

Mini library for Hembusan Kasih Sayang Charity House

Pekan, 10th August – Academic Management Division (BPA) has setting up mini library at Hembusan Kasih Sayang Charity House, located in Taman Guru Kuantan, Pahang. This is BPA community service responsibility (CSR) project by donating reading materials to instill reading habits among the orphans who seek shelter at this charity house.

According to BPA Deputy Registrar, Arman A. Rahim, they manage to collect the reading materials, book rack and some cash from UMP staff, students and from the publics despite the time constraints they are facing in making this project a success.

“This volunteerism project aiming not only to inculcate humanity value along the BPA staff but also to produce a personnel, especially the supporting staff, that could lead, plan and execute program as well as working together and actively took part in group project”, he added.

As for Hembusan Kasih Sayang Charity House Secretary, Ahmad Roduan Siwi feels very grateful and thankful to UMP for organizing this program to share the joy and happiness with the orphans.

Apart from that, he wish that UMP could have an intensive tuition class for the orphans to improve on their academics and for them to do well in their examinations.

BPA Assistant Administrative, Mohd Azmi Abd Razak said, taking the lead for this project has teaches him and the team member skills on leadership, planning and communication as well as making decision skills besides instilling teamwork spirit among the members. They also planning for 'Back to School' Program that is scheduled to be done at the end of 2017.
