

Peaceful co-existence in religious diversity in Sabah , Malaysia

Abstract

This article discusses three approaches and the stands of the people with different religions in Sabah on a few issues related to interreligious relations, namely on its exclusivity, inclusivity and plurality. Based on the approach, it is found that harmony in socialization, integration and cooperation among religions is shown significantly in the daily interaction among the Muslims and non-Muslims which has brought towards peaceful co-existence among the different religions in Sabah.