Course Goal and Description:

This course provides additional reading and discussion opportunities in the area of ministry practice and application. It is taught concurrently with MM602 as a means to add insight into faith formation and leadership development issues that will enhance effectiveness in vocational ministry.

Texts:

Good News about Injustice (Gary A Haugen. Downers Grove: Intervarsity Press, 1999.)

When God Weeps (Joni Eareckson Tada and Steven Estes. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1997.)

The Critical Journey (Janet O. Hagberg and Robert A. Guelich. Salem: Sheffield Publishing Company., 1995

Course Requirements:

- Class will meet three times during the semester for one hour, and attendance is mandatory.
- Each student will read three books and write a five page report for each.
- Each student is expected to participate in discussions.

Book Report Guidelines:

- Please include name and campus box on each paper cover sheet.
- Papers must be written in graduate level writing and format, or you will be asked to re-write.
- Section one: Summary of the content of book.
- Section two: Application---Challenges, questions, disagreements with the content, including any ah-ha moments, what you learned about yourself and God, ideas that will be useful for future ministry.
