

Election Results

Trisha Dvorak
University of Washington

The IALL Election Committee is pleased to announce the results of the recent balloting. Read Gilgen (University of Wisconsin) will become President-Elect, while Chris Higgins (University of Maryland) will join the Board as Programs Director. Patty Lamb (University of California—Santa Barbara) has been elected Secretary/Parliamentarian. The IALL Journal Board joins all of IALL in welcoming these new leaders and extending thanks to our executive officers whose terms in office are concluding.

Additionally, the proposal to change the name of the organization passed. The new name is: IALL (International Association for Language Learning Technology). ■