QUEENSLAND AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

NWB/JMR

Lawes, Q.4345

23rd June, 1976.

Dear Col. Murray,

I am very pleased to be able to inform you that the College Council at its meeting held last Friday, acting on a recommendation from one of its Committees, approved that the College Library Building be named "The J.K. Murray Library". The Council agreed that this might be a well earned recognition of your contributions to the development of the College and to the promotion of agricultural education in Queensland.

An invitation has been extended to the Honourable the Minister for Education and Cultural Activities to perform the official naming and opening at a date to be determined. In this connection he has been advised that the College Council believes that it would be appropriate to associate the function with the "Open" programme to be offered over the two days Friday and Saturday the 24th and 25th September next. A series of displays will be arranged for the benefit of groups of secondary school pupils and for members of the public, including representatives of organisations and industries in which graduates from the College may expect to find employment. It is probable that general arrangements for these days will be along the lines of the successful "Open" days arranged by the C.S.I.R.O. in connection with the Jubilee Celebrations.

I will keep you informed of developments.

With kind regards to you both,

Yours sincerely,

N.W. Briton
