DR. ROBERT HASSENGER TO VISIT OUR CAMPUS! TUESDAY JANUARY 19, 1971

Dr. Robert Hassenger, editor of Sociological Analysis will be on campus Tuesday January 19th. The much-published sociologist will meet with classes at 10 and 2. Dr. Hassenger will be having lunch with interested students and faculty in the cafeteria before his main address at 1:00 in Room 124. Informal discussions will be held at 2:30 in the faculty lounge; refreshments will be served.

A WORD FROM THE ADMINISTRATION: WEATHER OR NOT---WE'RE OPEN

Last week's inclement weather brings to mind that OSU-Lima campus abides by the mailman's motto: "Neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow.....will cancel classes." Unless the most unusual weather conditions prevail, OSU-Lima will be open for all students who can make their classes. Keep this in mind and it will save your time and lengthen the life of the campus switchboard, use your own judgment. Announcements of canceled classes will be made over the various radio stations in our area.

NASA EXHIBIT TO VISIT LIMA-OSU

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration exhibit will be here in the lobby of the Student Activities Building Thursday and Friday, January 21 and 22. The exhibit will contain information regarding representative work in all fields of the U.S. Space Program-Manned Space Flight: Communications, Advanced Research and Technology, Tracking, Data, and Space Sciences.

Theatre Productions are coming to Lima-OSU in March. Tryouts will be held soon for the plays: The Lesson and The Apollo of Bellac.

Sign up now for the Talent Show being sponsored by the Choir February 4, 1971. See Mrs. Collums for more information.

PRISONER will be shown Thursday in the Auditorium.

March 11, 1971 will be the date of a photography exhibit here. All photographers on this campus should be thinking and planning for this event.
