Greetings Everyone!

First, I regret not having the entire syllabus posted. I hope to do that in early January.

The tutorial is only for 1 hour's credit, so the work you'll be doing will be minimal, by comparison with other classes.

The theme is "The Life of Prayer." We will walk around the notion of "praying without ceasing" to see how we can cultivate a life of prayer, not merely times of prayer (although they are surely included).

We will meet two Fridays: February 20th and April 30th each time at Canterbury Retreat Center. The nature of the class is conducive to a retreat-type setting. We will begin meeting at 1:00 pm each time and end around 6:30 pm.

Canterbury gives us free use of all their facilities, which is nice. The only condition we agree to is that each student will eat supper at Canterbury, for a charge of $13.00 each time.

Right now, perhaps the main thing you want to know are the textbooks for the class. Here they are...

Leonard Allen, The Contemporaries Meet the Classics
Henri Nouwen, The Only Necessary Thing

ISBN 1582292876
ISBN 0824518330

You should plan to have read them both PRIOR to February 20th, so that they can provide us with a kind of "common mind" from which to begin our sessions together.

Between now and February 20th, I will be back in touch with you as necessary---so that we can arrive at Canterbury "ready to go" and to have a great time in the Lord!

I look forward to seeing you.

Blessings!

Steve
