- I. Purpose: This course is an introduction to the development of Christianity from the Apostolic period to the Reformation. Emphasis is placed on the central historical figures and theological issues, with attention given to their importance for Christian ministry today. The importance of primary sources and the nature and effects of historical interpretation will be emphasized. Students will be encouraged to reflect upon their Christian vocation in the light of historical and theological currents of the Christian tradition.
- II. Objectives:
 1. Identify the major historical movements and figures in early church history.
 2. Acquire basic factual knowledge of the persons, places, events, and movements that shaped the history of the Church.
 3. To understand the evolution of Christian doctrine and to learn to discern between form and content.
 4. To view the present in the light of the prior beliefs and actions of the Christian community.
 5. Be able to articulate your own understanding of the key issues in church history with growing confidence.
- III. Welcome and Available Support.

IV. Course Assignments and Requirements

We will have three open book exams based on readings and lectures; regular class discussion; and a three to five page critical book review. The foundation for our class consists in mastering the assigned reading and lectures. To enhance classroom discussions, a question will be posted in the “discussion center” and you will be asked to respond (limited to 100 words) to the question and each other. This inter-action will occur during the second week of our two-week modules. Feel free to disagree and challenge each other. All I ask is that we respect each other and remember that we do not all come from identical Christian traditions. If for some rare reason, you are unable to take part in a discussion, please let me know in advance. I will circulate a style sheet with information on the book review. Your book will be chosen in consultation with the instructor.

V. Grading

75% of your grade will be based on the tests; 15% on the book review and 10% on class discussion.
