FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLISTIC HEALTH CARE TOPIC OF USD WORKSHOP, MAY 10

The holistic view of humanity's interaction with the environment will be the subject of an all-day workshop in the University of San Diego's School of Nursing Auditorium on Saturday, May 10, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

"The Science of Man: A Theoretical Approach to Holistic Health Care" will be led by Dr. Martha E. Rogers, head of the Division of Nurse Education at New York University, and a leading nursing theorist.

The workshop is designed for nurses and other health care professionals, and carries 6 Contact Hours Credit. Participants will gain an increased awareness and knowledge of Rogerian theory of nursing, and understand the implications and potential for nursing practice and health care research.

The workshop is sponsored by the USD Nurses' Honor Society. Cost is $35 (lunch included); $25 to Nurses' Honor Society members and students.

For registration information, call the USD Office of Continuing Education at 293-4585.
