MR. FITZGERALD

Fantasia: Komm, heiliger Geist, S. 651

J. S. Bach
(1685-1750)

Komm, heiliger Geist (Come, Holy Spirit), is the first work of the Eighteen Chorale compositions. This magnificent setting of the Pentecost chorale represents the desire for the revelation of the Holy Ghost. The theme is surrounded by moving harmonies that act as building material for an F major toccata with the chorale melody added in the pedal.

Chorale: Meine Seele erhebt den Herren, S. 648

J. S. Bach
(1685-1750)

Meine Seele erhebt den Herren (My soul doth magnify the Lord) was composed in 1735 and is derived from Christmas Cantata No. 10. It is the fourth chorale from the well-known "Six Chorales" published by Johann Schubler. In this work the chorale melody is found in the soprano. The descending motive symbolizes the Virgin Mary humbly bowing in prayer to God.

Toccatto in G Minor

Dietrich Buxtehude
(1637-1707)

The culmination of the 17th century North German style of composition is seen in Buxtehude's music. The Italian influence caused his writings to be sectionalized and contrasting. This particular work excites the listener with its intensity so characteristic of the Baroque period.

Sonata II (1937)

Paul Hindemith
(1895-1963)

Hindemith's contrapuntal style has been assigned the term "neo-classic." His style abandons traditional principles of tonality and focuses on new harmonic relationships. Sonata II combines these new compositional techniques with the formal concepts of the past.

Symphony No. 1, Op. 14
Final

Louis Vierne
(1870-1937)

The symphonic style of composition assigned to the organ the concept of imitating the orchestra through color and texture. In the Final, themes are characterized by contrasting ranges and dynamic color through the use of the swell reeds.

REQUIEM

Introit et Kyrie

Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis. Te decet hymnus Deus in Sion; et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem: exaudi orationem meam; ad omnis caro veniet. Requiem aeternam na eis Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.
A hymn, O Lord, becometh thee in Sion;
and a vow shall be paid to thee in Jerusalem: hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to thee. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Offertory

Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de poenis inferni, et de profundo lacu: libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat eas tartarus, ne conversentur in obscurum; sed signifer sanctus
Michael repraesentet eas in lucem sanctam, quam olim Abrahae promisisti, et semini eius.

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the deep pit: deliver them from the mouth of the lion, that hell may not swallow them up, and they may not fall into darkness, but may the holy standard-bearer Michael introduce them to the holy light; which thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed.

Sanctus

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus
Sabaoth. Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Pie Jesu

Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem. Dona, dona, Domine, dona eis requiem; sempernam requiem, sempiternam requiem.

Blessed Jesus, Lord and God, Grant them thine eternal rest. Gentle Shepherd, lead them now, through this darkness to thy Day.
To thy Life that knows no death, to thy
Time that knows no end, to that Home that ends the way. Grant unto thy servants rest.

Agnus Dei

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem sempiternam.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant them rest. Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant them rest. Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant them rest everlastingly.

Libera me

Libera me, Domine, de morte aeterna in die
illa tremenda, quando coeli movendi sunt et terra, dum veneris judicare saeculum per ignem. Tremens factus sum ego et timeo, quando discussio venerit atque ventura ira.
Quando coeli movendi sunt et terra. Dies illa, dies irae, calamitatis et miseriae, dies magna et amara valde. Dum veneris judicare saeculum per ignem. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Deliver me, O Lord, from everlasting death in that dreadful day, when the heaven and the earth shall quake, when thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. I tremble and am sore afraid for the judgement and the wrath to come. When the heaven and the earth shall quake. O that day, that day of wrath, of woe and of tribulation! a great day and exceeding bitter, when thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

In Paradisum

In paradisum deducant angeli; in tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem. Chorus angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro quondam paupere aeternam habeas requiem.

In paradise be thou received of angel hosts, thy coming attended by all the blessed martyr throng, thy pathway guided into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the chorus of angels there receive thee; and with Lazarus, blessed of Abraham, Lazarus, once a beggar, now comforted of Abraham, be thine eternal rest.

MEET THE VIKINGS.

Fifty carefully selected college men combining the ever-popular sound of male voices with familiar music and highest standards of musicianship.

Add to this a friendly, relaxed style and a goal of honest spiritual ministry and one begins to understand why the VIKINGS are one of the most widely heard and travelled male choruses in America.

A repertoire which ranges from anthems to barbershop allows the group to be equally effective in church services, professional conventions, service clubs, television, or formal concerts. Whatever the setting may be, the "VIKES" have a unique ministry and we are pleased to have you share in this experience with us.

The Concert Band is Olivet's oldest musical organization, now in its 62nd season. Members are selected from the student body of more than 1,900 members upon audition at the beginning of the school year. This touring group of 48 members is chosen from a larger 65-member group who play on campus.

Dr. Harlow Hopkins, chairman of the Department of Music and the Division of Fine Arts, conducts the Concert Band and the College Orchestra. He holds the doctorate in music from Indiana University, Bloomington. He is in his 25th year of teaching at Olivet, and has been director of the Concert Band for twenty years.

Olivet Nazarene College is a four-year liberal arts school with more than 1,900 students, located fifty miles south of Chicago in Kankakee, Illinois. Most of its students come from four midwestern states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin to take courses for majors and minors in 43 departments of study. Dr. Leslie Parrott is president of the school which was founded in 1907.

The Orpheus Choir, now in its fourth decade of annual performances, was founded by the late Dr. Walter B. Larsen in 1932. Mrs. Naomi Larsen directed the choir after her husband's passing in 1957, and held the conductorship until 1972.

Orpheus Choir has represented Olivet Nazarene College on the Central Educational Zone and at many quadrennial General Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene. In March, 1974 the choir was selected to perform at the Music Educators National Conference in Anaheim, California. In April, 1976 they sang at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. while on their "American Heritage Tour." The choir performed at the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado in 1977 and in March, 1978 they toured to Monterrey, Mexico to participate in various church concerts.

Dr. D. George Dunbar, conductor of Orpheus Choir, is an associate professor of music at Olivet Nazarene College. He holds the Doctorate of Music degree from the University of Southern California. He also conducts the Concert Singers and teaches voice, conducting, and church music courses at Olivet.

Olivet Nazarene College is a four-year liberal arts school with more than 1,900 students, located fifty miles south of Chicago in Kankakee, Illinois. Most of its students come from four midwestern states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin to take courses for majors and minors in 43 departments of study. Dr. Leslie Parrott is president of the school which was founded in 1907.

Chorus

Comfort ye my people

Every valley shall be exalted

And the glory of the Lord

Thus saith the Lord

But who may abide the day of His coming?

And He shall purify

Behold, a virgin shall conceive

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion

For, behold, darkness

The people that walked in darkness

For unto us a child is born

*The Pastoral Symphony

The symphony is based upon a simple tune which Handel remembered hearing in his youth at Christmas time upon the streets of Rome. . . some subtle quality puts before us the peaceful hillside about Bethlehem. We know it is night, and that shepherds watch over the flocks which lie sleeping about them. The sapphire sky is thickly studded with stars which shine with dazzling brilliance.

Chorus

There were shepherds abiding in the field

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them

And the angel said unto them

And suddenly there was with the angel

Glory to God

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd

His yoke is easy and His burthen is light

Chorus

Behold the Lamb of God

He was despised

Surely He hath borne our griefs

Thy rebuke hath broken His heart

Behold, and see if there be any sorrow

Lift up your heads, O ye gates

Why do the nations so furiously rage

He that dwelleth in heaven

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron

Hallelujah!

I know that my Redeemer liveth

Since by man came death

Behold, I tell you a mystery

The trumpet shall sound

Worthy is the Lamb. Amen.

The audience is kindly requested to refrain from applauding during the performance.

An offering will be received during the Pastoral Symphony.

The 50-voice Viking Male Chorus is carefully selected by audition from the students of Olivet Nazarene College, and represent the full range of academic majors and interests. The Vikings are a favorite of audiences wherever they appear with their varied program of choral music designed to appeal to every taste. They are in regular demand for concerts, church services, service clubs, conventions and television appearances. The choir participated in the Inaugural Activities during the inauguration of President Jimmy Carter.

The conductor of the group is Curtis K. Brady, who, in addition to being an alumnus of Olivet, holds the M.S. degree from the University of Illinois, and has done doctoral study at Ohio State University and the University of Illinois where he is currently a candidate for the Ph.D degree. Mr. Brady is in his fifth year as conductor of the chorus and also serves as chairman of the Division of Continuing Education.

The Vikings' recent recording, "Sailing with Him," includes several of the musical selections which will be on the concert program.

Olivet Nazarene College is a four-year liberal arts school with more than 1,900 students, located fifty miles south of Chicago in Kankakee, Illinois. Most of its students come from the four midwestern states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin to take courses for majors and minors in 43 departments of study. Dr. Leslie Parrott is president of the school which was founded in 1907.

Orpheus Choir has represented Olivet Nazarene College on the Central Educational Zone and at many quadrennial General Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene. In March, 1974 the choir was selected to perform at the Music Educators National Conference in Anaheim, California. In April, 1976 they sang at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. while on their "American Heritage Tour." The choir performed at the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado in 1977 and in March, 1978 they toured to Monterrey, Mexico to participate in various church concerts.

Dr. D. George Dunbar, conductor of Orpheus Choir, is an associate professor of music at Olivet Nazarene College. He holds the Doctorate of Music degree from the University of Southern California. PROGRAM NOTES

FANTASIA — The breadth of the five-part polyphonic writing, the soaring melodic lines, and the richness of the harmonic sonority make this one of the grandest of all Bach's compositions for organ, lending itself most graciously to the sound and the timbre of the modern wind band.

CONCERTO FOR TRUMPET by Alexander Arutunian — An extremely challenging work written by the contemporary Russian composer. David Gauger, a senior at the Wheaton College Conservatory of Music, has studied with Mr. Katterjohn; Mr. Geyer, of the Chicago Symphony; and Mr. Cichowicz, of Northwestern University.

CONCERTO NO. 1 IN Eb FOR HORN by Richard Strauss — The classic horn concerto which sets the standard for all virtuosos of that instrument. Daniel Fackler, a junior at the Conservatory of Music, has studied with Verne Reynolds, of Eastman School of Music and Melanie Kocher, of the Chicago Lyric Opera Orchestra.

MUSIC FOR A FESTIVAL — Commissioned by the Arts Council of Great Britain for the Festival of Britain in 1951, this major work consists of eleven movements alternating between the small brass ensemble and the large concert band. The music displays the brilliance, fullness, delicacy, and choral style of the brass in contrast to the more standard texture of the movements for band. The "finale" combines the resources of both groups, bringing this work to an exciting and almost overpowering conclusion.

VARIANTS — The melody on which this set of variations is based, "In dulci jubilo," has been used by many composers including J. S. Bach and will be recognized by most as a Christmas melody, "Good Christian Men Rejoice." It appears only briefly in the opening section, but is heard throughout the variations, each one differing in content, rhythm, harmony, structure, mood, and style. Mr. Dello Joio is a contemporary American composer of great stature who has received much acclaim for his works for orchestra, band, keyboard, and voice, including an Emmy award and the Pulitzer Prize.

PRAISE TO THE LORD — Vaclav Nelhybel, one of the most prolific composers in the mid-twentieth century of music for the concert band, combines all the elements of instrumental color, extensive percussion scoring, antiphonal trumpets, driving rhythms and overpowering dynamics in a majestic treatment of these grand hymns so widely used in the Christian churches down through the ages, forming a dramatic presentation of praise to the Lord, to Whom this concert is dedicated.

1979 TOUR HYMN

Fairest Lord Jesus!
Ruler of all nature,
O Thou of God and man the Son!
Thee will I cherish,
Thee will I honor,
Thou, my soul's glory, joy and crown!

Beautiful Saviour!
Lord of the nations!
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor,
Praise, adoration,
Now and forevermore be Thine!

A Christian liberal arts college with a Biblically-oriented program . . .

Wheaton College is a coeducational college of liberal arts and sciences which combines high scholastic standards with evangelical Christian faith and practice. It is located in a residential suburb, 25 miles west of Chicago. It is an independent, non-denominational school owned and operated by a self-perpetuating board of trustees of Christian business and professional persons, educators, and ministers.

The college grants the bachelor degree in the arts and sciences in the divisions of Biblical studies, humanities, science, and social science. The Conservatory of Music offers professional degrees in music, and the Graduate School offers the master of arts degree. Wheaton is accredited by the North Central Association.

Enrollment is currently about 1950 undergraduate and 250 graduate students who annually represent nearly all 50 states, some 50 countries, and approximately 30 church denominations.

Young people who desire a Wheaton education are encouraged to apply for admission. Through careful selection, as many students as present facilities will adequately accommodate are welcomed into the student body.

Wheaton College aims to offer each student a liberal education by introducing him to the organized fields of human learning and by presenting the Christian theistic view of the world, of man, and of man's culture in the light of Biblical and natural revelation. This dedication to high standards leads many of its friends to participate in Wheaton's program of Christian higher education through regular financial support, annuities, wills, life income agreements, trusts, and other forms of planned stewardship for mutual benefit. For information about various ways in which you can support Wheaton's program of higher education, address the Vice President for Development.

He has been conductor of the Symphony Orchestra, and presently is instructor in trumpet, orchestration, and conducting and chairman of the orchestral instruments area in the Conservatory of Music. PROGRAM NOTES AND SONG TRANSLATIONS for
TERRI HASSELBRING

Si Mes Vers Avaient Des Ailes!
(Could My Songs Their Way be Winging!)

Reynaldo Helm

This poem, written by Victor Hugo, speaks of the magical way songs convey messages of love.

Mon coeur s'ouvre à ta voix (Samson et Dalila)
(My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice) (Samson and Delilah)

Camille Saint-Saëns

Delilah sings this love song to try to persuade Samson to tell her the secret of his strength. The bewitching aria contains all the womanly charms Delilah can succumb, however her efforts soon are proven futile.

Das Veilchen
(The Violet)

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

A violet in a meadow green its modest beauty half unseen
It was the sweetest violet!
A dainty maiden tripped that way her step was light,
Her laughter gay as on she danced and sang so merrily.
"Ah" said the violet, "Were I now of all the flowers the one so fair,
That she might stoop to pluck me;
Were I by her soft lips caressed and to her bosom gently pressed,
'Twould be for me a blissful, heav'nly hour."
Ah! But alas! The maiden gay stepped all unheeding on her way,
And crushed the hapless violet.
It sank its head with gentle sigh: "If die I must,
For her I die, for her, for her, as at her feet I lie."
Poor faded violet! It was the sweetest violet!

Waldseligkeit
(Alone in the Forest)

Richard Strauss

A sound is in the forest,
While nearer draws the night,
As though the branches whispered
A greeting soft and light.
Within the shadow lying,
My every thought is free,
And every thought is flying
Homeward, love, to thee!

Voi, che sapete (Le Nozze di Figaro)
(You Know the Answer) (The Marriage of Figaro)

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Cherubino, page to the Count, sings this song while masquerading as a woman in order to gain entrance to the wedding. The lyrics express his desire to know the joys and sorrows of love.

Una voce poco fa (Il Barbiere di Siviglia)

Gioacchino Rossini

In the beginning of the aria, Rosina is writing a letter to the Count, whom she believes to be Lindoro. In the second part, Rosina professes to be all gentleness, all devotion, humble and obedient until her will is crossed, when she will "turn like a viper."

THE SPIRIT ALSO HELPETH US (Motet II) Johann Sebastian Bach

The Spirit also helpeth us for we know not what we ought pray for and pray for rightly; but lo, the Spirit prays for us and pleadeth with mystic groaning and sighing.
 But he who doth search the hearts well doth know what the Spirit's mind is, for he doth plead for saints in Christ as God, our Father, wills it. —Romans 8:26,27

O Thou holy Fire, Paraclete, fill us with joy and comfort sweet, Grant Thou that we may serve Thee solely, In hours of grief trust Thee wholly.
 O Lord, impart to us Thy strength that we subdue our flesh at length.
 Rout foes so vile, so infernal, And pass through death to life eternal.
 Alleluia!

PSALMS FOR MIXED VOICES. Edvard Grieg

- How fair is Thy face, yea, fair, Thou Son of God, Thou Prince of Grace!
 O Thou my Shulamite sweet and kind, yea, kind, All that I have is also Thine.
 My Friend, Thou art mine, yea, mine; forevermore let me be Thine. Thou canst me save, yea, save both here on earth and beyond the grave.
 Remember my plight, yea, plight; around me hostile swords flash bright.
 Fly hither, Dove of Grace, apace! Among the hills are peace and space.
- God's Son hath set me free from Satan's tyranny, From base desire enslavement dire, from fear of death and hell's hot fire. Lord Christ did intercede with God for me did plead; He underwent my punishment, to torture, death was sent.
 I cannot fathom love so great however much I contemplate: That He could be so merciful to me, a sinner frail, whom naught could suit but tasting the forbidden fruit; By day, by night old Satan's might my soul had captured quite.
 But now I'm in God's care in spite of Satan's snare; No longer sad, I wander glad in Liberation purple-clad. How deeply I rejoice to follow Jesus' voice: He bids me cleave to him and leave all sin—forget to grieve. Let Satan not expect to find me e'er again so weak, so blind. Nay, nay! I'll stray no more from off the way. For my salvation Christ did pay, I shall not gamble it away. I do despise the tempter's lies; to heaven lift my eyes.
 My heart laughs blithe and bold when I my grave behold; Nor flowery bed nor princely stead can show a couch so free from dread. To where God's Castle stands in deathless Life's fair lands, Death pilots me across the sea towards Eternity. Though stormy winds about me still are blowing contrary and chill, my soul is whole and craves the perfect goal. My spirit leaps like deer or hind to think of leaving sin behind; Oh, blessed sign! Christ's Cross doth shine, makes bliss eternal mine.
- Jesus Christ our Lord is risen Heavenward from out death's prison.
 With angel legions He captured hell's dread regions. Kyrie eleison!
 Saviour, Jesus, we thank thee, Lord, for thy great blessings us toward;
 Through thy ascending our fears of death found ending. Kyrie eleison!
 Thy ascension in joyous lays, with heart and mouth and tongue we praise,
 And join the chorus of angels singing o'er us. Kyrie eleison!
- In heav'n above where God almighty dwells;
 What bliss to reach that realm of love; my heart with longing swells.
 For there in all eternity In dazzling radiance we shall see
 The Lord of Sabaoth.
 From darkest night, our bodies 'neath the mould
 Shall then become all shining bright—as bright as purest gold.
 Our wounds assuaged by heavenly grace, we'll see our Maker face to face,
 The Lord of Sabaoth.
 Each soul shall find its comfort there as promised long ago;
 The wreath of righteousness shall wear—a robe as white as snow.
 Oh God! What rapture will be mine to see thee in thy radiance shine,
 O Lord of Sabaoth.

—Translation by Percy Grainger from Norwegian poems
 of Brorson, Hans Tomisson and Laurentius Laurentii, all of the 16th and early 17th centuries.

FESTIVAL TE DEUM Benjamin Britten

We praise thee, O God, we acknowledge thee to be the Lord;
All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
To thee all angels cry aloud, the Heav'ns and all the powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
 "Holy, holy, holy! Lord God of Sabaoth!
 Heav'n and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory!"

The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee.
The Father of an infinite majesty, thine honorable, true, and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
Thou art King of Glory, O Christ!
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
Thou didst not abhor the virgin's womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heav'n to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify thee and we worship thy Name, ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us as our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

SANCTUS (from the 5th Mass) Antonio Lotti

Holy Lord God of Sabaoth, Heaven and earth are filled with Thy glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the Highest.

GO TO DARK GETHSEMANE Bob Burroughs

. . . ye that feel the tempter's power; Your redeemer's conflict see; watch with Him one bitter hour. Turn not from His grief away, Learn with Jesus Christ to pray.
Follow to the judgment hall; View the Lord of Life arraigned: Oh, the wormwood and the gall! Oh, the pangs of soul sustained! Shun not suffering, shame, nor loss! Learn with Him to bear the Cross.
Early hasten to the tomb where they laid His breathless clay; All is solitude and gloom; Who hath taken Him away? Christ is risen! He meets our eyes!
Saviour, teach us so to rise. —James Montgomery

AND GOD LOOKED DOWN AT GOD THAT DAY. John Stanley

And God looked down at God that day. And God looked up and tried to pray.
He prayed to nothing He could see, "Father, look down at me."
It was the strangest of His days. He could not see the Father's gaze.
He could not hear the Father speak He felt His own lips growing weak.
He saw the brightness drain from the sky. He saw the moon darken and die.
He drank the darkness and He said, "Into The hands," and He was dead. —Chad Walsh

THE ALMA MATER

In New England stands a college
Near blue Quincy Bay,
E.N.C. our Alma Mater
Glorious for aye.
Laud her merits, sing her praises,
Let our song ring free.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail, O E.N.C.

Graceful branches lifted heavenward
Suncrowned 'fore our view,
Stand the elms upon our campus,
Reaching to the blue.
Shady walks beneath the foliage,
Flow'ring beauty rare;
Blessed by nature, how we love thee,
Alma Mater fair.

Clear her vision, high her purpose,
Lo, she stands serene;
And her faith is sure, undaunted,
Eastern Nazarene.
We will prove our strong devotion,
Loyal we will be,
True to God and Alma Mater
True to E.N.C.

EASTERN NAZARENE COLLEGE, located in the intellectual community of the Boston area including Harvard-Radcliffe, MIT, Boston University, Boston College, Northeastern University, and Tufts, is part of the educational system of the Church of the Nazarene. Combining the best in educational opportunities and scholarship with the challenge of commitment to the Spirit-filled life and service to Christ's Kingdom and the world, ENC offers each student a sense of community and belonging as well as the incentive to share the experience of God's love with the whole ENC family. Named by CBS Channel 7 in Boston as "one of the most prestigious colleges in the area," ENC offers a full gamut of undergraduate majors and a Masters program in Religion. Inquiries should be addressed to Rev. Gary Jones, Director of Admissions, Eastern Nazarene College, Wollaston Park, Massachusetts 02170.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT of Eastern Nazarene College offers a Music Education degree although the Bachelor of Science in Music may be earned without the Education courses. There is a strong emphasis on performance in the required principal instrument which may be any one of the orchestral instruments, voice, piano, organ, guitar. Choral conducting, church music, and church ministries (a cross-discipline major in church music and Christian education) will also be available degree options, beginning September, 1979. Private lessons are available from resident and part-time teachers of high standing in the Boston musical community. Most part-time teachers come to the campus for lessons. The faculty includes Robert Howard, chairman; Robert Brown, Olive B. Marple, Lambert Brandes, Michael Bankston, Greg Larkin, and Charles Seifort (beginning September, 1979).

Fires that Adam and Cain first lighted dully consume the shattered denials. Here the rejected things of the earth come to the last of public trials. Nailed to the sky in low relief. Thief and a God;
God and his thief.
Hammer in hand, nails in my pocket, here at the foot of the cross
I stand. Blood on the hammer. Blood on my fingers.
Jesus, more blood to dry my hand.

Annual Sermon
Olivet Nazarene College

The Treble Clef Choir has inspired the hearts of people with its singing about the Christian faith. The program includes anthems, hymn and gospel arrangements, spirituals, and folk music. The 41 young women represent a full range of academic majors and interest at the College. A ten-member Handbell Choir will also present selections.

Besides singing in several of the United States, the Choir has made three trips to Europe and the British Isles to sing in the European Nazarene churches.

The conductor of the group is Joe M. Noble, who holds a bachelor's degree from Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, and holds a master's degree from the University of Iowa. He has completed all work and prelims for a doctoral degree from the University of Iowa. Mr. Noble conducts the Choral Union and teaches voice and music education courses at Olivet. He has taught at high school and college level and is a guest conductor for high school festivals throughout the Midwest.

Olivet Nazarene College is a four-year liberal arts school with more than 1,900 students, located fifty miles south of Chicago in Kankakee, Illinois. Most of its students come from the four midwestern states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin to take courses for majors and minors in 43 departments of study. Dr. Leslie Parrott is president of the school which was founded in 1907.

An die ferne geliebte, Op. 98
(To the Distant Beloved)

Ludwig van Beethoven

From the mountain wing my gazes
Toward a far off, azure bound,
Seeking thro' o'er spreading hazes
Where I thee, beloved, found.

Far from thee my way is turning,
Hill and valley lie between,
Parting us and our fond yearning,
All our joy and all our pain.

Ah, my gazes aimless wander,
That for thee so inly growing,
And my sighing I but squander
On the void that parts us now.

Is there naught that still can find thee,
Bear my heart afar to thine?
Then in song I remind thee
How in loneliness I pine.

For a song of love disdaineth
Weary miles and weary hours,
And a loving heart attaineth
What a loving heart empowers.

Wo die Berge so blau (Where the Mountains Arise)

Where the mountains arise
Under lowering skies,
Peering thro' air,
Where the sunset is red,
Where the clouds overspread,
Would I were there!

In that slumberous vale,
Pain or woe ne'er may dwell.
On rocky stair
Where the prim roses sleep,
Woofing winds lightly sweep;
Would I were there!

To the shadowy grove
Drive me longing and love,
Lonely depair,
Ah, I ne'er would away,
If with thee I might stay,
Stay with thee e'er!

Er, der Herrlichste von allen (He, the Most Glorious of All)

He, the most glorious of all,
How kind he is, how good!
Gentle mouth, clear eyes,
Clear mind and firm courage,
Even as in yonder blue depth,
Shines bright and glorious that star,
So is he in my heaven,
Bright and glorious, sublime and far.
Wander, wander along your course,
Only to look at your light,
Only to look at it humbly,
Only to be blissful and sad!
Do not hear my silent prayer,
Offered for your happiness;
You must not know me, humble maiden,
Noble star of glory!
Only the worthiest of all
May your choice make happy,
And I will bless the noble one,
Many thousand times.
I shall rejoice and I shall weep then,
Blissful, blissful I am then,
Even though my heart should break,
Break, o heart, what does it matter?

Du Ring an meinem Finger (Your Ring on My Finger)

Your ring on my finger,
My little golden ring,
I press you devoutly to my lips,
Devoutly to my heart.
My dream had come to an end,
Childhood's peaceful, lovely dream,
I found myself lonely and lost
In empty, infinite space.
Your ring on my finger
You taught me only then,
You opened to my eyes,
Life's infinite, deep value.
I want to serve him, live for him,
Wholly belong to him,
Give myself and find myself
Transfigured in his splendour.

An meinem Herzen (On My Heart)

On my heart, on my breast,
You my delight, you my joy!
Happiness is love and love is happiness,
I have said it and won't take it back.
I deemed myself so fortunate,
But I am more than happy now.
Only she who suckles, only she who loves
The child to whom she gives nourishment;

An meinem Herzen (Cont'd)

Only a mother can know,
What it means to love and to be happy,
Oh how sorry I am for the man,
Who cannot feel a mother's bliss
You dear, dear angel you,
You look at me and you smile at me!

Zigeunerlieder, Op. 55
(Gypsy Songs)

Antonin Dvorak

Mein Lied ertönt
(My Song Rings Out)

My song of love rings out at dusk,
When sunlit hours are sinking,
And thirsting moss and grasses parched
Deep of the dew-pearls drinking.

My song rings out when roam we must,
And through the world we wander:
But when we near my native plains
My song grows louder, fonder.

My song rings out, and still of love,
When loud the wind increases;
And when death's hand a brother's soul
With his last breath releases!

Ei! wie mein Triangle (Ei! Triangle Be Chiming)

Ei! Triangle be chiming, set the echoes flying!
Chiming for the living, tolling for the dying!

Chime for dance and singing, toll for gypsy keening,
Life and death have meaning deeper for thy ringing.

Leave all useless crying, set the echoes flying,
Set the echoes flying!

Rings ist der Wald so stumm und still (Here in the Wood Where All Is Still)

Here in the wood where all is still,
My fearful heart is sighing,
My fearful heart is sighing:
The wind that bears our smoke away
My mounting tears would soon be drying.

Blow somewhere else o kindly wind,
To others comfort bringing,
To others comfort bringing:
He who in sorrow still can sing
Will, tearless, meet the morrow, singing.

Leichte Segler in den Höhen (Cloudlet, Sailing on Above Me)

Cloudlet, sailing on above me,
And thou tiny rill below,
Should ye meet her who doth love me,
Bear my greeting as ye go!

Ye, oh cloudlets, if she wander
Musing in the lonesome dale,
Let my image greet her yonder
From your airy, sky born veil.

Should she linger near the bushes
Bared by autumn winds forlorn,
Tell her how my sorrow crushes,
Tell her, birdlings, how I mourn.

Western breezes, onward hiling,
To my lov'd one waft ye low,
As it falters, all my sighing,
Like the sun's departing glow.

Whisper all my love and yearning,
Tell her, tiny rill below,
She may view, in thee returning,
How my tears do ever flow!

Diese Wolken in den Höhen (Clouds Beyond the Mountains Faring)

Clouds beyond the mountains faring,
Birds that pass in merry flight,
To my love are they repairing:
Take me, too on pinions light!

And the wanton western breezes
Shall caress thy cheek and breast,
Fondly toying with thy tresses:
Fain I'd share their joyous quest!

Toward my love yon brooklet floweth
Ever down the mountain way;
When her face they mirror showeth,
Then flow back without delay!

Es kehret der Maien (Fair May-Time Is Coming)

Fair May-time is coming, the meadows are gay
Where wandering breezes are wooing today,
And murmurous brooklets are welling;
The swallow returns to her home in the eaves,
The ~~bow~~ of her bridal now busily weaves;
For love she would build her a dwelling.

Es kehret der Maien (Cont'd)

Unweariedly flitting now here and now there,
Soft lining she still to the bride bed doth bear,
Warm fleece for the wee ones awaited;
Now live they so faithful together, the twain,
What winter had parted, now May joins again,
For lovers then lightly are mated.

Fair May-time is coming, the meadows are gay,
Where wandering breezes are wooing today;
I only must bide in my station;
Tho' elsewhere all lovers in Springtide delight,
Our hearts ever lonely no Spring may unite,
And tears are their sole consolation.

Nimm sie hin denn, dieser Lieder (Take My Songs of Love, the Flower)

Take my songs, of love the flower,
That for thee, mine own, I sing;
Sing them o'er in evening hours,
While the tender lute doth ring.

When the twilight glow is waning
On the calm blue lake so bright,
And its parting ray is shining
Over yonder mountain height.

And thou sing'st what love inspireth
In my overflowing breast,
Naught sublime therein desireth,
Naught safe yearning there confessed.

Surely then my song regaineth
All we lost in lonely hours,
And a loving heart attaineth
What a loving heart empowers!

Then, surely then my song regaineth
All we lost in lonely hours,
And a loving heart attaineth
What a loving heart empowers!

Frauenliebe und Leben, Op. 42
(A Woman's Love and Life)

Robert Schumann

Seit ich ihn gesehen (Since I Have Seen Him)

Since I have seen him, I believe I am blind;
Whither I am looking, I see him alone;
Like in a waking dream, his image floats before me,
Rising from deepest darkness, brighter and brighter.
Everything else around me is light and colorless,
The games of my sisters I want to share no more,
I would rather weep silently in my little chamber;
Since I have seen him, I believe I am blind.

Als die alte Mutter (Songs as My Mother Sang Them)

Songs as my mother sang them
Seemed so sweet, so thrilling,
Strange that, as I learned them,
Tears her eyes were filling.

Cheeks grown worn and withered
Now my tears are burning,
While my children round me
Gladly all those same old songs are learning!

Reingestimmt die Saiten (Set the Fiddles Scrapping)

Set the fiddles scrapping,
Get the lads a-leaping!
Happy today,
Happy today, and the morning?
So be it!
Care will do with keeping,
Care will do with keeping!

Now come back for dancing
From the great here-after,
Strike up then!
Strike up then, lads jump and spin!
Come and show your paces!
Come and show your paces!

Set the fiddles scrapping!
Come and show your paces!
