Research 4Justice

Research4Justice is a new central online resource for justice system practitioners & researchers to support research, advance practice & deliver justice to society.

Aims of Research4Justice:

- Provide a free toolkit & database of undergraduate & postgraduate student research outputs
- Facilitate academia-industry collaboration & networking
- Support R&D across justice system disciplines
- Share standardised approaches
- Increase availability of robust data for use in court
- Build larger, statistically valid datasets to support use in casework evaluation & interpretation
- Minimise research repetition

Student Research Database

Benefits:

- Rapid access to latest unpublished research across the world
- Variety of outputs including posters, presentations & thesis
- Searchable, multidisciplinary content
- Contact details for institutions & researchers
- Preserved, citable content with DOI

Justice Toolkit

- Online resources for justice-related research

How can Research4Justice work for you?

Come back between conference sessions & Rachel will hold Q&A with a live demonstration.

Please pick up a card & leave us with your details to be updated as soon as the repository goes live.
