The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio Mining Journal

Title:	Minutes of Sixth Annual Meeting
Creators:	Weitzell, R. S.
Issue Date:	15-Feb-1887
Citation:	Ohio Mining Journal, vol. 5, no. 2 (February 15, 1887), 3-5.
URI:	http://hdl.handle.net/1811/32480
Appears in Collections: Ohio Mining Journal: Volume 5, no. 2 (February 15, 1887)

TME OMIO MINING JOURNA

FEBRUARY 15, 1887.

MINUTES OF SIXTH ANNUAL MEETING.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13, 1886. The Sixth Annual Meeting of the Institute met in the office of Chief Inspector of Mines and was called to order by the President at 7:30 p. m.

The Secretary called the roll and read the minutes of Jackson meet- the ballance of the evening. ing, which, on motion, were amended so as to show that Sec. 1, Art. 9, of Constitution, was amended by ommitting all after the word "present."

Treasurer W. H. Jennings presented his report which was adopted.

Secretary's report was, on motion, received and filed.

The President read his annual address, giving a concise statement of the affairs of the Institute.

The applications of T. E. Knauss and John Thompson for membership, properly filed and vouched for, were presented, and on motion, the Secretary cast the vote of the Institute in favor of their election.

The programme was then taken up, and a paper on Mine Furnace in a room belonging to State Audi-Ventilation was read by the author, tor department. The papers of John Baillie, of Shawnee, O., and briefly discussed by Messrs. Edward Orton, Jr., Ezra D. Shreve and others.

At 8:30 the President was obliged to retire to meet an important business engagement and Vice President Shreve occupied the chair

Anthony Howells not being present with his paper, it was, of passed, and necessity William Smurthwaite's read by W. H. Jennings in the absence of the author, and discussed by Cobb, Prof. Orton, R. M. Hazeltine, Baillie, Edward Orton, Jr., and Mitchell. Prof. Orton then gave a short talk instead of a formal paper on the subject assigned him in the programme.

The thanks of the Institue was, on motion, tended Prof. Orton and others presenting papers.

Meeting adjourned at 10 p.m.

JANUARY 14, 1886.

The Institute convened at 10 a.m.

ell, Hemingway were passed, and at McMillen positively declined a rethe request of the President, sug- election, and on motion another gested by some of the members, the ballot was taken resulting: Hazelsubject of Exhaustive Mining was tine, 12; Jennings, 6; Weitzell, 1. taken up by W. H. Jennings, who in the course of his remarks, refer- Ohio Society of Surveyors and red to the map of the Morris Coal Civil Engineers, was presented to Co., at Sand Run, which was on ex- the Institute, and extended to it an hibition. Mr. Jennings also sub- invitation to visit the Columbus mitted some statistics of the amount Sewer Pipe Works this afternoon in of coal taken from this mine, as company with the Ohio Society of determined by monthly measure- Surveyors and Civil Engineers. ments of the mine by H. B. VanAtta, Mr. T. E. Knauss also extended an his assistant engineer, and the invitation to the Institute to visit weights of the coal company, and the works of P. Hayden & Son, corthe weights of the railway company, ner Broadway and Scioto streets, which showed a remarkable close- and inspect some ventilating fans ness in the results obtained from constructed by them. these three sources. The subject was further discussed by Messrs. ballot for Vice President taken. Cobb, Hazeltine, VanAtta, Edward which resulted as follows: Cham-Orton, Jr., Middleton, Morris and berlain, 6; McMillen, 3; Jennings, others.

Moved that the Chair appoint a committee to put in nomination resulted as follows: Weitzell, 16; officers for the ensuing year. Be- Edward Orton, Jr., 1; W. B. Hanfore being put W. H. Jennings len, 1. suggested an informal ballot be taken to test the preferences of the above the applications of A. J. members, the motion upon being Norton, of Bellaire and William J. put was lost. An informal ballot, Hester, of Cambridge, were presentas suggested by Mr. Jennings, was ed and the Secretary instructed to then on motion ordered.

Jr., George B. Parmelee and W. J. done. McManigal, properly filed and vouched for, were presented and the Treasurer also, and there being no Secretary instructed by motion to constitutional objections, the mocast the vote for the Institute in tion was carried. favor of their election, which he at once did.

ton, Jr., and John Baillie as tellers Millen and Thomas Middleton were on the informal ballot, which was suggested. then proceeded with. For President the result was :

Howells, Roy, Chamberlain, Mitch- nings, 3; R. S. Weitzell, 2. Mr.

President J. B. Strawn, of the President ordered the informal 10.

The informal ballot for Secretary

Pending the counting of the cast the vote of the Institute in The applications of Austin King, favor of their election which was

Moved that the Secretary be made

For members of the Executive Committee, Edward Orton, Jr., President appointed Edward Or- Thomas B. Bancroft, Emerson Mc-

On motion the election of officers E. McMillen, for the ensuing year was proceed-8; R. M. Hazeltine, 6; W. H. Jen- ed with and resulted as follows:

۰.

President, R. M. Hazeltine, Youngs- tion, the place of holding the Sumtown, O.; Vice President, W. H. mer Meeting was informally dis-Jennings, Columbus, O.; Secretary cussed and Cambridge suggested by and Treasurer, R. S. Weitzell, Starr, William J. Hester, who set forth O.; Executive Committee, T. B. the advantages of the location and Bancroft, Columbus, O., Edward cordially invited the Inititute to Orton, Jr., Buchtel, O., Emerson come and sojourn with them and McMillen, Columbus, O.

Secretary for services, as suggested Jr., J. C. Allen and Dawson. and recommended by the President, vote, which was authorized motion of Mr. Cobb, the Secretary was to be allowed $10 per quarter for services.

The Institute then adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting came to order again B. Collier, Columbus, O. at 2 p. m., and a paper by J. L. . Mitchell was read by the author, the member of the Board of Puband discussed by him, J. C. Allen lishers and Edward Orton as the and others, and a vote of thanks member from the Executive Comtendered Mr. Mitchell for his paper. Business was suspended at the suggestion of Mr. Hester to permit Mr. Beckman to exhibit his engineering instruments. Andrew Roy's paper was then read by the President and discussed by Cobb, Bancroft, Shreve and Morris, and a vote of thanks tendered Mr. Roy for the paper.

While awaiting the action of the committee to amend the constituenjoy their hospitality. Steuben-The matter of compensating the ville was suggested by Austin King, by was taken up and discussed, and on motion, resulted in Cambridge receiving 2 and Steubenville 10 votes.

> The following persons were then elected to membership, they having properly filled the blanks and were duly vouched for: W. H. Gaffney and P. H. Doyle, Logan, O., and R.

> R. M. Hazeltine was elected as mittee.

> The following persons were tendered votes of thanks: Mr. Bancroft, for courtesies; Mr. Keiswetter, for use of room in which to meet, and retiring President McMillen for dignified, gentlemanly his and courteous manners as presiding officer.

Institute then adjourned.

R. S. WEITZELL, Sec'y.