FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIVE EIU FACULTY, STAFF AWARDED SPECIAL INTERNSHIPS

CHARLESTON, IL.--Five Eastern Illinois University faculty and staff members have been awarded released time to complete internships during the 1987-88 academic year.

The interns were chosen for the third phase of the three-phase Program for Professional Enrichment from a group of 14 who had completed the first two phases. Phase one consisted of a variety of career planning workshops, while phase two was a seminar series in higher education administration.

Serving internships to the Board of Governors System in Springfield this fall are Patty Butler of Booth Library and Suzanne Chouinard-Stiff from the office of the EIU Vice-President for Administration and Finance.
