Of the 569 criminals accused by Captain Fazil Bey, as <sup>being</sup> responsible for the genocide of ~~the~~ Armenians in the Province of Mamuret-Ul-Aziz, only four have been tried and sentenced,

Dr. Behaeddin Shakir Bey, Sentenced to Death in Absentia
(escaped and found refuge in Berlin, Germany)

Nazim Bey of Resne, Sentenced to fifteen years at hard labor, in absentia,
(escaped and found refuge somewhere in Europe)

despite the fact that the judges themselves are convinced that Nazim is a principal criminal in these actions.

Two of the other criminals, Mehmed Nuri Bey, Deputy of Dersim and Ferid Bey, Superintendent of Public Education, who murdered hundreds of Armenians, but saved some for the service they could render, have been acquitted.

It was very easy for the Turkish Ministers, Senators and Deputies, to buy "certificates of innocent" <sup>provided by the American Mr. Riggs and sold by some Armenians</sup> and to present ~~these same certificates~~ <sup>them</sup> to the Court Martial for their acquittal.

~~of~~ TURKS CHARGED WITH THE MASSACRE (OF ARMENIANS)

SULEYMAN FAYIK PASHA, military commander of Kharpert from May 1915 until the <sup>during the interim</sup> end of February 1916. He was acting Governor-General of Kharpert <sup>when Sabit Bey</sup> was absent, <sup>period</sup> during August 1915 and November 1915.

He took an active part in the massacre of the Armenians and is responsible for the murder of 7,000 Armenian soldiers <sup>in</sup> ~~from~~ the labor battalion.

In May 1915, he ordered Armenian soldiers <sup>to be</sup> isolated from their respective regiments and <sup>re-</sup> assembled ~~them all~~ into labor battalions at Kharpert. By issuing a mobilization order, <sup>Pasha</sup> Suleyman increased the number of soldiers <sup>by</sup> to include <sup>ing</sup> young male Armenians between the ages 18-20 and older men between the ages 45-50. He called this group "AMELE TABURI", (Labor Battalion) and sent them to work in Abusi.

Many of them died of starvation.

In June of 1915, Suleyman ordered ~~the~~ Armenian soldiers brought to Mezre where he imprisoned them in the Red Palace (Kirmizi Konak), the ~~then~~ headquarters. From there, in groups of 50, 100 <sup>or</sup> ~~and~~ 150 and sometimes more, he sent them clandestinely, usually at night, to places previously designated as massacre sites ~~and had them~~ <sup>for</sup> slaughtered. He <sup>regrouped</sup> then divided the Armenian soldiers into battalions and sent them under <sup>a</sup> full escort of gendarmes and Turkish soldiers, to Diarbekir.

~~Once~~ arriving at the mountain pass ~~of~~ Devel Boynu (neck of the camel) or Gugen Boghazi, the Armenian soldiers were massacred by the gendarmes or Turkish soldiers <sup>who</sup> accompanying them, assisted by ~~the~~ gangs of bandits ~~who~~ <sup>awaited</sup> their arrival, <sup>in the gorge (défilés)</sup>

Suleyman sent the following ~~a~~ coded telegram (no. 33), dated 16 April 1915 to Mahmut Kiamil Pasha, Headquarters, Tortum <sup>cum</sup>, Third Ottoman Army:

"I have the honor to ~~submit~~ <sup>submit</sup> to your attention the report received from the Supervisory Agent, ~~from the~~ Labor Battalion, ~~in~~ this province

'Armenians from the labor battalion, escaped from their guards and joined ~~with~~ Armenian gangs. As they did not obey our orders to desist, weapons were used against them and the gangs. As a result, a great many were killed.

Despite efforts made by their escort <sup>and reinforcements sent by local</sup> to ~~keep order in the~~ <sup>restore</sup> authorities, caravan ~~of the~~ labor battalion, not all of the Armenian soldiers have been arrested, <sup>although</sup> ~~but~~ a detachment did pursue them.

In this turbulence, one Turkish soldier disappeared, three others were wounded and one piece of equipment was broken.

The supervisor of the caravan returned to his former location, believing that nothing further could be done, ~~about the situation.~~"

The above telegram was <sup>presented to</sup> ~~discussed before~~ the First Court Martial ~~(charged with the~~ obligation to try those responsible for the Armenian massacres), <sup>and discussed</sup>

Judge, General Mustafa Pasha subjected Suleyman to ~~a~~ cross examination and ~~came to the conclusion~~ <sup>ded</sup> that the telegram was inaccurate and the facts had been falsified, ~~and~~ that no insurrection could <sup>have</sup> ~~be~~ possible at Gugen Boghazi or Devel Boynu.

He denied the existence of Armenian gangs in that area and proved that Suleyman Pasha had premeditated the entire incident and organized the massacre of the caravan full of Armenian soldiers, re-<sup>structured</sup> organized into a labor battalion and sent towards Diarbekir.

There were 3,000 Armenian soldiers in the labor battalion at Mamuret-Ul-Aziz.

Judge Mustafa Pasha immediately ordered the arrest of Suleyman, and that he be tried before the same Court Martial, but Suleyman had been designated ~~Jur~~ Presiding Judge of the Court Martial at Broussa to try the designers of the plan to massacre the Armenians, and their accomplices, and as Suleyman had many to protect ~~him~~ in the hierarchy of the Turkish Government, the order given by Judge Mustafa, was never carried out.

It was by order of Suleyman, during the absence of Sabit Bey, that the Armenian physicians from the hospital at Kharpert, i.e. Dr. Haroutiyun (Ser Tabip), Dr. Chobanian, and ~~other~~ <sup>Some</sup> pharmacists were dismissed from their military positions and deported. Dr. Khachadour Manuelian, Dr. Sarkis Mounjian, Dr. Haroutiyun Vezneyan and approximately one hundred fifty (150) other (Armenian) intellectuals, either bribed Sabit Bey or became Moslems, thus managing to escape deportation. Suleyman sent them to Malatya and had them killed along the road.

Mr. Baghdasar Tashjian escaped, accepted the faith of Islam, and continued to serve in the Hospital at Kharpert under the name of Nejati.

In November 1915, Mahmud Kamil Pasha (Commander-in-Chief, Third Army) held an Assembly at Erzeroum with Valis, Mutesarifs and other civil and military officials: Muammer Bey, (Vali of Sivas), Tahsin Bey, (Vali of Erzeroum), Sabit Bey, (Vali of Kharpert) and Jemal Azmi Bey, (Vali of Trebizond). Their principal order of the day consisted of finding ways to bring Armenians, who had in one way or another managed to survive the massacres, out of their hiding places.

This time, Suleyman <sup>Pasha</sup> announced in the streets of Kharpert, that the deportation of Armenians had ceased; that the Sultan had pardoned all the Armenians and that they could freely work from this moment on. Many of the Armenians did leave their havens of refuge, but by the end of the week, they were all arrested, deported to Malatya and subsequently massacred. Ohannes Avakian, a professor of the Turkish language, successfully escaped.

Pasha

← Suleyman had the American Hospital surrounded and all ~~the~~ Armenians were arrested and killed.

Prior to deportation, <sup>many</sup> wealthy Armenians from Erzeroum, ~~had~~ deposited considerable sums of money at the Post Office with special instructions to ~~send them~~, <sup>transfer the funds</sup> in their respective names, to the Postes Restantes at Malatya. As soon as the women's caravan arrived at Kharpert (from Erzeroum), Suleyman <sup>Pasha</sup> obliged them to withdraw these sums of money <sup>of</sup> which he quickly confiscated, <sup>To the</sup> a substantial ~~part~~ <sup>part</sup> amounting to 8,000 Turkish Pounds ($280,000.)

After the Armistice was declared, Suleyman begged Armenians to give him certificates (of innocence), attesting to ~~the fact~~ that he was never involved in the massacres of the Armenians. The Assyrians from Kharpert furnished him <sup>with</sup> abundant certificates. He used them, just as did Mehmet <sup>d Bay</sup> and Ferid, <sup>Bay</sup> to obtain an acquittal from the Court Martial.

Another quotation from the pages of the Court Martial records bears the statement of the Military Commander of Kharpert, General Suleyman Fayik Pasha:

"Mahmut <sup>d</sup> Kamil Pasha, former Commander-in-Chief, Third Army, transmitted orders concerning the deportation and massacre (of the Armenians).

One of these orders was sent to the Cavalry Commander, Suleyman Bey<sup>zadeh</sup> Reshid in Kharpert, who carried them out unscrupulously.

"I <sup>have my</sup> ~~am~~ in the possession ~~of~~ all the telegrams sent by Mahmut <sup>d</sup> Kamil Pasha, ordering the massacre of <sup>every</sup> ~~all~~ Armenians."

This <sup>item</sup> ~~information~~ appeared in La Renaissance, No. 144, ~~of~~ Thursday, April 20, 1919.

In the same newspaper, the following <sup>notice</sup> ~~news~~ appears:

"Fayik Pasha is now Presiding Judge of the Court Martial at <sup>Broussa</sup> ~~Brouse~~".

And, as a final ending to this chapter, we quote the Turkish newspaper TASFIR-i EFKIAR, which appeared in La Renaissance, No. <sup>150</sup> ~~148~~, dated <sup>Saturday</sup> ~~Sunday~~, April 6, 1919:

May 31, 1919

He, (Ferid Pasha, Prime Minister), arrested a large number of individuals, only to release them later; therefore suggesting to the membership of the Entente the attitude, that among us, it is unnecessary to apply justice; all ~~that has been~~ <sup>we have</sup> done thus far ~~was~~ <sup>is</sup> merely to scatter some dust into the eyes of the Europeans and Americans, (to cloud their vision).

To complete the parody of the Turkish Court Martial, a few more quotations are hereunder cited, ~~which appear in~~ <sup>from</sup> their records:

A witness gave the following testimony:

'Avni Pasha, Military Commander, Province of Trebizond, was an eyewitness to the massacre of the Armenians. Why did he not present a report about the atrocities, ~~which took~~ <sup>taking</sup> place before his very eyes, to the Court Martial, as did Vehib Pasha?

No one doubts the ~~benevolent~~ <sup>no</sup> nature of the Cabinet, never-the-less, we ~~do not~~ find ~~any~~ <sup>no</sup> tangible ~~realizations~~ <sup>Conclusions</sup>; otherwise, ~~we~~ <sup>we</sup> would find the names of ~~the~~ thousands and thousands of officials (from the Turkish Government) who took part in the atrocities, ~~upon~~ the Court Martial dockets.

Has the government thought of making a list ~~x~~ of all officials, for example in Trebizond, since the events, ~~took~~ <sup>(massacre)</sup> place? Half of them could be witnesses and the other half, ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> accused.

If the Government, itself, has neglected to take this action, then I hope ~~we~~ the Court will take the initiative, because we must wash this great blood-stain from the forehead of the faith of Islam."

Armenian youth from the Vilayets of Trebizond, Sivas and Erzeroum, were marched through the Sanjak of Malatya to meet their death. <sup>For</sup> (As long as the deportations lasted, Reshid retained his <sup>position</sup> office as Mutesarif; he did nothing to protect the honor of the Government and the country, nor to hinder or punish those who dared deviate from a righteous path.

The pillaging of the deportees' caravans enroute through the region, rose to considerable proportions ~~and~~. Tremendous sums of money and other valuables were confiscated from these people. It is obvious that there was a total corruption of moral discipline on the part of the guards and ~~that~~ some officials, which <sup>further added to</sup> created a grave situation.

In particular, the incident concerning the caravan of deported Armenians from Erzeroum must be cited. Five hundred of the wealthiest industrial families were in the caravan. Upon their arrival at Malatya, Reshid, the commander of the local regiment, Hamdi Bey, and the Gendarmerie Commander, Abdullah Efendi, had the military barracks evacuated and ~~then~~ proceeded to <sup>incarcerate</sup> ~~lock~~ the men from the caravans ~~inside~~. They searched them ~~completely, in the barracks~~, removed ~~all~~ their money and other valuables. They ~~locked~~ <sup>sent</sup> the women <sup>to</sup> a nearby secondary school and ~~took away~~ <sup>and a few empty</sup> stores, <sup>of value that</sup> ~~from them~~ their money, jewelry and anything else they found. <sup>removed</sup>

Such behavior by high-ranking officials caused great consternation in the city and served as a bad example for the general citizenry. Indeed, until that time, caravans passing through Malatya, had been regarded as merely caravans full of displaced persons, and the officials, gendarmes and the commonfolk caused them no harm.

But this time, the populace, overcome with desire, began audaciously to loot the caravans. A large, emotionally charged crowd, from town, attacked the women in the caravan <sup>and</sup> <sup>109</sup> stripped them of everything they possessed. The officers, cited previously, did not <sup>take any restrictive measures</sup> stir from their places, nor did they, in any way, manifest their presence.

Similarly, caravans leaving from other localities, after a brief lay-over at Sivas, arrived safely at the now infamous barracks at Kotu-han, situated on the cross-roads of the boundaries between Sivas and Mamuret-ul-Aziz.

When they started to advance to the interior of Malatya, passing through ~~the town of~~ Hasan-Chelebi and Hekim-Han village, they were stopped at Akche-Dag, stripped of all their <sup>belongings</sup> possessions by their escorts, ~~the~~ gendarmes, and ~~the~~ soldiers from the outpost whom they <sup>encountered</sup> met along the road. Meanwhile, the Kurds from the Akche-dag<sup>e</sup> district, entrapped them between ~~Karx~~ Hekim-han and Akh-Punar, and incessantly attacked them for several days, taking ~~from them~~ all their money and valuables.

When the deportees' caravans arrived at the outpost of Kirk-Göz, located in the center of the Sanjak of Malatya, they were robbed of everything they might have had left and put back on the road. <sup>to exile</sup> The ~~previously mentioned~~ Mutesarif ~~gave an~~ ordered <sup>that a</sup> Commission of officials <sup>be created</sup> from ~~the towns of~~ Hasan-Chelebi and Hekim-han for the express purpose of looting and ~~acquiring~~ acquiring all the possessions and money belonging to the people on the <sup>se</sup> caravans ~~passing through~~.

For this reason many abuses were committed and illegal <sup>profits were</sup> gains realized throughout the district. Insecurity reigned everywhere--to such a degree that without realizing it, the Kurds only recently attacked Army cannons rumbling along the road to Akche-Dag<sup>k</sup>.

All this was the result of ~~the~~ actions taken by ~~the~~ greedy government officials who publicly carried out their avaricious tactics against the Armenian people, thus establishing <sup>a</sup> ~~the~~ precedent for later behavior.

Further, Reshid entrusted Kecheri ~~Vehab~~<sup>Vehab</sup>, a man ~~well-known~~<sup>noted</sup> for his immorality and excessive abuses, with the task of opening a water canal. He paid no heed to the advice of honest and well-intentioned men, but sustained Vehab in his post, ~~without taking into consideration~~<sup>disregarding the fact</sup> that he was corrupt. He ordered that certificates issued by Vehab to Armenians, be accepted, verifying that these people did, in fact, work on construction gangs and were to be exempt from deportation. For this certificate, Vehab received from ten to forty Turkish Pounds ($350.-$1,400.) from each Armenian, according to their position, thus making for himself, a considerable amount of money. ~~However,~~<sup>T</sup> the deportation of ~~the~~ Armenians from Malatya, ~~which was~~ supposed to have been effected in ten days, dragged on for months and gave occasion for the rise of all kinds of exploitation.

When the caravan, containing three hundred Armenian families departed from Erzeroum, of whom at least one half possessed at ~~minimum,~~<sup>the bare</sup> a few thousand <sup>Turkish</sup> pounds each, arrived safely at Malatya, Reshid designated Mehmet, Kaymakam of Husni-Mansur, and son of the tyrant Kurd Bedri, as ~~the~~ leader of the caravan. While on the road, their cohorts took the remaining money and possessions ~~of~~<sup>from</sup> the deportees. The thievery was so extensive that the Penal Judge was forced to intervene and personally went to the scene of the crime, thus safeguarding a portion of the goods which he later turned over to the care of the Commission for Abandoned Goods. ii

<sup>of</sup> the money and possessions ~~that were~~ taken from the ~~Deportees'~~ caravan. But just at the ~~time~~ moment that this transaction was taking place, the Kaymakam received information that Reshid had been discharged from public office, whereupon he asked <sup>that</sup> for the ~~return of the money~~<sup>be returned</sup> and the matter was amiably resolved.

<sup>Taken place</sup> The Penal Judge was not concerned with the thousands of murders that had ~~been committed~~. His ~~only~~ interest was ~~that of~~ limited to the amount of goods and possessions of the Armenians which he ~~felt~~<sup>believed</sup> belonged rightfully to the Government, and the Union and Progress Party.

Although officials were forbidden from participating in public auction sales, by ministerial orders, Reshid, under an assumed name, attended the public auction sale ~~at~~ of Abandoned Goods at Malatya, and bought many items on credit. <sup>Although</sup> ~~He~~ later settled his debts, ~~however~~ the fact remains that his misconduct encouraged other officials to also bid for various items at the auction, through similar deception. Thus they amassed ~~for themselves~~ huge quantities of materials and possessions formerly belonging to the Armenians and acquired great <sup>personal</sup> wealth.

A few days after the Armenians had been deported from Malatya, Reshid was informed that seals affixed to the doors of some of the stores <sup>owned by the</sup> ~~belonging to the~~ Armenians, had been removed by Veli, a man who was mentally unbalanced. However, Reshid did not stir, nor did he take any measures whatsoever to <sup>try and discover</sup> ~~find out~~ who broke the seals or how it had <sup>happened</sup> ~~been effected~~.

Hamdi Efendi, Gendarmerie Commander and Abdullah Efendi, Police Commissioner, accepted a bribe of 300 Turkish Pounds ($10,500.) from Garabed Hampartzumian, a prominent Armenian from Malatya, under the pretext that they would exempt him from deportation. None-the-less, Mr. Hampartzoumian was deported.

Thousands of Turkish Pounds were openly taken from the deportees in the caravans, but only 62,000 Piastres ($21,700.) was deposited in the State Treasury; and no record was <sup>maintained</sup> ~~kept~~ to indicate the names of ~~the~~ persons from whom the money or jewelry were taken, nor in what quantities.

Everything points to the fact that these people only sought their personal interests, and that they betrayed the confidence placed in them by the Government what rightfully belonged to and the Union and Progress Party, in siphoning off ~~the rights of~~ the people and the State Treasury.

While it is true that the said Mutesarif has been discharged from ~~his~~ public office shortly after these disclosures were made, as all the documents, evidence and information we have been able to gather do substantiate, nevertheless, the general condition of the district has become ~~so~~ <sup>so</sup> ~~irregular~~ <sup>Confused</sup>, and peace so disturbed, that the new Mutesarif, Husein Sirri Bey, will have to expend a great deal of effort and time to bring about a state of relative normalcy.

Since their accomplices are subsequently to be turned over to the Court Martial for criminal proceedings, I request you ~~to~~ authorize me to also have Reshid ~~Bey~~ and Mehmed Bey<sub>s</sub> brought before the Court Martial with their complete files.

Look the sum of Reshid Bey (number 42), caused the massacre of thousands of Armenians, and ~~first stealing~~ $175,000. from them; yet the Minister of Internal Affairs never authorized the President of the Inquiry Commission to prosecute him by ~~the~~ Court Martial.

The President of the Inquiry Commission never made reference to the slaughter of thousands of Armenians who were killed by orders from Reshid and others previously mentioned. He only ~~brought~~ called attention to the pillage and plunder of ~~the~~ goods and possessions belonging to the Armenians which was to be surrendered to the Government and the Union and Progress Party.

He did not ~~make~~ reference to the massacre because he ~~was~~ was not authorized to do so by the Minister of Internal Affairs, upon whose orders ~~he~~ he was sent to initiate and conduct the inquiry.

Mehmed Efendi (number 75), annihilated thousands of Armenians and took ~~for himself~~ $350,000, yet ~~he~~ was never brought to trial before the Court Martial.

Abdallah Efendi (number 52) killed 1,200 Armenians in the courtyard of the Governorate at Malatya and choked the Armenian Catholic Bishop of Malatya to death; yet he too, was never prosecuted before the Court Martial.

Hamdi Efendi (number 77), presided over the axe-slaughter ~~at In-Dereh~~ of two hundred ten (210) Armenians at In-Dereh, and annihilated thousands of Armenians but has not been brought to trial before the Court Martial.

X

For the first time also, we present to the academic community the report of the Turkish Inquiry Commission concerning the thievery committed by Edhem Kadri Bey, Kaymakam of Behesni.

APPENDIX B

SUBLIME PORTE

MINISTER OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

ACCOUNTING OFFICE

PLACE OF DISPATCH: DIARBEKIR

DATE OF DISPATCH: December 31, 1915, 5:15 A.M.

DATE OF RECEIPT: December 31, 1915, 6:30 A.M.

Considering that:

Edhem Kadri Bey, Kaymakam, ~~of the~~ Kaza of Behesni, Sanjak, ~~of~~ Malatya, Vilayet, ~~of~~ Mamuret-Ul-Aziz, in his capacity as President of the Commission for Abandoned Goods, has caused critical losses in the administration of goods abandoned by the Armenians and realized large personal gains. In particular, he was content to ~~have~~ sealed only eight to ten houses out of a possible four hundred, and approximately ten stores from a possible one hundred twenty-eight, ~~that were~~ left behind by ~~the~~ Armenians <sup>reported</sup> from the Kaza. He did not exercise any authority over these properties.

Although government officials previously advised him that the guards were not trustworthy, he nevertheless kept them in office. As a result, the Abandoned Goods have been pilfered and heavy losses have been incurred.

The required inventory list of ~~the~~ Abandoned Goods has not been kept accurately. Houses and stores, as well as the Church, which were to have been sealed ~~up~~, have ~~since~~ been converted into warehouses to store merchandise ~~that has been~~ sold upon request.

Contrary to instructions contained in telegrams received from the Minister of Internal Affairs forbidding officials from taking part in auction sales, he (Edhem) sanctioned most of the officials to buy large quantities of merchandise. He personally took part in the sales too.

He never received either an order or an authorization to allow officials and certain other individuals to buy merchandise on credit. Despite this fact, merchandise estimated at the value of 13,232 Piastres ($4,631.20) has been purchased on credit. This amount has not been paid ~~even~~ though one month has elapsed, ~~as well as~~ <sup>now have</sup> other past-due accounts. <sup>been paid.</sup>

During these auctions, public <sup>interest</sup> as well as that of the Treasury, has been sorely neglected. Auctioneers, unable to sell certain quantities of merchandise, simply <sup>presented</sup> ~~gave~~ valuable goods to a few officials, while on the other hand, they returned sums paid in advance, to other buyers.

He (Edhem) permitted still others, without ~~any~~ judicial decree, to take away 290 livestock animals belonging to the Armenians, <sup>that</sup> ~~which~~ had been entered ~~upon~~ an inventory <sup>listing</sup> recorded by the authorities on behalf of the Finance Department, stating that they belonged to the Moslem population. He carted off 400 animals belonging to ~~the~~ Armenian deportees.

For his <sup>own</sup> home, he appropriated, without payment, wood, hay and pieces of household furniture <sup>that</sup> ~~which~~ had officially been sealed ~~and~~ <sup>was</sup> belonged to an Armenian girl who later ~~became~~ became the wife of Abdul Selam, <sup>a</sup> servant of the Court of Justice.

He selected as much of the harvest of Abandoned Goods as he needed for his animals instead of selling it at auction. Moreover, he appropriated a large package of shawls made in Gurun, a reddish-brown mare and furniture from the house of one of the wealthiest Armenian families in Behesni.

He profited ~~by~~ meddling in affairs of the Armenians.

In general, during the past months, from the <sup>beginning</sup> ~~date~~ of Armenian deportation to <sup>the</sup> the time of our present inquiry, he has taken no steps to prevent losses in the sale of Abandoned Goods, according to <sup>an</sup> ~~an~~ investigation ~~we~~ made.

All the above-mentioned facts support evidence that the above named Kaymakam has abused his office ~~for~~ <sup>he has the position</sup> as long as held ~~the position.~~ <sup>the</sup>

Since all who took part in the above mentioned affairs shall be tried by Court Martial, I request you authorize me to bring this traitor before the Court Martial.

December 30, 1915

Mazhar, President of the Inquiry Commission

Kaymakam Edhem Kadri Bey was never tried before the Court Martial because the Minister<sup>s</sup> of Internal Affairs and ~~the Minister of Justice~~ never gave <sup>an</sup> ~~the~~ authorization to the President of the ~~Q~~ Inquiry Commission to do so; <sup>Actually</sup> ~~for primarily~~, the Kaymakam acted in accordance with orders and instructions received from <sup>them</sup> ~~both the Ministers~~.

In the long report previously presented, one can find no reference to the massacres because the Inquiry Commission was authorized merely to investigate and prosecute abuses committed <sup>garding</sup> ~~relative to~~ Abandoned Goods.

But, Captain Fazil Bey, ~~a~~ <sup>by Edhem</sup> member of the Malatya Court Martial, reveals some of the crimes ~~he committed~~ (number 76)

"He had five thousand (5,000) Armenians killed and <sup>their bodies</sup> /thrown into wells.

He personally killed Artin Efendi, the accountant.

He plundered the possessions of the Armenians and robbed the warehouses ~~of~~ Abandoned Goods were stored. where

He is presently at Aintab, his native town, where <sup>he</sup> is busily engaged in commercial enterprises."

And, the Court Martial of Constantinople, ~~which was~~ given the authority to try the masterminds and accomplices of the massacre (Genocide), made no attempt to arrest this merchant from Aintab nor to disturb his leisure, although ~~they had~~ his files <sup>were</sup> in their possessions.

This report ~~is~~ may be found in the Court Martial files and in the Dossier of Edhem Kadri Bey.
