

IALL PROGRAM AT THE AECT CONVENTION IN DALLAS, TX.
JANUARY 20-24, 1984

The following IALL presentations have been submitted for the 1984 AECT convention in Dallas. For times and locations check the AECT convention.

Presentation #1

TITLE: Matching Computer Technology and Foreign Language Skills

Presenter(s):

Sue Otto
Associate Director
Language Media Center
University of Iowa
Schaeffer Hall 125
Iowa City, IA 52242
(319) 353-3190

James Pusack
Associate Professor & Chair,
Department of German
University of Iowa
Schaeffer Hall 103
Iowa City, IA 52242
(319) 353-4937

Description: A systematic overview will be presented of the way various computer-based modes may be applied to the basic skill areas of language teaching including vocabulary, pronunciation, speaking, listening, reading, writing, grammar, and culture. Currently available materials and long term potential will be discussed. Videotape and microcomputer examples will be demonstrated. Attention will also be focused on curriculum development. University of Iowa projects in grammar CAI, reading comprehension, image retrieval via videodisc, and international computer controlled video will be highlighted.

Presentation #2

TITLE: Media Resource Center Management in Higher Education:
New Organizations for the times

Presenter(s):

Dr. Robin E. Lawrason, Director
Media Learning Center
Temple University
Humanities HL 21
Philadelphia, PA 19122
(215) 787-8265

Martha R. Richardson, Director
Learning Lab
Harvard University
Boylston Hall G-3
Cambridge, MA 02138
(617) 495-9402

Description: This session will review various new models of media organization based on recent re-organization at several institutions. Also discussed will be the problems, issues, and means of alleviating the potential conflicts between philosophies, missions, training, and the roles of the different professionals involved.

Presentation #3

TITLE: Human Perspectives in Learning Lab Design and Use: The Manufacturers Respond

Presenter: Dr. Reed Gilgen, Director
 Laboratory for Recorded Instruction
 University of Wisconsin
 Madison, WI 53706
 (608) 262-1408

Description: This session will feature a dialogue between lab users and manufacturers. The users will be encouraged to ask the manufacturers about resources available to assist in the design, use, and promotion of learning labs. The manufacturers will be given the opportunity to respond on how they are best able to assist potential users. Questions should focus on human perspectives rather than technical specifications.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR CONFERENCE PROGRAMS

Each year IALL sponsors presentations in conjunction with, but not limited to, the three major professional conferences: ACTFL, AECT, and the Northeast Conference. Papers on topics of interest to Learning Lab directors, as well as papers on the overall topic of mediated language instruction are being solicited for presentation at any appropriate professional conferences. Many IALL members are engaged in numerous projects that would be of interest to other media professionals. Please support your organization as well as your own professional growth by sharing your experience with your colleagues. The following schedule gives the dates for submission of proposals to two major conferences:

Association of College Teachers of Foreign Languages
Chicago, IL
November 22-24, 1984
Proposal deadline: January 10, 1984

Association for Educational Communications and Technology
(AECT)
Anaheim, CA
January 25-27, 1984
Proposal deadline: May 1, 1984

Please send proposals to:

Dr. Robin Lawrason, Director
Media Learning Center
Humanities Building HL-21
Temple University
Philadelphia, PA 19122
215-787-8625
