Mary Sarotte holds a joint appointment as professor of history and professor of international relations at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

Her most recent book, 1989, appeared with Princeton University Press on the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall. In addition to receiving the DAAD Prize for Distinguished Scholarship in German and European Studies, 1989 is also the first book to become the winner of both SHAFR's Ferrell Prize, awarded to the best book on U.S. foreign policy, and AAASS' Shulman Prize, awarded to the best book on Communist foreign policy (co-winner). 1989 was favorably reviewed in The New York Times Book Review, The New York Review of Books, Foreign Affairs, which called 1989 a new "classic," and the Financial Times, which selected it as one of the "Books of the Year."

Mary received her AB from Harvard and her PhD in History from Yale. She has subsequently been a White House Fellow and a member of the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton. She is now a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and on leave at Harvard University's Center for European Studies.
